For a better way to take care of your nest egg talk to the people at Chase Manhattan

Incongruous as it may seem, many otherwise well-organized people of means carry their investment problems with them wherever they go.

If you're so inclined, just stop and think.

Why be bothered with endless nest egg matters when you can delegate professionals?

Chase Manhattan's Personal Trust

Department will right now relieve you of such recurring details as stock rights and record keeping, call dates and coupons.

And long-experienced nest egg specialists will, at your request, act as your Executor and Trustee, advise you on your investments, or plan your estate with you and your lawyer.

Simply telephone HAnover 2-6000, or write to the Personal Trust Department at New York 15, New York.

Telephone service has never been so fast, convenient and dependable as it is today

...and it's going to be better!

Two words—growth and change—describe major trends in the Bell telephone business. There is more of every kind of service for more people. And more and more new things are coming along all the time.

Direct Distance Dialing is bringing a new era of speed and convenience in Long Distance calling.

Nearly 24,000,000 customers can now dial Long Distance calls direct to 39,000,000 telephone numbers in the United States and Canada.

New underseas cables make it easy to talk across oceans as clearly as a call across town.

An entirely new era in communications for business is being opened up by the Bell System's Data-Phone service. It enables electronic business machines to "talk" to each other over regular telephone lines. Some day there may be more of those calls than calls between people.

Those are some of the new services. Just a few of the other newer things are shown on the right.

There's much more to come . . . from research and development, from the investment of millions of dollars of new capital, and from the Bell System's never-ending desire to give you the best and the most telephone service in the world.

CALL DIRECTOR

With the touch of a button you can connect other office telephones, set up interoffice conference calls, add other office extensions to incoming calls. Two models. 18 and 30 push buttons. Many thousands already in service.

THE PRINCESS

It's little! It's lovely! It lights! A new compact extension telephone for any room in the house. A tremendous success all over the country. Available in white, beige, pink, blue and turquoise.

BELLBOY SERVICE

One of the newest Bell System services. A person away from the telephone hears a tone signal (sent from the telephone exchange) on a pocket radio receiver. Alerts him to call his home or office to get a message. Now available in 14 major cities.

HOME INTERPHONE

Lets you call any other room in the house that has a phone. Or switch outside calls to another phone. Also lets you answer the door from any phone. Microphone in telephone and speaker on wall beside each telephone enable person in other room to talk back without lifting receiver. Will be available nationally next year.

Robert Johnson, Missile and Space Systems Chief Engineer, reviews results of a THOR-boosted 5000 mile flight with Donald W. Douglas, Jr., president of Douglas

Missile is space veteran at the age of three

The Air Force THOR, built by Douglas and three associate prime contractors, shows how well a down-to-earth approach to outer space can work. Since its first shoot in 1957, it has been the booster for programs like Pioneer, Discoverer, Explorer, Transit, and Delta and has launched more than 87% of all successful U.S. space satellites.

Initial planning for THOR included volume production tooling, ground handling equipment and operational systems. This typical Douglas approach made the giant IRBM available in quantity in record time, and THOR has performed with such reliability that it has truly become the workhorse of the space age.

Douglas is now seeking qualified engineers, physicists, chemists and mathematicians for programs like ZEUS, DELTA, SKYBOLT, GENIE, ANIP, SATURN, MISSILEER and others far into the future. ### BOB JENKINS—basketball ace finds sports help him score high in insurance!

Sports lover Bob Jenkins has devoted a lot of his time and energy to basketball. After playing the game at college, he became a high school coach—still plays in independent games from time to time.

Bob gives credit to sports for many contacts that have helped him compile a notable record as a New York Life Agent. Bob has already found out for himself that his future career and earnings are limited only by his own ambition and industry. On the basis of his performance to date, Bob can look forward to many satisfying and profitable years.

The Diaries of Andrew D. White

Edited by ROBERT MORRIS OGDEN
Late Professor of Psychology, Cornell University Distributed by Cornell University Press for the Cornell University Library

"It is the essentially homespun career of an upstate New Yorker that is revealed in these diaries. . . ." So wrote Professor Ogden in his preface to this book—a selection of excerpts from the diaries which Andrew D. White kept so faithfully for so many years.

The diaries, discovered in the University Library in 1951, were White's memoranda rather than a record of his thoughts. Professor Ogden summarizes them by saying that "they reveal a personality of high integrity and quiet dignity, lacking any trace of meanness. One learns from these records how much Cornell really owes her first president." 512 pages, $6.00

By CARL L. BECKER

"The book is written with the lively grace that marks all of Professor Becker's work and illuminated with shafts of humor. The author's thorough investigation has brought to light new and valuable material on the history of Cornell. But perhaps the greatest merit of the book lies in the penetrating judgment with which events and persons are appraised. The review of the Morrill Act and the New York land grant and the characterizations of Ezra Cornell and Andrew D. White command unqualified admiration."

Computer "Thinks" For Many

LIGHTS BLAZE many a night in Rand Hall at East Avenue & University Avenue, near Triphammer Bridge. The former Sibley machine & pattern shop has its first floor transformed to the University Computing Center. Here are glassed-in offices and in its own air-conditioned room, a sleek and awesome monster of many units called the Burroughs 220 Data Processing System. It serves the whole University, sometimes twenty-four hours a day.

The computer is used by students and Faculty members of more than fifty Departments. Capable of feats such as multiplying two ten-digit numbers in .002 seconds, the Burroughs 220 has ten times the speed of the IBM 650 computer which it replaced. It was bought for half its list price of $601,000 and installed for $100,000. The National Science Foundation contributed $250,000 towards its purchase; the rest is being paid from University funds. Operating cost of $150 an hour is covered by income from sponsored research and this pays for unsponsored University use of the computer.

Aids Teaching & Research

Richard C. Lesser, Director of the Computing Center, says it is useful in three areas. First is the teaching aspect. With the computer functioning as the "slide rule of today," it is important to expose students to it and familiarize them with its uses. "Scarcely a facet of our society today is not touched by computing and data processing systems," he says, "and it is foreseeable that in the near future all engineers will have had courses in computing." The second use is sponsored research, which includes Federal & State governments, National Science Foundation, navy and air force grants. Other users are the Cooperative Grange League Federation and Wells College. Many former customers, including Syracuse & Rochester universities, have now bought their own systems. University departments with specific grants carry on research programs at the Center. The third use is for unsponsored or academic research. This includes student use, developmental work, and studies of computing procedures. Having a computer available stimulates research, and in some areas research cannot be done without a computing system.

Several computing courses are given on the Campus: two in Mechanical Engineering, one in Electrical Engineering, the Graduate School of Business & Public Administration, and in Mathematics. In data processing, which includes sorting, tabulating, compiling reports, and other processes, the computer operates in English; but scientific computations involve learning "Algol," a universal algebraic language. The programmer translates formulas and other data into this language and feeds them into the machine. For example, the following formula for computing one of the roots

Computing Center in Action—In a Reunion-time demonstration last June, Class of '11 records were put through the Burroughs 220 Data Processing System in Rand Hall. The computer prepared magnetic tapes with data for each member of the Class, such as where he lives & works, occupation, and similar information. These tapes were run on reels in the magnetic tape memory banks (center). At the keyboard is Frank Rosenblatt '50, Director of the Cognitive Systems Research Program, ready to punch a key coded for a certain city. Director Richard C. Lesser of the Computing Center looks on. The machine scans the tapes and the printer (not shown) prints out names & addresses at 150 lines a minute. Memory control units are along the wall at rear. Unit at left front is the paper tape reader & punch, used in place of the magnetic tape when data are to be stored. The computer in its air-conditioned room has some twenty-eight units weighing ten tons.

of a quadratic equation:

$$\text{ROOT} = \frac{-B + \sqrt{B^2 - 4AC}}{2A}$$ looks like this in "Algol:"  $\text{ROOT} = (-B + \text{SQRT}(B^2 - 4 \cdot A \cdot C)) / 2 \cdot A$

The machine processes data as instructed and feeds back the desired calculations. A more powerful and flexible language, CAP (Cornell Assembly Program), which is more difficult to learn, is taught to advanced students.

Plays Varied Roles

The Computing Center is used for research by Engineering, Mathematics, the Laboratory of Nuclear Studies, and many other divisions. Agronomy makes analyses of soil experiments and the Agricultural Experiment Station in Geneva has tabulated irrigation experiments. Civil Engineering has used the Computing Center in a study of the use of computers in aerial photography and Industrial & Labor Relations has made studies in arbitration. At a "dedication" of the computer in April, it played tic-tac-toe with the visitors and this fall it was used to compile listings for the Freshman Register.

When a computer makes mistakes, they are big ones. Professor Urie Bronfenbrenner, Child Development & Family Relationships, has written a humorous piece on "The Personality Characteristics of Computers." He illustrated its eccentricities when he spoke on "Parental Behavior & Adolescent Responsibility" last year before the American Psychological Association and had to completely reverse his findings of the year before. In computing the data originally, one set had been programmed in reverse, so the conclusions had come out opposite and had been nicely rationalized.

Computing Center Grows

Instrumental in the Computing Center's start in 1953 were three members of the Mathematics Department, Professors Robert J. Walker, J. Barkley Rosser, and Mark Kac. The first staff consisted of Director Lesser and a programmer. Lesser came to the University then from three years at Massachusetts Institute of Technology as assistant to the director of statistical services. A native of Albany, he attended the combined course of Williams & MIT and received the BS & BA in 1950.

The present staff of eighteen persons includes Professor Seymour V. Parter, Mathematics, associate director in charge of research; John W. Rudan, assistant to the Director; four programmers, an electronics technician, a computer operator, and nine graduate assistants. In addition, qualified students and Faculty members operate the computer for courses and research projects.

Graduate assistants are Philip J. Kiviat '59 & Christopher E. Nugent, Mechanical Engineering; Clifford T. Ireland '60, George W. Petznick, Jr. & Virginia A. Walbran '52, Mathematics; Harry S. Welch, Jr. '60, Business & Public Administration; Walter W. Wierwille, Electrical Engineering; Janet C. Cassidy, Plant Breeding; and Mildred W. Church, Child Development & Family Relationships.

The first Computing Center was on the third floor of Rand Hall with the original computer, the Card Programmed Calculator. In 1956 with the rental of an IBM 650 and its auxiliary machines, the Center moved to an air-conditioned room in newly-completed Phillips Hall. Replacement of this machine with the Burroughs 220 last year brought need for still more space, so the Center moved back to occupy the whole first floor of Rand Hall. Future plans include the possible addition of another computer, which, since new machines are transistorized, would be smaller but more powerful. Whatever expansion does take place, the Computing Center plays an integral part in the University's growth.

Examine Christian Unity

THE ECUMENICAL MOVEMENT, "The Search for Unity in Christendom," is supported at the University by a grant of $10,000 from the Charles E. Merrill Trust of New York City for a two-year program. Co-directors here are the Rev. Ewell J. Reagin, Presbyterian minister & Associate Director of Cornell United Religious Work, and Father Richard T. Tormey, Associate Catholic Chaplain. They have arranged lectures by visiting theologians, weekly radio broadcasts from Station WHCU, discussion & worship services in January, a theological colloquy in February, and exhibits of church art & architecture.

Lecturers in Anabel Tayyler Hall this fall are the Rev. Jaroslav J. Pelikan of University of Chicago, "Beyond Brotherhood: An Analysis of Catholic-Protestant Relations," October 11; Roswell P. Barnes, executive secretary, World Council of Churches USA, "The Protestant Search for Unity," October 20; the Rev. Alexander Schmemmann of St. Vladimir's Orthodox Theological Seminary & Columbia, "Eastern Orthodox Churches in the Ecumenical Movement," December 1; the Rev. George H. Tavard of Mt. Mercy College, Pittsburgh, Pa., "The Catholic Approach to Protestantism," December 9.

Since its early days, the University has had a strong interfaith program. The late John R. Mott '88 organized the Cornell University Christian Association which preceded CURW. He was co-winner of the 1946 Nobel Prize for humanitarian work and was honorary president of the World Council of Churches when it was founded in 1948.

"Tar" Young '99 Dies

PROFESSOR CHARLES V. P. YOUNG '99, Physical Education & Athletics, Emeritus, died November 12 at his home, 112 Lake Street, Ithaca. He would have been eighty-four, November 30.

One of Cornell's greatest athletes and long an exemplar and proponent of physical fitness for students,

"Tar" Young won the "C" four years in both football & baseball and was captain and pitcher of the Varsity baseball team. He had much to do with the development of intramural athletics, with the provision of Alumni Fields by alumni and the playing fields for women, the intercollegiate boathouse on the Inlet, with Mt. Pleasant Lodge and Tar Young Ski Hill in Caroline, and was a founder and patron of the Outing Club.

Professor Young received the AB in 1899, spent the next three years at Princeton Theological Seminary, and preached for a year in Erie, Pa., coming back in the fall to help coach the football teams. He was appointed acting professor of Physical Education in 1904 and was made professor the next year; professor emeritus in 1944. He kept an office in the Old Armory and ran roller skating there for many years, was Campus tennis champion, played baseball with alumni teams at Reunions, and was an official at track meets.

Wrote Five Books

He was the author of The Cornell Navy (1907), Courtney & Cornell Rowing (1923), How Men Have Lived (1931), Across the Borderline (1946), and compiled for Quill & Dagger the monumental Cornell in Pictures: 1868-1954, published by the University Press. In 1951, while he was working on this book, he was made Honorary Associate of the University Archives and held this position until recently.

He was a member of Alpha Delta Phi, secretary of the Class of '99, and had been for many years alumni treasurer of Quill & Dagger. Ten years ago, he started the Inter-class Alumni Club, an informal group of elder Cornellians who came to the Campus for a week end each spring, and was the moving spirit of that organization. His sister is Carrie V. P. Young '03 of Williamsport, Pa. and he was the last of five brothers; the others, the late William Young '93, Edwin P.

Young '94, John P. Young '94 & George H. Young '00. Mrs. Young survives, as does their daughter, who is the wife of Ralph W. Head '25 of Ithaca.

Boys Visit Agriculture

AGRICULTURE Alumni Association & the College of Agriculture had 108 prospective students from twenty-three counties of the State for an "open house" at the College, October 29. The boys were invited by members of the Alumni Association county committees and they came with parents, alumni, and school counselors & teachers.

They were welcomed in Riley-Robb Hall by the College Director of Resident Instruction, Professor Thomas C. Watkins, and Faculty members outlined College preparation for careers in five general areas: Professors Barbour L. Herrington, PhD '33, Dairy & Food Science; Sedgwick E. Smith, PhD '39, Animal Husbandry; Wendell G. Earle, PhD '50, Marketing; Edwin B. Oyer, Vegetable Crops; Orval C. French, Agricultural Engineering. For an hour the boys talked with these and other Faculty members.

At luncheon in Stocking Hall, the guests were welcomed by Dean Charles E. Palm, PhD '35. Nelson F. Hopper '37, vice-president of the Agriculture Alumni Association, spoke on "An Alumnus Appraises a College Education for the Agricultural Industry." Members of the Ag-Domecon Council took the boys on a tour of the Campus and they returned for a discussion of "Student Life at Cornell" by five Seniors of the College, introduced by Russell M. Cary '36, president of the Alumni Association. A refreshment period with students & Faculty members closed the program before the visitors started for home.

Remember War Dead

MEMORIAL SERVICE in remembrance of Cornellians who lost their lives in the armed forces was held in Anabel Taylor Hall at noon on Veterans Day, November 11. About 120 persons, most of them students, including men in uniform of the three branches of the ROTC, gathered in the Chapel. They sang "America, the Beautiful" and the Rev. James V. Davison, Baptist Chaplain, read from the Psalms. The Rev. Richard Tormey, Assistant Catholic Chaplain, led the group in meditation. In the lobby, before the World War II memorial plaque with the names of the 478 alumni killed in that war, the Rev. Richard B. Stott, Episcopal Chaplain, led closing prayers and gave the benediction. The service was arranged by CURW. It was the first since Anabel Taylor Hall opened in 1952.

Class of '64 is Carefully Selected

HERBERT H. WILLIAMS '25, Director of Admissions, notes that 66 per cent of the children of Cornellians whose applications for admission to the University this fall were acted upon were accepted, as compared with 48 per cent of all applications acted upon. He finds, however, that 25 per cent of the "legacies" who were accepted did not come to Cornell. Forty-one per cent of all applicants did not enroll here.

Freshmen at the University number 2356, of whom 1769 are men and 587 are women. This is 194 more Freshmen than last fall. This year, 9154 prospective Freshmen applied and the admissions committees of the various Colleges & Schools accepted 3028 and denied admission to 4179; 947 applicants withdrew their applications before action was taken.

School of Industrial & Labor Relations (looking ahead to its new quarters) has 61 more Freshmen than last fall; College of Engineering, 54 more; Agriculture, 41 more; Arts & Sciences, 36 more. Hotel Administration & Architecture have five & four more Freshmen, respectively; Home Economics has five fewer than last fall.

The Class of '64 came from 1079 secondary schools; about 21 per cent of the students, from independent schools, the same proportion as in recent years, Director Williams finds. Their homes are in all fifty States & the District of Columbia; 41 per cent of the Freshmen are from outside New York State, including seventy-seven from other countries. Thirteen per cent are from

New York City; 46 per cent, from elsewhere in the State. Other States with more than fifty are New Jersey, 167; Pennsylvania, 155; Massachusetts, 86; Connecticut, 77; Illinois, 67; Ohio, 64.

Williams notes that 58 per cent of the Class of '64 were in the top fifth of the "normal 'college material' portion" of their school senior classes and 22 per cent were in the second fifth; 80 per cent in the top two-fifths. Last year, 77 per cent were in the top two-fifths of such "adjusted" groups. A slightly higher "quality" of Freshmen is also shown this year, Williams says, by the scores in scholastic aptitude tests given by the College Entrance Examinations Board. Median score of the Class of '64 in the verbal tests was 605 and in mathematics, 636, as compared with 591 & 633 for the Class of '63.

First-year Class that entered the Medical College in New York, September 12, numbered 84. They were selected from 1041 applicants and come from twenty-eight States, District of Columbia, and one from Iran. Twenty-five are from New York State; twelve from New Jersey; seven from California. Ten of the new students were undergraduates at Cornell, eight at Harvard, and five each at Amherst, Princeton & Stanford.

School of Nursing has ninety-four students in its first-year Class, from fifteen States & Canada. Fifty per cent live in New York State. The new students were undergraduates in fifty-one colleges & universities in sixteen States and the District of Columbia.

Mary H. Donlon Hall—The six-story dormitory for about 475 undergraduate women, east of Clara Dickson Hall (in background), is scheduled for occupancy next fall. Named for Trustee Mary H. Donlon '20, its cost of $2,750,000 is being financed through the State Dormitory Authority. Architects are James P. Beardsley '43 & Wallace P. Beardsley, Jr. '46 and Searle H. von Storch '23 & Burkavage. Contractor is William E. Bouley Co.

More Alumni Children Enter Cornell

OF 3466 NEW STUDENTS who came to the University the spring & fall terms of 1960, 369 are known to be children or grandchildren of alumni. This is 10.7 per cent of all new students, a larger proportion than in recent years, when it has been around 9 per cent. In 1959, 302 new students were direct descendants of Cornellians.

Fifty-four of this year's entering students are listed with their alumni grandparents & parents in the adjoining tabulation of "Three Cornell Generations." Last year, there were forty-two third-generation Cornellians.

One Freshman this year has alumni father & great-grandfather, but his family skipped one of five Cornell generations. He is William D. Dechert '64, Freshman in Arts & Sciences, son of W. Cornell Dechert '28 of New York City and great-grandson of the late Oliver Hazard Perry Cornell '72, who was Ezra Cornell's son.

Both last year and this year, nineteen new students noted alumni grandparents but not parents. Those of this year's students are Myron Van Auken '73*, George M. Bacon '93*, Bayard W. Corson '95*, George B. Becker '97, Charles F. Hamilton '97*, Mrs. George F. Inch (Florence Allen) '97*, Albert H. Horton '98*, Edgar Johnston '98*, Carlton H. Greene '01*, Gerald G. Gibbs '02, Raymond P. Morse '03, Dr. Pauline Scharfmann Rosenthal '04, Dwight Carley '06, Joseph N. Pew '08, Don O. Stone '09, Jacob Y. D. Fry '10*, Edmund W. Butler '13*, Ray G. Sierk '15, Carl J. West, PhD '15.

In these listings, deceased alumni are designated by astericks (*) and a dagger (†) indicates a step-parent. Children are Freshmen unless designated with Class numerals or otherwise.

When students come to the University for the first time, they are asked to name their Cornellian relatives, but always some fail to note alumni parents or grandparents. Additions or corrections to these listings of students who entered in 1960 are welcome for publication and for the University records.

Two Cornell Parents

One Cornell Parent

This year, 243 new students noted a Cornell father or mother, as compared with 223 found in 1959. Thirty-one mothers are listed and 211 fathers (one had two children enter). Besides Dechert '28, twenty-two single parents are named in "Three Cornell Generations." The rest are listed below.

Unusual in this listing are the names of Iskandar Tedjasukmana, MS '58, & his son Renaldi, who is a Freshman in Chemical Engineering. The father is a candidate for the PhD, with major studies in the School of Industrial & Labor Relations. Formerly Minister of Labor in the revolutionary government of the Republic of Indonesia, he came to the Graduate School four years ago with a grant from the Rockefeller Foundation. Mrs. Tedjasukmana and four of their five children are with him in Ithaca; Renaldi coming two years ago and now living at Watermargin. The youngest son, named Cornellu, was born in Indonesia while the father was on the way here.

"Private Lives" a Hit

DRAMATIC CLUB contributed to the gaiety of Fall Week End with a brilliant presentation of Noel Coward's sprightly comedy, "Private Lives." A near-capacity first-night audience in the Willard Straight Theater, November 10, enjoyed the brittle farce of two mixed-up marriages quite as much as did the well chosen cast of finished young actors. The show was repeated the next three evenings, to open the Dramatic Club's fifty-second season.

Margaret V. Chow '61, National Scholar from Baltimore, Md., showed her talents again as the volatile Amanda Prynne, divorced wife of Elyot Chase, expertly played by Brian K. Hansen, Grad, of Santa Barbara, Cal. Well done, too, were the newly remarried partners of these two as played by Anne W. deForest '61, daughter of John W. deForest '19 of Ithaca, as Sybil Chase, and John R. McDonald '63 of Cincinnati, Ohio, as Victor Prynne. All were convincing in the rapid-fire dialogue of the play and in the pair of rough & tumble fights that culminated their arguments. Amanda's French maid, Louise, was well played by Joanne B. Schapiro '61 of Chicago.

Professor Joseph Golden, Speech & Drama, directed, and Junius N. Hamblin designed effectively simple sets.

More Bad News

LOSSES to Brown & Dartmouth were the fifth & sixth of a depressing football season. Not since 1956 have the Big Red forces been so manhandled by the opposition and not in the memory of the oldest Cornell historian has there been a football hospital corps to match that of the 1960 squad. Sitting on the bench in their civilian clothes watching Dartmouth were these stalwarts: halfbacks George G. Telesh '62, George A. Ekstrom '61, Robert D. Shappee '61, Frederick L. Gaston '63 & Kenneth J. Kavensky '62; fullbacks David L. McKinley '63 & James W. Lampkins '63; quarterback David E. McKelvey '63; and end Kenneth G. Hoffman '62. Halfback Marcello A. Tino '61 has a leave of absence from the University. One ingredient which has not suffered seems to be a willingness to try. Its evidence makes the showings in these games so much more pathetic.

The weather continues to be nice on persistently gloomy Saturdays.

Brown 7, Cornell 6

There was one difference in this loss from the others: the Big Red team outplayed Brown. Before a Brown homecoming crowd of 7000 in Providence, November 5, Cornell was victimized again by a good thrower, Jack Rohrbach, who had some good catchers. The Bruins had a fine runner in Ray Barry. But on the whole, the Cornell team was better. It missed because it could not take advantage of several scoring opportunities, and on the try for extra points in the second period, Kavensky was stopped about a foot short. Barry made the extra-point goal after the Brown TD.

Cornell's total gains of 308 yards topped Brown's 239 and the first downs were 17-12 for the Red. Maybe there is something to the jinx Brown seems to be able to exert on its homecoming opponents. This was the eighth triumph in the last nine years. Three of the eight times, Cornell was the victim.

Brown scored the second time it got the ball in this 1960 game. The Brown center, Captain Bob Packer, busted through and partially blocked a fourth-down punt by Edward G. Burnap '63 and the ball was downed on the Cornell 31. Brown graciously fumbled it away and Captain Warren E. Sundstrom '61 recovered the first of his three fumbles. But R. Scott Brown '63 proved equally as profligate as he threw into the hands of Ray Cirone, who carried it eighteen yards to the Cornell 26. In three plays, it was over. Rohrbach threw to end Dick Laine for fifteen yards. Barry plunged for two and circled left end for nine and the score. There was no further serious threat by the home forces until late in the fourth quarter, when they toured sixty-five yards before halfback Patrick J. Pennucci '62 picked off a Rohrbach pass to halt matters.

Cornell's score came shortly after Captain Sundstrom recovered his second Brown fumble, midway in the second period. That happened on the Brown 29. Kavensky threw an eleven-yard pass to Pennucci and then the same two took turns running and Kavensky took it over from the 3. Before that, the Red had moved the ball sixty yards on one push, to the 22, where it died. Included were a Scott Brown pass to end Lyman M. Beggs '61 for twenty-eight yards and a pass-interference call which gave the Red sixteen yards. The Cornell quarterback was not throwing as well as he did in the Columbia game, when he was accurate and his receivers were either too slow or clumsy-fingered. There was both poor throwing & poor catching in this game.

Cornell got to the Brown 21 again in the second period, but a Scott Brown pass was intercepted. Again at the start of the third quarter, the Varsity had a lovely chance as a gift. Sophomore David L. Reese ran for a first down on the 13. It was taken to the 6 by Reese & halfback Thomas P. Holland '62. On fourth down, a weak Holland pass intended for Senior end Robert F. Yablonski was easily batted down. The Red was in touchdown territory twice in the fourth period. Reese & Holland ran well and the ball was on the Brown 6, from where quarterback Robert J. Ritz '62 was thrown for a loss of fourteen yards. That was that.

Again Cornell got to the 22, but could not make the downs. There were three minutes left, so Brown killed the clock.

Dartmouth 20, Cornell 0

Only bright spot in the loss November 12 before a Fall Week End 12,000 on Schoellkopf Field was some rugged defensive play by the Cornell line. But a passer by the name of Jack Kinderdine more than made up for the inability of the Green backs to run through the doughty Red forwards. Cornell could not run much against Dartmouth, either, and there were costly mistakes.

Dartmouth moved sixty yards after the first kick-off, for a score. The Red line had stiffened to hold on the 5 for the fourth down with four yards to go.

But Kinderdine found Dick Marrone with a pass. Al Rozycki tried to run for the points, but was stopped by guard David R. Thomas '62.

Cornell was in the game and Dartmouth knew it, for the hitting was fierce. But when the Red fumbled the ball away on its own 36, Dartmouth moved it over in five plays. That was after Sophomore guard Carmine W. DiGiacomo threw the first try back for a five-yard loss. But that just induced Kinderdine to throw deadly-accurate passes to Rozycki for twenty-eight yards & to Dave Usher for fourteen for the TD. He tried to hit Rozycki for the bonus points, but it was knocked down.

The third Dartmouth score came after a low bouncing pass from Sophomore center Anthony P. Turel back to Burnap on a fourth-down punting situation. Burnap was thrown on the Cornell 7. It took three plays, a three-yard run by Kinderdine accounting for the touchdown. He threw to end Frank Finsthwait for 2 points. Dartmouth got to the 3 in the fourth before it was stopped.

Scott Brown passed well and yards gained were almost even, but the Cornell yardage was gained on its own side of the field. The only serious scoring threat came in the closing minutes of the first half. Two Brown passes to fullback John F. Beeby '61 accounted for fifty-six yards and brought the ball to the 7. A deep reverse on fourth down failed for a substantial loss. The lineups & statistics:

The sixty-year-old series now stands 22-21-1 in favor of Dartmouth. This was the sixth consecutive Green victory, all six of Coach Bob Blackman's career. It is the longest Dartmouth winning streak in the series, which has been unbroken since 1919.

The two previous election years were not good Cornell football years. In 1952, the Varsity won two games & lost seven; in 1956, it took one & lost eight. In 1948, however, the record was eight to one and Cornell won the Ivy championship. That was Coach George K. James's second year.

Freshmen Beat Colgate

Defeating a powerful Colgate eleven, the Cornell Freshmen won their fourth of five games. Score was 14-8 and the game was on Schoellkopf Field, November 5.

Except for inability to stop the passing of the Colgate quarterback, Wayne Deminkoff, the Cornell team dominated the play beyond the measure of the score. Deminkoff connected on passes totaling 205 yards. Red quarterback Gary F. Wood was fully as potent a force, however. He ran & passed for 196 yards. The Red line held inside the 15 several times in the first half after passing had brought Colgate there.

Cornell scored first on a fooler. The Freshmen had marched eighty yards and it was fourth down and four to go. In hurried star field-goal kicker Peter K. Gogolak and Wood came back to hold. But Wood stood up and threw to Paul W. Shank on the right flank to the 3. Wood took it over and Gogolak missed the point try. The second Red TD came soon after on a thrilling pass-play. Wood threw from his own 12 to star end, 6-foot-1, 205-pound William D. Ponzer, on the 25. Ponzer ran up the left sideline, used his interference to good advantage, shook off two tacklers, and was finally caught on the Colgate 15 after covering seventy-three yards. Wood followed with a deft thirteen-yard run to the 2 and fullback Joseph R. Robinson took it over. Wood ran over for the points.

Deminkoff threw thirty-two yards to Dave Garlapo for the Colgate score late in the fourth, after Gogolak had missed a forty-eight-yard field-goal attempt.

150-pound Team Does Well

Assuring themselves of the best season since the service academies entered the League, the lightweight football team defeated Rutgers, 21-15, November 5, on Lower Alumni Field and lost a narrow 24-21 game to Army at West Point, November 11. The Cornellians could have topped the League by beating Army, for they had beaten Navy, October 28.

The Rutgers game was not as close as the score might indicate, for Cornell was leading safely, 21-0, in the fourth quarter before Rutgers scored. Cornell was in command throughout. All three Red touchdowns were scored on passes by the Poughkeepsie Senior, Ronald R. Levine. Quarterback Levine threw for one to his brother Laurance A. Levine '63 for twelve yards and for the others to fullback Eugene J. Shea '61 for twenty-six and six yards. Shea ran for 2 extra points and Ernest R. Pietz '61 kicked the other.

Army moved closer to the League title for the third straight year by defeating Cornell. Going into the game tied for first with Cornell & Penn, it had only to defeat Penn to clinch it.

The Cadets scored twice in the first period over a fighting Red team, once on a forty-eight-yard run and again on a drive from their own 40 after an ill-fated on-side kickoff by Cornell. A twenty-three-yard pass by Ron Levine to end Robert C. Kwit '63 tallied for Cornell at the tag end of the first half. Score was 12-7 at the half. Army scored in the third quarter on a forty-five-yard pass from Glynn Mallory to Ross DeVries. And it was 18-7. In the fourth period, Army scored again, moving forty-one yards in eight plays. Cornell came storming back and made two spectacular scores. From a third-down-eighteen-yards-to-go situation on their own 38, the Cornellians went all the way on a screen pass from David W. Rutenberg '62 to Robert E. Hastings '62. William N. MacDonald '63 connected and it was 24-14. Then after being stopped for downs, Army punted to Richard F. Kingsbury '63, who took it on the Red 35 and ran sixty-five yards for the score. MacDonald converted and it was 24-21. Only a few minutes remained and Army kept the ball.

Other Sports

VARSITY CROSS COUNTRY team finished a creditable eighth in the Intercollegiates at Van Cortlandt Park in New York City, November 14, and the fine Freshman team tied with LaSalle College for third place. Biggest news was the individual victory of Stephen M. Machooka '64 of Kisii, Kenya, Nairobi, East Africa, in 15:24.9 for the three miles.

The five-mile varsity race was won by Robert Lowe of Brown. It is the first time in many years that Ivy League representatives won both races. First Cornell finisher was Captain Frank E. Brockman '61 in twentieth place; Ray A. Westendorp '63 was twenty-third; John C. Munday '62, thirty-ninth.

Penn State was the varsity team winner with 70, followed by Army, 119; Michigan State, 130; Manhattan, 138; Yale, 231; Villanova, 256; Notre Dame, 259; Cornell, 265. Other Ivy scorers were Brown, tenth; Penn, twelfth; Princeton, seventeenth; Columbia, twenty-fourth.

Manhattan won the freshman race with 63 points and Fordham was second with 82. Cornell & LaSalle had 113. Cornell's James S. Sims & James L. Byard were sixth & seventh. Next was Hugh E. Conway. Unfortunately, the next Red finisher was seventy-first, or the team title might have come to Ithaca. According to The New York Herald Tribune, Coach Charles D. Werner of Penn State said of Machooka: "He's the best I ever saw: freshman, senior, anything." He won by more than 100 yards, finishing ahead of Frank Carver, Notre Dame & William Slater, Fordham.

The Big Red Varsity placed fourth in the Heptagonal cross country race at Van Cortlandt Park, November 4. Army won with 72 points; second was Yale, 93; Brown, third, 106; Cornell, 112. Harvard was next with 114; sixth was Penn, 132; Navy, seventh, 135; Princeton, eighth, 161; Dartmouth, ninth, 179; Columbia, tenth, 289. Brockman was eighth; Westendorp, seventeenth; Mundy, twentieth; Peter G. Slater '62, twenty-eighth; Paul B. Deignan '62, thirty-eighth.

Soccer Team Does Unexpected

A game it was expected to win the Varsity team soccer lost to Brown at Providence, November 5, by a wide margin, 4-1. Brown had a big second period when it scored 3 goals. Cornell's only goal also came in the second period, scored by Santiago J. Freixas '61 of Manila, P.I.

And in a game they were not expected to win the booters defeated Dartmouth 2-1, November 12 on Upper Alumni Field. Harrington N. Chite '62 of Butere, Kenya, made the first Red score in the first period. Danasit Wongprasat '63 of Bangkok, Thailand, made the other in the second period. Dartmouth scored in the fourth. Coach George Patte remarked after the game, "We beat one of the two best teams in the League. We played just as well against Princeton & Harvard, but could not score when the chance came."

In a quadrangular rifle match in Barton Hall, November 12, the Cornell rifle team beat Canisius, Alfred & Colgate with a score of 1404. Captain Paul D. Thompson '61 scored a brilliant 284 to lead the winners. John W. Gemmil '63 was second with 282 and Paul K. Johnson '62 was third with 280. Edward W. Reich '63 & Erwin A. Tschanz '62 were the other Cornell scorers with 279 each. Canisius was second with 1334; Alfred, third, 1377; Colgate, 1355. This was the first match in the New York State Intercollegiate series.

Varsity polo team avenged an earlier defeat by Myopia Polo Club by beating the visiting trio, 12-8, in the Riding Hall, November 5. Frank S. Butterworth III '63 was high for Cornell with 5 goals; Jose Bermudez '61 made 3; James R. Morse '63, 2; and Thomas J. Lane '63 scored 1.

Cornell Rugby Club was beaten, 3-0, by University of Toronto, November 12 on Upper Alumni Field. That was a better showing than was made against the same team, October 1, when Toronto won at Toronto, 6-0. Playing well for Cornell were Colin J. Driscoll, grad, from Australia; James J. Hines '61; Captain David J. Rynne '62, Walter J. Clough '62. Edward Patrick Cunningham, grad, of Dublin, Ireland, is the playing coach.

John S. Rodway of Toronto & Joy L. Barnard of Sudbury, Ontario, have been appointed skating professionals at James Lynah Rink for 1960-61. Rodway has been teaching at the Toronto Skating Club for five years and was a special consultant to the Canadian national committee for the national championships. He has produced fifteen ice shows in the last five years. Miss Barnard, twenty-one, was a gold medalist in 1957 in figures & free skating, has been senior women's champion of Northern Ontario since 1957, and was sixth in the National Canadian championships in 1959. She has been teaching at the Schumacher (Ontario) Skating Club the last year.

Winter Sports Schedules

VARSITY HOCKEY TEAM will stay the first day of Christmas recess for a round-robin tournament in James Lynah Hall with Bowdoin, Colgate, Hamilton, Norwich & Williams, December 19-21. After Christmas, December 28-30, the basketball team will play in the Down East Classic at Bangor, Maine, with Bates, Boston University, Bowdoin, Colby, Harvard, and Universities of Maine & Rhode Island. Between terms, the wrestling team will go to the Midwest to meet University of Minnesota, February 2; Mankato State College in Minnesota, February 3; and Iowa State at Ames, February 4. The season starts December 3 for four of the seven winter sports.

Any Other Comments?

EDITOR: Where, oh where, did you find Norman M. Ellis '62? As a former Sun editor and a perennial Cornell chauvinist, the doings of The Cornell Daily Sun are of great concern to me. But the opinions of Norman M. Ellis '62 about the doings of The Cornell Daily Sun are a matter of no concern whatever.

In the future, couldn't we have our "On the Hill . . ." on the rocks, without dilution by the pious preachments ("... prostitution of a privileged position . . .") of the observing undergraduate? Just give us the facts, please; if The Sun is misbehaving, we're old enough and wise enough to figure that out for ourselves.

My own reaction to the quoted excerpts from Sun editorials was one of quiet satisfaction that that venerable institution still retains the wit and vitality that once made us proud to be listed in its masthead.

—ALLEN KAUFMAN '46

The Sun editorial page, October 17, had this "Thank You!" note: "The CORNELL ALUMNI NEWS in its current issue (page 136) has used half a page to present salient excerpts from what it considers The Sun's most incisive editorials this fall. We approve the selection, and are grateful for the unsolicited opportunity to present our views to its many thousand readers."—Ed.

Give Fall Degrees

DEGREES were conferred upon 307 students in September after the Summer Session; ninety-four first degrees & 213 advanced degrees. The BS was awarded to twelve in Agriculture, eight in Home Economics, two in Hotel Administration, and three in Industrial & Labor Relations. The AB was granted to thirty-six students, BCE & BChemE to one each. BEP, BME & BEE went to four each, BArch to two. Seventeen women received the BS in Nursing at the School of Nursing in New York City.

The PhD was granted to sixty-eight, EdD to five, DMA to four. The MS was awarded to eighty-four students, MA to twenty-three, MEd to sixteen, MAeroE to one. The MBA, MArch, & MRP went to two each and MEE, to three. The LLM, MFS & MNS were conferred on one each.

Counselors Visit College

A CONFERENCE to help high school guidance counselors understand college home economics was held at the College of Home Economics October 27 & 28. Seventeen counties of the State were represented. The visitors met with department heads and other Faculty members, had lunch with Juniors & Seniors in the College, and tea with students from their counties. Chairman was Professor Theresa R. Humphreyville, Home Economics Admissions. Among the guidance counselors attending were Ethel DuBois, AM '36, of Hewlett & Eloise H. Daly, MS '43, of New Hartford.

ASME Speakers

ALUMNI AND FACULTY members were speakers at the American Society of Mechanical Engineers annual meeting in New York City, November 27-December 2. They included Trustee William Littlewood '20, Harold B. Maynard '23, José R. Canal '54, Professors Paul P. Bijlaard & Harry D. Conway, Mechanics & Materials; and Arthur H. Burr & F. W. Ocvirk, Machine Design. From the Aeronautical Laboratory in Buffalo were George Rudinger, Hiramie T. McAdams & Paul Rosenthal.

Help Schools in Research

AN EXPERIMENTAL PROGRAM of scientific research for high school students is underway this year under a National Science Foundation grant of $14,000. Professor Philip G. Johnson, PhD '33, Rural Education & chairman of Science Education, directs the work and Edmund S. Broch, graduate student in Science Education, is associate director.

Aim is to teach high school students what scientific research is. This is important Broch says, because the core of science is research. High schools have been unsuccessful in the past, because even with good subject-matter backgrounds, science teachers have difficulty in teaching students how to acquire scientific knowledge for themselves. The NSF program provides for research teams from nine high schools, each of which includes a science teacher, a science consultant from the University, and five selected high school students. The nine schools, all within 100 miles of the University, were selected last summer, according to proposed projects, from about seventy-five Central New York schools. Projects are primarily in biology & chemistry. The University consultants visit the schools and the students & teachers come to the University to use laboratories, scientific equipment, and libraries.

Faculty consultants are Professors Carl W. Boothroyd, PhD '50, & John J. Natti, PhD '51, Plant Pathology, Lowell D. Uhler, PhD '48, Biology & Entomology; Donald H. Wallace, PhD '58, Plant Breeding; Conrad S. Yocum & Harlan P. Banks, Botany; Roger G.

Young, Entomology; R. G. Warner, Animal Husbandry; and David Geske, Chemistry. Among the teachers are Stanton F. Jenks '49, of Moravia Central School, George H. Stevens '49 of Lansing Central School in Ludlowville, and Robert H. Simkin '55 of Genoa Central School.

Houseparties Gay & Orderly

FALL WEEK END was observed with the usual gusto, November 11-13. If all its activities were to be summed up in a phrase, it would be "tradition-breaking and precedent-setting." This was the first houseparty week end held under the Cornell Social Code and the IFC Social Code. It appears that Cornell students have proved themselves worthy of the responsibility given to them last spring and early this fall by the administration. Party-goers and celebrants conducted themselves so well that scheduled meetings afterwards of the Men's Judiciary Board, Women's Judiciary Board & Faculty Student Conduct Committee were cancelled for lack of cases.

The Week End was ushered in with The Sun's traditional bunkum story in its Friday issue. As usual, the Ivy Room was in a tizzy until about ten o'clock, before upperclassmen let it be known that The Sun is expected to uncover particularly startling news every Fall Week End Friday. This year's news was that the Hydraulic Laboratory in Fall Creek gorge was losing its foundation, and that its "power output" for the Campus would have to be cut to one-fourth of normal to reduce dangerous vibrations and forestall catastrophe. Emergency regulations, ostensibly from the University, suggested going to bed immediately after dark and proscribed use of such necessities as "sun lamps, electric massagers, portable sanders, computing machines, electric can openers, electric card shufflers, x-ray machines, and waffle makers" in all Campus living units.

No one is yet quite sure whether another Friday Sun story was the real thing. This item reported the advent of a new Campus evening paper which lacked only a name. Mimeographed sheets of somewhat doubtful authenticity were distributed November 10 announcing that a "Mr. F. 'Bull' Brown '07" had provided $25,000 to begin operations, that the first issue would appear December 5, and that students were invited to submit suggested names for the new publication. The Sun, with its usual sober regard in such affairs, proposed "no fitter name than 'The Cornell Bull'."

Among more certified events was the crowning of the Fall Week End Queen, Janet G. Ray '64 of Cranford, N.J., at the Soiree Parisienne ball in Barton Hall, Friday night. Nominated by Phi Gamma Delta, she was selected by the Faculty judges over the other four finalists, who were Juliann Powell '61 of Upper Darby, Pa., Linda A. Altshuler '62 of Fort Devens, Mass., Judith A. Cohn '63 of Syracuse & Nancy J. Nelson '64 of Oak Park, Ill. The Queen and her court appeared on Schoellkopf Field Saturday between the halves of the football game, and that night at the jazz concert in Barton Hall, which featured Duke Ellington & Dakota Staton.

The second precedent of the Week End was that women guests were permitted in upperclassmen's dormitories for the first time. They were admitted under regulations drawn up by the recently formed Upperclass Residence Board, whose members initiate and administer rules & regulations governing social life in the Baker dormitories.

Another innovation was the appearance of the Cornell Baton Twirling Club at half-time of the Dartmouth game. They were featured as guests of the Band, whose theme was "The Big Red Band Breaks Tradition." The five coeds were led by Sheila S. Moriber '63 of Brooklyn, who organized the group last year and has drilled them, but hesitated to bring her twirlers to a public appearance until they were ready "to represent the school adequately."

IFC also had something new for this year's Fall Week End in the form of identification cards for out-of-town male guests at houseparties. By this means, fraternity presidents were more able to carry out the responsibilities delegated to them by the new IFC Social Code, which makes each house responsible for the conduct of its guests.

So even if we did lose the Dartmouth game, we all had a little fun (at least a little) without getting into trouble. The students are happy and the administration is happy. The new Student Social Code has proved itself and the way is paved for revisions in other areas.

The IFC is acting as host to Walter E. L. Spiess of Germany & Prosper F. Neumann, Jr. of Sweden, graduate exchange students, while they are at Cornell this year. Kappa Alpha & Delta Chi are sharing with the IFC the costs of their respective rooms & board, under a program arranged with the University last year.

Pakistani students here have formed a group called "Pak Cornellians." In Urdu, the language of Pakistan, "pak" means "real" or "pure." Membership will be restricted to Pakistani nationals, but associate members of other countries may participate in the club's activities. President of the new organization is Muhammad Fayyaz, Grad.

THE FACULTY

John L. Munschauer '40, Director of the University Placement Service, is the author of "The Pros & Cons of Changing Jobs" in the 1961 College Placement Annual, compiled by the College Placement Council & distributed by member offices.

Robert J. Kane '34, Director of Athletics & Physical Education, was chairman of a campaign committee that raised $133,562 to build St. Catherine of Siena Church on Hanshaw Road between Warren Road & Pleasant Grove Road. The Very Rev. Msgr. Donald M. Cleary will resign next year as Catholic Chaplain at the University to be pastor of the new parish in Cayuga Heights.

Robert A. Wolf, head of Operations Research at Cornell Aeronautical Laboratory in Buffalo, has been appointed Director of the Automotive Crash Injury Research program in New York City. The appointment is designed to allow closer coordination of work done in Buffalo with the New York program. Since the program began seven years ago, data has been studied on nearly 40,000 automobile accidents in nineteen States and numerous safety recommendations have been made.

A collection of essays by the late Professor Theodore E. Mommsen, History, has been published by the University Press. The book, titled Medieval and Renaissance Studies, deals with the military history of Italy and Germany, Petrarch, and early Christian historiography. Professor Mommsen, who died in 1958, endowed a fellowship for Medieval and Renaissance studies.

Professor Vladimir N. Krukovsky, PhD '35, Dairy & Food Science, will be presented an American Chemical Society award for his research in the chemistry of milk fats. The award of $1000 and a gold medal is provided by Borden Company Foundation, Inc.

Professor H. Darkes Albright, PhD '35, is the author of the first English translation of Adolphe Appia's The Work of Living Art, an influential work in stage design and theory. The volume is in the Books of the Theater Series sponsored by American Educational Theater Association and University of Miami Press. It was edited by Professor Barnard Hewitt, PhD '34, of University of Illinois.

The History of Political Parties in the Province of New York, 1760-1776, by Carl L. Becker, late professor of Modern History, has been reprinted by University of Wisconsin. The work, which originally appeared in 1909, is recognized as a classic of historical literature.

Professor David Dropkin '33, Thermal Engineering, and Samuel Globe, an Avco Corp. physicist, have received a grant of $72,100 from National Science Foundation to continue their research aimed at finding the best method of cooling space vehicles during re-entry into the earth's atmosphere. The grant was made on the basis of a discovery by the two scientists that heat transfer to cylindrical containers by convection may be stopped by spinning.

Professor Eva L. Gordon '29, Nature & Science Education, Emeritus, is giving a nature literature course for elementary & secondary school teachers at the University this term. The course deals with literature appropriate for various grade levels.

Royner C. Greene, Varsity basketball coach from 1937-59, has returned to coaching this season with North Park College, Park Ridge, Ill. Last year, he & Mrs. Greene opened Greene's Gift Shop in Ithaca.

Professor Louis L. Reed, Business & Public Administration, is author of a 208-page report, "Medical Care under the New York Workmen's Compensation Program," published by the Sloan Institute of Hospital Administration at the University. A summary of the report appears in the September Journal of the American Public Health Association.

Professor Joseph A. Mazzeo, Italian Literature, is the author of Medieval Cultural Tradition in Dante's Comedy published in September by the University Press. The work, which combines research and criticism, is intended as a companion to his first book, Structure and Thought in the Paradiso.

Professor Taylor D. Lewis, Grad '49, Transportation Engineering, received a grant from the National Science Foundation and is in England until February, 1961, studying transportation problems at the Road Research Laboratory at Harmondsworth.

An annotated bibliography on "Industrial Relations and the Small Firm," by Professor Albert A. Blum, Industrial & Labor Relations, is the first of a series concerned with small business published by the I&LR School.

Professors Ralph N. Campbell and Elizabeth Knowlton, Industrial & Labor Relations, have published a study, "Business Leadership in Air Transportation." It provides a review of a management development course conducted cooperatively by the I&LR School and American Airlines.

Professor Herrell F. DeGraff '37, Food Economics, is the author of Beef Production & Distribution, published by University of Oklahoma Press. The book is a comprehensive review of patterns of marketing, processing & merchandising in the beef industry during the last decade.

Promoted to associate professor are Robert H. Brout, Grad '48, Physics, & John M. Stycos, Sociology.

Professor Paul M. O'Leary, PhD '29, Economics, is the author of "The Scene of the Crime of 1873 Revisited" in the August issue of The Journal of Political Economy. The article deals with the failure of Congress to continue the coinage of the silver dollar, leading to a controversy which brought about the silver-money campaign of William Jennings Bryan some twenty-five years later.

Professor Gordon H. Fairbanks, Linguistics, visited Russia last spring with two members of the US Office of Education. They report in School Life, published by the Office of Education, that the Soviet Union is training a large number of teachers of English and predict a marked increase in the teaching of English, especially in the lower grades.

Eystein Einset '50 has joined the Geneva Experiment Station Department of Food Science & Technology as assistant professor of Biochemistry. He received the Master of Food Science in 1951 & PhD in 1956; has since been director of the US Fish & Wildlife Service laboratory in Ketchikan, Alaska. Mrs. Einset was Betty McKee, MNS '54.

Clement G. Bowers '23, research associate in Floriculture & Ornamental Horticulture, has revised his book Rhododendrons & Azaleas, a classic in its field for nearly a quarter-century, and added information on nutrition, physiology & propagation. The volume was published by Macmillan in October.

Professor Morris Bishop '14, Romance Literature, Emeritus, & University Historian, writes on "Music at Cornell in the Early Days" in the 1960 Cornell University Music Review.

Professors Harriet C. Mills, Far Eastern Studies, & Harold A. Shadick, Chinese Literature, are cooperating in preparing a handbook of literary Chinese and a social science reader. Both texts are considered "urgently needed" by a national advisory committee of scholars.

Professors David B. Davis, American History, James Hutton '24, Classics, & William A. Wimsatt '39, Zoology, are new members of the board of editors of the University Press.

"Labor-Market Aspects of the St. Lawrence Seaway Project," an article by Professor Donald E. Cullen, Industrial & Labor Relations, in the June issue of the Journal of Political Economy, has appeared in the Reprint Series of the I&LR School.

Professor Walter C. Muenscher, PhD '21, Botany, Emeritus, has been awarded a Certificate of Merit by the Botanical Society of America for his contributions to botany throughout his career, including his books on weeds, aquatic plants, poisonous plants, and herbs.

Professor E. Stanley Shepardson '36, Agricultural Engineering, and others of the Department have developed a mechanical grape harvester that can harvest from three to five tons an hour, doing the work of twenty-five men.

Professor Edgar F. Borgatta, Sociology & Anthropology, is co-author of "Social Workers' Perceptions of Clients: A Study of the Caseload of a Social Agency." The book analyzes the way caseworkers perceive the personalities of people seeking assistance. It is published by the Russell Sage Foundation, New York City.

Quest for Failure: A Study of William Faulkner, by Professor Walter J. Slatoff, English, was published recently by the University Press. The volume is concerned with the extent to which all of Faulkner's writing is built on contradictions.

Professor Byron W. Saunders, Industrial & Engineering Administration, is in England until next August, with his family. He is visiting professor at University of Birmingham.

Offer Cornellians

THE CORNELLIAN Board has for sale copies of the yearbook for every year 1951 through 1959, except 1953, and of the earlier years 1936, 1937, 1944, & 1949. Prospective purchasers may get information from The Cornellian, 412 College Avenue, Ithaca.

Academic Delegates

DAVID J. WILLIAMS '52 of Richmond, Ky. was the Cornell delegate at the inauguration of President Robert R. Martin of Eastern Kentucky State College in Richmond, November 17. November 19, Strabo V. Claggett, Jr. '43 of Lake Forest, Ill. represented Cornell at the inauguration of President William G. Cole of Lake Forest College and Mrs. Laurence C. Boylan (Elizabeth Eldridge) '37 of Emporia, Kans. was delegate at the inauguration of President Francis L. Waters of The College of Emporia.

Dinner To Honor Olins

CORNELL ALUMNI Association of New York City & Cornell Club of New York will hold their fourth annual Award Dinner December 13 at the Waldorf Astoria. All Cornellians and guests are invited. President Deane W. Malott will present certificates of award to Trustees John M. Olin '13 & Spencer T. Olin '21. John Olin was a principal donor for the John M. Olin Library and Spencer Olin gave Hollister Hall for the School of Civil Engineering.

Chairman of the dinner committee is Anthony S. Gaccione '21, 120 Wall Street, New York City. Ticket sales are in charge of Haig K. Shiroyan '24. They may be purchased at $12.50 a person at the Cornell Club of New York, 107 East 48th Street.

The first Award Dinner of the two alumni organizations, in 1957, was for Trustee Maxwell M. Upson '99. The next was for the late Myron C. Taylor '94, and last year the dinner honored Trustee John L. Collyer '17.

Addresses are in New York State unless otherwise noted. Persona litem, newspaper clippings, or other notes about Cornellians are welcomed for publication. Class columns are written by correspondents whose names appear. Names & addresses in column headings are for Classes with group subscriptions or those in which at least half the members are NEWS subscribers.

'03 Sp Law—George Henry Russ, Jr. has been working in the field of banking for the last thirty years. He was with the Social Security Administration from 1937-50 and is now an examiner for the State of North Dakota. Russ has had several short stories published. His office is 1301 State Capitol, Bismarck, N. Dak.

'04 AB, '06 LLB—Henry C. Frey is finishing his fifty-fifth year as an attorney and says he has no plans to retire. He writes on colonial history & early railroads. Fishing has supplanted golf as his primary hobby. His address is 90-04 161st St., Jamaica.

'05 AB—Arthur D. Camp is vice-chairman for the Cornell Fund in Westchester County and a member of the Cornell Club secondary schools committee. He has retired from Dorr-Oliver, Inc., and lives at 56 Hughes Ave., Rye.

'03 MCE, '05 PhD—Richard R. Lyman is still active as a consulting engineer. He has been consulting engineer on three of the seven modern wonders of the world as designated by the American Society of Civil Engineers: the Chicago, Ill., sewage disposal system, which serves fifty cities; Colorado River Aqueduct, which is the largest man-made conduit in the world; and Grand Coulee Dam & irrigation project. He is inventor of the Lyman street numbering system, which is revolutionizing city planning techniques in the Western States. His address is 1084 Third Ave., Salt Lake City, Utah.

'06 DVM—Dr. J. G. Wills spends the winters in Florida & summers in Pennsylvania & New York, says his principal occupation is fishing. His address is Westwood Drive, Gibronia, Pa.

'07 DVM—Dr. Frederick C. Willison has retired from the US Department of Agriculture. He resides at 91 Oakdene Ave., Cliffside Park, N.J.

'08 ME, '09 MME; '08 ME—Mark H. Landis of 228 Philadelphia Ave., Waynesboro, Pa. writes that Commander Francis E. Fitch, USN (Ret.), had a paralytic stroke in December, 1959, and is slowly recovering. He may be addressed at 213 W. 78th St., Virginia Beach, Va.

'09 ME—James R. Cameron lives at 2400 Fairfield Ave., Bluefield, W.Va., and is a sales engineer.

'11 Howard A. Lincoln
100 East Alford Street
Springfield 7, Mass.

Word has been received from McGraw-Hill about a new book on architectural drafting, ready in February, with Herbert F. (Herb) Bellis, as co-author. He is chief instructor, Jamaica Branch, Mondell Institute, New York City.

The fall dinner November 3 at the Cornell Club in New York was well attended. Among those present were Frank Aime, Charlie Beavers, Gene Bennett, Saul Blickman, Chuck Chuckro, Tom Cox, Ed Cohen, Davy Davidson, Hugh Gaffney, Fran Heywood, Bill Howard, Ned MacArthur, Johnnie Rewalt, Herb Reynolds, Vic Rishardt, Horace Vanderbeck, Dutch Gundlach. Needless to say, all phases of our 50th Reunion were well hashed over. One thing was settled: we are to be quartered in Sage, right in the center of whatever is going on. Those whose wives accompany their spouses will have a reserved section in the left wing with a "Do Not Disturb" card for each door. Welles Lyman has agreed to conduct a walking tour of all the new buildings he has inspected during the last few years. He intends to come to Ithaca a week ahead to catch up on a few completed this year and to plan his walkie-talkie lecture tour for the shortest distance in the least of time, so no one will be overtired before the Class dinner. Dates for our 50th are June 8, 9, & 10, 1961. Anyone in need of transportation to and from Ithaca please advise Frank Aime, chairman, 3804 Greystone Ave., New York City. He has an unlimited supply of trains, planes, helicopters, buses & convertibles at his disposal, so climb aboard for the record-breaking trip. Besides, it's all free!

'14 Emerson Hinchliff
400 Oak Ave.
Ithaca, N.Y.

Guy Campbell sent an obit from a Baltimore paper of Louis Merryman, one of the best known men in the country on purebred dairy cattle; Lou hadn't been well for some time. Referring to Burt Brodt's suggested Abdominal Snow Men Club, Guy says he belongs only to the Continuous Reunion Club to date. He expects to be in Ithaca next June, as he was last June. Meanwhile, he was planning on two weeks of quail shooting in November at Punta Gorda, returning to Florida in January for two months at Ocean Manor Hotel in Fort Lauderdale.

Chuck Bassett deserves a big hand for our record in the Cornell Fund, where we were fifth-highest among all men's Classes in per cent of donors. Relatively, the girls, under Eleanor Foster Lawrence, did even better, topping their quotas in both donors & dollars. We missed our dollar quota by one-tenth of one per cent.

Hearing that Dick Ainsworth had sufferred a stroke, I telephoned the hospital (Fox Memorial, Oneonta) November 6, and was told there had been little change in his condition, though he is out of bed most of the day. He is a tough hombre, so I have not lost hope for a good recovery.

Henry V. (Pash) Davis, now retired in Mayville, must have felt his ears burning in mid-October. At a conference of secondary school men here, I met the dean of Culver Military Academy, at which Pash taught modern languages for a quarter-century, and found that we shared a mutual admiration for the Cornellian. Later I took the dean on an extended tour of the Campus, including the Laboratory of Ornithology in Sapsucker Woods, and learned that Pash had a '50 son here. I believe that Mrs. Davis died a couple of years ago. Earl B. Clark, of North Norwich, who shared our Freshman year in Special Agriculture, has been renominated by the New York State Grange for board of directors of GLF. Active in cooperative insurance organizations for many years, Earl operates a 2000-acre farm with 125 Holstein cattle and 1500 acres of snap beans and has been on GLF board since 1936. Frank Sullivan of Saratoga & Morris Bishop of Ithaca were among signers of a three-column New York Times autographed salute to P. G. Wodehouse on his 80th birthday.

From New York City, Ike Neuwirth reports that he retired August 31 as professor of pharmacology and department chairman at NYU College of Denistry; he had been there 25 years. Not content to let his talents lie idle, he is now visiting professor in biochemistry at New York Medical College, with headquarters at Flower & Fifth Avenue hospitals. His son, S. Edward '57, graduated from his dad's dental school in 1960 and is now interning in The Queen's Hospital, Honolulu, which sounds like a prize plum. Our Alumni Office recently put him in touch with the Cornell Club of Hawaii, a live-wire group. In addition to his BS with us, Ike took a PhD in 1927 at Cornell Medical College.

Cornell Club of New York is proving a good meeting place for '15 helmsmen gourmets. Those seen at the Round Table this fall have included E. Roy Underwood, mutual fund expert; John M. Stratton, attorney & director of Avon Products, Inc.; A. W. (Art) Wilson, publisher's representative & your able secretary; G. Gilson (Gil) Terriberry, management consultant; and your columnist. The Round Table is a Dutch treat proposition, available to any lone wolf guest of the Club. Try it when you're in town! President D. F. Abel will assist for the first time at the semi-annual luncheon this month.

Several Classmates are beginning to display that parental pride which keeps this old world young. W. C. (Jack) Lunden, of Varsity basketball (ICC championship) fame, writes that his daughter Jean, well known abroad for her pastel work, has been European & Middle Eastern representative of Selected Arts Galleries, New York. She has brought back works of the French artist Jean Aurel ("Painter of Light Without Shadows") for a US premiere showing beginning December 7 at 903 Madison Ave., New York.

The other day in the Barclay elevator we literally bumped into William H. (Bill) Cosgrove, looking bigger than ever as he hurried to a directors' meeting. Bill has successfully headed the Swindell Dressler Corp. of Pittsburgh for some years. (He is also famed for his cavalier conduct at Reunions!) Frank B. Lent remains consulting marketing counsel to the Dairymen's League Cooperative Association, despite a reorganization which combines into one department the legal staff & marketing division. He lives at 508 Stewart Ave., Ithaca.

First Vice-president Walter A. (Mutz) Priester tells us that this is his fortieth year in business, as president of Priester Construction Co. of Davenport, Iowa, with his brother Oscar '18 as vice-president. Mutz has two sons and Oscar has one in the family business, which is housed in an office building recently completed by their firm. Congratulations, Mutz! See you at our 50th, if not before.

"Realtor of the Year" for the State of Maryland was the honor given Ralph P. Ripley, a director of the National Association of Real Estate Boards and member of many local, state & national organizations in his field. After graduating from Cornell, Ralph studied at American University & MIT. He owns his office building at 8211 Fenton St., Silver Spring, Md. and resides with wife Merle and their two daughters at 14808 Carrollton Rd., Manor Country Club, Norbeck, Md.

After Alexander M. Beebe retired, November 1, 1957, as chairman & chief executive officer of Rochester Gas & Electric Corp., he became executive director of the Empire State Utilities Power Resources Association. His new duties took him to Europe to inspect atomic power plants and as US representative at a world power conference. Under Beebe's guidance the Association is mapping power requirements of the State for the next decade.

'16 Harry F. Byrne
141 Broadway
New York 6, N.Y.

Henry (Huk) Hukill, an old Sibley boy, is retiring from Bendix after a thirty-one-year stretch there. After a plane trip to Hawaii, he plans to enjoy his ten grandchildren and conduct his mail order business, Antique Corner, Inc, Box 58, South Bend 24, Ind. His son, an engineering officer in the Polaris project, is on the nuclear submarine Robert E. Lee. Huk had the good fortune to inspect the same at the launching ceremonies at Newport News recently and to see many things that were not in his books at Sibley. He also had the pleasure of meeting another Cornellian: W. E. Blewett, Jr., '18, president of Newport News Shipbuilding Co., builders of the submarine and of many other fine Navy ships.

A letter from Colonel L. Brown '19, 6 Harrison St., New York City, says that "Red" Kent '16 had been in his office recently and that "Red's" first name was a mystery, which, in fact, it is not, since it is just plain Rodolphus, ignored for the most part because he sported a beautiful crop of rosy-hued hair. Kent is practically "Mr. Potato," having been an authority on the spud for a lifetime and a buyer of that staple for the Great Atlantic & Pacific Co. for long years. He can now be reached at 2 Glendale Rd., Caribou, Me., a defector from Brooklyn at last. Jack Wardwell has migrated from Detroit to Green Hill Road, RD 1, Madison, Conn. We know no more of little Jackie, but hope he will enlighten us ere long, which is something more than a hint, though not a command.

You have no idea how speedily the deadlines come around for the ALUMNI NEWS and it is a little frustrating to hear the beefs when a blank appears for '16. It is all up to you, my lads, and we have none of that stuff known as whole cloth on hand to create what is not. Once again, do not forget June 1961 and the 45th Reunion, of which you should shortly begin to hear rumblings of a more definite nature from Ham Vose, who has kindly agreed to be the chairman of that event, originating out of Chicago.

'17 Men—Walter W. (Duby) Krebs is still Mr. Johnstown, Pa., being president & editor of The Tribune-Democrat, which is published by Johnstown Tribune Publishing Co. of which Duby is the head. Also, he still runs the local radio & television stations. But what really keeps him busy now is raising his purebred Hereford cattle under the banner of Millcreek Valley Farm. His cattle have won many championships at farm shows & fairs from Pennsylvania & Ohio to Louisiana. But Duby still has time for Cornell, taking prospective students to visit the Campus frequently and helping worthy boys to enter. He & Mrs. Krebs did take time off last spring, however, for a month's vacation in Mexico.—HERB JOHNSTON

That little note in a recent column about "lost Classmates" from whom we never hear has at least stirred up a few brief news notes. But your harassed correspondent still has to scramble for every little item in this column. Even a change of address is news of interest to somebody, you know. That reminds me: there's a note from Edmund S. (Ed) Barrington advising that he's still here in Washington, but has a new address, 4000 Massachusetts Ave., N.W. And, by the way, those of you who spend winters in Florida had better give us your addresses there if you expect pleasant reunions with old pals.

Robert F. (Spud) Phillips writes that he is on the last lap with US Fidelity & Guaranty Co. and will retire next June after 36 years. He is now manager of the company's offices in Milwaukee. After June he will try to catch up, as we all should, with the hunting, fishing & tinkering that hasn't been possible up to now, but Spud also plans to devote more time to spoiling his grandchildren. His only travel plan at the moment is to be back at Ithaca for Reunion in 1963.

Benjamin Aborn II reflects, I think, some of the feelings of men who have long been out of touch with their Classmates. Ben, who retired in 1954, recalls that in college he didn't make too many friends and hesitated afterwards to attend Reunions because he didn't drink and feared he might not enjoy himself. Yet Ben has led a full life and has kept busier than ever since his retirement, working with both Boy Scouts & Juvenile Aid Bureau in East Orange, where he makes his home (Hotel East Orange, 101 N. Grove St.). Life is full of thrills, writes Ben, when you can give a boy a real lift, and many of his "boys" have gone on to college, never losing touch with him. Ben was in Ithaca recently and was amazed to find what a friendly place it is. He particularly enjoyed talking with and "consoling" some undergraduates who were worried about the high scholastic mortality rate. Shades of Davy Hoy! Well, Ben, you'll find old Classmates fun to talk with, too, and any drinking they do now at Reunions wouldn't worry you.

Another Classmate who finds life lonesome because he is so out of touch with us all is Sam Karrakis, who writes from Los Angeles (5706 Airborne St., L.A. 19, Cal.). Sam, you may recall, lost a leg a few years ago, but he is still active and alert for word from old friends. Roy Wasson, who was last heard of nearly two years ago when Colorado Springs, Colo., named a high school after him, reports he is still flying high. This news item is a bit old now, but Roy attended the National Security Forum at Maxwell Air Force Base War College, Ala. last May and took the "stick" of a jet trainer for a few minutes; a big difference, he says, from the French recon. plane he flew back in Our War. Roy still lives in Colorado Springs at 1623 N. Cascade Ave., and is, I assume, still superintendent of schools there.

'19 Colonel L. Brown
472 Gramatan Ave.
Mount Vernon, N.Y.

Fred W. Sultan, Jr. is branch manager for Ingersoll-Rand Co. in Houston, Tex. He reports: "No changes, everything status quo." Fred's business address is Box 22266, Houston 27, Tex., and his home address is 2023 Claremont Lane, Houston 19. James G. Pritchard lives on Orchard St., Interlaken and is owner of James G. Pritchard Interlaken Sales Agency.

Leonard L. Poore lives at 127 Athol Avenue, Oakland, Cal. His business address is 1052 Dwight Way, Berkeley. He gives his title as district manager, but fails to list the company. Edward H. Pattison is a lawyer at 12 First St., Troy. His home address is Brunswick Hills, Troy. Like other members of the legal fraternity mentioned in a recent issue, Ed does not volunteer much information.

Florida is the residence of an ever increasing number of Classmates. Ross L. Milliman lives at 273 Thirty-Eighth Ave., N.E., St. Petersburg, Fla. He says: "Just taking things easy, as comes more or less natural in this part of the country." Since he makes no mention of gainful employment, we accept his report as correct. J. Laurence Lee is general operations manager of Ozark Tractor & Implement Co., 440 E. Tampa St., Springfield, Mo. He lives at 1496 Meadowmere Lane, Springfield. C. Hugh L. Hudson is president of Hudson's, Inc., 220 W. Main Street, Frankfort, Ky. His home address is Box 264, Frankfort.

Charles J. Howell is a contracting engineer with Pittsburgh-Des Moines Steel Co.,

Pittsburgh 25, Pa. We note he has a grandson, Eric Howell Weinert, two. Charlie's home address is 1528 Termon Ave., Pittsburgh 12. Floyd W. Hough is president of Geonautics, Inc., 1346 Connecticut Ave., N.W., Washington 6, D.C. His home is at 2412 N. Columbus St., Arlington 7, Va. Flody has been active in the military and holds the rank of lieutenant-colonel. Dwight B. Hendryx is head of Dwight B. Hendryx & Associates of Pittsburgh, Pa., a consulting & designing engineering company specializing in design & construction of complete modern plants, furnaces & dryers for the manufacture of refractory brick, building brick & sewer pipe. Dwight has three children & seven grandchildren, which puts him one ahead of your correspondent in number of grandchildren. His home address is 6621 Darlington Rd., Pittsburgh 17, Pa.

Harold C. Grinnell is dean of University of New Hampshire and has his office in Morrill Hall at the University. He reports: "No change in position and no exciting news about myself." Harold's home address is 24 Bagdad Rd., Durham, N.H. Eugene F. Zeiner is still operating his own business in steam & power specialties. His place of business is 828 Montgomery St., Narbeth, Pa., & he lives at The Mermont, Apt. 504, Bryn Mawr, Pa. Eugene A. Zeiner, BME '53, is his son.

Lately, everybody's been goin' places or just plain travelin'! Musta got the habit from watchin' those political fellers flying around the fifty States like mad, tryin' to see how many speeches in how many States they could make in a day. They sure wore themselves out; and the public too! No political jaunt was Stew Solomon's recent trip through the West Indies and on to Trinidad. He left town suddenly after election, on business, he says. But you know Stew; he just loves those Hot Tamales! One of these days he'll get one too many and have to bring her home with him! His no-relation-whatever Edward Solomon of Pittsburgh just returned, all tanned, from the land of the midnight sun; visiting the Scandahoovian countries plus Russia, Germany & England. The sight-seeing Solomons ought to get together as a travelogue team. Shutterbug Stew could handle the picture dept. and Ed could commentate!

Speaking of traveling, Trustee Bill Littlewood who, as V.P. of American Airlines does nothing else but, recently took friend wife (Dorothy Cushman '21) on a busman's holiday for a month in England, Wales, Germany, Austria, Switzerland & "Gay Paree"! Bill's office is in Washington, but when he can get home he relaxes at Martingham, St. Michaels, Md. Herman Halperin is general staff engineer for Commonwealth Edison Co., Chicago, which in October put into operation the world's first atomic power plant, Dresden Nuclear Power Station at Morris, Ill., 50 miles south of the Loop. Now able to take a vacation, Herman is standing on his head on the other side of the globe, seeing the Orient from Japan to Singapore. Morton P. Woodward, director of manufacture, overseas div., Procter & Gamble in Cincinnati, has been on a business trip to Australia, Indonesia, Philippines, Thailand & Hong Kong. Mort washes up for dinner at 55 E. Fountain, Glendale, Ohio.

Vincent Lamoreaux, chief of field staffing, Office of Public Health, International Cooperation Administration, recruits public health personnel for overseas duty and has charge of exhibits, designs & preparation of professional meetings. Vince's travel is limited to the US, but that enabled him to hop over to Hawaii last month after a meeting in San Francisco. For rest periods, Vince hangs out in McLean, Va. Lester Fay of Arlington, Va. is supervising engineer, US Army Engineers, in Washington, D.C., working on civil projects. Lester has gone into training for his eventual retirement by taking 4 vacations this year, to Fla., Mass., Vt., & West Va., taking Dinah's advice to "see the USA in his Chevrolet," Cadillac, Ford or Volkswagen, or what have you! Bitten by the "can't-stay-at-home" bug too, we (Kathie & O. G.) did some conventioning in the South last month & took a jet, yet, for 2 hours and found ourselves in Dallas with 6000 realtors for a week of hard work and hard play. Southern hospitality is hard to beat, and makes it doubly hard to get back into daily routine.

Now that you've digested your Thanksgiving turkey, we should remind you that there are just 21 shopping days left to get ready for your Christmas goose!

'21 Charles M. Stotz
Bessemer Bldg.
Pittsburgh 22, Pa.

J. Arvid Peterson, 156 Santa Fe Drive, Houston, Tex., checked in to say that Oil Country Specialties continue to occupy his time and talent, that he now has nine grandchildren, and that his "orbit calls for Ithaca in June, 1961. Let's make it the best." Wallace V. (Wally) Cunneen says, "My daughter Doris and her husband with their 4 children have just returned from Honolulu and will be located in Rhode Island. Have six grandchildren altogether. Have just been commissioned to do a 16-story bank building in Cleveland, and our business generally is the greatest volume nationally that we have ever enjoyed. See Pat Collum occasionally and saw Ben Cunningham in Dallas." The Cunneens live at 732 Chetwynd Apt., Rosemont, Pa.

Amos L. Main told us nothing of life at his glamorous address, 101 Iris Drive, Sunrise Terrace, Binghamton, but he did fill us in about a Classmate he dug up in the wilds of the Adirondacks while on tour with his wife (Amos's wife, that is). "We came to the village of Indian Lake and I was reminded of my old roomie, Gerald F. Cross, ME, whom I hadn't heard from in a long time and hadn't seen since graduation. I inquired at the post office, learned he was living in the area, and shortly we were talking over old times. Gerald went with Esso shortly after graduation, spent several years in Casper, Wyo., then two hitches in Aruba. His wife died last December and he retired from Esso. Now he is back where he started, and promised to join me at the next Class Reunion."

S. J. (Scotty) Scacciaferro has resigned from the Foreign Service and is tentatively experimenting with retirement. As he puts it: "After ten years of excitement in the Mediterranean area, it may be difficult to adjust myself to a humdrum existence in Brooklyn or New Jersey, but I'm going to try it." Scotty lives at 1221 Tabor Court, Brooklyn 19. Seeking a contrast with their life on 112 Westminister Drive in Yonkers, Harry J. Donovan and his wife, Lillian Brotherhood '21, toured Egypt and the Holy Lands, Greece, Turkey & Malta last summer. Harry was elected a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts, Manufactures & Commerce, London, in May 1960.

Don't forget that a prize of a case of champagne has been established and was announced in this column for the first 1921 Classmate reporting his first great-grandchild. As no one has responded, either from timidity or because the prize was not announced soon enough, we have decided to extend the time limit to Reunion next June. At that time the case will be divided between all of the great-grandfathers then present.

'22 Men—During Homecoming week end in Ithaca, Ted Baldwin showed me a letter from Walt Popham. It was written in Detroit on the eve of Walt's departure for Tokyo to visit his many Japanese Cornellian friends with whom he became acquainted during his six years in Japan, partly with the Army and partly as a civilian with the Air Force. He mentioned Tokisuke Yokogawa '21 as one of his very close friends and said that all members of the Cornell Club of Tokyo are considered of one family. He added that Japanese-accented "Alma Mater" and "Evening Song" in far-away Tokyo are real tear jerkers.

Lewis R. (Lew) Gaty has been elected vice-president in charge of engineering & research of Philadelphia Electric Co. He lives in Bryn Mawr; has been in charge of research & development since 1956 and now takes on additional duties of running the engineering organization. He has been active in nuclear power development as vice-president of the technical & engineering committee of Atomic Power Development Associates and a member of the technical & engineering committee of Power Reactor Development Co. A big job to take care of the growing Philadelphia area! Arsham R. Amirikian is a special structures consultant to the Navy's Bureau of Yards & Docks. He recently returned from Europe, where he attended the annual assembly of International Institute of Welding in Liege, Belgium, and the third International Congress of Precast Concrete Industry in Stockholm, Sweden. Later, he received the degree of Doctor of Technical Sciences from the Technical Institute (Technische Hochschule) in Vienna.

Kenneth L. (Ken) Fitts attended the recent American Mining Congress in Las Vegas, where he beat the drums for those off-highway Mack trucks which the miners use to get the gold out of them thar hills. Rumor has it that he visited one of the gambling institutions where he took some elementary lessons in the care and feeding of one-armed bandits. Financial results of the trip are not available for publication.

Dr. Clarence H. (Clem) Cleminshaw was the subject of a feature article in a recent issue of The Los Angeles Times. Clem is now director of the Griffith Observatory and spends his time getting well acquainted with all the moons and stars. He is quoted as saying that "there's nothing like realizing you're living on a spaceship traveling 66,000 m.p.h. around the sun to make you stop worrying about your own little problems." Edwin A. Gauntt, with GLF since 1939 in various positions, has located in Somerville, N.J., where he will help divisional personnel in GLF relations with college, business & government agencies.

Send in some more news about yourself or any member of the Class. The editorial basket is getting sort of bare and you can take the consequences if I am forced to write poems to fill the space.

Henry Schenck writes from Winter Park, Fla., "Have sold my hotel, which I operated since 1932 until last May 1. Am technically 'retired,' so I can devote more time to my activities as a director of Winter Park Federal Savings & Loan Association, treasurer of University Club of Winter Park, trustee of the Orlando Art Association, a director of Symphony Orchestra of Central Florida, vice-president of Winter Park Country Club, and secretary-treasurer of Eagle's Nest Camp of Pisgah, N.C." Col. Edwin C. Kelton, US Army (Ret.), writes: "Enjoying retirement in sunny southern California after thirty years service with the Corps of Engineers, US Army, and seven years as beach erosion engineer for the State of California. Ten months visit in Europe in '52 and '53 and four trips back East in six years keep time from lying heavy on my hands. Vital statistics: 3 children, 8 grandchildren."

Paul R. Needham writes: "My wife (Dorothy Shorb '26) and I just returned from a summer touring about Europe. We picked up a car in Stuttgart, Germany, August 19, and wandered through Switzerland, Austria, Italy, France, Belgium & England. We visited fisheries stations that were of interest since I still teach zoology-fisheries at University of California in Berkeley." Paul has five grandchildren. Sports Illustrated, March 24 ran an article on Paul's trout work, using an underwater observation tank. Needless to say, his hobbies are trout fishing & hunting.

Charles H. Reese stopped in to say hello. He is just back from a visit to his daughter and son-in-law, Lt. & Mrs. Malcolm Preston, in Turkey, where Lt. Preston is with NATO. They had a wonderful time visiting Izmir, Istanbul, Madrid, Rhodes, Athens, Rome, Paris, etc. Reese has two grandchildren. Sarah A. Beard writes that she attended the conference of the American Library Association and the Canadian Library Association in late June at Montreal. The highlight of the trip was the Banquet des Voyageurs at the Queen Elizabeth in honor of the Children's Book Award winners. Mrs. Phoebe Ross Kidd writes of the glorious country she has seen in British Columbia on an inspection tour of present and prospective water power installations. A world traveler, she considers B. C. the most beautiful country topographically.

Monday evening, January 16, at the Cornell Club of New York: this is the date of our pre-Reunion Class dinner. Mark it on your calendar now and plan to be there if you are in the vicinity. President & Reunion Chairman Harry Wade will be on hand from Indianapolis to give the preliminary plans for our June anniversary. Class Secretary Schuyler Tarbell, c/o Townsend & Lewis, 120 Broadway, New York, is chairman for this occasion.

G. Kenneth Kilpatrick, 4 W. State St., Lowville, is administrative assistant at the Lowville Academy & Central School. Son George '60 is employed by Campbell Soup Co. in Albany. Henry T. Reynolds of Mayflower Apartments L-4, Bryn Mawr, Pa. writes, "Happy to report that Reynolds Insurance Agency, Inc. is doing splendidly. Will produce enough to send me to Reunion next June!"

Norman R. Steinmetz advises that he is in his 20th year as president of General Public Service Corp., an investment company. His son Bob '60 will be married in February, 1961, after receiving his BArch and his commission in the Naval Reserve. Norm and his wife Alice live at 31 Strickland Pl., Manhasset. Meade Summers sends the following: "Working hard. Leave today for three-day pheasant hunt in Iowa; leave next Friday for a three-day quail hunt in Leroy, Kan., leave December 7 for a two-day quail hunt in Harrisonburg, Va. Expect to be in Ithaca in June, with bells on!" Meade's address is 17 Glenn Abbey, St. Louis 31, Mo.

If you have not replied to Harry Wade's questionnaire or to Gene Kaufmann's treasurer's communication, it would be a fine idea to do so before Christmas!

The Sunshine State can now claim James D. Pond (above) as one of its own. After 27 years in Ithaca, Froggy and his wife moved to Lakeland, Fla. He writes: "We arrived August 20 after a hectic two weeks of selling our Ithaca home and a hasty trip down. By the 25th we had bought a nice little house with huge screened patio, plus fiber glass pool in which I cool off every afternoon. I started teaching biology in senior high school to 155 students, August 29. Classes start at 7:25 a.m., since swing shifts are in force due to 1770 students in a school meant for 1500. I'm enjoying the work a lot and doing a bit of consulting forestry on the side. But it keeps me stepping to stay ahead of these young people." Froggy says there is quite a contingent of Cornellians and ex-Cornell professors in the area, and they have been making the rounds visiting with them. The Ponds are still represented in Ithaca by their daughter Sandra '56, son-in-law Rodney H. Cornish '55, who is completing his PhD in Engineering, and their year-old daughter Beth Anne. Froggy's new address is 634 Hillside Dr., Lakeland.

Robert C. Hazlett of 6 Echo Point Circle, Wheeling W. Va. writes of his children: Robert C., Jr. '61; John A., Amherst '62; James B. '64. We think Bob has been too busy to write of any of his doings, but we believe we have a sure returnee for the 30th Reunion. Dr. Charles E. Fletcher, DVM '33, will be president of the New York State Veterinary Medical Society in 1961. He operates the Marble Hill Crematory in New York City and conducts a similar operation at Syosset, L.I. He lives at 322 W. 231st St., New York 63.

Robert T. ("Bob") Garret, MD, San Clemente, Cal., indicates probable return to Ithaca next June. He was polite as ever, with a robust "Hi Baldy" to this correspondent. He is right. Was on last fall for Cornell-Penn game and stayed the night with Frank O'Brien.

At times we add to these columns information we receive from the women's side of the Class. Lenore Tobin Schattner, director of the Theatre Party Bureau, spoke to the Cornell Women's Club of New York, October 19, on this season's theatre in New York.

Martin Riger (above) was appointed secretary of Federated Department Stores, October 10, 1960, succeeding the late Judge Jacob J. Kaplan of Boston. Martin has been with Federated since 1947 and is presently general counsel and head of the company's law department. After Cornell, he graduated at Columbia law school, where he was editor-in-chief of the Columbia Law Review. Before his employment with Federated, he served on the US Securities & Exchange Commission, as director of its former reorganization division and as assistant director of its corporation finance division. Martin lives at 6745 W. Farm Acres Drive, Cincinnati 37, Ohio, with wife Anne & daughters Andrea (16) & Stephanie (14).

Dr. Howard K. Fuller will serve as president of the NY State Veterinary Medical Society in 1962. He was elected recently at the group's meeting in Syracuse, which was attended by 390 veterinarians and their wives. In 1934, he entered partnership with Dr. Kellogg in Interlaken and took over the practice in 1937. Dr. Fuller is also a member of the American Veterinary Medical Association, Southern Tier Veterinary Medical Association, and is past-president of the Finger Lakes Veterinary Medical Association. He has been very active in the State society, serving on many committees since 1939. He is currently a member of the committee on artificial insemination. From 1952-58, he served on the State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners. He is also a member of the Veterinary College Council. Dr. Fuller is a former member of the Interlaken school board and a past-president of the Seneca County Fish & Game Club. He was married in 1933 and has three daughters, a son & two grandsons.

His brother, Colonel John D. Payne '30, is commander of the AFROTC detachment at the University. They are sons of the late Dr. Charles R. Payne '02.

'34 BS—Mrs. William Harrover (May Jamieson) of Smith College, Northampton, Mass., graduated from the School for Social Work there, August 30.

'35 Men—I talked to Ed Sonfield, president of C. Bruno & Son, 460 West 34th St., New York, just as he was about to leave for a short business trip to London. He reported that his wife (Anne Shulman '35) is head of the library division of the United Hospital Fund in New York and that their son is a Freshman at Cornell and plays in the Band. They also have a daughter, 13.

Ralph E. Wise, manager of sales for The Lummus Co., an engineering & construction firm, 385 Madison Ave., New York, finds that his business requires extensive travel and he is now in Europe. When business doesn't interfere, Ralph can be found racing his 210 sailboat with the Western Long Island Sound fleet. He lives at 66 Avon Rd., Bronxville. Leonard was previously executive vice-president of Diehl, and has been in the Singer organization since graduation. Dr. George E. Burch has been appointed an assistant director of the division of animal industry in the New York State Department of Agriculture & Markets. George served four years in the Army with General Stillwell's forces in the China-Burma-India Theater. After the war, he engaged in private veterinary practice, and from 1958 until this year was connected with the veterinary science division at Penn State.

During Homecoming week end, a group of Classmates met in Carpenter Hall for a short get-together and the conversation centered primarily around our 25th Reunion next June. Present at the meeting were Jack Humphreys, John McManus, Dick Reynolds, Andy Schultz, Dick Wiss, Stan Shepardson & Bob Hamburger. You will be hearing a great deal more about our Reunion plans from Dan Moretti & Dick Reynolds, your Reunion chairmen, and it will be extremely helpful to these hard-working fellows if you will indicate to them as soon as possible that you plan to attend. Those who have not been back to the Campus recently are certain to be astounded at the new buildings & other changes.

'37 Women—More from the Reunion diary: Had dinner with Eleanor Simonds, our illustrious honorary Classmate, at her apartment Friday evening, and got her annual reassurance that student activities & conduct are about the same as ever, and all's right with Ithaca & the world. Talked briefly by phone to Bob and Jan Coolidge Child's daughter Marcia, who was to be married next day to David Kresge of Ithaca, an MIT student. Jan was busy planning the wedding, which was to be held on the Childs' lawn, where we had our Class dinner at our last Reunion. Marcia said her sister Barbara was going to Dean Junior College in Franklin, Mass. this fall. Brother David, 13, is a 9th-grader. Jan is still doing art work, drafting & illustrating for the Agronomy Department. Later, Milton R. (Jack) Shaw '34 told me his daughter Linda was in Marcia's wedding party, also, that his daughter Judy has just been accepted for Hotel School. Jack and Ruth McCurdy Shaw now have three of their brood in college at once.

It was fun to see our '35 grandmother

Class, and I got a special kick out of running into Vivian Michaelson & Dora Iovanelli for the first time in a quarter-century (!). They roomed together in our corridor in Risley our Frosh year and, with Hope Palmer, they "bossed" Helen Fry & me. They worried about our scholastic & social lives, told us what to wear, scolded us when we got too obstreperous, and took very good & loving care of us. Both Viv & Dora are teaching school, and Viv's oldest son is at Cornell. Jean Bradley Ashbery, Bill Kruse '38, Glad Frankle '39 & yours truly sat up on the bandstand in the Drill Hall Saturday noon and held our own review of the parading alumni, hollering appropriate comments to friends as each reuning Class went by our catbird seat. Poor Ray Ashbery '25 had an awful time keeping up with his Classmates because friends kept yanking him out of the parade to shake hands, and Jean kept urging him to rejoin the '25 gang. There was as much fun & confusion as at old-time political conventions.

Saturday afternoon, I drove out to Professor Perry & Claire Kelly Gilbert's summer home near Danby and picnicked with them and their eight delightful children beside their own lake. It was wonderful to have all ten Gilberts to myself, and conversation at their house is always stimulating. Anne, a senior at Nazareth College where she's majoring in French & English, was looking forward to a summer of teaching swimming (and speaking French most of the time) at Les Chalets Francais at Deer Island, Me. (She's in Who's Who in American Colleges, by the way.) David, now a sophomore (pre-med student) at Harvard, was to be a collector of sea life for a marine lab at Mt. Desert Island, Bar Harbor. Steve, a senior in high school this fall, "is primarily identified with A & P: he works there!" John, 14, a ninth grader, was to be a camp counselor in the Adirondacks. Mary, known as "Muff," now in the eighth grade, is the pianist of the family. Lois, in third grade, is the artist. Chris, who was five in August, is a red-headed darling and Philip, the newest Gilbert, was an affable, cuddly 4-months-old charmer.—CAROL H. CLINE

Doing a little catching up at our '38 dinner in New York are Roy Lockwood & Ray Gartelman (above). Roy is an engineer and lives with his wife & daughter at 701 Upper Blvd., Ridgewood, N.J. Ray and his family, two boys and a girl, live at 44 Circle Dr., Glen Cove.

Dick Anderson was recently appointed director of production for Sun Oil Co. He, his wife, and three sons (19, 17 & 15) live at 1535 W. Montgomery Ave., Rosemont, Pa. Bob Smith, a registered representative of the New York Stock Exchange, is with Carl M. Loeb Rhoades & Co., Elmira. He lives at 217 Coleman Ave., Elmira.

Howard Simons, deputy director of the food & materials division of the Commodity Stabilization Service, US Department of Agriculture (whew!), was recently cited for outstanding service. The award was given (in part) for "distinguished leadership, exceptional vision, unusual ability to analyze situations & documents, persistent effort in expediting most difficult assignments."

First of notes from all over is from Dave Eden: "Been in Washington, D.C., since '46 where I came for one (!) year's residency in psychiatry. Married, 3 children: Jan 12½, Larry 11½, Barbara 8, all looking toward Cornell. In practice of psychoanalysis and on faculty of George Washington U. College of Medicine as assistant clinical professor of psychiatry." From Bob Bellamy: "Working in research for Electric Storage Battery Co. (Exide, Willard, Ray-O-Vac). Have two boys, 15 & 13, a girl 10. Just moved into a new house last week. Am revolytingly happy with my family, my work & our location. Play tennis still and play duplicate bridge whenever I can wangle a four-hour pass." From Ed Frisbee: "My oldest daughter, Margaret, graduated from Ichabod Crane Central School, Volatie, last June. She will enter William Smith College, Geneva, in September. In June I retired as a member of the board of education after giving Margaret her diploma at graduation." From Marsh Hoke: "The M. P. Hokes & the D. M. (Dave) Crawfords, totaling 14 men, women & children, spent a few days together at the Hoke's camp near New London, N.H. in August. We had a ball. The Milt Porters also stayed near by for the month of July and came over for tennis a couple of times. Do any other '38ers summer in central N.H.? My eldest of 4 sons graduated from Loomis in June and goes to Oakham School in Rutland County, England, for the 1960-61 school year."

'38 Women—Sylvia Gluck Grossman is back in law school this fall after a very pleasant summer. Now it isn't my business to nag you to contribute to the Cornell Fund, but it seems to me that if you realized how hard Sylvia works to drag those few dollars out of you, you'd just donate to give her brains a rest. She beats them out, gals, and has for several years, and about the only thanks she gets is the general feeling that the Class of '38 women could do a little better. There now, that's lecture seventeen I keep in the files for special nagging purposes.

To the news: Jean Burr Joy traveled with all six in the family to Pasadena & Yellowstone this summer. Jean commented that she was sure they had all the family "togetherness" they needed on that tour. Florence Watt spent two months in Spain recently and liked everything there: the people, the scenery & especially the hotels at three dollars per.

Harriet Van Inwagen Fabrey's son Bill is a Freshman in Electrical Engineering and toots the sousaphone with the Big Red Band. Harriette Vane Kratzer is teaching school and taking courses to add to her problems. Eileen Mandl Goodwin's eldest entered Yale this fall with an honorary scholarship. Florence Singer Leonard's eldest is a Freshman at Wellesley. Congratulations to Bryna Gilbert Goldshaft who became a grandmother in '59! Mary Randolph Prozeller was hospitalized last February. Sorry, no get-well card, Mary. You didn't tell me, but hope there are no more return trips. Our sympathy to Eleanor Sichel May who lost her mother during the year.

A card from Elsie Harrington Doolittle reports she & Bill joined the Hartford Cornell Clubs and Bill wound up as an officer. Marjorie Hardenburg Duncan recently ended a wonderful year in Formosa where her husband, R. We have had an interesting news note from Pelayo V. Riera, now living at 20130 NE 25th Court, North Miami Beach, Fla. He is running a business called "Pelayo." Formerly he was a Cuban importer of machinery, steel, paper, lubricants & engineering specialties. He writes, "Having lost a 50-year-old family business to the Cuban revolutionary government, I was able to get out with my family, our clothes, and just enough cash to last about eight months while I try to start a new business on my own: Tropical fruit parcels, delicacies & fine gifts." The address of this business is Box 881, Ojus, Fla. It sounds like a good outfit to patronize!

In this column October 1, mention was made of a poster exhibited in Willard Straight Hall lobby last June titled "Yesterday & Today." It showed, among other things, a picture of a '41 singing quartet. Dick Lee, 3542 Newark St., N.W., Washington 16, D.C., sent us that picture, which is reproduced above. Many of us still have old photographs, snapshots, clippings, folders, and other items accumulated during undergraduate days. If you will mail these to me at the address at the top of this column, I will hold them for exhibit during our great 20th Reunion in Ithaca next June. After Reunion, these collectors' items will be returned to you. Help us put on a real show of "Cornell Memories." Start cleaning out your desk today!

His new address is White Oak Dr., Henderson, N. C. The Rubins have two sons, age 16 & 14.

Stephen Wm. Barnes, 28 Grand St., Sidney, has completed nineteen years with Co-operative GLF Exchange, and now operates one of its retail stores. Bill writes that the Barnes family has four girls & a boy. Jack H. Weintraub, 723 Radley Rd., Westfield, N.J., is a partner in Triple R Farms, wholesale egg vendors in Monmouth Junction. Mrs. Weintraub is the former Frances Rosenstock. Their three children are Joel, Marion & Judy.

'42 AB, '49 MBA, '49 AB—Donald Bergen Abbott, six-year-old son of Frank C. Abbott & Mrs. Abbott (Lois Bergen) '49, was drowned at Elk Lake, August 28, while the family was there on vacation. He was the second son; they have three other sons & a daughter. Since 1958, Abbott has been assistant dean of Bucknell at Lewisburg, Pa., where they live at 1402 Jefferson Avenue. He teaches a course in American government there. Next February 1, he will become academic vice-president of Montana State University at Missoula. He was administrative assistant to President Edmund E. Day and to Provost Arthur S. Adams and went with Adams in 1951 as staff associate when Adams was elected president of the American Council on Education in Washington, D.C. Abbott received the PhD at Harvard Graduate School of Public Administration & Mrs. Abbott received the Master's degree at Harvard. He Harold G. Buchbinder, 25 Bayfield Road, Cochituate, Mass., is president of Benwill Publishing Corp. & publisher of Electromechanical Design magazine. Harold married Charlotte Kaizer in 1947 and has three children, Mary 6, Jonathan 4 & Susan 2. Donald J. Siskind has moved his law office to 63 Wall St., New York City. Herbert L. Lobdell, 297 Hyslip Ave., Westfield, N. J., has four young children and works in Greer division, Woodward-Clyde-Sherard & Associates, consulting soil & foundation engineers of Montclair, N.J.

Eric C. Oesterle, 162 Sumac Drive, W. Lafayette, Ind., is associate professor of agricultural economics at Purdue and faculty adviser to AXP. He & his wife (Germaine Seelye '45) have four children, Eric 11, Dale 9, Elizabeth 6 & Mary Ellen 4. Robert K. Barnes, 26 Hakes Aves., Hornell, is an engineer for New York State.

Dr. Philips S. Herbert, Jr., 14 East 77th St., New York City, writes: "I'm now well into my fourth year of private practice in psychiatry here. It's demanding and fascinating work. Still a psychiatrist to outpatients at the Payne Whitney Clinic & an instructor at Cornell Medical College. Nothing much has changed except my location, which is now 14 East 77th St., where I've realized a long-standing daydream in having a small backyard garden of my own." Robert L. Dow, 915 19th St., Washington 6, D.C., practices orthopedics.

Harrie K. Washburn, Sharon Springs, is married and has 2 girls, 14 & 11, & a boy 4. He has taught agriculture at Sharon Springs Central School since graduation. Harrie is also a member of the village board of trustees. Theodor J. Frasco, Jr., 44 S. Terrace Ave. Mt. Vernon, writes that he "would like to hear from Dave Allen & Wilson Percival III, joined the National Broadcasting Co., 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York City, in April 1954, after ten years in USAF. Served as instructor in radio-TV department, Armed Forces Information School, Fort Slocum. Married; one son & another Cornellian on the way."

Women—Anne Horan is studying in the graduate school at NYU, hoping to complete work for her MA by June. Anne is preparing to do editorial work in book publishing and along with her studies she is "apprenticed" to Holt, Rinehart & Winston, part-time. Before entering NYU this fall, Anne worked for The New York Times for a number of years in varied capacities, including secretary to Arthur Hays Sulzberger, publisher, and secretary to Clifton Daniels, asst. managing editor.

"The PTA Discovers Art," an article in the September issue of Woman's Day, brought to light the activities of another Classmate, Joyce Teck Meller, wife of Herbert Meller '49. As chairman of the ways and means committee of the Chappaqua public school PTA, Joyce suggested an art show as a money-raising enterprise for their college scholarship fund. After convincing fellow board members that such a show was a good idea, she had the mammoth job of organizing the exhibit. The Woman's Day article is extremely interesting & enlightening; worth looking up. The committee for selection of works of art to be displayed (600 in all) was headed by Louise Passerman Rosenfeld '50, wife of Gabriel Rosenfeld '49. The three-day show was fantastically successful, returning a net profit of $3,000 from sale of art, admissions & catalog advertising. Some 1600 persons attended and most of them urged the PTA to make the show an annual event.

Men—James A. Brandt, 359 Aberdeen Ave., Dayton 19, Ohio, was transferred to Dayton by Reliance Electric & Engineering Co. as supervisor of gear manufacturing. Jim, his wife, Nancy Hubbard '50, and their two children moved in early September. William M. Marcussen, Berry Lane, Media, Pa., reports that his wife, Barbara Singleton '50, gave birth to their third child, Nancy Beth, Oct. 4. I received a ticket for a free hamburger at Dave's Drive-In at Franklin Park, Ill. from David L. Brooke a few weeks ago. I understand Dave has quite an extensive layout and welcomes all members of the Class of 1950. Dave & his wife Merry have recently moved to 4708 Grand Ave., Western Springs, Ill.

David E. Conklin, 26565 Mazur Drive, Rolling Hills, Cal., was recently made general supervisor of the guidance development system for Air Force's ballistic missile "Skybolt." Robert Swanson, 210 US Court House, 68 Court St., Buffalo, is now with the Federal Mediation & Conciliation Service as a mediator of labor disputes. Gerald K. Schoenfeld, 64-20A 192d St., Fresh Meadows 65, announced the arrival of a son, Robert, weighing 7 lbs. 3 oz., Aug. 8.

Among some of the returns from our newsletter & dues request is a note from James L. Smith, 3011 Stanton, Houston, Tex., regretting that he could not get back to Homecoming. Jim added, "Tom Gargan was through here recently. Seemed like old times until the alarm clock reminded of work." In the same batch, George Pollock, 829 E. Glen Ave., Milwaukee 17, Wis., noted, "Once again recruiting new students for Cornell, a job inherited from George Goetz. Very rewarding work. I can recommend secondary school work to all members of the Class."

Back in the pre-Reunion pile, Robert J. Bergren, 807 Station Ave., Haddon Heights, N.J., wrote that he was assistant to the vice-president of operations of Warren Webster Co. in Camden, N.J. Bob and his wife, Joan Munger '47, have two children. William S. Diefenbach, 319 Wyoming Ave., Dover, Del., reported that he took up new duties last March as coordinator of management development for International Latex Corp. Wayne H. Friedrich, 28 Vista Rd., Wyomissing, Pa., wrote that he is a registered Professional Engineer in Pennsylvania and is with Ladd Knitting Mills, Inc., Reading, Pa.—ROBERT N. POST

'50 PhD—Irene D. Neu is the author of Erastus Corning, Merchant & Financier, 1794-1872, published October 27 by Cornell University Press. The biography deals chiefly with the financial activities of the founder of the New York Central Railroad and former mayor of Albany. Miss Neu presented the first copy of the book to Erastus Corning II, who is the current mayor of the New York capital. Her address is care of Mrs. Edward Lauber, 5152 Sumter Avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio.

'50 Women—A wonderful long letter from Peggy Cramp O'Connor tells first of a new daughter Maureen, who, Peggy says, "arrived on Labor Day, just as I said she would. I always have babies on holidays." Peggy & John are enthusiastic skiers & mountain climbers and are already considering a back-pack for Maureen so she can go along. The O'Connors' address is 536 S. Gaylord St., Denver, Colo., but this will be changing before long, as work begins on their new home about mid-November.

More babies: Born to Jean Pirnie & Thomas H. Clements '49 a daughter, last Feb. 28. This brings the Clements children to four: two boys, two girls. Diana Amoss Robinson has a new son, Michael Robin, who arrived May 21, 1960. Dorothy Marshman Frederickson has a baby girl, born April 21. Dorothy & Elwood '49 own and operate a dairy farm with registered Ayrshires and Elwood works for Norwich Pharmacal Co.—BARBARA HUNT YORK

'51 Men—After seven years at Donaldson Air Force Base, S.C., Capt. Ernest Schmid was transferred to Lowry AFB, Colo. for a four-month course in guided missile training and then he will report to Orlando AFB, Fla. The Schmidts have a daughter, Elaine Marie, born April 7, 1960. Another new addition is a son born to Edward & Margaret (Miller '47) Rumsey, 110 E. Buttermilk Falls Rd., Ithaca, October 3, 1960. A month and a day before, a son was born to Richard & Fran (Anthony, MA '52) Ramin, 539 Warren Rd., Ithaca.

A little news of Reunion has started to drift in and the first is a most kind offer. Walt Zielinski reports, "John O'Hara has not yet written all there is to be said for or against the inhabitants of Pennsylvania, even of that rather exotic group known as Kappa Betes. It came to me two Saturday nights ago, just at time to retire, in the form of a telephone call. Reassurance came swiftly that the ominous background tintinabulation of crystal & crockery was based outside of striking range; namely, Philadelphia. Consequently, no hook & ladder was needed to get me off the window ledge. Nevertheless, panic was only narrowly averted when it was learned that the burden of the thing was that Ed Coene & Don McNamara, having suffered grievously at the tender mercies of a ticket of golfing crickets that day, wished to offer a couple of trophies to the winners and/or losers of a tournament they cared to sponsor at our Tenth Reunion. I do not know if their act qualifies as one involving the grace under tension Hemingway speaks of, but, surely, mine of silence at such good news does. Just what the trophies would be for, I, who am profoundly ignorant of the sport and perfectly willing to say so, cannot say. 'Highs,' 'lows,' 'nets' & 'grosses' were expressions bandied about, but in the confusion it may have been that someone said, 'Officer, you're holding the net too low for one that high and too high for one that gross.' Fig Borthwick was also at the party."

Rose Carpenter Gernon '53 called my wife a while ago to report that she & husband Dean were living at 1410 Birch Dr., North Tonawanda, with their brood, the latest of whom, Carol Elaine, was born September 9. They saw Wilmot (Bill) Moore in Danville, Cal., where he works for Aero Jet General. Dr. Richard W. Marcus is a resident in periodontics & oral medicine with the Veterans Administration Hospital, First Ave. & 24th St., New York. Dick lives at 28 W. 73d St., New York 23.

Another Class dentist, Dr. Dave Epstein, had his first paper published, "The Technique of Gingivectomy," in The Dental Digest. Dave was married August 20 in New York to Ellen Ruth Werman '61, whom Dave says he met as one of his patients. Cornellians attending the wedding included Mr. & Mrs. Bob Caplan, Paul Berman, George Hano & Bill Fuerst '39, along with Coaches Scotty Little & Hanley Staley with their wives. The Epsteins live at 507 Warren Rd., Ithaca.—JACK OSTROM

'53 Men—The following appeared in The New York Herald Tribune, October 19: "The dying wish to vote for one of his closest friends was granted yesterday to a multiple sclerosis victim bedridden on Welfare Island with no hope of recovery. Richard A. George, 29, wants to vote, before he dies, for his Cornell University friend, William J. vanden Heuvel '50, Democratic candidate for Congress in the 17th District. But Mr. George last voted from his mother's address in Queens, in another district, and the Board of Elections had refused to recognize him as a resident of the hospital and allow him to cast an absentee ballot. Another Cornell friend of both Mr. George and Mr. vanden Heuvel, Edwin J. Wesley '49, took Mr. George's petition into State Supreme Court. Justice Samuel M. Gold overruled the Board of Elections. Since Mr. George can no longer write, his petition was signed with an X. Mr. George's X will appear on his absentee ballot before the name of his friend."

Thilo H. Best has moved to 104-60 Queens Blvd., Apt. 21-F, Forest Hills 75. He is a domestic grain merchant with Cargill, Inc. Roy T. Norton is working as hotel food & beverage manager for the Dayton Biltmore Hotel. He and his wife, the former Dorothy Durst, live at 149 W. Fairview Ave., Apt. 4, Dayton, Ohio. Jack Depew is an assistant trust officer with the First National Bank in Dallas, Tex. He and his wife welcomed their third child, a boy, last July. Al MacRossie is married and lives at 1121 Albion St., Denver, Col. William R. Swirbul has moved to 1696 Bill View Drive, Lancaster, Pa.

Herb Neuman returned in September from a seven-week trip to Russia, Israel & Greece. He was in Moscow during the Powers trial. In connection with his New York City building construction & insurance business, Herb earlier in the summer completed construction of a 135-unit apartment house in Riverdale, appropriately named "The Cornellian." Paul M. Ford, Jr., LLB '55, has joined Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co. as representative in its Syracuse agency. A daughter was born to Albert & Sylvia Stevens Smith of Ithaca RD 1, October 11. Nestor Alzerez, Jr. is assistant to the president of M. E. Franks, Inc., 375 Park Ave., New York City. Dr. Sam Licklider, MD '57, is enrolled at Johns Hopkins as a candidate for the Master's degree in public health. Sam may be reached at the Johns Hopkins School of Hygiene, Baltimore 11, Md.

The change of seasons at 74 W. Lat., 41 N. Long. is considered a stimulating experience, except for those of us who are not especially enthusiastic about winter sports, freezing slush, and less daylight. One of our Classmates, Bob Greenwald, who does not care to be stimulated by northeastern winters any more, is now over-exposing himself to the sun's lethal rays down around 80 W. 26 N. Bob was recently appointed secretary-treasurer of the Gold Coast Decorating Service of Miami, which manufactures, of all things in Florida, artificial flowers & plants. Bob writes that Charlie Huber and his wife recently spent a few days in Miami on their way back to Wayne, Pa. from South America, and Dr. Steve Cogen and his bride also were recently in Miami.

If anyone knows the whereabouts of Classmates Jim Garry, John Dougherty, Don Byers, Ed McCabe or Jim Edgar please send addresses to your Class correspondent or write to Bob Greenwald, 12789 West Dixie Highway, North Miami, Fla. Another Classmate who plans to remain unstimulated by changing climate is Martin L. Rosenzweig, now a member of the technical staff of Space Technology Laboratories, El Segundo, Cal. The Rosenzweigs are expecting their second child any day now. Address: 1962 Caddington Drive, San Pedro, Cal.

For those who prefer their Christmases white, complete with in vivo Christmas trees, Frank A. Alfredo is the man to see this winter. Frank is now vice-president of A. Alfredo Nurseries & vice-president of Alfredo Realty Corp. Frank recently married Dolores Palmer of Eastchester and lives at 85 Ridge St., Eastchester. David M. Bradfield has been named head of a General Electric Co. sales office in St. Louis, Mo. He is now handling customer & distributor sales for the company's line of insulating materials.

Several members of the Class have recently received degrees in various fields. Fred O. Jensen received his Master's degree at Carnegie Institute of Technology last June and is on the staff of Esso Research & Engineering Co., Linden, N.J. Mrs. Jensen is the former Marilyn Brady '55. Edward R. H. McDowell received his MS at California Institute of Technology and Marshall Lapp & Gerry Neugebauer each received the PhD degree at Cal Tech.

Nice to hear from David B. Diver, who built his own home last winter at 3704 Westchester Drive, Toledo, Ohio. Dave, a produce buyer for Toledo division of Kor-

'54 Women: Mrs. C. S. Everett 59 Helen St. Binghamton, N.Y.

The one item I have this week came from Mrs. McAlister (Irma Rubenberg). Her occupations are student & housewife. She received the MA at Cornell in 1955 and is working for the PhD in social psychology at Columbia. She has two daughters, Jeanne, born in August 1957, and Deborah, born in February 1960. This busy gal lives at 6 Peter Cooper Rd., New York City 10.

Our neighbor won't mind appearing in the women's column, I'm sure! He is selling insurance through his agency in adjacent Johnson City. His wife Ginny and I frequently exchange children for a morning. Their children are Ann 4, Martha 2, & George, Jr., 6 months. They live five houses up the street, at 69 Helen St. His name is George G. Sampson, Jr. '54.

Unless you get busy and send lots of news, probably the next issue will be without a '54 column, especially since the deadline falls during Thanksgiving week end. Happy Holidays!

'55 Men: Gary Fromm 214 Littauer Center Cambridge 38, Mass.

Following graduation, and after four weeks with Scott Paper Co., two years with Uncle Sam ("worthwhile"), and three more years as a sales representative with Scott, Owen Perry succumbed to the charms of Mary Jane Warner. Attending the April wedding were his parents, Mr. & Mrs. Rollin L. Perry, MS '47, brother Guy '59, Dave Preston, Tom Gillespie, & Dick Kurtz & wife Perry. The Perrys are now back in Milwaukee at 4886 N. Shoreland Ave. after a wedding trip to the British West Indies. Dwight Emanuelson has abandoned the cold North, after nearly two years in New York City, for St. Petersburg, Fla. (619 61st Ave. S.), where he's an account executive for Merrill, Lynch, et al. Dwight is a member of a group that is trying to organize the Cornell Club of Tampa-St. Petersburg. All interested alumni & alumnae in the area ought to contact him; the fun and fellowship of participating in the activities of the Club should not be missed.

Belated news: Arnold Foss, following an Air Force hitch, spent last year in pre-med studies at Emory University. Son Arne was born May 25, 1959. Arnie & Jan, where are you now? Pete Bowell got lost in the news shuffle, too. When last heard from, he was working for IBM as a sales representative with the data processing division in Pittsburgh. The address, 435 Jayson Ave., also housed his two children, Lynn 4, and Peter 2. Rod & Carol Schuette Rougelot have returned to Ithaca, 805 Hanshaw Rd., after seeing the splendors of Europe and the undergraduates at Yale. Rod's ship, the USS Salem, was home ported in Villeprancher, France, for two years. The next two were spent teaching sophomore ROTC. Current tasks include painting and carpentering in the new home, twiddling magnetic tapes in the G. E. Advanced Electronics Center, and caring for 30-month-old daughter Renée. Open house is the order of the day.

Kenneth C. Sanderson is research assistant in charge of experimental greenhouses in the department of horticulture, University of Maryland, College Park. Ken earned the MS in June, 1958, and is now a PhD candidate. The poor kid is in a sky high daze. His marriage to Barbara Joan (Fireball) Hoffman, an ardent adopted Cornelian, is to take place next month. Have an interesting letter from Dave Knipe which reads in part: "Monica, whom I met while she was an exchange student [at Cornell], and I are both studying full time at the University of Uppsala, which boasts an excellent faculty in almost all fields, no tuition or fees whatsoever, and a steady drip of traditions since 1477. Monica is working on an FK (equals our MA) while I continue work towards the PhD in history of religion. I've found some buddies here to do a little rowing on the river (a coxless four), so life is pretty grand. We are expecting a Swedish-American addition to the family, so I think we may be here for a while; if my Swedish will only blossom a little more quickly!"

'57 Women: Mrs. R. J. Leamer 4651 Shalimar Drive New Orleans 26, La.

This column-writing is wonderful! I receive letters but they don't require answers! Sue Breslow Dillon, married last December to labor relations attorney Martin Dillon, is living at 1250 Ocean Parkway and teaching a class of intellectually gifted children. She writes that she sees quite a bit of Janice Friedman and Sari (Feldman) & Karl Zukerman, all living in Brooklyn. Debbie (Ghiselin) & Harold Somerset sent me a clever handmade birth announcement proclaiming arrival of their "second of four red-headed sons," September 25. The card included a picture of the new baby, Paul Kevin, their 2-year-old Timothy, and St. Bernard, Gus! Debbie mentions seeing Claire Sanford, who visits them occasionally from Vancouver, B.C., where she is completing work on her MA in English. Judy (Madigan) & Jack Burgess are also stationed at the Whidbey Island Naval Air Base, where Jack is flying seaplanes. Judy & Jack also have a red-headed son, 18-month-old Kevin. Debbie's address is 1265 Cascade Drive, Oak Harbor, Wash. How about an address for you, Judy?

Gail (Lautzenheiser) & Harper (Hop) Keeler, now at 1202 N. Hudson, Altus, Okla., are anticipating a move to Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., some time in February. Gail says Hop is on alert about one week in four, ready for instant take-off, which leaves Gail alone with the two small Keelers. I sympathize, Gail, because Dick has been going out on offshore oil wells all summer, from a few days to a week at a time. Edna (Carroll) Skoog & husband Ed send news of their second child, Alvin Edward, Jr., born Sept. 22. They are expecting confusion over the names, since they were both called "Eddie" in college, and are calling their little boy Eddie. All three Eddies and 14-month-old Susan live at 1104 Lincolnshire Drive, Champaign, Ill. Ed, Sr. is a civil engineer with a building construction firm and is the engineer on the $7 million University of Illinois Assembly Hall. Edna mentions having received a birth announcement in April from Marylou (Watkins) Downs, who lives with her husband & son Kevin at 7350 Seidel Rd., San Antonio, Tex.

Carol (Gibson) Worthington, who, with husband Ned and 10-month-old Cindy, is living in Ayr, Scotland (Box 283, Det. I-57th ARS, APO 202, N.Y., N.Y.) writes that they love Scotland. Ned is planning to extend his tour of duty for almost a year, which means that they won't be back in the States for 2 years. Carol & Ned took a 2-week trip through the Scandinavian countries last summer and bought two rooms of furniture in Copenhagen. Sounds exciting!

I certainly enjoy receiving your letters and it makes this job easier & more fun. However, please try to include exact names, dates, addresses, etc. when you write about somebody else. Thanks!

'58 Men: James R. Harper 3921 Prytania St. New Orleans, La.

Jerry Irish writes from Oceanside, Cal. that he is dutifully serving his country as a member of the Marine Corps. He lives at 300A Alderwood Rd. with his wife Pat (Williams) '58 & son Lee Douglas, who is 18 months old. The family will remain in California until next June, when Jerry will enter seminary. We were sent a reprint of an article by Richard A. Rose which appeared in The Institute of International Education News Bulletin of October. Richard spent the last 18 months as a Fulbright scholar in Chile, where he studied the urgent need for low-cost housing, made worse by the recent earthquakes. His design of a "Eucalyptus House" has received approval not only in Chile but in other tropical countries of the New World and he currently heads the Eucalypto World Building Corp.

Edward Taylor is in quite another part of the world, Korea. He pilots a helicopter ambulance as evacuation support for the 1st Cavalry Division. From still another quarter of the globe returns Al Stotsenburg, who was a French Government scholar at University of Paris. Al is now in his first year of law school at Penn. Here in these United States, our Classmates are likewise distinguishing themselves. Ancil Payne writes that he, Tony D'Amato & Bob Dunn are all editors of the Harvard Law Review. Ancil & Tony are in their final year of study and Bob is in his second at Harvard Law School. It would appear that Tony has changed his subject matter a bit since the days when he wrote "Lonely" for Marty Blinder & Liz Fuchs. The lawyers have it this issue, it seems. Chuck Kahn, in his last year at Northwestern University law school, lives at 926 W. Carmen St., Chicago 40, Ill. Chuck laments, "Law school was never like Cornell, nor is anything else."

This column is my final effort as your correspondent, pro tem. Jim Harper is back from the Army to spice up your news with Widowit. It has been a real pleasure!

Barbara Mader is teaching in an American Army elementary school in Germany this year and plans a tour of the Middle East during the Christmas holidays. Her address is Pirmasens American Elementary School, US Forces in Germany, APO 189, New York. Susan Swanson also is in an American Army school, in Munich, teaching history & English. She expects to be back in the US the summer of 1961. Madeline Fuchs was married to Richard Teperson '58, June 30, 1960. Dick is attending Univ. of Cincinnati medical school & Madeline is teaching sixth grade. They live at 55 Glenwood Ave., Cincinnati 17, Ohio.

Augusta (Klieger) & Louis Rothman have recently moved to 640 West 239th St., New York 63. Louis graduated from Cornell Law School in June. Gus is teaching first grade in Mt. Vernon. Roberta (Arvine) & Ted Fishman are living at 98 Maple Avenue, Patchogue, following their marriage in August. Judy (Mann) & Harold Maller '56 are enjoying Philadelphia, where they live at 4901 Spruce St., Apt. 101 C. Harold is completing his internship and will enter the Public Health Service for two years beginning next July. Mary (Avery) & Hank Scudder '57 make their home at 2137 Emerson St., Berkeley 5, Cal., while Hank teaches part time at Univ. of California and studies for his PhD. Marjorie (Schneider) Jaffe graduated from Smith College school for social work in August.

Dr. Patricia L. Thompson, DVM, is practicing in Summit, N.J. and living at 510 Millburn Ave., Millburn, N.J. Carolyn (Schneid) & David Ripps and son Robert Alan, born June 9, 1960, live at 344 E. 29th St., New York 16. Carolyn is continuing her studies at NYU College of Medicine.

Renni (Bertenthal) Shuter had a group of us over for a delicious brunch at their new apartment at 31-29 87th St., Jackson Heights, and afterwards enlisted her guests' help with the 1961 Cornell Fund drive. Her enthusiasm was contagious and we have high hopes of enlisting your help to make this year's drive the most successful yet. It was good to see Ann (Reimer) Walker, Collean Dolan, Ronnie (Schantz) Schwartz, Joan Karon & Madeline (Isaacs) Noveck. Madeline & Ralph were married in August, 1958, and have a daughter born last fall. Their address is 1 Washington Square Village, New York, 12. Sallie Sook of 12 Balsam Ave., Troy, wrote in June that she was finishing her first year of teaching fourth grade and was planning a European tour for the summer.

'60 Men: Peter J. Snyder

I heard from Fran Michaels the other day. She and Bob Malina were engaged in August. Bob, who was editor of The Cornell Sun last year, is attending Harvard Law School. Fran is studying for her Master's in English at Brandeis University, and can be reached there in Waltham, Mass. George & Linnea (Holberg) Bartling live at 580 Bedford Rd., Pleasantville. Linnea is teaching home economics at Pleasantville Junior High School. George is working in the financial department of International General Electric in New York City, but will go on active duty with the 107th Infantry Brigade of the National Guard in January. William F. O'Connor spent the summer working as an insurance salesman for Heathstone Insurance Co. of Mass. and is now studying for his MS at University of Vermont, where he has a graduate research fellowship. Bill hopes to return home to Australia by 1963. His present address is 9 Green St., Burlington, Vt.

I received a nice long letter from George McMeen. This summer he and his family moved to San Luis Obispo, Cal., where his father is teaching. George is now at University of Oregon working for his MA in history. He is considering leaving school to work in an animated-cartoon studio as a cartoonist. He makes it clear that his goal will not be Mickey Mouse or Donald Duck, but something more creative along the lines of television commercials. George welcomes a reunion with any alums at Trader Vic's in San Francisco. If you can't make it there, you can write to him at Box 5075, Eugene, Ore.

Robin Aurelius, 626 Wyndemere Ave., Ridgewood, N.J., is working for a film company, Knickerbocker Productions, in N.Y.C. He is presently a writer, but is training to be a director. His job takes him from commercials to religious & educational films and includes some interesting research. Robin is working on a film on engineering, showing how creative problem-solving can be a "happy influence" on the study of the humanities. For this job, Robin would welcome any ideas about the motivational aspects of engineering thinking, and credit will be given for any ideas used in a film. On the purely social side, Robin would like to renew old Cornell friendships, so write him at the above address.

June, 1960, may have marked the end of college days for many of us, but quite a number of Class members have continued on in graduate work in various fields. Jane Perlberg is in the Russian Institute at Columbia University and lives at 1000 Park Ave., New York 28. Of Ivy League interest, another Cornell girl studying at Columbia has announced her engagement to a Princeton man, named, of all things, Brown. Eva Metzger, studying for a PhD in psychology, is engaged to Norman Brown. She is living at home in Forest Hills at 67-76 Booth St.

Studying law at Harvard is Jan Reno. She and roommate Gail Carney live at 43 Kirkland St., Cambridge, Mass. While Jan goes to classes, Gail is on the editorial staff of Sky & Telescope magazine, where her duties include being book review editor. A graduate student of math at University of

Major Problems of the Major Stockholder

A substantial stockholder in a closely held corporation faces special problems which call for intelligent planning during his lifetime and intelligent action afterward.

There may be the problem of continuing successful management of the company; or of establishing a market for the stock.

The problem of liquidity, after his death, is apt to be serious: Can ample cash be assured for taxes?

Or there may be a wide gap between the Government's valuation of his holdings, for estate tax purposes, and his Executor's ideas on the subject.

Most and probably all of these problems can be worked out satisfactorily, if there is coordination in advance among the owner, his attorney, and the Trust Company. The outcome should not be left to time and chance.
