NEW YORK STATE COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE

MARTHA VAN RENSSELAER HALL (ARCHITECT'S SKETCH)

GENERAL INFORMATION

HOME ECONOMICS: ITS DEVELOPMENT AT CORNELL

The first college courses opened to women in America were planned to give educational opportunities equal to those for men, and the courses of study were comparable to those in the men's colleges. As time went on, educational leaders realized a need for a type of education suited more particularly to women. Since the home was conceived as the specific field of women's activities, courses were introduced to train women for their responsible tasks of homemaking.

In the early stages of its development, education in home economics consisted largely of teaching the efficient performance of household skills such as cooking, cleaning, sewing, and caring for the family possessions. As woman's status has changed, vocational opportunities have broadened, and she has become a voting citizen in the community as well as a homemaker, so education has broadened its concept. Today the New York State College of Home Economics aims to teach women to be not only intelligent homemakers but also intelligent citizens and contributors in their chosen vocational fields.

Courses in Home Economics deal with the effective feeding and clothing of the family; the care and guidance of children; the family relationships; the organization and running of the home on a sound economic, social, and hygienic basis; and the growth of artistic sense and taste that brings beauty into the home in many ways, adding to the contentment and serenity of the family. Closely related are many courses in science, economics, sociology, art, music, and literature. This College, as part of a University, gives students the opportunity to study in these various fields. Of the 120 credit hours required for a degree, one-fourth are devoted to basic courses in the biological, physical, and social sciences; one-third to courses in home economics; and about one-third to related elective courses in the various colleges of the University. English, Hygiene, and Physical Education are taken by all students.

Home economics as a branch of education at Cornell began in 1900. It was established as a department in the New York State College of Agriculture in 1908, and was housed in a building of its own in 1910. In 1919 the department became a School of Home Economics; and in 1925, by legislative action, it became a College. It is now the fourth largest of the colleges in the University. Linked with the resident instruction and the research is the extension service, which reaches into homes and communities throughout the State.

MARTHA VAN RENSSELAER HALL

The New York State College of Home Economics is housed in Martha Van Rensselaer Hall, named for the founder of home-economics education at Cornell. This building, which was dedicated in 1934, is on the upper terrace of the campus, overlooking Beebe Lake, and the rooms on its upper floors command an excellent view of Cayuga Lake as well. The architecture of the building is Georgian.

The Department of Economics of the Household occupies the first and ground floors in the east wing. The first floor includes classrooms, work rooms for research, and staff offices. On the ground floor are laboratories where staff, students, home-demonstration agents, and homemakers study home management. In these laboratories temporary walls are used to form rooms of various sizes and shapes where work centers can be developed with the use of easily movable equipment.

A CLASS IN HOUSEHOLD MANAGEMENT

Problems regarding the arrangement of work centers, brought to the College by homemakers, are studied by college students. The floor is taped to represent the homemaker's kitchen. Portable equipment is used, and lines of travel are studied to determine how energy used in performing tasks can be reduced by possible changes in that particular home.

The Department of Family Life, including the Nursery School, is housed in a third and smaller wing of the building. Two homemaking apartments are on the floors above the Nursery School.

The Nursery School has ample indoor and outdoor play space; small reception rooms; offices; rooms for weighing, measuring, and physical examination; a room for psychological examination; a children's dining room and an adjacent kitchen for the preparation of the noon lunch; and a nap room. Through observation booths students watch and record child behavior without intrusion into the school's program.

AN OBSERVATION BOOTH

The nursery school is equipped with one-way-vision screens opening upon the children's rooms, where students and parents may see and hear the children in all their activities without disturbing the school program

FOODS CHEMISTRY LABORATORY

Students study here the relationship of chemistry to food preparation

METABOLISM LABORATORY

Students give each other an energy metabolism test in their study of nutrition

The rooms of the Department of Foods and Nutrition are on the third and fourth floors of the west wing. These include a well-appointed foods-chemistry laboratory, rooms for metabolism study, and laboratories for foods-research and preparation. Two of these laboratories are arranged as unit kitchens to approximate home situations as closely as possible. A small dining room adjoins them and provides opportunity for serving the foods prepared.

The rooms of the Department of Household Art are on the third and fourth floors and include laboratories for house planning and furnishing, studios for work in color, design, and handicrafts, and a small gallery for exhibits.

The laboratories for house planning and furnishing are provided with adjustable partitions, which make it possible to set up a full-sized replica of a house. Here students may work out real furnishing problems in cooperation with a family.

The Department of Institution Management occupies much of the lower part of the west wing of Martha Van Rensselaer Hall. The cafeteria dining rooms and kitchens afford opportunities for student projects. The equipment was selected on the basis of teaching possibilities, and students become familiar with the details of construction as well as of operation.

Students participate in preparing and serving food in the cafeteria where approximately 500 patrons are fed at noon. They may also share in the operation of the Green Room, a small tea room which serves luncheons two days a week to a group of from 60 to 80 guests.

The department of Textiles and Clothing occupies the second floor of the east wing. There are five laboratories, two work rooms, and staff offices. One large laboratory with a stage may be converted into a small auditorium that seats about 150 persons, and may be used for fashion shows.

Besides the classrooms and laboratories of each department, the building contains the administrative and staff offices, the college library, a cafeteria and tea room, an auditorium seating about 600 persons, student and faculty lounges, and a large room for student recreation. The school of Hotel Administration also has quarters in Martha Van Rensselaer Hall.

THE COLLEGE DEPARTMENTS OF INSTRUCTION

Instruction in the College is organized around six phases of home and community life: Economics of the Household and Household Management; Family Relationships and Child Development; Foods and Nutrition; Household Art; Institution Management; Textiles and Clothing. Work in each department deals with both subject matter and practical experiences through which students are helped to become increasingly aware of problems and needs faced by individuals and communities in feeding, clothing, housing themselves and others, and in using human and material resources effectively. Effort is made to so interrelate the work of the departments that students think of them not as isolated divisions but rather as different aspects of the total program of homemaking education.

The Department of Economics of the Household and Household Management aims to help clarify the scope and meaning of management in the home, and the relation of the management of resources to the well-being of individuals in the family; to help students to understand the relation of economic problems of the home to general economic conditions; and to provide a background for intelligent civic action in furthering human well-being.

In the department of Family Life, courses and experiences are designed to give an understanding of the various factors influencing human behavior and relationships. Courses deal with the social and physical environment of the growing child, the psychological principles underlying the guidance of children, the health of the family, and the significance of the relationships between various members of the family group.

Observation of young children and practical experiences with them are provided through the Nursery School. Opportunity is given for seeing the work of various types of nursery schools, and students assist at the federal nursery schools in Ithaca, and at the nurseries connected with the north-side and west-side settlement houses, as well as at the nursery school maintained at the College.

The Department of Foods and Nutrition aims to help students to translate into wholesome practices in daily living the knowledge which they gain in relation to food selection and preparation. It provides situations in which students may observe the food practices of individuals and families, may study the inherent problems and results of these practices, and participate in helping to improve them.

Students have an opportunity also to study the metabolism of adults, infants, and small children. They assist in advising others concerning nutrition, they study the metabolism of students referred to the College by the medical department, and help in working with parents who bring their children to the Department for observation and for dietetic advice and treatment.

The homemaking apartments of the College, the Cornell Nursery School, the emergency nursery schools, as well as the homes and public schools of Ithaca, the well-baby clinic, the Children's Home, and the students' own homes, serve as further laboratories for the study of foods and nutrition.

The Department of Household Art includes in its curriculum foundation work in art, house planning, furnishings, and crafts. Through creative experiment and guided observation, the student develops a background of experiences that make for a greater understanding and appreciation of her everyday surroundings.

A small art gallery has exhibitions of current interest, and a permanent collection of pictures from which a student may borrow any for use in her room.

STUDENTS AT WORK IN THE GREEN ROOM

The Department of Institution Management offers courses to orient the student in some of the problems and technics of food administration and provides practice in situations where large numbers of persons are served. The students participate in preparing and serving food in the cafeteria unit where approximately 500 patrons are fed. They may also share in the operation of the Green Room, a small tea room that serves luncheons two days a week to a group of from 60 to 80 guests, and for special occasions such as banquets, buffet suppers, luncheons, and teas.

Practical experience gained through summer positions or apprenticeships is desirable. For those who wish to be hospital dietitians, a hospital internship of from nine to twelve months is required. (For preparation for hospital training, see page 37.)

The Department of Textiles and Clothing aims to help students to study clothing from the standpoints of health, comfort, and economy, to understand the contribution which clothing makes to social and professional success, to enjoy clothes as an expression of beauty, and to use them for creative self-expression.

CLOTHING LABORATORY TRANSFORMED INTO AN ASSEMBLY

Junior students in modeling are displaying their work to a freshman audience. This gives opportunity for developing poise and experience in organizing material suitable for an assembly, parent-teacher meetings, or other high-school or college activities of this type

TEXTILE LABORATORY

TEXTILE LABORATORY

Men students from the Department of Hotel Administration are here using the laboratory for the study of mattresses. By handling parts of all types of mattresses they familiarize themselves with points to be checked when purchasing such supplies for hotel use

An interesting student project conducted as part of the advanced clothing classes is the Costume Shop. Here the students gain commercial experience as nearly like that which they would meet in the business world as it is possible to arrange in a college. The garments made are planned for customers, and students themselves organize the work, provide and distribute work to paid helpers, consult with customers, and carry on the various other activities characteristic of a custom dressmaking shop.

The homemaking apartments offer a project for the practice and unification of the subject matter of several of the main departments. Students live in the apartments for five-week periods, carrying on the tasks and studying the organization of a "household."

STUDENT COUNSELLING SERVICES

A student counselling service is maintained in the College to foster the optimum growth and development of the student. Class counsellors are available to help the student evaluate her interests and capacities in relation to the possible educational experiences in the College, to help her plan her program, and to help her with problems related to the educational process. In order to meet the needs of students more adequately, close relationships are maintained between counsellors and class instructors as well as between counsellors and students. The counselling service functions as a coordinating agency between staff and students in matters of educational procedure and curriculum.

The counselling staff is responsible for the freshman orientation program, which is designed to acquaint the student with the College situation and to help her adjust herself to the new environment. As the first step in this program a series of letters is sent, during the summer, to each entering student discussing college expenditures, the planning of a college wardrobe, and planning programs of study. Freshman Week-End (see page 19) and the course, Orientation 100 (see page 55), are also parts of the orientation program.

A course in Vocational Orientation for upperclassmen, and the work in vocational counselling and placement are included in the student counselling services.

LEADERSHIP IN HOME ECONOMICS

The College of Home Economics aims to prepare certain of its students for leadership in homemaking education among families in any community where they may live. To this end courses are offered in community leadership, and work is recommended in sociology and education to supplement the offerings of the various departments of Home Economics. In the courses in home-economics leadership emphasis is given to a discovery of widespread and significant homemaking practices, conditions, and resources of homes in New York State communities, and to a consideration of the possibility and desirability of their improvement. Actual experience in leadership in homemaking education is provided in communities near Ithaca.

HOTEL ADMINISTRATION

In 1922, at the request and with the financial aid of the American Hotel Association, a department in hotel administration was organized in the University in the New York State College of Home Economics. While this department is under the administration of the College of Home Economics, it is maintained on funds not derived from state appropriations. The requirements with regard to tuition, curriculum, and other items are necessarily different from those for other students in the College. A separate printed announcement may be obtained by writing to Professor H. B. Meek, Martha Van Rensselaer Hall, Ithaca, New York.

ADMISSION

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

A formal application blank for admission to the College of Home Economics should be obtained from the Director of Admissions, Morrill Hall, Cornell University, Ithaca, New York. March 1 is set as the last date on which formal application for admission in September may be filed. Application should be made well in advance of this date, and all information asked for should be sent in as early as possible in order to expedite final selection of students.

Students are admitted to the New York State College of Home Economics by examination, by presentation of acceptable Regents' credentials, by acceptable school certificate, or by transfer from another college.

Applicants must offer for entrance either A or B:

A. Fifteen units, arranged as follows: English (3), history (1), elementary algebra (1), plane geometry (1), foreign language (3 units in one language or 2 units in each of two), elective (6 or 5).

B. The New York State High School Diploma in Vocational Homemaking with the further provision that elementary algebra, 1 unit, and either plane geometry, 1 unit, or physics, 1 unit, must be included.

In addition to the above requirements, applicants must present the following qualifications in order to be entitled to consideration by the Committee on Admissions: a New York State Regents' average (or cumulative high-school average, if the applicant is from another State) of 80 per cent at the end of the high-school course; a scholastic rating in the upper two-fifths of the high-school graduating class; evidence of such personality characteristics as self-reliance, industry, breadth and continuity of interest in the field of home economics. Students applying for admission with advanced standing from other colleges must present equally high records.

The numbers of applicants that meet the minimum scholastic requirements for entrance greatly exceeds the number that can be admitted. Each applicant is advised to investigate other educational opportunities and to make an alternate plan to which she may turn in case she is not accepted into the College.

A personal interview is held with each applicant whose scholastic record meets the entrance requirements of the College. Letters are sent in the spring announcing plans for interview meetings at various centers throughout the State.

Candidates for admission must make an entrance deposit of $25 due before June 1, and present a certificate of vaccination, due before August 1. Information with respect to these regulations and detailed statement with respect to the high-school subjects that may be offered for admission will be found in the General Information Number, which will be sent on request to any address by the Secretary of the University, Morrill Hall. Every applicant for admission should obtain a copy of the General Information Number.

ADMISSION WITH ADVANCED STANDING

The records of students admitted to the College of Home Economics from another college in Cornell University or from another institution of collegiate rank, are evaluated for credit with advanced standing. In order to obtain the degree of Bachelor of Science, the student must meet the requirements for this degree as stated on page 35. She must also be in residence in the College of Home Economics for the last two terms prior to receiving the degree, and must complete at least 15 hours a term, two-thirds of which must be in the College of Home Economics.

ADMISSION WITH SPECIAL STANDING

The College of Home Economics is able to accommodate a very limited number of special students not candidates for advanced degrees. Applicants must already hold baccalaureate degrees. Customarily special students take at least two-thirds of their work in the College of Home Economics.

Before making formal application through the Director of Admissions for entrance with special standing in the College of Home Economics, informal correspondence with the Assistant Director of the College is desirable to determine the possibility of acceptance.

Special students are expected to pay the same University fees as those paid by regular students in the University (see pages 21 and 24). Applicants should correspond with the Office of the Dean of Women regarding rooms. Expenditures for books, fees, and materials can be estimated at less than those for regular students as special students usually take fewer courses.

ADMISSION OF GRADUATE STUDENTS

Graduate study leading to advanced degrees is offered in the departments of Economics of the Household, Family Life, Foods and Nutrition, and Textiles, Clothing, and Household Art. Candidates for advanced degrees are registered in the Graduate School of the University. Full information is given in the Announcement of the Graduate School.

FRESHMAN WEEK-END

Freshman students accepted for admission to the College of Home Economics in 1939 are expected to report at the Amphitheatre in Martha Van Rensselaer Hall on Thursday afternoon, September 21, at two o'clock, and to be present at all sessions of the program during Freshman Week-End. This arrangement helps freshmen to become acquainted with the new environment and to make plans for their year's work before college begins.

All freshmen are expected to live in the dormitories during Freshman Week-End. Students regularly assigned to dormitory rooms may go directly there. Students who have been given permission by the Dean of Women to live outside of the dormitories during the year will receive dormitory room assignments for Freshman Week-End before leaving home, from the Manager of Residential Halls. Room assignments for students who live in Ithaca may be obtained from the Manager of Residential Halls (3331, extension 5) between September 18 and 20.

A charge of $3 is made to each student to cover expenses for the week-end.

Complete information on the plan is sent to students who are accepted for admission to the College.

LIVING ARRANGEMENTS

Cornell University requires its women students to live in the residence halls (freshmen and juniors in Prudence Risley and Sage Halls, sophomores and seniors in Balch Halls). In these buildings the total cost of board, laundry, and rent of furnished rooms with heat and light is $525. The halls are heated by steam and lighted by electricity. Dormitory facilities for women are adequate, and special permission to live elsewhere is granted by the Dean of Women to new students only under exceptional circumstances. The Dean of Women has jurisdiction over all women students in the University, and prospective students are requested to write to her for information concerning matters in which they may need assistance.

EXPENSES

TUITION

Tuition is free to undergraduate students (except those in hotel administration and those registered in the Summer School) pursuing regular or special courses in the New York State College of Home Economics, who at the beginning of the college year are, and for at least twelve months prior thereto have been, bona-fide residents of the State of New York.

Any student transferring from one college or course in the University to another, must pay for the hours of credit she receives in the latter college or course an amount corresponding to the difference in tuition; and no such transfer shall be allowed or credit given until such payment has been made.

Students in Home Economics who are not exempt under these provisions are required to pay $200 a year for tuition.

OTHER FEES

A matriculation fee of $10 is required of every student upon entrance into the University, and is payable at the time of registration. A new undergraduate student who has made the required deposit of $25 with the Treasurer does not make an additional payment of the matriculation fee, because the Treasurer draws on the deposit for this fee. See page 24.

An administration fee of $5 a term is charged every student in the College of Home Economics.

A health and infirmary fee of $6 a term is required, at the beginning of each term, of every student. In case of illness any student is admitted to the Infirmary on her physician's recommendation and receives without charge a bed in a ward, board, and ordinary nursing for a period not exceeding two weeks in any one academic year. Beyond this period a charge of $2 a day is made for ordinary service. For further details regarding the services of the Infirmary, students should read page 26 of the General Information Number.

A Willard Straight Hall membership fee of $5 a term is required at the beginning of each term, of every undergraduate student. Its payment entitles the student to a share in the common privileges afforded by the operation of Willard Straight Hall, subject to regulations approved by the Board of Managers of the Hall.

The fee of $5 a term is required of all graduate students except those who are members of the instructing staff, for whom membership is optional. The use of the hall is restricted to those who have paid this fee.

A physical recreation fee of $4 is required, at the beginning of each term, of every undergraduate. Its payment entitles women students to the use of the women's gymnasium, recreation rooms, and playgrounds, and to the use of a locker.

An examination book fee of $1 is required of every student at entrance to pay for the examination books furnished to the student throughout her course. The charge is made against the student's deposit fee of $25.

A graduation fee is required, at least ten days before the degree is to be conferred, of every candidate for a degree. For a first, or baccalaureate degree, the fee is $10; for an advanced degree it is $20. The fee will be returned if the degree is not conferred.

Laboratory fees to cover the cost of materials used by the student are charged in courses that require work in laboratory, shop, or drafting room, or field work.

Deposits are made in advance at the Treasurer's office in some courses, particularly in chemistry. Charges for materials used are entered against the deposits, and any balance remaining is returned to the student during the following term.

Special fees. Assessments, charged to the student's account and payable at the Treasurer's office, are levied upon the student in certain circumstances.

Fees for late registration, for examination to make up an "incomplete", and changes or cancellation of courses are discussed on pages 32 and 33.

A student desiring to make an appointment for the required medical examination or conference after twenty days from the last registration day of the term shall first pay a fee of $2, unless satisfactory excuse for the tardiness is presented to the Faculty Committee on Hygiene and Preventive Medicine.

A student is held responsible for payment of appropriate fee for any injury done to any of the University's property.

DATES FOR PAYMENT OF BOARD AND ROOM, TUITION, AND OTHER FEES

Board and room in the dormitories is $525. This is payable in quarters on September 1, November 25, February 15, and April 5.

The tuition fee of $200 is payable in installments of $110 at the beginning of the first term, and $90 at the beginning of the second term, but a student registered only for the second term of the academic year is required to pay at the rate of the first term.

Tuition and other fees must be paid within twenty days after the last registration day of each term of the regular session. The last day of grace is generally printed on the registration coupon which the student is required to present at the Treasurer's office.

Any student who fails to pay her tuition charges, other fees, room and board, and other indebtedness to the University, or who, if entitled to free tuition, fails to claim it at the Treasurer's office and to pay her fees and other indebtedness within the prescribed period of grace, is thereby dropped from the University unless the Treasurer has granted her an extension of time to complete payment. The Treasurer is permitted to grant such an extension, when, in his judgment, the circumstances of a particular case warrant his doing so. For such an extension a fee of $2 is assessed. A reinstatement fee of $5 is assessed any student who is permitted to continue or return to classes after being dropped from the University for failure to pay within the prescribed time. The assessment may be waived in any instance for reasons satisfactory to the Comptroller and the Registrar, when such reasons are set forth in a written statement.

Any tuition or other fee may be changed by the Board of Trustees to take effect at any time without previous notice.

PROCEDURE FOR PAYMENT OF FEES AND DEPOSITS

The Registrar provides each student at the beginning of the term with registration forms consisting of strips of perforated coupons. Two of these coupons in each term are used as a bill and receipt. The student enters on the bill his tuition, other fees, and deposits in the spaces provided and presents this coupon and the receipt form to the Cashier in the Treasurer's office along with his money. The Treasurer does not issue term bills. Since there are penalties for late payment of fees as described above, it is important that all fees be paid within the prescribed time.

THE CASHING OF CHECKS

The Treasurer of the University accepts checks in settlement of charges payable at his office, but a rule of the Board of Trustees forbids him to cash any credit instrument, even to the extent of accepting a check or draft in amount greater than the sum due and returning the excess in cash. Students are therefore advised to open an account in an Ithaca bank as soon as they arrive in town, or else to provide themselves with travelers' checks, drafts on New York City banks, money orders, or other form of credit instrument such as a bank will cash in the ordinary course of business.

ESTIMATE OF ANNUAL STUDENT EXPENSES

Personal expenses, such as transportation to and from home, clothing, recreation, and miscellaneous items, are to be estimated by the individual. Statement of the average expenditures by freshmen for the current year will be sent during the summer to incoming freshmen.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR EARNING EXPENSES

Applicants should understand at the outset that there is no way to earn while at college the entire amount necessary for the college course. Even before launching a plan to earn a portion of the college expenses, students should give careful consideration to the amount of remunerative work that can be carried successfully with an average college program. Otherwise health, the quality of scholastic work, and many of the opportunities which a college education affords, are sacrificed. In planning their college program students should remember that classroom work is but one part of education. Opportunities for participation in activities, time for social life, special lectures and concerts, reading, relaxation, sleep, and even spare time may be as significant in the educational program as are the courses for which the student registers.

Because time given to earning draws from some of these educational possibilities which no student can afford to miss, students who must work for any considerable part of their maintenance should limit the number of hours of academic work they carry each year and should be prepared to spend from four and one-half to five years on the college course.

Since it is especially difficult during the first year to combine college work and employment, students are advised not to attempt college unless they have money for all expenses for the first year. It should be borne in mind, also, that on entering college a plan must be made for meeting the expenses of the entire college course. The office of the Dean of Women should be consulted for assistance and advice in making such a plan.

EARNING BOARD

A few students may earn their board by waiting on table in the dormitory dining rooms. In these cases $271 for the year is deducted from the total dormitory charge of $525 for room and board. These positions are open mainly to upperclass students.

EARNING BOARD AND ROOM

Usually after the first year employment can be obtained more easily. The largest amount which any student is able to earn is her room and board in a private family, in return for four hours of work a day in the home. Homemakers prefer to employ students who have completed their first year at college and have shown ability to handle housework and scholastic requirements at the same time.

Since Cornell University requires women students to live in the residential halls, special permission to live elsewhere must be obtained from the Dean of Women before any plans for work are made by the student.

MISCELLANEOUS WORK

Students may earn enough to pay for some of their expenses by doing part-time work, such as caring for children, serving at teas, light housework, clerical work, stenography, and typing. Calls for this type of work are irregular and one cannot depend on earning any definite amount. Students should register at the office of the Dean of Women where an employment bureau for women students is maintained.

SUMMER EMPLOYMENT

Summer work serves a two-fold purpose. In addition to financial assistance, it provides an opportunity for the student to gain vocational experience, in some cases to see the various opportunities a given vocational field offers, and to learn something of the personal qualifications and adjustments required.

During the summer of 1938 undergraduates were engaged in many camp jobs as counsellors, dietitians, or assistant dietitians; in resorts as waitresses, cooks, clerical workers, hostesses, and recreation leaders; in families as general assistants; in tea rooms and cafeterias as general assistants; in department stores as salespeople. A number of the opportunities were for apprenticeships in the dietary departments of hospitals, for students who anticipate post-graduate training in hospital dietetics.

Earnings vary with the length of period of employment and with type of job. In 1938 earnings ranged from maintenance to $300. Of 162 students reporting summer work, 62 earned $100 or more. The average amount earned in the summer is between $70 and $80.

VOCATIONAL PREPARATION, AND PLACEMENT OF GRADUATES

Students are encouraged to study their own skills and abilities, and to acquaint themselves with the opportunities and requirements of as many vocational fields as possible. A unit in the freshman orientation course deals with the vocational openings for women trained in home economics. A course in vocational orientation is conducted for upperclassmen, studying fields of work, qualifications, and methods of application.

General meetings open to all students in the College are held at intervals throughout the year. Members of the staff and outside speakers discuss fields of work and qualifications for them. Also methods of application, of interviewing, and of letter-writing are considered. Further guidance is given through individual conferences.

Except for the teacher placements, which are centralized in the Bureau of Educational Service, the placement of Home Economics graduates is cared for largely by the Secretary of the College. The office of the Secretary serves as a clearing house for requests by prospective employers for credentials of Home Economics graduates. Records of school-year, summer, and graduate employment and reports from employers on work success are kept in this office and summarized in the records of candidates applying for jobs.

Home Economics gives a good background for a wide range of positions. Graduates of this College are engaged in business as clerks, secretaries, home-economics advisers, home service workers, clothing buyers, and managers of their own shops; in educational work as teachers in colleges, high schools, nursery schools, radio schools, and specialized schools for the handicapped; in foods, nutrition, and institution management as county nutritionists, as research workers in the home-economics departments of commercial foods companies, as food administrators or dietitians in commercial and industrial restaurants, cafeterias, coffee shops, and tea rooms, in hospital dietary departments, and as supervisors and managers of college and school residence halls; in social work in welfare organizations, in religious education, in the Red Cross, in rural rehabilitation. A number have gone on into the professions after post-graduate training and are now listed as bacteriologists, chemists, physicians, editors, journalists, and librarians.

SCHOLARSHIPS, PRIZES, AND LOANS

Students should acquaint themselves with the information on scholarships available for women in any college in the University. Information about these and about loans is given on pages 36 to 42 of the General Information Number.

A few scholarships are available for students in Home Economics only. These are described in the following paragraphs.

THE MARTHA VAN RENSSELAER HOME BUREAU SCHOLARSHIP

The Martha Van Rensselaer Home Bureau Scholarship was founded by the New York State Federation of Home Bureaus and named for Martha Van Rensselaer, pioneer in home-economics extension service in New York State, first state leader of home-demonstration agents, and first Director of the New York State College of Home Economics. The scholarship is awarded to a member of the incoming senior class or to a graduate student in home economics. The applicant should signify her intention to become a home-demonstration agent in the New York State Extension Service. Students of this College should file their applications with the Secretary of the College by March 1. Awarded for 1938-39 to Sarah Doherty Splain of the class of 1939.

THE CARRIE GARDNER BRIGDEN SCHOLARSHIP

The Carrie Gardner Brigden Scholarship was founded by the New York State Federation of Home Bureaus and named in honor of Mrs. Carrie Gardner Brigden, the first president of the Federation. The scholarship is awarded each year to a senior in the New York State College of Home Economics or to a graduate of any qualified college who is to study at the New York State College of Home Economics, who needs financial assistance, whose college work shows distinguished ability, and whose character warrants the award. A qualified applicant intending to enter the extension service of the New York State College of Home Economics as a home-demonstration agent will be given preference. Applications should be filed with the Secretary of the College by March 1. Awarded for 1938-39 to Doris Reed Edwards of the class of 1939.

THE RUBY GREEN SMITH SCHOLARSHIP

The Ruby Green Smith Scholarship was founded by the New York State Federation of Home Bureaus and named for Dr. Ruby Green Smith, State Leader of Home Demonstration Agents and Councillor of the New York State Federation of Home Bureaus. The scholarship is awarded to an undergraduate or a graduate student in the New York State College of Home Economics who is preparing to become a home-demonstration agent in the New York State Extension Service. Students should file their applications with the Secretary of the College by March 1. Awarded for 1938-39 to Dawn Yvonne Rochow of the class of 1939.

THE BERTHA DUNCKEL DUFFY SCHOLARSHIPS

The New York State Daughters of the American Revolution have established two scholarships of $100 each in the New York State College of Home Economics. These scholarships, named in honor of the State regent, Mrs. George Duffy, are available for the first time for the year 1939-40. For the year 1940-41 a third scholarship will be available. These scholarships are to be awarded annually, one to a member of the incoming sophomore class, one to a member of the incoming junior class, and one to a member of the incoming senior class. Awards are made on the basis of scholarship, leadership, and financial need. Other qualifications being equal, the student with greatest financial need is given preference. For each scholarship two candidates are recommended by the chairman of the college committee on scholarships to the D. A. R. state regent and state chairman of girl homemakers' committee, who make the final decision. Candidates should be residents of the State.

Applications should be filed by March 1 at the office of the Secretary of the College. Blanks may be obtained at that office. Awarded for 1939-40 to Helen Irene Douty of the class of 1941 and to Margaret Howe Fish of the class of 1942.

THE HOME ECONOMICS CLUB SCHOLARSHIP

The Home Economics Club Scholarship of $100 is awarded in the spring to a member of the in-coming senior class. The holder of the scholarship is selected on the basis of financial need and of outstanding ability in scholarship and leadership. Application should be filed in the office of the Secretary of the New York State College of Home Economics by March 1. The holder of the scholarship will be selected by the scholarship committee of the faculty, cooperating with a committee of three seniors appointed by the president of the Home Economics Club. Awarded for 1938-39 to Alice Mildred Scheidt and Elsie Mae Hughes, both of the class of 1939.

OMICRON NU SCHOLARSHIP

The Omicron Nu Scholarship of $50 is awarded in the spring to a member of the in-coming junior class. The award is made on the basis of scholarship, activity, and financial need. Beginning with 1939-40 a second scholarship of $50 will be offered. Applications must be filed in the office of the Secretary of Home Economics by March 1. Awarded for 1938-39 to Rose Anna Nardi of the class of 1940.

THE NEW YORK STATE FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS SCHOLARSHIP

The New York State Federation of Women's Clubs offers from time to time a scholarship of $250 to a student who has given evidence of scholarship and a desire to serve the interests of homemaking in New York State. Application should be filed with the Chairman of the Federation Scholarship Committee, Mrs. G. Sherman Angell, 65 Maple Street, Hornell, New York.

THE GRACE SCHERMERHORN SCHOLARSHIP

The Grace Schermerhorn Scholarship is given by the Association of Homemaking Teachers of the New York City Elementary and High Schools in memory of a former director of Homemaking Education. It is awarded to a student entering the New York State College of Home Economics. To be eligible to apply the student must be outstanding in scholarship and character and must be recommended by the teacher of home-making in her particular high school. She must expect to prepare for teaching in New York City. Awarded for 1938-39 to Elizabeth Schramm of the class of 1939.

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION INDIAN SCHOLARSHIP

The New York State Conference, Daughters of the American Revolution, has created a scholarship in the College of Home Economics for New York Indian students. This permanent scholarship is in memory of Olive S. Whitman, late wife of ex-Governor Charles S. Whitman. Applications must be filed at the office of the Secretary of the College by March 1. Awarded for 1938-39 to Henrietta Hoag of the class of 1940.

THE DANFORTH SUMMER FELLOWSHIP AND THE DANFORTH GIRLS' SCHOLARSHIP

The Danforth Summer Fellowship is awarded annually by the Danforth Foundation and the Ralston-Purina Mills in St. Louis, Missouri, to outstanding juniors of thirty-seven state universities. Juniors in the New York State College of Home Economics are eligible to apply through the office of the Secretary of the College. Applications should be filed by April 15.

This fellowship provides opportunity to study problems of manufacturing, commercial research, distribution, advertising, personnel, and leadership. The fellowship covers the student's expenses for two weeks of study and observation at the Ralston-Purina plant in St. Louis, and for two weeks of leadership training at the American Youth Foundation Camp on Lake Michigan.

The recipient is chosen by a faculty committee for her interest in the commercial field, and as an outstanding student in physical, mental, social, and religious development. The holder of the fellowship in the summer of 1938 was Florence De Forest Dixon of the class of 1939.

The Danforth Girls' Scholarship is awarded annually to an outstanding freshman in Home Economics. Cornell is eligible to recommend candidates. The candidate recommended by her College receives a half scholarship, and one girl is chosen by the Danforth Foundation for the national honor of a full scholarship. Candidates receive two weeks of leadership training with free tuition and expenses at the American Youth Foundation Camp on Lake Michigan. A half scholarship was awarded in the summer of 1938 to Ruth Marshall of the class of 1941.

PRIZES

For information concerning prizes offered in the University and open to competition of students in the College of Home Economics, see the pamphlet, Prize Competitions, which may be obtained at the office of the Secretary of the University, 27 Morrill Hall.

ALUMNAE CASH AWARDS

A small fund is maintained by the Alumnae Association of the New York State College of Home Economics from which worthy students under financial pressure may receive small sums, no amount to exceed $20. Application should be made through the Secretary of the College.

LOANS

The Emma Rose Curtis loan fund was established from a sum of money presented by Emma Rose Curtis of the class of 1937, and is maintained by Omicron Nu. Seniors in the New York State College of Home Economics may borrow from this fund. No interest is charged, but loans must be paid back a year from the time of borrowing to insure help to other students. Applications for loans from this fund should be made through the Secretary of the College.

The Home Economics Club has made available a small loan fund from which students may borrow for fees on recommendation of the adviser. Application is made through the Secretary of the College.

The New York State Grange has established a loan fund to aid its members in securing a higher education. Application may be made to Mr. H. M. Stanley, Skaneateles, New York.

A number of loan funds are available to needy students through the University. These are administered by a standing committee. Applications are made through the Office of the Dean of Women. For details regarding the use of loan funds students should refer to page 41 of the General Information Number.

SPECIAL REGULATIONS AND PROCEDURES

REGISTRATION

Students must register in the University, as well as for courses they expect to take as members of the College. Special students follow the same procedure for registration as regular students.

Registration in the University is held September 25 and 26 and February 9. Registration coupons are sent to each new student from the office of the Registrar. On the coupons are directions for registration in the University. If a new student has not received registration coupons by registration day, she should go in person to the Office of Admissions to procure them.

The College of Home Economics holds a preregistration so that students may have time to plan thoughtfully their programs for the ensuing year, and so that departments may have information of the number of registrants for various courses. Preregistration for upper-classmen is held in the spring, and coupons are filed at the Office of the Secretary of the College before the close of college in June. Freshmen are given opportunity to plan their programs during Freshman Week-End and at the close of the first term's work in Orientation 100.

Class and laboratory sections for sophomores, juniors, and seniors are made up during the summer in the office of the Secretary of the College, and preregistration coupons giving assignments to class sections are returned to students on the day of the University registration to be used as guides in making the official study card.

Students are given an opportunity during the ten days following Christmas vacation to make changes in their preregistration programs for the second term.

At registration the official study card should be filed, with the registrar's coupon No. 4, by the student personally, in order that any questions may be attended to without delay. A student who is absent from registration and who does not file the study card personally runs the risk of losing a place in a class for which the instructor's permission must be obtained and, if the card is in any way incomplete, the Secretary of the College may hold the card until the student's return. This makes the student liable for the late registration fee.

LATE REGISTRATION

The dates of the University registration are also the dates for filing the official study card or course registration.

A student desiring to register in the University after the close of registration day shall first pay a fee of $5.

A student desiring to file the study card after registration day shall first pay a fee of $2.

These assessments may be waived if failure to comply with the regulation was due to reasons beyond the student's control. Application for such a waiver should be made to the Secretary of the College.

CHANGES IN COURSE REGISTRATIONS

A student who desires to drop a course or to enter another after the term has begun, must obtain a change-of-registration slip from the office of the Secretary of the College and file this at the same office when she has filled it out. A student cannot be admitted to a class until her name is on the registration lists sent to instructors by the Secretary of the College.

After the first ten days of the term, changes in registration may be made only by petition and on the recommendation of the adviser. Petition blanks may be obtained at the office of the Secretary of the College. Petitions should state clearly and convincingly the reason for the request that is made. Students who petition for changes in registration after the first ten days of the term may be held for the course fee at the discretion of the instructor and the Petitions Committee.

The student should continue class attendance until official notification is received that the petition is granted.

ATTENDANCE AND ABSENCES

University exercises begin at 8 a.m. and close at 4 p.m. unless otherwise noted. The period between 12.50 p.m. and 1.40 p.m. is the lunch hour. The afternoon laboratory exercises begin at 1.40 p.m. unless otherwise noted in the description of courses. Regular attendance at lectures, recitations, and laboratory periods is expected throughout each term, beginning with the first day of instruction.

A student who neglects her work in any class, by absence or otherwise, may be warned, and, if this does not result in satisfactory improvement, may receive a failure for the course. A student whose record shows persistent absence or neglect may at any time be dismissed from the College on recommendation of the Petitions Committee.

A student not in attendance on university duties and not a resident of Ithaca must leave town within five days after her university attendance has been officially discontinued.

EXAMINATIONS

At the close of each term a period is set aside for final examinations. It is expected that students will use the official examination books furnished by the University.

Reexamination for the purpose of changing a grade is not permitted in courses in the Colleges of Agriculture and Home Economics.

GRADES

Grades in the University are reported to the Registrar on the numerical scale of 0 to 100, 60 being the lowest passing grade.

The grade of incomplete (Inc.) is assigned if the work of a course is not completed but, in the judgment of the instructor, the student has good reason for the deficiency and has shown evidence that she can complete the work of the course satisfactorily.

To remove the grade (Inc.) and receive credit for the course, a student must obtain a permit from the Office of Resident Instruction in Roberts Hall and must pay a fee of $2 unless waiver of the fee is granted by that office. A grade of incomplete must be removed before the expiration of two terms and a summer session, otherwise the grade automatically becomes a failure.

If a student's deficiency in a course is merely the result of unavoidable absence from the final examination, the grade absence (Abs.) may be given. The student should obtain from the Office of Resident Instruction in Roberts Hall a permit for making up the examination.

A student whose work in any course is unsatisfactory is notified. Otherwise students are not automatically informed of grades, and reports are not made to parents. A student who wishes to receive a statement of grades may leave a stamped and self-addressed envelope at the office of the Secretary of the College on or before the last day of the term examinations.

The official record of the student's credits is in the office of the University Registrar, to whom requests for transcripts of record bearing the University Seal must be made.

DEFICIENCY IN SCHOLARSHIP

A cumulative average of 70 is required for graduation. A student whose cumulative average is below 70, or whose average for a given term is below 70, is considered as not making satisfactory progress and is notified that her record will be reviewed by the Faculty Committee on Petitions. She may be warned, placed on probation for a term, or she may be asked to leave the University.

If a student feels that there is legitimate reason for the low record and wishes to bring this to the attention of the Faculty Committee, a written statement may be filed at the office of the Secretary of the College.

Probation is regarded as but one step short of exclusion. A student under probation is ineligible to hold or compete for office in student organizations, and must notify the proper authorities of her ineligibility.

PROCEDURE FOR WITHDRAWAL, LEAVE OF ABSENCE, OR FOR PERMISSION TO BE ABSENT FROM CLASSES

If a student finds it necessary to withdraw from the University before the end of a term, application should be made at the Office of the Secretary of the College for a leave of absence or an honorable dismissal. Such leave of absence or honorable dismissal is necessary in order to clear the record of the term, and failure to obtain it may operate against the student's subsequent readmission.

A student desiring permission to leave town for a brief period should apply at the Office of the Secretary before leaving. An excuse from any source is merely an explanation of the absence and presupposes that work will be made up.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

The requirements for the degree of bachelor of science are: the completion of 120 credit hours of required and elective work during the four years; a cumulative average of at least 70 for the work of the college course; and residence for at least two terms prior to receiving the degree.

The student may, and is advised to, take some courses in other colleges of the University to gain a broad educational background as a basis for effective living. One-fourth of the 120 credit hours are devoted to basic courses in the biological, physical, and social sciences; one-third to courses in home economics; and about one-third to related elective courses in the various colleges of the University. English, Hygiene, and Physical Education are taken by all students.

Credits should be distributed as indicated in each group.

| Group 1 | Credit hours |
|---|---------------------|
| Basic sciences..... | 30 |
| Courses in any college in the University. Choose two or more from each of the following groups: | |
| a. Biological sciences: General Biology, Zoology, Botany, Bacteriology, Physiology, Anatomy, Histology, Biochemistry, Entomology..... | 9 |
| b. Physical sciences: Chemistry, Physics, Astronomy, Geology..... | 9 |
| c. Social sciences: Economics, Government, History, Psychology, Sociology..... | 12 |
| Group 2 | |
| Home Economics, minimum required hours..... | 40 |
| Courses listed in this announcement on pages 41 to 56. | |
| Group 3 | |
| Electives..... | 42 |
| a. Courses in any college in the University..... | 24 |
| b. Courses in the state colleges of Home Economics, Agriculture, Veterinary Medicine..... | 18 |
| Group 4 | |
| English 2..... | 6 |
| Hygiene 1 and 2..... | 2 |
| Physical Education..... | 0 |
| Total hours..... | 120 |

Note: Agricultural Engineering 10 may be counted as Physics. Of the 10 hours of credit in Foods and Nutrition 110 (page 45), 6 hours are credited to group 1b as Chemistry and 4 hours to group 2 as Foods. Economics of the Household 130 may be counted as Economics, but if so taken will not be counted in group 2 or 3.

Courses in Hotel Administration may be counted in groups 3a and 3b; they may be included in group 2 only by faculty permission.

Group 1 and group 3a may be taken outside the state colleges without additional charge to the student. If, however, a student fails or receives a grade of Z in any course in either group 1 or group 3a, the credit hours of the failed course are counted against group 3a. Courses may be taken outside the state colleges beyond this limit of 24 hours after completion of the 120 hours required for graduation, and upon payment of $12.50 for each credit hour.

PROGRAMS AND COURSES OF STUDY

GENERAL PROGRAM

The College desires to cooperate with each student in planning her program to the end that she discovers and finds expression for her innate endowment, develops herself personally, and prepares herself for vocational contribution. "Program" is interpreted by the College to include all of the activities—academic, personal, and social—to which the student gives interest and time, and is thought of as the means through which each will achieve educational, personal, and social development during the college years.

Throughout the college course each student is encouraged to work out her own program in accordance with her individual needs and interests, keeping in mind, especially after the freshman year, the plan of courses basic to the degree as given on page 35.

As a basis for building a balanced program, the average schedule of courses should approximate 15 credit hours each term. During the several terms, however, either more or fewer hours may be taken depending upon the courses selected and upon the ability and total program of the individual. Students earning any considerable part of their college expenses are encouraged to limit their schedule of courses to 12 or 13 credit hours a term and to spend four and a half or five years to complete requirements for graduation.

Students who enter the College of Home Economics should consider the first two years as offering background for individual development, and for foundation in home economics and the sciences; the last two years, as offering increased breadth of training as well as more specific focus on a chosen field.

Freshmen are urged not to plan schedules of courses for themselves before entering college, but to consider carefully what they wish especially to accomplish through the college experience and the ways in which the college program as a whole may contribute to this. Guidance on schedule of courses and on program is given to the freshmen during Freshman Week-End.

Certain courses, such as Institution Management 100, Textiles and Clothing 120, 200, and 220, Family Life 330, Leadership 310 and 320, Orientation 100 and 300, and Rural Education 136, are scheduled in blocks, the work in the course being concentrated into five or seven weeks. A student carrying a "blocked" course should bear in mind that she will need to equalize her program in the other weeks when she will not be attending the "blocked" course.

A number of courses schedule trips as part of their class work. These are listed on page 58. Students cannot plan for trips during blocked courses. They should also note that not more than six university days of absence from town are permitted.

SPECIAL COURSES OF STUDY
PREPARATION FOR POST-GRADUATE TRAINING IN DIETETICS

Certain centers have been approved by the American Dietetics Association to give post-graduate training in hospital dietetics, food-clinic work,* and non-hospital administrative work. Students who wish to enter this training should fulfill the following requirements in their college programs:

| Subjects | Hours | Subjects | Hours |
|---------------------------|--------------|-----------------------------------|--------------|
| Chemistry | 12 to 17 | Education | 3 |
| To include: | | Food preparation | .6 to 8 |
| General | | To include: | |
| Organic | | Experimental cookery | |
| Physiological | | Meal planning | |
| Biology | 6 to 13 | Nutrition | 6 to 8 |
| To include: | | *Institution Management | 6 to 9 |
| Human Physiology and | | To include: | |
| Bacteriology | | Organization and Management | |
| Social Sciences | 9 to 12 | Institution buying | |
| To include: | | Institution accounting | |
| Psychology | | Quantity cookery | |
| Sociology | | | |
| Economics | | | |

*For food-clinic work, institution management is not considered necessary. The 6 to 9 hours allotted to this should be distributed among the other groups suggested, particularly in social sciences, education, food preparation, and nutrition. Field work in the social sciences, practice teaching, and residence in the homemaking apartments are highly desirable.

VOCATIONAL HOME ECONOMICS TEACHING

Students who wish to prepare for teaching home economics in the secondary schools are asked to consult Professor Binzel regarding opportunities in the field and qualifications of teachers. In admitting students to the courses in Home Economics Education, consideration is given to scholarship, health, personality, and other qualities generally regarded as contributing success to the teaching profession.

To meet the New York State requirement for teachers in secondary schools, candidates for certification must complete 18 hours in Education as follows:

| | Hours |
|---|--------------|
| Educational Psychology: Rural Education 111, or 112, or Education 1 . . . | 3 |
| Principles of Education: Rural Education 181 | 3 |
| Methods, Observations, Teaching, and Extra-instructional Problems . . . | 9 |
| These are integrated units of work involving the following | |
| courses: | Hours |
| The teaching of home economics in the secondary school: | |
| Rural Education 135 | 3 |
| Extra-instructional problems: Rural Education 137 . . . | 2 |
| Directed teaching of home economics in the secondary | |
| school: Rural Education 136 | 4 |
| Elective | 3 |
| (Rural Education 117, Child and Adolescent Psychology, may be | |
| accepted as an elective and is required of teachers of home-making | |
| as a prerequisite for Family Life 210) | |
| Total | 18 |

In the majority of school systems instructors in home economics teach all phases of homemaking. Even in those schools in which homemaking is departmentalized it is desirable that each teacher have a broad view of the entire field. To help achieve this, subject matter in the following fields is suggested, adjustment being made according to individual background and needs:

| | Hours |
| Family Relationships and Child Study..... | 8 |
| Part of the work in family relationships may be covered through sociology courses in The Family. Part should be taken in Home Economics. Child study may include work in Child Psychology, and should also include observation of child behavior and guidance in a nursery school, and some participation in work with children through a nursery school, play group, or in homes. | |
| Health in the Home and Community and Home Nursing..... | 2 |
| This should include study of home and community hygiene, first aid and emergencies in the care of the sick at home. A college course is required, rather than a Red Cross course in first aid. | |
| Household Management and Economics of the Household..... | 8 |
| Study in this field should be concerned with management and economic principles as they apply in the home. Consideration should be given to the management of the house with relation to family living. Some experience in practical problems should be included. It is also desirable to develop that phase of managerial ability involved in the inter-relationships in the home and the community. | |
| Nutrition and Food Preparation..... | 10 |
| This should include nutrition for all ages and, in the main, for the healthy person. It should include the science of food preparation, food buying, storage, kitchen planning, family meals, and the food budget. | |
| Art and Home Furnishing..... | 8 |
| This may include courses in applied art, or art principles, or design and color, or other types of courses which include fundamental principles of art, or various kinds of courses in applied art such as home crafts. The work in furnishing and house planning should emphasize furnishing in relation to family living. | |
| Clothing and related subjects (design, textiles, construction)..... | 10 |
| This should include an understanding of the essentials of personal grooming, care of clothing, the personal wardrobe, clothing for the family, the clothing budget, the construction of clothing, and the design of costume. The textiles study should include textiles used in clothing and home furnishings. | |

Summer school will offer a valuable means of supplementing the regular college work.

In addition to the above requirements in Education, and suggested subject matter in Home Economics a student preparing to teach should plan her college program and her experiences during the summers so as to build an understanding of herself, children, and adults. She should also be able to recognize in homes and communities the significant situations and problems to which home economics applies. She should use home economics to achieve sound practices in her own living and should give evidence of growing skill in helping others to interpret and apply its findings and standards to the solution of individual, home, and community needs.

Because of recent action taken by the New York State Board of Regents in March 1939, those preparing to teach academic subjects must offer five years of pre-service preparation if they enter service after December 31, 1942. At the present time the State Education Department requires only four years of pre-service preparation of those teaching agriculture or home economics; but it is expected that the majority of teachers in these fields who obtain their preparation at Cornell University will take advantage of the opportunities provided through the five-year program. Those who have five years of approved preparation will be granted a permanent State certificate. Those with only four years of training will be granted a provisional certificate valid for ten years and renewable upon presentation of evidence of having completed an additional year of advanced study.

Those who wish to follow the five-year program before being required to do so may transfer from the four-year to the five-year program. Information regarding such transfer may be obtained from the office of the Graduate School of Education, or from Miss Binzel who is in charge of the teacher-education curriculum in Home Economics.

THE MERRILL-PALMER SCHOOL

Students may be selected for work during the senior year at the Merrill-Palmer School in Detroit. Selection is on the basis of scholarship, sincerity of interest in the study of child development, and readiness for intensive work in this field. Application should be made through the Secretary of the College of Home Economics by April 15 in the year preceding attendance. Students receive full credit at Cornell for courses taken at the Merrill-Palmer School.

Seniors are required to pay a fee of $12.50 to bind their registration at the University during the period of absence. Students who hold state cash scholarships cannot be granted them during the period of absence but may apply to the Secretary of the College for recommendation that tuition at the Merrill-Palmer School be waived.

A limited number of graduate assistantships is available each year for work at the School. Students interested in these should consult the Merrill-Palmer catalogue and should leave their names at the office of the Secretary of the College of Home Economics by April 15.

THE NEW YORK HOSPITAL SCHOOL OF NURSING

Through an informal arrangement between the New York Hospital School of Nursing and the New York State College of Home Economics, certain courses taken at the New York Hospital may be accepted for advanced credit by the College of Home Economics. Thus it is possible to complete the requirements of both institutions in less time than is required if the courses are taken independently.

Suggested arrangements for work in the two schools may be obtained from the Assistant Director of the College of Home Economics.

Announcement of the New York Hospital School of Nursing may be obtained by writing to Miss Anna Wolf, Director of the School of Nursing, 525 East 68th Street, New York City.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Student activities are a valuable supplement to the course of study. The student is encouraged to take part in them in reasonable proportion to her academic studies, or to her remunerative work, should she be earning part of her expenses.

Many University activities are open to women, and competition or try-out periods are held at various times during the year. For the student interested in music there is the Sage Chapel Choir, the Women's Glee Club, the University Orchestra, and the Women's Instrumental Club. The Cornell Dramatic Club, and Kermis, the dramatic club on the Agricultural Campus, offer opportunities to work on costumes, make-up, and properties, as well as acting. The Cornell Countryman, the Cornell Daily Sun, the Widow, and the Areopagus are literary publications that give experience in business management, art, and writing. The Women's Debate Club is open to those interested in public speaking.

The Cornell United Religious Work offers community service as one of its many activities, groups of students working at the Settlement Houses, the Reconstruction Home, and the Children's Home in Ithaca.

The Women's Athletic Association promotes good sportsmanship and physical well-being. Students interested in team games find many openings here.

Willard Straight Hall, the student union, has a social and recreational program, with teas, dances, concerts, reading room, art exhibitions, and many other activities. Students serve on the various committees of the Hall.

Mortar Board and Phi Kappa Phi are honor societies to which students of outstanding ability are elected. Omicron Nu is an honor society in the College of Home Economics.

Some activities are maintained only in the College of Home Economics. The Home Economics Club carries on a social program of teas and dances and is the coordinator of the various activities of the College of Home Economics. Its committees deal with the operation of the student salesroom, where girls sell products of their own making; the student kitchen, where girls may prepare their lunches or make products for sale; the recreation room and the student lounges; the Home Economics News, which is published once a month; the scholarship, which is maintained by the Club and awarded by a committee of the Club working with the Faculty Committee on Scholarships; the student guide service, which works with the publications and information offices as hostesses to college guests and as guides through the building. Membership in the Home Economics Club is open to all students in the College.

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

This year the courses in Home Economics have been renumbered. The parenthesis beside the number gives the old number for each course.

Courses in the 100 group: courses without prerequisite.

Courses in the 200 group: courses having prerequisite; open to members of all classes as soon as the preliminary work has been taken.

Courses in the 300 group: primarily for seniors and graduates.

Courses in the 400 group: for graduates.

Unless otherwise noted, all courses are given in Martha Van Rensselaer Hall.

ECONOMICS OF THE HOUSEHOLD AND HOUSEHOLD MANAGEMENT

130. (130.) Economic Conditions as They Affect the Welfare of Families. Second term. Credit three hours. Consult the instructor before registering. T Th 11-12.30. Room 121. Professor CANON.

A course to help students understand the changes that have taken place in the economic welfare of families in this country, and some of the factors related to these changes. Production as it relates to economic welfare, the national income as it relates to family incomes, the significance of price in our economic organization and of changes in the price level. Fee, $2.50.

160. (160.) Marketing Problems from the Consumer's Viewpoint. First or second term. Credit three hours. M W 11, F 11-1. Room 121. Mrs. HOTCHKISS.

The various services performed in moving goods from the places where they are produced to the places where they are used, and the costs of these services. Information concerning commodities and supplies available; standards for goods; buying practices of consumers. Relation between buying problems of consumers and marketing problems of producers and distributors. Relation between marketing policies and personal management in the interest of family members. Action taken by the government, business associations, private agencies, and other organizations; the part that can be played by these groups and by consumers in improving marketing methods. Visits to several marketing agencies. Fee, $5.

300. (150.) Special Problems. First or second term. Credit and hours to be arranged individually. For students recommended by advisers and approved by the head of the department for independent, advanced work on a problem not dealt with by other courses in the department. Fee determined by the problem.

310. (112.) Management in Relation to Family Living. First or second term. Credit three hours. For juniors, seniors, and graduate students. Consult the instructor before registering. M 2, W F 2-4.20. Room G 19. Assistant Professor CUSHMAN.

For students who wish help in understanding the process of management and opportunity for practice of this process. Emphasis on the management of resources as they relate to time and energy. Experience in recognizing and analyzing the students' own problems. Meetings in homes, schools, and community centers to see how certain families and groups of people manage differently to achieve their individual purposes. Cooperation with interested families and other groups in the study of tasks. Development of trial work centers set up with portable equipment to help to determine the most satisfactory way of performing these tasks in each individual case. Practice in the selection and use of source material in management. One all-day tour, time to be arranged. Fee, $12, including transportation for trips.

320. (120.) Management Aspects of Household Equipment. Second term. Credit two or three hours. Prerequisites, Agricultural Engineering 10 and Economics of the Household 310. Primarily for seniors and graduate students. M W 9-11. Room G19-A. Miss KNOWLES.

Variations in the types and quality of household equipment in relation to individual situations, and the management involved in selection, care, use, and repair. Discussion with homemakers, manufacturers, distributors, engineers, and other specialists. Trips to Ithaca homes where certain equipment is being used, and to commercial agencies where various equipment will be demonstrated. A three-day trip to factories during the spring recess. Students registering for the factory trip will receive one extra hour of credit. Fee for the course, $5. Cost of transportation on the three-day trip, exclusive of meals and lodging, approximately $10.

330. (145.) Management of Personal and Family Finances. Second term. Credit three hours. Primarily for seniors. T Th 2-4. Room 121. Professor CANON.

The relation between financial management and other management problems; factors influencing one's real income; efforts that the individual can make toward attaining financial security; important considerations in a savings program and an investment program; policies in borrowing, sources of credit, and availability and charges of lending agencies; records and statements helpful in financial management. Fee, $2.50.

400. (212.) Review of Research in Management. First term. Credit two hours. For advanced students in home management. Prerequisite or parallel, Economics of the Household 310. Consult the instructor before registering. F 9-11. Room G19-A. Assistant Professor CUSHMAN and Department Staff.

Examination of literature. Evaluation of results and methods of research. Discussions with investigators in various phases of management. Occasional trips to homes, stores, factories, and other institutions. Fee, $2.

410. (250.) Economic Problems of Families. Second term. Credit two hours. Consult the instructor before registering. F 9-11. Room 121. Professor CANON.

Analysis of a few outstanding contributions to economic thought related to this field. Examination of methods of research. Fee, $1.

420. (290.) Seminar. First and second terms. T 4.30-6. For graduate students. Room 114. Department staff.

FAMILY LIFE

100. (100.) The Home and Family Life. Orientation. First or second term. Credit two hours. Lectures and discussions, T Th 9 or W F 8. Room 3M13. One hour of observation weekly in the Nursery School with occasional substitution of an hour in the Homemaking Apartments, or in homes where there are small children. Each student's program should permit some observations at 9 or 10, and 11 and 2. Observation schedule to be arranged after the first lecture period. Professor FOWLER, Assistant Professor REEVES, Misses WOODRUFF and DAVIS.

Factors inherent in home living, and their influence upon all members of the family, especially the children. The home and its furnishings, food selection and service, clothing selection and use, the family income and schedule of activities, the relationships among the family members. Concrete material for illustration and discussion is provided by the consideration of the students' childhood histories, together with observations of children in their homes and in the Nursery School. Fee, $5.

110. (125.) Health of the Family. First or second term. Credit two hours. Designed for freshmen and sophomores. T Th 11. Room 339. Dr. BULL.

A brief survey of some of the factors that make for healthy living for the individual family. Consideration is given to: fitness for marriage and parenthood; factors in growth, development, and maintenance of health of the young child and the adolescent; various deficiency conditions and infections against which the family need safe-guarding. Fee, $3.

120. (126.) Child Care and Home Nursing. First or second term. Credit three hours. Discussions on child care, M W 2. Room 339. Home nursing laboratory, M or W 3-5, or F 2-4. Room NB30. Mrs. PEABODY.

A course concerned with the care of the expectant mother to promote health of mother and baby; day by day care of the baby and the child in the home to insure health; care of illnesses and accidents often met with in the average home; convalescence. Fee, $3.

[130. (120.) Experience with Children. First or second term. Credit two hours. For selected freshmen and sophomores. Professor FOWLER, Assistant Professor REEVES, and Miss DAVIS.] Not given in 1939-40.

140. (107.) Creative Materials in Child Development. First or second term. Credit three hours. Lecture and discussion, M W 8, Room 124; laboratory, T 2-4, F 8-10 or 2-4. Room B10. Two hours of observation weekly in the Nursery School and private homes. Programs should allow a free 9, 10, or 2 o'clock hour for observation. Professor FOWLER, Assistant Professor REEVES, and Misses WOODRUFF and DAVIS.

A course concerned with important creative materials in the child's environment, such as toys, blocks, books, pictures, music, plastic materials, paint, tools, and nature materials, and the child's response to them. Principles underlying the selection, construction, use and care of these materials, and the evaluation and adjustment of these to meet the needs of the growing child. Observations, home visits, shop work, reading, discussion, and reports. Fee, $7.50.

150. (108.) Children's Literature. Second term. Credit one hour. Lecture and discussion, M 2. Room 121. Assistant Professor REEVES.

The appreciation of children's literature. Reading aloud, discussion, and experience in writing and telling stories. Fee, $3.

210. (101.) Principles of Child Guidance. First or second term. Credit three hours. Advised for teachers and extension workers. Prerequisite, Rural Education 111 or 112. Prerequisite or parallel, Rural Education 117. Lectures and discussion, M W F 8. Room 121. Two hours of observation weekly in the laboratory. Programs to be checked with the instructor during registration. Laboratory to be arranged after the first lecture period. Professor WARING and Assistant Professor REEVES.

Each student makes a detailed study of an individual child in the Nursery School. Aspects of behavior—routine and creative, individual and social—are observed as they are related in a total pattern of personality, and guidance is studied as it influences the growing self.

The observation of children is made the basis for the students' understanding of the less obvious and less simple behavior of themselves and other adults. Fee, $7.50.

220. (114.) Family Relationships and Personality Development. First and second terms. Credit three hours. Prerequisite or parallel, a beginning course in Biology, Sociology, and Psychology. First term, M W F 9 or 11. Second term, T Th S 9. Room 124. Professor ROCKWOOD.

A course dealing with the relationships of members of the family as these are influenced by biological and cultural factors and by the immediate family experience. Fee, $5.

300. (150.) Special Problems. First or second term. Credit and hours to be arranged individually. For students recommended by advisers and approved by the head of the department for independent, advanced work on a problem not dealt with by other courses in the department. Fee determined by the problem.

310. (111.) Woman and the Family. Second term. Credit two hours. Open to juniors and seniors. Th 10-12. Room 124. Professor ROSE.

Discussion, reading, and observation of the functioning of women in the family and, through the family, in the community; the parts women play, the tasks they perform, their interests, their activities, and the significance of home economics and education in their development. Fee, $3.

320. (223.) Marriage. Second term. Credit three hours. Open to juniors and seniors by permission of the instructor. M W F 11. Room 339. Professor ROCKWOOD.

This course considers social and economic changes which today are influencing the relations of men and women before and after marriage; courtship and engagement; choice of a mate; marriage adjustment; and adjustment to parenthood. Fee, $5.

330 a, b. (220 a, b.) Assisting in the Nursery School. First or second term. Credit three or four hours, either term. Open to a limited number of seniors and graduate students with adequate personal and professional qualifications. Prerequisite, Family Life 210, and prerequisite or parallel, Family Life 140. Experience in the college nursery school, and the federal and settlement schools. A total of thirty hours of supervised participation with the children in the Nursery School for each hour of credit. May be concentrated in a block of five or seven weeks or taken throughout the term. One hour of conference each week throughout the term. Professor FOWLER, Assistant Professor REEVES, and Miss DAVIS.

a. Assisting in the Junior Groups. Credit three or four hours. Laboratory hours to be arranged. Conference, M 3. Room 124. Fee, $7.50.

b. Assisting in the Senior Groups. Credit three or four hours. Laboratory hours to be arranged. Conference, T 12. Senior Nursery School. Fee, $7.50.

340. (205.) Principles of Child Guidance, Advanced Course. Second term. Credit three hours. (Given in alternate years. Will be offered in 1939-40.) Prerequisite, Family Life 210. Lectures and discussion, T Th S 8. Room 124. Programs to be checked with the instructor at registration. Laboratory to be arranged after the first lecture period. Professor WARING.

Observations of the behavior and guidance of young children, and analysis of narrative records for trends in the personality which indicate the conditions under which guidance may be effective. Fee, $5.

[350. (228.) Seminar in Behavior and Guidance. See Rural Education 228. Second term. Credit two hours. Given in alternate years. Professor WARING.] Not given in 1939-40.

400. (200.) The Home and Family Life. First term. Credit three hours. Open to graduate students with adequate training in Family Life. Attendance at lectures and discussions of Family Life 100. T Th S 9. Professor FOWLER and Miss WOODRUFF.

A course planned to give advanced students some experience in developing an elementary course for less mature students. Various areas of home-economics subject matter are organized around the central theme of the life of the family in the home. Fee, $5.

410. (201.) Principles of Child Guidance. First or second term. Credit three hours. Open to qualified graduate students. Lecture and discussion, M W F 8. Room 121. Observation in the Nursery School. Professor WARING.

Application of psychology to the understanding of the behavior of young children and to the working out of principles of guidance. Each student makes a detailed study of an individual child in the Nursery School. Fee, $5.

420. (214.) Family Relationships and Personality Development. First term. Credit three hours. Graduate section of Family Life 220. T 2-4 and Th 2. Room 124. Professor ROCKWOOD.

A course dealing with the relationships of members of the family as these are influenced by biological and cultural factors and by the immediate family experience. Fee, $5.

430. (215.) Studies in Family Life. First and second term. Credit two to four hours. Open to graduate students. Prerequisite, background for research in Family Life. At least four hours each of two terms for students majoring in the department for a master's degree or minoring for a doctorate. Th 1.40-3.15 is held provisionally for group activities. Professors WARING and ROCKWOOD.

[440. (221.) Seminar—The Family. First or second term. Credit two hours. Professors WARING, ROCKWOOD, and COTTRELL.] Not given in 1939-40.

FOODS AND NUTRITION

100. (1.) Food Preparation in Relation to Meal Planning. First or second term. Credit three hours. (See also course 200.) Limited to sixteen in a section.

Lecture, Th 9, Room 339. Laboratory: first term, T Th 2-4.30; second term, M W 11-1.30 or 2-4.30, Room 361. Mrs. JANSSEN.

A beginning course in food preparation and buying in relation to meal planning and service. Fee, $18.

110. (2.) Science Related to Food Preparation. Throughout the year. Credit five hours a term (Four hours to be counted as Foods, six hours as Chemistry.) (See also course 210.) Lectures: first term, M W F 9; second term, M W F 10, Amphitheatre. Practice, first term: M W 2-4; T Th 9-11 or 2-4. Two sections each period. Practice, second term: M W 2-4.20; T Th 10-12.20 or 2-4.20. Two sections each period. Rooms 353, 356, and 358. Professor PFUND, Assistant Professor PERSONIUS, Dr. SMITH, Miss CLOSSON, and Miss ———.

Fundamental principles and practices of food preparation approached through the study of inorganic and organic chemistry. The influence of the kind and proportion of ingredients and of the methods of manipulation and cookery on the flavor and texture of such foods as baked products, eggs, meats, vegetables, and sugar mixtures.

Laboratory practice in chemistry and comparative cookery includes experiments using simple chemical technics and facts and basic cookery processes. Emphasis on the application of scientific principles to the interpretation of observed results. The course serves as a prerequisite for Chemistry 201, 210, and for Biology 314 and 314a.

As a result of the course students should recognize quality in cooked foods and the factors that contribute to this quality. They should attain skill in specific cookery technics, and should be able to apply this knowledge and skill critically in food preparation. Fee, $18 a term.

120. (11.) Food Preparation. First or second term. Credit three hours. Required of students registered in hotel administration. Mrs. MEEK and Mrs. SAYLES. (For description, see Announcement of the Course in Hotel Administration.)

130. (121.) Food Selection: Nutrition and Dietetics. First or second term. Credit three hours. Lectures, discussions, and laboratory. Section 1 and 2 for sophomores and upperclassmen, M F 10, W 10-12; M F 2 (first term), M F 3 (second term), W 2-4; section 3 for freshmen, M F 9, W 8-10. Room 426. Assistant Professor BRUCHER.

A course similar in scope to course 230, but adapted for students who have had less science preparation. Fee, $6.

200. (111.) Meal Planning and Preparation. First or second term. Credit three hours. Prerequisite Foods 110 or 210 and some work in nutrition. Not to be elected by students who have taken the course Food Preparation in relation to Meal Planning. Limited to sixteen students in a section. Lecture, T 10, Room 339. Practice, first term: M W or T Th 11-1.30; second term: T Th 11-1.30. Rooms 361 and 343. Assistant Professor FENTON and Mrs. JANSSEN.

An advanced course in which consideration is given to problems involved in the purchase of food and the planning, preparation, and serving of meals. Emphasis on organization, management of time, money, and energy. Trips to Onondaga Pottery Company, Oneida Silver Company, and Corning Glass Works. Approximate cost of trips, $2. Fee, $18.

210. (9, 9a.) Food Preparation: Principles and Comparative Methods. First term. Credit four or five hours. Prerequisite, General Chemistry. Not to be elected by students who have had Foods and Nutrition 110. Lectures, M W 9. Room 339. Laboratory, M W 2-4.20. Room 361. Students who have had Organic Chemistry may register for five-hours credit. This group will meet for a third lecture period F 9. Room 339. Assistant Professor FENTON.

A study of the principles of food preparation and the application of science, particularly chemistry, to the solution of cookery problems such as color, flavor, texture, and nutritive changes in handling and cooking vegetables; heat penetration and hydrogen ion in canning; theory of jelly making; crystallization in candies and ice creams; relation of manipulation of doughs and reaction time of baking powders to quality of cakes and muffins. The literature is reviewed and typical comparative experiments are made. Fee, $18.

220. (12.) Food Preparation, Advanced Course. First or second term. Credit three hours. Required of students registering in hotel administration. Prerequisite, Foods and Nutrition 120 or the equivalent. Assistant Professor BOYS. (For description, see Announcement of the Course in Hotel Administration.)

230. (122.) Food Selection: Nutrition and Dietetics. First or second term. Credit five hours. Prerequisite, Foods and Nutrition 110 or 210, Biology 303 (Physiology), and Biochemistry 314. Discussion: first term, T Th 11, W F 2; second term, M W Th F 2. Rooms 3M13 and 426. Laboratory, T 2-4 both terms. Room 426. Professor HAUCK.

Significance of food selection in achieving and maintaining health, with emphasis on the nutrition of normal adults.

The function of various food constituents such as proteins, minerals, and vitamins. Application of the principles of nutrition to needs of normal individuals, with modifications necessary for such problems as overweight, underweight, and constipation. During and as a result of this course the student is expected to establish and maintain good nutrition practices. Fee, $9.

240. (109.) Food Preparation, Advanced Course. First or second term. Credit three hours. Prerequisite, Foods and Nutrition 100, 110, or 210. Lecture M 10. Room 3M13. Practice, first term: M W 2-4.20; second term: M W or T Th 2-4.20. Room 352. Assistant Professor BOYS and Mrs. JANSSEN.

A course emphasizing special dishes such as canapés, entrées, salads, and pastries and other desserts for specific purposes and occasions. Study and preparation of some of the unusual foods and food products. The course assumes a knowledge of the underlying principles of food preparation, and ease in manipulating food materials. Fee, $18.

300. (150.) Special Problems. First or second term. Credit and hours to be arranged individually. For students recommended by advisers and approved by the head of the department for independent, advanced work on a problem not dealt with by other courses in the department. Fee determined by the problem.

310. (102a.) Science Related to Foods. Throughout the year. Credit for lectures two hours a term. (Laboratory by recommendation of the department; credit one or two hours a term.) An adaptation of the material of Foods and Nutrition 110 for graduate students and certain students with advanced standing from other institutions. Attendance at Foods and Nutrition 110 lectures required. One additional hour and laboratory to be arranged. Professor PFUND and Assistant Professor PERSONIUS.

A study of the scientific principles necessary to the understanding of modern theory and practice in the field of food preparation, and the application of these principles to the analysis and interpretation of cookery practices. Fee, $2 for lectures, $5 for each laboratory credit hour.

[320. (102b.) Science Related to Foods: Advanced Laboratory Course. First term. Credit three hours. Open to graduate and senior students by permission of instructor. Professor PFUND and Assistant Professor PERSONIUS.] Not given in 1939-40.

330. (124.) Diet Therapy. Second term. Credit two hours. Advised for those specializing in hospital dietetics. Primarily for seniors. Prerequisite Foods and Nutrition 230, or 130 and 110 or 210, Biology 303 (Physiology), and Biochemistry 314. Lecture, discussion, and laboratory, T 11; Th 11-1. Room 426. Professor HAUCK.

A study of diet in those diseases in the treatment of which choice of food is important. Fee, $6.

340. (131.) Family Nutrition, with Special Emphasis on Child Feeding. First or second term. Primarily for seniors or graduate students. Credit for lectures, two hours; for each laboratory, one hour. Any laboratory may be taken either in the same term with the lecture or in any term following the lecture. Three hours advised for teachers; two hours advised for all students. Prerequisite, Foods and Nutrition 130 or 230. Lecture and discussion; T 2-4. Room 339.

Laboratories: infant feeding, limited to sixteen students Th 2-4.20, Room 426; feeding of pre-school children, limited to six students in each section, W or Th

10-12, Room 301; feeding of school children, limited to ten students, F 2-4.20, Room 301. Professor MONSCH and Miss ———.

A study of family nutrition, with special emphasis upon the nutritional needs of the child. Relation of nutrition to physical growth and development. Experience in actual family situations, through private homes, the well-baby clinic, the Nursery School, and the public schools. Fee, $7 for each laboratory credit hour; $1 for lecture.

400. (222.) Advanced Nutrition. First term. Credit two hours. Registration by permission of the instructor. Discussion, T Th 9. Room 301. Professor HAUCK.

This course emphasizes the experimental data on which the principles of human nutrition are based, and a critical review of current literature in this field. Fee, $1.

410. (250.) Research in Foods and Nutrition. First or second term. For graduate students with training satisfactory to the instructor. Hours to be arranged. Professors MONSCH, MAYNARD, MCCAY, PFUND, and HAUCK, Assistant Professors FENTON and PERSONIUS; and Dr. HATHAWAY.

Individual research in foods, human nutrition, and animal nutrition. Fee, from $5 to $25.

420. (255.) Seminar in Foods and Nutrition. Second term. Credit one hour. Emphasis on foods. Required of graduate students specializing in Foods and Nutrition. Hours to be arranged. Room 301. Professors PFUND and HAUCK and Assistant Professors FENTON and PERSONIUS. Fee, $1.

Note: The attention of advanced and graduate students is called to the following courses offered by the Department of Animal Husbandry in the College of Agriculture (see the announcement of courses of that college); 110, Animal Nutrition; 111, Animal Nutrition, Laboratory Course; 219, Animal Nutrition Seminar.

HOUSEHOLD ART

100. (1.) Color and Design. First or second term. Credit two hours. Limited to twenty-four students in a section. T Th 8-10 (first term only); T Th 2-4; W F 11-1. Room 327. Miss TRUE.

A study of the basic principles of color and design through laboratory experiment in these two fields, using paint, ink, pencil, charcoal. Lectures, reading, and art-gallery observation.

Through the study of these art principles the student has opportunity to become increasingly sensitive to the visual world, to grow in enjoyment of it, and in awareness of the practical uses of art principles in everyday life. Estimated cost of materials, $2. Fee, $7.50.

110. (16 a.) Handicrafts Studio. First or second term. Credit one hour. (See also course 210.) Room 318. Assistant Professor ERWAY. Three hours each week in the studio through the semester are required. Students should schedule one hour either T 8 or Th 12; the other two hours to be arranged.

Experience in studying and working with monotypes, block printing, leathercraft, dyeing, weaving, modeling, stitchery, carving, glass etching. Through this course students are expected to become aware of their own creative possibilities, and to acquire confidence in the use of craft materials. Cost of materials variable, minimum $2. Fee, $3.75.

120. (31.) Home Furnishing. Second term. Credit three hours. Limited to twelve students in each section. Lecture-demonstration M 3 for all sections. Laboratory: section 1, T Th 11-1; section 2, T Th 2-4; section 3, W F 2-4. Room 408. Assistant Professor SCIDMORE and Miss HUPP.

An orientation to the problems and possibilities involved in choice and satisfactory use of furnishings. Study of specific furnishing problems in actual homes presented through lecture-demonstrations, home visits, and laboratory. Students are expected to gain from this course an understanding of the fundamental considerations involved in furnishing a house for the pleasure and comfort of the family. Fee, $10.

130. (35.) Hotel Furnishing and Decorating. Second term. Credit two hours. For students in hotel administration. Advised for juniors. Assistant Professor SCIDMORE and _____. (For description, see Announcement of the Course in Hotel Administration.)

140. (25.) House Planning. First or second term. Credit three hours. T Th 11-1 (first term only); T Th 2-4; and one laboratory to be arranged. Room 3M14. Professor MORIN.

Study of the arrangement and design of the house from the point of view of family living. Laboratory, group discussions, visits to local houses completed or under construction. Reference readings and individual conferences. Through this course the student should gain a view of the problems involved in house planning for family living, should know the sources of information and how to use them. Fee, $10.

150. Housing from the Standpoint of Home Economics. First term. Credit two hours. T Th 8-10. Discussions, laboratories, and field trips. Individual conferences to be arranged. Room 3M14. Professor MORIN.

A survey of the factors in present-day housing with which the individual is vitally concerned as homemaker, community member, or home-economics worker. A study of some of the problems involved in achieving adequate housing, and discussion of the contribution that home economics should be making toward the solution of these problems in cooperation with other agencies concerned; vocational opportunities for the home-economics graduate in the field of housing. Fee, $7.50.

160 a, b, c, d. (10 a, b, c, d.) Appreciation of Everyday Art. Credit one hour for each unit. Units may be taken in any order. Room 317. Household Art Staff.

A general lecture course in appreciation of the beauty to be found in everyday surroundings in the home and community and in artists' and craftsmen's products. Fee, $3.75 per unit.

COURSES IN OTHER COLLEGES OF THE UNIVERSITY

In order to secure for its students as broad a background of educational experience as is possible, the College of Home Economics supplements the courses offered in its various divisions of instruction with those given in other Colleges of the University. The following list, therefore, includes not only required courses and those which are prerequisite to certain courses in home economics, but also others which are valuable for the contribution they make to the enrichment of the student's program.

For descriptions of additional courses, students should refer to the catalogues of the various colleges.

AGRICULTURAL ENGINEERING

10. Household Mechanics. First or second term. Credit three hours. Lectures, T Th 12. Caldwell 100. Practice, first term, Th 9-11.30; Th or F 2-4.30; second term Th or F 2-4.30. Agricultural Engineering Laboratories. Professor ROBB and Assistant Professor WRIGHT.

A course intended to develop ability to think and to reason in terms of mechanical devices. Among the problems selected for this training are exercises in plumbing, soldering, and power transmission, and studies in the principles of operation, care, and repair of small technical devices, sewing machines, domestic electrical equipment, and automobile engines. Fee, $2.

[46. Household Carpentry, Furniture Repairing and Refinishing. Second term. Credit two hours. Professor ROEHL.] Not given in 1939-40.

ANIMAL HUSBANDRY

92. Meat and Meat Products. First or second term. Credit one hour. Registration limited to fifteen students. Laboratory and lecture period, Th 2-4.20. Wing B and Meat Laboratory. Professor HINMAN and Mr. SCHUTT.

A course in wholesale and retail buying, cutting, curing, and preparation of meats. Fee, $2.

ASTRONOMY

180. Introductory Astronomy. First term. Credit three hours. T Th 9. Rockefeller 322. Dr. SHAW.

One two-hour laboratory or observation period a week to be arranged.

Discussion of the fundamentals of astronomy, with particular reference to stellar and nebular systems.

This course is designed to give the student an understanding of the fundamentals of Astronomy. Emphasis is placed on the contributions of Astronomy to the sciences, philosophy, and general culture. Ample opportunity for the observation of the heavenly bodies with the great telescope is offered.

BACTERIOLOGY

4. Household Bacteriology. Second term. Credit three hours. Given in alternate years. Prerequisite, Elementary Chemistry. Not accepted as a prerequisite for advanced courses. Lectures, T Th 10, Dairy Industry Building 119. Laboratory, T Th 8-10 or 11-1. Dairy Industry Building 323. Professor STARK and Mrs. STARK.

An elementary, practical course for students in home economics. Fee, $10.

BIOLOGY, BOTANY, AND ZOOLOGY

1. General Biology. Throughout the year. Credit three hours a term. First term prerequisite to second. Not open to students who have had both Zoology 1 and Botany 1. If Biology 1 is taken after either Zoology 1 or Botany 1, credit two hours a term. Lectures and demonstrations, M W F 9 or 11. Roberts 392. One practice period a week. Roberts 301 and 302. Assistant Professor MOTTLEY, Dr. NEVIN, and assistants.

An elementary course planned to meet the needs of students majoring outside of the plant and animal sciences. The course deals with the nature of life, life processes, the activities and origin of living things. It covers the organization of representative plants and animals, including man as an organism, and the principles of nutrition, growth, behavior, reproduction, heredity, and evolution. Fee, $3.50 a term.

303. Physiology. First or second term. Credit three hours. M W F 10. Stimson Amphitheatre. Assistant Professor DYE.

An introductory course designed particularly for those students who intend to take only one course in physiology, for those who expect to teach biology in the secondary schools, and for those who desire a general knowledge of the physiological processes as applied to the human body.

305. Physiology of Digestion, Metabolism, Endocrinology, and Reproduction. Second term. Credit three hours. Prerequisite, six or more hours in Biology. Lectures, M W F 11. With demonstrations. Assistant Professor DYE.

314. Elementary Biochemistry. First term. Credit three hours. Prerequisite, Chemistry 375 or its equivalent. Lectures, M W 12; conferences, F 12. Stimson 4. Professor SUMNER and Drs. HOWELL and DOUNCE.

The substances met with in living things and the chief facts of digestion, metabolism, and nutrition.

314a. Laboratory Work in Biochemistry. First term. Credit two hours. Prerequisite or parallel, Animal Biology 314. M W 1.40-4. Stimson 34. Professor SUMNER and Drs. HOWELL and DOUNCE.

Fee, $15. Breakage deposit, $5.

1. General Botany. Throughout the year. Credit three hours a term: both terms of the course must be completed to obtain credit, unless the student is excused by the department. If taken after Biology 1, credit two hours a term. Lectures, T Th 9 or 11. Plant Science 233. Laboratory, one period of two and one-half hours. Plant Science 240, 242, and 262. Professor PETRY, Dr. LAUBENGAYER, and assistants.

A survey of the fundamental facts and principles of plant life. The work of the first term deals with the structures and functions of the higher plants, with special emphasis on their nutrition. The work of the second term traces the evolution of the plant kingdom, as illustrated by representatives of the principal groups, and concludes with a brief introduction to the principles of classification of the flowering plants. Fee, $3.50 a term.

1. Introductory Zoology. Throughout the year. Credit three hours a term. If taken after General Biology 1, credit two hours a term. Lectures: T Th 9 or 11. Laboratory, M T W Th F 1.40-4; T W S 10-12.20; S 8-10.20. Lectures, Goldwin Smith B. Laboratory, McGraw 102 and 104. Assistant Professor YOUNG, Dr. A. G. MEKEEL, Messrs. CAMERON, GILBERT, INGRAM, and JACKSON.

An introduction to the animal sciences. The work of the first term deals with the fundamental structure and functions of a complex animal, together with some of the principles governing life in general. During the second term a survey of the animal kingdom is made through study of representatives of each of the principal phyla. Man's place in nature is finally considered. Fee, $3 a term.

CHEMISTRY

102. General Chemistry. Throughout the year. Credit three hours a term. Both terms of the course must be completed to obtain credit unless the student is excused by the department. Open only to those students who do not offer entrance chemistry. Lecture, Th or F 11. Baker, Main Lecture Room. Recitation, one hour a week, to be arranged. Laboratory, M T W Th or F 1.40-4. Professors BROWNE and LAUBENGAYER and assistants.

This course deals with the fundamental laws and theories of chemistry and the properties of the more common elements and their compounds. Deposit, $11 each term.

104. General Chemistry. Throughout the year. Credit three hours a term. Both terms of the course must be completed to obtain credit unless the student is excused by the department. Prerequisite, entrance credit in chemistry. Lecture, M or T 11. Baker, Main Lecture Room. Recitation, one hour a week, to be arranged. Laboratory, M T W Th or F 1.40-4. Professor Papish and assistants.

This course deals with the fundamental laws and theories of chemistry and the properties of the more common elements and their compounds. Deposit, $11 each term.

201. Introductory Analytical Chemistry. First term only. Credit four hours. Prerequisite, course 102 or 104. Primarily for students majoring in the biological sciences. Lectures, T Th 10. Baker 177. Laboratory sections, W F 1.40-4, S 8-1. Baker 252. Professor NICHOLS and assistants.

A study of the fundamental principles of qualitative and quantitative analysis. Laboratory practice in gravimetric and volumetric quantitative methods. Deposit, $25.

210. Introductory Qualitative Analysis. Shorter course. First or second term. Credit three hours. Prerequisite, course 102 or 104. Lecture W 12. First term, Baker 200; second term, Baker 107. Laboratory sections, T Th 8-10.30; T Th 1.40-4 (first term only.) Baker 40. Dr. LONG and assistants.

A study of the properties and reactions of the common elements and acid radicals, and their detection in various solutions. Deposit, $20.

225. Introductory Quantitative Analysis. Shorter course. First or second term. Credit three hours. Prerequisite, course 210. Lecture, Th 12. First term, Baker 207; second term, Baker 200. Laboratory sections, W F 1.40-4, T Th 8-10.30, T Th 1.40-4. Baker 252. Dr. MACMILLAN and assistants.

A study of the fundamental principles of gravimetric and volumetric analysis, and the analysis of various substances by these methods. Deposit, $20.

ECONOMICS

1. Modern Economic Society. First or second term. Credit five hours. Not open to freshmen. Daily, except S, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12. Professor O'LEARY.
