

Speeches on Cornell University and Education

Segment 1

1. Glimpses of Universal History (incomplete manuscript) 1859
2. The Most Bitter Foe of Nations and the Way to Its Permanent Overthrow, 1866
3. Influence of American Institutions on Agricultural Interests, September 15, 1866
4. The Cornell University First General Announcement, 1868
5. Inaugural Address at the Opening of Cornell University, October 7, 1868
6. Reply to attack on Cornell University for Failure to Provide Religious Instruction, January 1869
7. Reply to Editor of Northern Christian Advocate on Cornell's Educational Policy on Religion, February 11, 1870
8. Report on Manual Labor System, December 2, 1870
9. Address to Students, 1871
10. Address to Graduating Class, June 1873
11. The Cornell University: what it has done; what it is doing; and what it hopes to do, 1873
12. Reply to Attack upon Cornell by Rev. James McCosh on Cornell's Policy on Religion

Segment 2

13. Sketch of Address to Students, October 24, 1873
14. Industrial Education in the United States, May 1, 1874
15. Address to Students, October 16, 1874
16. Address to Crews Victorious at Saratoga, 1875
17. Address to Students, October 20, 1875
18. Why did Cornell gain her Recent Triumphs, January 11, 1876
19. Open Letter, April 5, 1877
20. Notes for Address to Students, April 23, 1879
21. Report on the Provision for Higher Instruction in Subjects Bearing upon Public Affairs, Paris, 1878-1887
22. Report on the Provision for Higher Instruction in Subjects Bearing Directly upon Public Affairs (final draft)
23. Report on Instruction in Social and Political Science, April 16, 1879

24. My Visit to Wittenberg, May 17, 1880
25. Speech at Banquet in New York, October 4, 1881
26. Resolutions establishing fellowships, scholarships, and a loan fund, and setting apart $130,000 for that purpose, January 25, 1883
27. Reply to attack by New York Alumni, April 30, 1883
28. Brief History of Cornell University and its Prospects, 1883
29. Message of the XIX Century to the XX, Parts I & II, June 26, 1883 (2 drafts)
30. On the Education of the Freedmen, October 26, 1883
31. Cornell University Scholarships and Fellowships, 1884 (early drafts)
32. Historical Instruction in the Course of History and Political Science at Cornell University, August 30, 1884
33. In Defense of H. W. Sage, September 2, 1884
34. Provision for Religious Instruction at Cornell University, a reply, December 13, 1884
35. Co-education at Cornell, January 26, 1885
36. Remarks to the Trustees on the choice of his successor to the presidency of Cornell University, 1885 (2 drafts)
37. Notes on the History of Cornell University, 1885
38. American College Fraternities