will be there soon, and that we shall be happy together. dont disappoint me about the bonnet; I shall be entirely destitute if you do. Susan is well & rejoicing in the idea of seeing dear Grand Mother, and Aunt Abby - Mr Johnson has procured me a very comfortable boarding place - Mr & Mrs King, are among the Boarders, they are good people, and that is all I wish.

I cannot but think we shall meet in Albany; the journey will I hope be of service to me, as I am just recovering from an attack upon my Lungs, which has left me with a sad Cough - My best love to Aunt Clarkson, James & Mary Ann - the latter has a sweet, simple taste, and will I know assist you in choosing my Hat. Dear Mother I can hardly realize that we may meet so soon, praying that nothing may occur to prevent it; I subscribe myself in great haste your affectionate Child

Susan P. Clark

I am in the midst of packing up, which must apologize for all inaccuracies and the brevity of my letter.
