T. Jobson, Esq.

Macon, Mo.

Dear Sir:-

It is hardly probably that I can ascertain the bonds signed by you as guarantor, and I have, therefore, to request that you will send me at your convenience a list of all bonds upon which your name appears as guarantor, and if possible give title of the cases.

I expect to remain here during this week, and most of next, and would suggest that you come down and spend a day, and if there is any discrepancy in your account on any balance your (sic) due for coal, we will try and see that it is paid.

Yours respectfully,

R. S. Stevens

Genl Mgr.
