

Cornell Alumni News

Volume 49, Number 16

April 1, 1947

Price 25 Cents

Recent triumphs of Philco electronic research have made radio listening a new joy, your favorite records a new delight. See and hear the exquisite Philco 1213 Chippendale radio-phonograph with patented Dynamic Reproducer and exclusive Advanced-FM System, now on display at your Philco dealer.

PHILCO

Famous for Quality the World Over

Wednesday is Bingsday! Listen to Philco Radio Time starring BING CROSBY Wednesday at 10 P. M. in the East, 9 P. M. everywhere else . . . ABC Network and many additional stations.

EVER WONDER HOW YOU MIGHT SPEND A MILLION DOLLARS A DAY?

During 1946, The Equitable Society distributed 287 million dollars in benefits to policyholders and their families—an average of more than a million dollars for each workday in the year.

What better use could you make of such a huge sum of money than to make it serve some basic human need . . . to help keep a family together when tragedy strikes, to send a child to college or start a son in business, to assure financial independence to someone in the twilight years of life?

The 287 million dollars paid out by The Equitable Society during 1946 was used for just such purposes as these. Widows, children and other beneficiaries, for instance, received 101 million toward their support. Another 35 million was paid out as retirement income. Through Group Insurance, benefits of over 56 million in death, disability and pension payments helped relieve distress in workers' families. Other benefits, including dividends to policyholders, totaled 95 million dollars.

To its 3,500,000 members throughout the land, The Equitable Society is the promise of family security. Joined together in this great co-operative enterprise, they have increased the amount of life insurance they have in force by over 1350 million dollars during 1946 . . . now own over 10½ billion dollars worth of peace of mind.

Dividends Reduce Cost

The benefit payments distributed by The Equitable Society over the course of the years, together with the funds held to fulfill present policies, exceed by 1300 million dollars the total amount of premiums received by the Society since its founding. This year alone nearly 52 million dollars has been set aside for payments to policyholders as dividends, thus reducing the net cost of their protection.

The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States is a mutual company incorporated under the laws of New York State.

By investing more of their earnings in life insurance than ever before, the American people are achieving a two-fold objective. Aside from the primary purpose of providing systematically in advance for their future security, they are helping to combat the inflationary forces at work in our economy.

Preserve Value of Dollar

The decline in the "real" value of the dollar continues to be a matter of major concern to all thinking Americans. In the interest of its policyholders and all other people of our country, the management of The Equitable Society will continue to urge the adoption of a national fiscal policy which will preserve the "real" value of the savings of the American people.

THOMAS I. PARKINSON, President

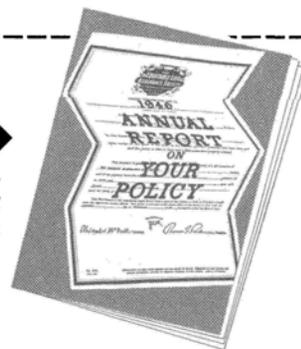

SEND FOR THIS
FREE BOOKLET ➔

If you own any insurance or are interested in it, you will find "Your Policy" well worth reading. Send for it today to The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the U. S., 393 Seventh Avenue, New York 1, N. Y.

Name: _____

Street: _____

City and State: _____

New York's First Bank

Established 1784

A Leader in the Personal Trust Field
for 117 Years

BANK OF NEW YORK

48 Wall Street — New York

UPTOWN OFFICE: MADISON AVENUE AT 63RD STREET

Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

CORNELL ALUMNI NEWS

Entered as second-class matter, Ithaca, N.Y. Published twice a month, except monthly in July, August, and September
Subscription price $4 a year

University Board of Trustees: Organization and Personnel

ROSTER and summary of the organization of the University Board of Trustees is published, as has been our annual custom, before the election of Alumni Trustees by the degree-holders of the University. Biographies and photographs of all candidates nominated for Alumni Trustee this year will appear in our next issue, and ballots will be mailed to all degree holders early in April. Nominations close April 1.

Charter of the University provides for a Board of Trustees of forty-five members. Ten are ex-officio Trustees; eighteen are elected by the Board, fifteen for five-year terms and three "from the field of labor in New York State" for one-year terms; ten are elected by alumni for five-year terms; five are appointed by the Governor for five-year terms; one is elected annually by the New York State Grange; and the eldest lineal male descendant of Ezra Cornell is a Trustee for life.

No Trustee is required by the Charter to be an alumnus of the University. There are, however, thirty-two Cornellians on the present Board of forty-three Trustees (two vacancies occur in the Alumni Trusteeships expiring June 30, 1947: Mary H. Donlon '20 was coöpted by the Board last June for a five-year term; and Albert R. Mann '04 died February 21).

Four representatives to the Board are elected by and from the University Faculty, who meet with the Board but have no vote. They are now Professors Howard B. Adelman '20, Histology and Embryology; Richard Bradfield, Agronomy; Frederick G. Marcham, PhD '26, History; and Dean Joseph C. Hinsey of the Medical College.

Conducts University Business

University By-Laws state: "The Board of Trustees shall have supreme control over the University, every college, school, and department thereof, its property, conduct, and the employment of the persons engaged in its service." The Board holds four regular meetings a year; carries on its work through five standing committees and three special committees. In addition, Trustees serve with members of the Faculty and students on various administrative boards, and with Faculty and professional members on advisory councils for eight Colleges. The Board elects its chairman "for a term of three years, or for the remainder of his term as Trustee, whichever is the shorter," or until he reaches seventy years of age.

Standing committees of the Board are the executive, investment, buildings and grounds, planning and development, and law committees; each has the chairman of the Board and the President of the University as ex-officio members. Other members, and the chairmen and vice-chairmen of the standing committees, are elected annually by the Board for one-year terms. "The chairmen shall not be over seventy years of age."

Five Standing Committees

Executive committee, consisting of the chairman of the Board, President of the University, chairmen of all other standing committees, and seven other members elected by the Board, acts for the Board between meetings.

Investment committee, consisting of the chairman of the Board, President of the University, and nine other members elected by the Board, administers all funds of the University.

Buildings and grounds committee, consisting of the chairman of the Board, President of the University, and seven other members elected by the Board, "shall make recommendations for the location and design of new buildings and have general charge and oversight of the buildings and grounds of the University and of . . . new construction, improvements, alterations, and repairs. . . ."

Planning and development committee, consisting of the chairman of the Board, President of the University, and seven other members elected by the Board, is "to review and appraise from time to time the University's over-all program; to identify areas in which the University should initiate new activities or expand and strengthen existing programs; to plan concrete measures for the successful accomplishment of such extensions of the University's work; to devise and employ means for increasing the University's financial resources; to work upon those external relationships of the University which materially affect its welfare."

Law committee, consisting of the chairman of the Board, President of the University, and three other members elected by the Board, "shall have general supervision and direction over all legal matters in connection with the University."

Special Committees

A special audit committee of three Trustees not members of the investment committee, elected annually, recommends to the Board the selection of independent auditors to examine the accounts of the University, receives and studies the reports of such auditors, and makes recommendations thereon to the Board.

A special annuity committee, composed of the chairman of the Board, President of the University, and three members appointed by the chairman of the Board, directs and coordinates the gift annuity program of the University.

A special Board membership committee, its five members appointed by the chairman of the Board, is charged with the duty of investigating and recommending candidates for election to fill vacancies among the coöptative Board members.

Board Roster

In the following list, Trustees elected by the Board are designated (B), Alumni Trustees (A), and those appointed by the Governor (G). Committee assignments of each are followed by number of years served as Trustee.

Ex-officio Trustees

EDMUND E. DAY, President of the University; member of all Trustee standing committees and of special annuity committee; chairman of all College councils and administrative boards; member of joint board of New York Hospital-Cornell Medical College. Ten years.

THOMAS E. DEWEY, Governor of New York State, Albany. Five years.

JOE R. HANLEY, Lieutenant Governor of New York State, Albany; Veterinary College council. Four years.

OSWALD D. HECK, Speaker of the State Assembly, Albany. Ten years.

FRANCIS T. SPAULDING, State Commissioner of Education, Albany; planning and development committee, State College councils. One year.

C. CHESTER DUMOND, State Commissioner of Agriculture, Albany; Agriculture

College council, Veterinary College council. Four years.

MARTIN P. CATHERWOOD, PhD '30, State Commissioner of Commerce, Albany; vice-chairman buildings and grounds committee, member Industrial & Labor Relations School council, Willard Straight Hall board of governors. Two years.

EDWARD R. CORSI, State Industrial Commissioner, Albany; Industrial & Labor Relations School council. Two years.

VAN C. WHITTEMORE '16 BS, '22 MS, president State Agricultural Society, Canton; Agriculture College council. One year.

HARRY G. STUTZ '07 LLB, librarian Cornell Library, Ithaca; chairman Trustee-Faculty committee on Fine Arts, member executive committee, audit committee, Library board, board on student health and hygiene, Willard Straight Hall board of governors, Home Economics College council. Twelve years.

Life Trustee

WILLIAM B. CORNELL '07 ME (eldest lineal male descendant of Ezra Cornell), chairman department of management and industrial relations at NYU, Montclair, N. J. Two months.

Terms Expire June 30, 1947

NEAL D. BECKER '05 AB, '06 LLB (B), president Intertype Corp., New York City; chairman planning and development committee, member executive committee, board of New York Hospital-Cornell Medical College, Medical College council, School of Nursing council. Twelve years.

WILLIAM D. P. CAREY '23, '26 AB, LLB (B), attorney, Hutchinson, Kans.; vice-chairman law committee, member audit committee. Six years.

ROGER H. WILLIAMS '95 PhB (B), partner Estabrook & Co., New York City; investment committee, annuity committee, Medical College council. Twenty-eight years.

FRANK S. COLUMBUS (B), chairman State legislative board for Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, Albany; buildings and grounds committee, Industrial & Labor Relations School council. Two years.

LOUIS HOLLANDER (B), president State Industrial Union Council, CIO, New York City; investment committee, Industrial & Labor Relations School council. Two years.

THOMAS A. MURRAY (B), president State Federation of Labor, New York City; executive committee, Industrial & Labor Relations School council. Two years.

HORACE C. FLANIGAN '12 CE (G), vice-president Manufacturers Trust Co., New York City; investment committee. One year.

HAROLD M. STANLEY '15 BS, Skaneateles (elected by State Grange); executive committee, State College councils. Six years.

Terms Expire June 30, 1948

FRANK E. GANNETT '98 AB (B), publisher Gannett Newspapers, Rochester; executive committee, Agriculture College council. Twenty-one years.

FRANKLIN W. OLIN '86 CE (B), chairman Olin Industries, Inc., Alton, Ill. Thirteen years.

EZRA B. WHITMAN '01 CE (B), partner Whitman, Requardt & Associates, Baltimore, Md.; buildings and grounds committee. Twenty-six years.

THOMAS I. S. BOAK '14 ME (A), works manager Winchester Repeating Arms Co., New Haven, Conn.; chairman buildings and grounds committee, member executive committee, Architecture College council. Nine years.

GEORGE H. ROCKWELL '13 ME (A) director, Associates of Harvard Business

School, Cambridge, Mass.; buildings and grounds committee. Nine years.

MYRON C. TAYLOR '94 LLB (G), Presidential representative to the Vatican, New York City. Nineteen years.

Terms Expire June 30, 1949

VICTOR EMANUEL '19, '29 WA (B), chairman Aviation Corp., New York City; planning and development committee. Four years.

LARRY E. GUBB '16 BS (B), chairman Philco Corp., Philadelphia, Pa.; vice-chairman planning and development committee, member executive committee. Three years.

WALTER C. TEAGLE '99 BS (B), former chairman Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey, New York City; investment committee, Industrial & Labor Relations School council. Twenty-three years.

ALICE BLINN '17 BS (A), associate editor Ladies Home Journal, New York City; buildings and grounds committee, board on student health and hygiene, Home Economics College council, Trustee-Faculty committee on Fine Arts. Three years.

PAUL A. SCHOELLKOPF '06 AB (A), president Niagara Falls Power Co., Niagara Falls; buildings and grounds committee. Eight years.

JOSEPH P. RIPLEY '12 ME (G), chairman Harriman Ripley & Co., New York City; vice-chairman investment committee, member Board membership committee, board of New York Hospital-Cornell Medical College. Three years.

Terms Expire June 30, 1950

H. EDWARD BABCOCK (B), Ithaca; chairman Board of Trustees; member of all Trustee standing committees and of special annuity committee; member Agriculture College council, Industrial & Labor Relations School council. Seventeen years.

JOHN L. COLLYER '17 ME (B), president B. F. Goodrich Co., Akron, Ohio; investment committee, Industrial & Labor Relations School council. Six years.

MAXWELL M. UPSON '99 ME (B), president Raymond Concrete Pile Co., New York City; investment committee, planning and development committee, annuity committee. Twenty-two years.

WILLIS H. CARRIER '01 ME (A), chairman Carrier Corp., Syracuse; board on student health and hygiene. Seven years.

GEORGE R. PFANN '24 AB (A), assistant counsel Cooperative GLF Exchange, Inc., Ithaca; chairman audit committee, member planning and development committee, board on Physical Education and Athletics. Twelve years.

ARTHUR H. DEAN '19, '21 AB, '23 LLB (G), partner Sullivan & Cromwell, New York City; chairman law committee, member executive committee. Two years.

Terms Expire June 30, 1951

MARY H. DONLON '20 LLB (B), chairman State Workmen's Compensation Board, Albany; chairman annuity committee, vice-chairman executive committee, member law committee, Home Economics College council, Industrial & Labor Relations School council. Ten years.

NICHOLAS H. NOYES '06 AB (B), vice-president Eli Lilly & Co., Indianapolis, Ind.; investment committee. Fourteen years.

ROBERT E. TREMAN '09 AB (B), president Cayuga Motors Corp., Ithaca; planning and development committee, Board membership committee, Veterinary College council. Sixteen years.

VICTOR O. BUTTERFIELD '27 AB, '28 AM (A), president of Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn.; Willard Straight Hall board of governors. One year.

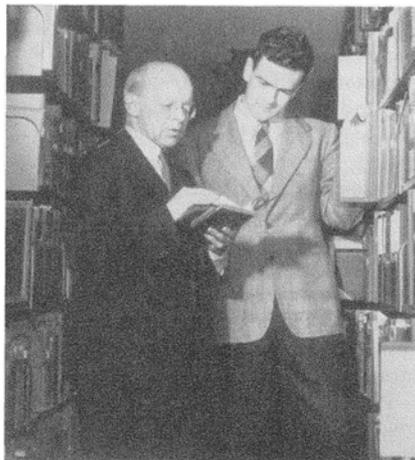

EDWARD E. GOODWILLIE '10 BArch (A), assistant to vice-president, Bethlehem Steel Co., Bethlehem, Pa.; audit committee, Board membership committee, board on Physical Education & Athletics. One year.

STANTON GRIFFIS '10 AB (G), partner, Hemphill, Noyes & Co., New York City; chairman investment committee, member executive committee, Board membership committee. Sixteen years.

Staff Appointments

EXECUTIVE committee of the Board of Trustees, meeting March 8 in Ithaca, appointed Whitman Daniels assistant to President Day, to coordinate the public relations activities of the University. He comes to the new position from a year's work in public relations and advertising for Chase National Bank, New York City. A Naval Reserve lieutenant from 1943-46, he supervised the preparation and publication of Wings Magazine for the Navy Bureau of Aeronautics and Army Air Forces, and was production and distribution officer of Naval Aviation training literature. From 1938-43, he was an editorial and sales representative, visiting colleges for McGraw-Hill Book Co., and was earlier an instructor and administrator in secondary schools. During two and a half years in Europe, he was a correspondent for the Paris edition of the New York Herald. He received the BA at Dartmouth in 1932, and studied at the Universities of Paris, France, and Santander, Spain; the Art Students League and the American Institute of Banking in New York City.

Trustees appointed Giles F. Shepherd, Jr., to be assistant director of

FRESHMAN SEES A CLASSIC Wesp

Professor Leslie N. Broughton, English, Emeritus, curator of the Wordsworth Collection, in the stacks of the University Library with Richard C. Davis '50, son of Professor Henry V. Davis '14 of Culver Military Academy. They are examining the Bristol imprint (1798) of Wordsworth's Lyrical Ballads, rarest item in the Collection, given by Victor Emanuel '19. Davis won a National Scholarship and entered Arts and Sciences this year.

the University Library, effective May 1. He will succeed Elias R. B. Willis, AM '14, who retires as Associate Librarian, June 30. Head of the circulation department at the University of North Carolina library, Shepherd has also served on the circulation and reference staff of the College of William and Mary library. He received the AB at North Carolina in 1934 and in 1936 graduated from the library school there. In 1942, he received the AM in library science at Illinois.

Newly-appointed assistant to Director Robert R. Wilson of the Laboratory Nuclear Studies is Roger C. Knox, of California '33. After ten years as an accountant in San Francisco, Cal., he joined the radiation laboratory of the University of California in 1942 as materials engineer. From 1943 until last February, he was personnel and office supervisor at Clinton Engineer Works, Tennessee Eastman Corp., Oak Ridge, Tenn.

Dr. Emerson Day, son of President Edmund E. Day, is appointed assistant professor of Public Health and Preventive Medicine at the Medical College in New York. Dr. Day received the BS at Dartmouth in 1934, the MD at Harvard in 1938; was a research fellow in cardiology and assistant in medicine at Johns Hopkins, 1940-42, and an assistant in Medicine at the Cornell Medical College from July to September, 1942. He has since been with in the inter-continental division of TWA, Washington, D. C.

New assistant professor of Philosophy, effective July 1, is Norman Malcolm. He received the AB in 1933 at the University of Nebraska, the AM in 1938 and the PhD in 1940 at Harvard. After three years in the Navy, he went to the University of Cambridge, England, on a Guggenheim Fellowship.

Assistant professor of Economics, beginning July 1, is Melvin I. White, who received the AB at the University of Cincinnati in 1943 and has been at Syracuse University since 1946.

Avery H. DeGolyer '39, appointed assistant professor of Agricultural Engineering, is the son of C. Scott DeGolyer '10. He received the BS in 1939 and the MS here in 1943, was an Extension instructor in Agricultural Engineering, 1939-42. He was in the Navy from 1942-46, and has since been farming in Castile. Mrs. DeGolyer was Marydith VanCise '43.

Assistant professor of Animal Husbandry, Robert W. Spalding, is also a Navy veteran. He received the BS in 1943 and the AM in 1947 at the University of Missouri, where he was assistant in dairy husbandry.

Professor W. Storrs Cole '25 was appointed chairman of the Department of Geology, and Professor Fred-

Now, in My Time!

By Conroy Dury

IT'S reassuring to find the baseball team headed south again in the spring vacation. One by one, a few of our ancient monuments, cast down by the exigencies of war and numerical expansion, are being quietly restored. That should bring comfort to the hearts of many who accept necessary changes in polite silence, but make no bones of not liking them.

Your reporter never went south with the baseball team. He never had to. Mr. Hoy always took that assignment. He was "Davy" to the sentimental ballad singers, but Mr. Hoy to all his more intimate friends among the undergraduates, and to all baseball players proficient enough to get drill excuses.

Along in January every year, Mr. Hoy would come over and announce sadly that he could not take the southern trip that year, but nobody paid much attention. He was just being coy. It wouldn't have been a southern trip without him, and he was always the first to arrive at the Lehigh Valley, with his dilapidated travelling bag, on the day the team moved out to meet the spring and to play their annual games with Virginia, Washington and Lee, Virginia Military Institute, North Carolina, and Georgetown. Before the days of cars and concrete roads, the jump over the mountains from Lexington to Charlottesville was a difficult one for the management to arrange, and it was Mr. Hoy's invariable little joke on his return that Stonewall Jackson's way was still the best way to make it: on horseback.

Mr. Hoy had taken the southern trip for better than a quarter of a century, and he always took along an adequate supply of bright, new dimes for judicious distribution among the little colored boys. As a result, the march of the Cornell baseball team from the railroad stations to the hotels took on the appearance of the arrival in town of Barnum's Circus. The procession extended back of Mr. Hoy for blocks, and there was never any difficulty in getting little colored boys to act as ball retrievers in batting practice.

We like to recall the meeting of the Athletic Council in 1922 when, after a brief absence, Mr. Hoy was called back into the room and informed that while he was out the newly-completed baseball arena on the Hill had been named Hoy Field. The eyes that had scared the living daylights out of forty Freshman Classes held nothing but tears on that occasion!

College baseball isn't what it was in the turn of the century. The general run of students no longer knows the game. Frequently now, you'll hear the stands call for the squeeze with two out, and curse the base-runner for ineptitude when the batter misses the signal for the hit-and-run play. The student body no longer attends baseball games en masse, as they did the contests held at Percy Field when the new leaves on the willows were turning from yellow to green. Interests have become divided, and the tendency now is to participate in a multiplicity of sports, rather than to watch one. The boys who once jammed the bleachers along the third-base line are now playing in some intramural league; either that, or are out for tennis, golf, lacrosse, or spring football.

This is the end we talked about, and strove for, through the decades, but now that we've attained it, I don't know! This way is better no doubt, but I miss the old picture with Hughey Jennings, later Pop Warner, at one end of the players' bench and Mr. Hoy at the other, with the winning run on second base and 90 per cent of Cornell's enrollment present and in a high state of nervous exhaustion.

Clean sport for all; body building for the masses! Take them, young man, with our best wishes so long as you leave us alone with our sacred memories of the time Cooney Rice stole home in the Princeton game, and of the other time when Heatley Green, with the bases loaded in the ninth, laid down the bunt that brought in the four runs the situation required.

erick O. Waage reappointed chairman of Fine Arts.

John F. Cornman '36, Ornamental

Horticulture, and Thomas H. Canfield, Architecture, were promoted from instructor to assistant professor.

Miss Blanding at Club

PRESIDENT Sarah G. Blanding of Vassar College addressed the Cornell Men's and Women's Clubs of Dutchess County, meeting together March 6 at the Nelson House in Poughkeepsie. She spoke of her years at Cornell as Dean of the College of Home Economics, and of the plight of women students in crowded colleges.

Herbert W. Saltford '33, president of the men's group, introduced Miss Blanding. Other officers present were William A. Taylor '15, vice-president; Edgar C. Taylor '33, secretary-treasurer; and for the women, Cynthia A. Nickerson '42, president; Louise Barbour '04, vice-president; Agnes P. Teske '38, treasurer; and Virginia M. Lowe '45, secretary. Miss Lowe showed colored slides of the Campus to the eighty-six Cornellians present.

Tucson Elects

NEW officers of the Cornell Club of Tucson, Ariz., are John W. Smith '10, president; George W. Barr, MS '21, vice-president; and Albert R. Mead, PhD '42, secretary-treasurer.

School Graduates Nurses

CORNELL University-New York Hospital School of Nursing graduated forty-three nurses, February 28, with exercises in the Nurses Residence on York Avenue, New York City.

William H. Jackson, president of the Society of the New York Hospital, presented the graduates with diplomas and School pins, after they had been welcomed by Dean Virginia M. Dunbar. President Edmund E. Day conferred the BS in Nursing on twenty-five graduates who had entered the School with at least two years of college work. Eileen T. Farley '47 of Ithaca, president of the Class, led the graduates in reciting the nurse's pledge.

Commencement address was delivered by Isabel M. Stewart, director of nursing education at Teachers College, Columbia University, speaking on "The Spirit of Nursing in the Light of History."

Dean Dunbar points out that many girls enter the School of Nursing after two years at other colleges than Cornell, and receive the Cornell degree upon completion of the course. Openings are still available in the class entering next September, she says.

The School, affiliated with Cornell University in July, 1942, will celebrate its seventieth anniversary April 16, with a dinner in the Terrace Room of the Hotel Plaza. Founded in 1877 as a part of New York Hospital, it is the second-oldest school of nursing in the country. President Day will preside at the anniversary dinner, and President Oliver C. Carmichael of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching will speak. Tickets may be obtained at $6.50 from the Cornell University-New York Hospital School of Nursing, 525 East Sixty-eighth Street, New York City 21.

Day in Philadelphia

PRESIDENT Edmund E. Day and General Alumni Secretary Emmet J. Murphy '22 were guests at a meeting of the Cornell Club of Philadelphia, Pa., March 12 at the Philadelphia Racquet Club. Introduced by George H. Thornton '21, president of the Club, to the 175 members attending, President Day spoke on the current problems of the University.

That afternoon, the President and Murphy attended a tea given by the Cornell Women's Club of Philadelphia at the Barclay Warburton Hotel. They were introduced by Mrs. Samuel S. Evans, Jr. (Ella Behrer) '27, president of the Club, and President Day spoke briefly to the twenty-eight members present.

From Far Below...

By Bob Bliss '30

THE bock beer goat, that haughty prancer of Spring, who reminded us of boneset tea, sulphur and molasses, and other old wives' nostrums, was a casualty of war. Maybe bock beer is only a sales wedge to sell more beer, but it is a good institution to remind us that winter doldrums are at an end, and we hope that the brewers who have hops and cans and bottles enough will soon be greeting the blush of spring with old Capra again.

Beer is a spring institution. No matter whether you are an old Cornell now adjusted to city ways and house-broken to the case in the refrigerator, or whether you stand up to your brass rail in a favorite haunt, beer and Spring and Ithaca all go together.

Spring is the time for a keg party out at "the grounds." "The grounds" was a place on the Upper Lake Road, no doubt now graced by a half-timbered chalet of a Tompkins County tycoon. In the prohibition thirties, it was where you drank near-beer (shipped from Easton as oysters and delivered by Railway Express to your door) out of quart measures, while you sang "Won't you come over to me," all thirty-nine verses, and felt the glow of comradeship wax with the sun going down over Mecklenburg.

Beer meant better Book and Bowl meetings. Rym Berry got a little more pungent in his verbiage, Martin Sampson would expound in the field of imaginative physiology, and Morris Bishop would bring to life members of his Gallery of Eccentrics.

During prohibition, when beer was near-beer and if four bottles in a case were sour you were just glad it wasn't eight but never thought to complain, there were some strange and devious means of fortifying the soul. If you knew the brewmaster at the Elks, you were in. If you could keep tabs on where Jud Dennison had been moved to last, it was OK. Or if you had a friend, or perchance were yourself a part-proprietor of a cottage at McKinney's where you ran up a batch in twenty-two gallon crocks and washing bottles was an evening's work that was not compatible with the next day's eight-o'clock, selah! But it was hard to come by good beer, and a source this side of Elmira rated consideration for the Senior societies.

Beer is as Cornell as the gorges. A lot of the delicacy went out of it with repeal. The pendulum swung it into the case-of-cans-to-Schoellkopf position. But then it got so you could get it in Willard Straight, and there was no more fear of the law or Ithaca's Committee of 100, any more. Maybe it lost its challenge for awhile. It was either whiskey or a banana split. But the moderate malt fits the Ithaca picture and can't get very far away from it. Just like the Pabsts, Uihleins, Badenhausens, Coorses, Ballantines—great brewers and great Cornellians—it belongs in the scene.

The Milwaukee Cornell parties are an institution that has no equal. I believe it was that master of understatement, Bull Durham, who described them as a place "where one may lose one's professorial dignity."

Cornell men in New York were treated to a real party by a Columbia man when the Ithaca coaching staff was re-introduced to the Ezra public hereabouts, a couple weeks ago. George Ruppert, Columbia '99, of the fabulous Yankee Rupperts, threw a party in his brewery that will long stand as a stopper. The brewery, which is as neat as a hospital and as modern as a cyclotron, has a banquet hall that's a cross between Heidelberg and the Chi Phi dining room, and the boys felt right at home. Beer and steaks on the house. Just like Ithaca of course, without the wail of the Short Line going to Auburn and the rosy lights on West Hill. Near enough for a city dweller, until the real thing comes around again. Make mine Ruppert!

Faculty Gets Bonus

EMERGENCY bonus to be paid April 1 for relief of lower-paid academic staff members of the endowed Colleges in Ithaca was authorized by the executive committee of the Board of Trustees at its March meeting, as recommended by President Edmund E. Day.

Full-time members of the academic staffs of these Colleges who were employed by the University last November 1 and are now getting less than $5,000 a year receive a lump-sum bonus. Amounts were set at $450 for those now getting less than $3,000 a year; $350 for those now getting $3,000 to $4,000; and $250 for those now getting from $4,000 to $5,000, with provision that no bonus and salary shall amount to more than $5,000 for this year, ending June 30. Authority was also given for making equitable increases, if not already made, to the salaries of non-academic employees in the endowed Colleges and in the various related enterprises of the University.

Announcing the bonus "as a temporary means of affording immediate relief until a revised and improved salary schedule becomes effective for the academic year 1947-48, President Day said: "Provision of adequate salaries for the Faculty is of the greatest importance to the maintenance of the standards and position of the University. A comprehensive study looking toward adoption of an improved salary schedule has been underway since last fall, and extensive investigations of the problem have been made by representatives of the Faculty, administration, and Trustees." He promised further consultation with the Faculty committee on University policy and that recommendations for next year's academic salary schedule would be made to the April budget meeting of the Board of Trustees.

The bonus provision and promised salary schedules do not apply to the Faculties of the State Colleges, Agriculture, Home Economics, Veterinary, and the School of Industrial and Labor Relations. Since 1944, all State employees at the University have received "war emergency compensation" in addition to their salaries, this year ranging from 14 per cent for those with base salary of $4,000 or more, to 30 per cent for those with base salaries less than $1500 a year, with a maximum bonus of $1,000 a year. Two years ago, the State established a schedule of base salaries in those Colleges with minimum of $2200 a year for instructors; $3000 for assistant professors; $3500 for associate professors; and $4500 for professors.

University Faculty at its meeting last December 11 adopted a resolution requesting the President to transmit to the Board of Trustees the Faculty's request for "a cost-of-living bonus for the members of the Faculties and the assistants of the endowed Colleges on the same scale as is applied in the State Colleges." At its February meeting, the Faculty elected a special committee of Professor Herbert W. Briggs Government, chairman, and Professors Frederick G. Marcham, PhD '26, History, and John R. Moynihan '26, Engineering, to confer with a committee of the Board of Trustees on the proposed bonus and discuss the general salary scale. A Trustee committee of Edward E. Goodwillie '10, chairman, Roger H. Williams '95, and George R. Pfann '24 met with the special Faculty committee for discussion. This Trustee committee recommended to the executive committee of the Board of Trustees that a bonus be given as requested by the Faculty in December.

Synchrotron Assured

BY NAVY CONTRACT

NAVY research contract of $500,000, recently announced by President Edmund E. Day, makes possible the design and construction of a synchrotron for the University's Laboratory of Nuclear Studies. The machine, to be housed in its own building as part of the Laboratory development on the hill north of Bailey Hall, will further the study of the nucleus of the atom by accelerating electrons to an energy of about 300,000,000

MODEL OF NEW SYNCHROTRON

Professor Robert R. Wilson, Director of the Laboratory of Nuclear Studies, shows small-scale cardboard model of the new synchrotron to be built under Navy contract of $500,000. The machine to accelerate electrons to approximately 300,000,000 volts energy, will be five feet high and about thirteen feet in diameter, with nearly seventy tons of special transformer iron, housed in its own building in the new Laboratory development. Goldberg electron volts in a large number of small steps. An important object is to produce mesons, which are known to affect the holding together of the atomic nucleus, in larger numbers than has heretofore been possible and under control so that the properties of these particles and their action may be studied, as a clue to still-unresolved problems of nuclear forces.

Professor Robert R. Wilson, thirty-three-year-old Director of the Laboratory of Nuclear Studies who came to Cornell in January from developing a new cyclotron at Harvard, says that the new synchrotron here will make possible many new studies of nuclear forces, with electrons of such high energy. Most important may be the disclosure as to whether electronic forces still follow the laws now known when energy is thus increased.

The synchrotron, it is hoped, may be ready for use next fall. Meantime, new methods of studying high-energy particles are being developed, and some may be tested with cosmic-ray equipment by members of the Laboratory staff who are now at work in Rockefeller Hall. Research is also going forward on slow neutrons with the cyclotron built here before the war and now returned from Los Alamos, on radio-chemical reactions, and on radioactive isotopes as tracers.

Purpose of the Laboratory, Director Wilson points out, is fundamental research into the origin and nature of nuclear forces; to add to scientific knowledge and to the understanding of nature. But already, as results of such studies, for example, chain-reacting plants are being developed for power, especially in remote areas and on ships; and use of radioactive tracer atoms and radiation may have numerous applications in medicine, biology, nutrition, and industry. Tracer atoms give promise for studying performances of distillation columns and other equipment in the oil industry, and may make possible the identification and positive location of minor constituents in metal alloys.

Buffalo Women Busy

BUFFALO Club of Cornell Women met for luncheon with the Home Economics Association of Western New York, March 22. Dean Elizabeth Lee Vincent was guest speaker.

The Club met February 21 to hear Mrs. Alma Latif (Helen Burritt) '33 describe "Life and Customs in India," from her eight years of living there. Some of the younger members modeled Indian clothes.

Provost Arthur S. Adams was guest at a dinner of the Club officers, January 24, and spoke at a meeting afterwards, to members and guests.

Basketball Season Ends

BASKETBALL team won one of its last three regular games, finished in second place in the Eastern Intercollegiate League, and is preparing for a spring recess trip to Havana, Cuba.

Closing its twenty-two-game regular season in Barton Hall March 15, Cornell defeated Dartmouth, 51-37, for an 8-and-4 record in League competition. It was Cornell's third successive year in the runner-up spot. The final League standing:

	W	L	PC
Columbia	11	1	.917
Cornell	8	4	.667
Pennsylvania	7	5	.583
Dartmouth	5	7	.417
Harvard	5	7	.417
Yale	4	8	.333
Princeton	2	10	.167

In non-league games, Cornell lost to Syracuse, 45-30, in Barton Hall March 8 and to Colgate, 80-64, at Hamilton March 11. The victory gave Syracuse the Allie Seelbach Trophy, emblematic of the Upstate New York championship. Cornell won the cup, named for the late Canisius coach, two years ago.

For the regular season, Cornell won fourteen and lost eight games, scoring 1,008 points to its opponents' 920. Hillary A. Chollet '49 was high scorer with 196 points: 70 field goals and 56 free throws. Edward C. Peterson '48 scored 161 points, and Captain Robert W. Gale '48, who played in only eight games, was third with 115 points. James T. Gale '48 made 106, and William C. Arrison '48, 103.

In twelve League games, Cornell scored 541 points, the second lowest total of the seven teams, but held the opposition to 476 points, the League's best defensive record. Peterson topped Cornell's scorers in League play, with 104 points. Chollet had 102. Captain Gale, who played in only two League games, had the highest scoring average: 16.5 points a game. League champion was Budko of Columbia with a record 191 points, breaking the mark of 180 set by Broberg of Dartmouth in 1940.

With new stands in Barton Hall this season, all attendance records were broken. The paid attendance for twelve home games was 64,112, as compared with the then-record of 29,386 last year. The Syracuse game attracted 8,279 paying customers.

Win Two, Lose One

The record-breaking crowd at the Syracuse game saw a real contest for only about ten minutes. At that point, the visitors broke a 7-7 tie with a string of 6 points and moved into a 20-11 lead at the half. Cornell gained a little early in the second period, but Syracuse staged another rally, good for 12 points, to win going away. Cornell could not match Syracuse's superior shooting and defensive play under the baskets. Gallagher, with 7 points, was Cornell's high scorer. Stickel of Syracuse counted 12.

At Hamilton, Cornell gave Colgate an early battle, holding the home team to a 38-32 advantage at the half, but Colgate broke its scorers loose in the second period. Cornell counted 64 points to match its previous high of the season against Yale, but Colgate kept safely ahead, with Vandeweghe, its star, accounting for 30 points. Chollet scored 21 points for Cornell, Peterson 19.

Cornell and Dartmouth played to a 6-6 tie the first five minutes, before Cornell, on a free throw and field goal by Peterson, went ahead to stay. Cornell led, 27-18, at the half, faltered a bit to let Dartmouth come within 6 points midway in the second period, and closed with a rush. Peterson scored 13 points, Chollet 11, and James Gale, getting all his points in the second half, 10.

The Junior Varsity team defeated the Syracuse junior varsity, 63-54, in Barton Hall March 8 and Mohawk College, 65-50, at Utica March 11, to wind up its season with thirteen victories and four defeats. The Syracuse contest went into an extra five-minute period after a 51-51 tie in regulation time.

The Freshman team, in its third appearance, defeated Mercersburg Academy, 52-26, in Barton Hall March 15 for an undefeated season.

Team Goes to Cuba

Leaving Ithaca April 5, the Cornell players will fly to Havana and back at the invitation of the Cuban Sports Commission; will meet the University of Havana, April 8 and 9, and the Vedado Tennis Club, April 10. Nine players, headed by Captain Gale whose leg has now mended since he broke his right kneecap in the Harvard game January 11, will be accompanied by Manager Cullen O. Henry '47, son of Clifford O. Henry '17 of Canandaigua, and by Coach Royner C. Greene and Trainer George Coite. One of the squad is Joaquin E. Molinet '49, son of Joaquin Molinet '21, former Varsity captain and past president of the Cuban Sports Commission, who made the local arrangements for Cornell. A Cornell team last visited Havana in 1941; they were invited last spring, but dates could not be arranged to fit the spring recess.

Yale Takes Track Meet

YALE track team returned to Barton Hall, March 22, for the first time since 1938, and defeated Cornell, 65½-47½, before a crowd of some 3,000 spectators.

The evening events started with Yale ahead, 15-3, having swept the 35-pound weight throw at 50 feet 11 inches, and taken first and third in the broad jump that afternoon in Bacon Cage. Grimes of Yale jumped 22 feet 2½ inches; second place went to William Owen, Jr. '49: 22 feet ¾ inch.

Cornell was also blanked in the quarter-mile race, which was won by Lucke of Yale in 52.1 seconds. With seven of the thirteen events completed, Cornell trailed Yale, 14-49. Then John A. Mitchell, Jr. '49 and Frederick K. Hilton '47 tied for first place in the high jump, at 5 feet 11 inches, and Leonard G. Abraham, Jr. '47 tied with two Yale men for third. Second place in the two-mile run for Donald C. Young '48, behind Thompson of Yale in 10:12, with William S. Gere, Jr. '50 third, brought Cornell's score to 26½ to 54½ for Yale.

First two places in the half-mile were won by Captain Daniel M. Kelly '47 in 2:03.4 and John P. Seider '48, respectively; and Owen won the low hurdles in 8.5 seconds with Richard T. Stacy '45, third, to bring Cornell to 40½ to Yale's 58½. Mile relay team of Richard A. McCall '48, Martin K. Greenfield '46, John F. Craig, Jr. '47, and William R. Bromstedt '45 won in 3:35.9 for 5 points, and John L. Haughwout '44 tied for second in the pole vault behind Bensley of Yale at 13 feet, for 2 more.

Second places were won by Stacy in the high hurdles, by George B. Rice, Jr. '50 in the mile run, and by Greenfield in the 75-yard dash. Bernard Bernstein '48 was third in the dash and Winfred B. Wright '45 put the 16-pound shot 40 feet 6 inches for third place.

In the Knights of Columbus Games in Madison Square Garden, March 8, the Cornell mile relay team of McCall, Greenfield, Craig, and Frank C. Slovak '45 placed third behind Rhode Island State and Pennsylvania.

Swimmers Win, Lose

SWIMMING team broke even in its last two dual meets, losing to Pennsylvania, 40-35, at Philadelphia March 8, and defeating Columbia 48-27, at New York March 15 for a season's record of seven wins, two losses.

The medley relay team of Irving M. Katz '47, Charles H. Reynolds, Jr., '48, and Robert K. Dennett '46 set a new Cornell record of 3:06.5 at Philadelphia. Katz, then a Naval trainee, was a member of the team which set the previous record of 3:06.7 in 1944 in the Old Armory Pool. He swam then with Burton Preston and David C. Wiley, also in Navy training here.

Cornell came up to the final event, the 400-yard freestyle, with a chance to win, but Pennsylvania finished two feet ahead, setting a new Pennsylvania record in the process at 3:40.2.

Individual Cornell winners were Richard J. Reynolds, Jr. '46, the 50-yard freestyle in 0:24.6, and John K. Cousens '45, the 440-yard freestyle in 5:35.6.

Against Columbia, Cornell won both relay races and four of the seven individual contests. Katz, Charles Reynolds, and Richard J. Huff '44 swam the medley relay, and John B. Rogers '45, Robert A. Ornitz '45, Huff, and Dennett the freestyle relay.

Richard Reynolds won the 50-yard freestyle in 0:24.2, Katz the 150-yard backstroke in 1:41.5, Charles Reynolds the 200-yard breaststroke in 2:42.6, and George H. Martin '45 the 440-yard freestyle in 5:35.8.

In the Eastern Intercollegiate Swimming League individual championships at New Haven, Conn., March 21 and 22, Richard Reynolds took fourth place in the 50-yard freestyle and Katz finished sixth in the 150-yard backstroke. In his first trial heat, Reynolds set a new Cornell record of 23.6 seconds, bettering the mark of 24 seconds set by Robert D. Cloyes '38 in 1937 against Colgate at Hamilton. His time was the same as that of Richard Morgan of Yale in the final, when Reynolds was a yard behind.

Coach G. Scott Little had nine Varsity swimmers among the 182 who competed from twenty-eight colleges and universities at New Haven.

Wrestlers End Season

WRESTLING team closed its dual meet season in Barton Hall March 8 with an 18-16 victory over Pennsylvania, its fifth victory against three defeats.

In the Eastern Intercollegiates at Yale, March 14 and 15, Cornell scored 4 points and tied with Dartmouth and the Merchant Marine Academy for ninth place.

Captain John G. Raine '48 reached the finals in the 136-pound class where he bowed to Wayne Smith of the US Naval Academy on an 11-5 decision. Raine's second place gave Cornell 3 points. The fourth was accounted for when Richard G. Clark '50, heavyweight, scored a fall over Boyd of Princeton in a preliminary bout. Clark was eliminated in the quarter-finals by Newbold Smith of the Naval Academy.

Lehigh won the team championship with 21 points. Other scores: Navy, defending champion, 17; Syracuse 13, Columbia 9, US Military Academy 8, Penn State 7, Yale and Harvard 6 each, Cornell, Dartmouth, and Merchant Marine Academy 4 each, Pennsylvania 3, Princeton 1. Virginia and the US Coast Guard Academy failed to score.

In the dual meet with Pennsylvania, Joseph W. Calby, Jr. '50 won a decision, Captain Raine gained 5 points on a forfeit when his opponent failed to make the weight, and William J. Bartels '49, 165-pounder, scored a fall. At the end of seven bouts Pennsylvania led, 16-13. Heavyweight Clark won the meet by throwing Votti with a double bar and body press in 5:40.

Polo Does Well

ROTC POLO team, after winning eight of its nine regular games, was eliminated by Yale, 10-9, in the Intercollegiate indoor championships at Essex Troop Armory, Newark, N. J., March 20. Yale won in a "sudden death" overtime chukker, the first goal to break the regular-game tie winning the contest. Cornell was ahead, 9-8, when Ylvisaker, Yale's No. 2, scored the tying goal just before the final bell. McFeely, Yale's No. 3, counted the winning goal.

Cornell played without its high scorer of the season, Charles Gandal '48, who was injured in a practice session earlier in the week. Cecil D. Cooper '47, Hugh G. Dean '48, and Robert Strauss '48 each scored 3 goals for Cornell.

The team, playing in the Riding Hall March 8, defeated Culver Military Academy, 22-18, with Gandal scoring 11 goals. Cornell overcame a Culver lead by scoring 8 goals in the fourth and final period.

Odds and Ends

Lack of ice caused cancellation of Cornell's hockey game with Hamilton, scheduled for Beebe Lake, March 8. The team wound up the season with four defeats and no victories.

It was not until March 21, fifteen days later than last year, that crews were able to break the ice on the Inlet for their first outdoor practice. Two eight-oared shells and one of four were directed by Coach R. Harrison Sanford and his new assistant, Loren W. School.

Robert J. Kane '34, Director of Physical Education and Athletics, was the delegate of the Eastern College Athletic Conference at a meeting of the executive committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association in Chicago, Ill., March 14 and 15. He was asked to substitute for Asa S. Bushnell, director of the ECAC.

University of Pennsylvania Varsity Club this year honored Cornell at its annual dinner, March 20 at the Racquet Club in Philadelphia. Director Kane and Head Football Coach George K. James were speakers.

This will be the last season of home-and-home games in the Eastern Intercollegiate Baseball League. In 1948, Brown and the US Military and Naval Academies will join Cornell, Columbia, Dartmouth, Harvard, Pennsylvania, Princeton, and Yale in the League, and the teams will play each other only once a season.

Cornell will be host Aug. 25-30 to the third annual coaches' school of the New York State High School Athletic Association. Colgate was host last year; Hamilton in 1945.

Fencing team defeated Sampson College, 18-7, in twenty-five unofficial foils matches in Barton Hall, March 22.

Cornell women's basketball team defeated William Smith College 39-24, in Geneva March 15. Barbara Sherlock '48 was high scorer with 24 points.

ROTC pistol team lost to the US Naval Academy, 1223-1385, at Annapolis, Md., March 15. This was the first shoulder-to-shoulder match for Cornell since before the war.

Spring Sports

SIGNS of spring: Baseball battery candidates reported to Coach Mose Quinn in the Bacon Cage, March 3; Robert J. Kane '34, Director of Physical Education and Athletics, announced extensive schedules in baseball, crew, tennis, track, lacrosse, and golf. The baseball and tennis teams will resume spring recess tours dropped since 1942. (See "Coming Events").

Hotelmen in Chicago

TEN students in Hotel Administration accompanied Professor Howard B. Meek to the Mid-west Hotel Show, March 11-13, at the Stevens Hotel, Chicago, Ill. Joseph P. Binns '28 is vice-president of Hilton Hotels, of which the Stevens is one. The Ithaca visitors were entertained by the Chicago branch of the Cornell Society of Hotelmen at a smoker at the Drake Hotel with Daniel C. Brasted '40, manager of the Windermere Hotel, as chairman. They were also breakfast guests of Richard W. Steinberg '29 at the Marshall Field Restaurant where he is manager.

Engineer Speaks

CORNELL Club of Rochester, meeting for lunch March 12 at the Chamber of Commerce, heard Irvin G. McChesney '23, assistant superintendent of steam and electric generation for Rochester Gas & Electric Corp., describe the "Lakeside Steam Generation Station."

Spring Term Enrollment

REGISTRAR'S Office finds that on March 3, the University had enrolled 9,385 students of whom 8,870 were in Ithaca, the rest in the Medical College and School of Nursing in New York City. Before deducting 36 double registrations of students, such as in Arts-Law, Arts-Business, Agriculture-Nutrition, etc., the figures show 6,979 men and 1,927 women enrolled in Ithaca. The number in Ithaca is about 200 fewer than at a comparable period in the fall term: approximately 700 new and former students came into the University for the spring term, replacing some 500 graduates and about 400 "busts" and withdrawals for the first term.

In this spring term, 5,136 of the students in Ithaca, 73 per cent, are recorded as veterans. The proportion of men students who are veterans ranges from 93 per cent in the Law School through 90 per cent in Business & Public Administration, 88 per cent in Hotel Administration, 82 per cent in Industrial & Labor Relations, and 78 per cent in Engineering; down to 70 per cent in Arts & Sciences, 67 per cent in Agriculture, and 59 per cent in the Graduate School and Veterinary College.

Enrollment, Spring Term 1947

	Men	Women	Total
Agriculture	1263	195	1458
Architecture	154	32	186
Arts & Sciences	1460	804	2264
Bus. & Publ. Adm.	29	1	30
Engineering	2283	29	2312
Graduate School	851	189	1040
Home Economics		585	585
Hotel Adm.	334	27	361
Ind. & Labor Rel.	217	37	254
Law School	269	17	286
Nutrition	7	2	9
Veterinary	112	9	121
	6979	1927	8906
Less Duplicates			36
TOTAL IN ITHACA			8870
Medical College	281	37	318
Nursing School		197	197
TOTAL ENROLLMENT	7260	2161	9385

Lehigh Valley Women

TWENTY-FIVE alumnae attended the second meeting of the recently-organized Cornell Women's Club of the Lehigh Valley, a dinner February 26 at the American Hotel in Bethlehem, Pa. Pauline J. Schmid

'25, Assistant Alumni Secretary, explained the organization of the Cornell Alumni Association, policies and program of the Federation of Cornell Women's Clubs, and brought recent news of the Campus.

The Club organized in January with Mrs. Donald C. Clark (Pauline Messinger) '37 as president; Mrs. David G. Samuels (Marian Hughes) '36, vice-president; Edna A. Stephany '31, secretary; and Mrs. Edgar H. Riley (Lila Stevenson) '16, treasurer.

Intelligence

By Emerson Hinckliff '14

Judge Samuel S. Leibowitz '15, one of the "greats" among criminal lawyers—at least the peer of Clarence Darrow and Wows 'em Max Steuer—must have stirred the pulses of our embryo lawyers tremendously with his lecture in the moot court room in Myron Taylor hall, February 28. I have an idea that he gained some recruits for the practice of his specialty, because his talk was a gem. When hardened lecture-goers, of which Ithaca has quite a crop, figuratively rolled in the aisles, think of the effect on impressionable Law School students, aspiring probably to nothing more exciting than corporation, probate, or tax law!

The room was literally jammed. I sat on a narrow ledge next to the grilled barrier, but even that discomfort couldn't dull the pleasure.

* * *

From a pedagogical viewpoint, I would call the Judge's lecture a price-less supplement to Professor Laube's course on Criminal Law. When Judge Leibowitz told how he had upset convictions by going to the scene of the crime and seeing for himself, he gave an unforgettable object lesson to bolster his advice of hard work and thoroughness in preparing for trial, as opposed to reliance on the movie conception of "flights of brilliance."

In a way, he contradicted himself later by saying that success comes entirely from practicing good salesmanship. To that end, he encouraged students to take all the public-speaking courses possible, to join the Dramatic Club, and to go out for debate and oratorical contests. The contradiction is more apparent than real, however, because salesmanship, without complete knowledge of one's product, is a weak crutch.

The man practiced what he preached; rather, preached what he had actually practiced. The 1914-15 Cornellian lists him as a member of the Dramatic Club for four years, Debate Congress three years (treasurer as a Senior), and on the '94 Memorial Stage. He also found time for the Law School track, baseball, cross country, and soccer teams.

* * *

He must have been good in the Dramatic Club, judging by the effectiveness with which, Gives by a gesture, a look, or Court-room an intonation, he illustrated a series of "don'ts" Advice for a young lawyer. As "don'ts" he warned against being a "bore, ceiling gazer, miner, fumbler, eyeglass swisher, cutie, trickster, wooer, or roamer."

Another bit of courtroom lore was a tip on picking jurors. Choose young men or old women, both easygoing, if you are on the defense; "but if you're working for the D. A., look for the birds with their mouths pulled down to here, and young women."

* * *

I was delighted by his heartfelt reference to the late Edwin H. Woodruff, then Dean of the Law School, and can, in my mind's ear, hear "Woody's", Famous Trial Lawyer "My God, Sam, not that!", when Leibowitz asked him if he should enter criminal law. Finally, nevertheless, on the strength of a raise from $15 to $15.50 a week, he took the plunge, went to the Brooklyn General Sessions judge, and asked to be assigned to a case. "After I won a few cases, I got paying customers. The underworld, like the Dodgers, has its talent scouts."

So great were those talents that in eighty-five trials, he never had a client sentenced for first-degree murder. I hasten to mention that he doesn't encourage students to aim at becoming "mouthpieces," a la Dixie Davis, and that he refused to represent Bruno Hauptmann in the Lindbergh kidnapping case, after a four-hour talk with the prisoner in the Trenton penitentiary. He used to like cases like the defense of the "Scottsboro boys."

You should have heard the peroration, a moving tribute to Cornell and the type of lawyer she turns out. "Bull" Durham couldn't have done it better! Maybe it isn't true that "there wasn't a dry eye in the audience," but certainly nobody coughed.

* * *

"Intelligence" motto from now on (and here I employ the noun in its usual connotation, as opposed to our double meaning of news): Employ none but Cornell lawyers!

Club Runs Plays

THREE one-act plays, staged, directed, and acted by undergraduate members of the Dramatic Club, were presented in the Willard Straight Theater March 14 and 15.

The stark poetry of J. M. Synge's "Riders to the Sea" was spoken beautifully by Mary E. Utting '48 of Saranac Lake, but not always sustained by the other members of the cast. This somber drama was succeeded by an even gloomier problem play, "The Intruder," by Maurice Maeterlinck. John V. Foy '44 of Salamanca was excellent as the blind and bearded old man who senses the presence of death. He was ably supported by James W. Benner, Jr. '50 of State College, N. Mex., and others.

A. A. Milne's "Wurzel-Flummery," an inconsequential bit of froth with a single joke, belabored interminably, was nevertheless a welcome tailpiece, well acted by Roderic B. MacDonald '46 of Buffalo, and company.

New Haven Gathers

NEW HAVEN, Conn., men's and women's Cornell Clubs, meeting together, brought fifty Cornellians to the Winchester Club March 3, with Presidents Walter R. Dann '22 and Mrs. Thomas A. Scanlon, Jr. (Florence Burtis) '26 presiding. Assistant Alumni Secretary R. Selden Brewer '40 spoke on the University and alumni activities; Counselor of Students Frank C. Baldwin '22 discussed student activities; and Alumni Trustee Thomas I. S. Boak '14, chairman of the buildings and grounds committee, described recent building projects on the Campus.

Annual meeting of the men's Club will be May 2, the evening before the Carnegie Cup Regatta of Cornell, Yale, and Princeton, on the Housatonic.

Officials Tour Clubs

COUNSELOR of Students Frank C. Baldwin '22 and Assistant Alumni Secretary R. Selden Brewer '40 visited four Cornell Clubs last month, bringing news of the Campus and showing movies of the '46 Cornell football season.

March 4, at the Engineers Club in Boston, Mass., they attended a smoker of the Cornell Club of New England, and were introduced by Carlton H. Barrows, AM '33, president of the Club. Next day, at Springfield, Mass., Baldwin and Brewer were dinner guests of the Cornell Club of Western Massachusetts at the Hotel Highland, with President John J. D. McCormick '13 as toastmaster.

The Ithacans spoke to the Cornell Club of Hartford, Conn., March 6 at a dinner meeting in the City Club. Marshall P. Hoke '38 was elected president, succeeding Gilmoure N. Cole '31, who presided; Albert D. Bosson '39 was named secretary-treasurer.

The tour ended at a supper meeting of the Cornell Men's and Women's Club of Staten Island, March 7 at the Clove Lake Club. President Alice H. Erskine '21 introduced the speakers.

Time Was . . .

Twenty Years Ago

April, 1927—"When a scholar discovers a new truth, the interest of his colleagues is apt to be polite but languid. But all the savants become genuinely enthusiastic at the discovery—from whatever source—that the suckers are running in Fall Creek.

"In the art of spearing suckers real genius is marked by the ability to distinguish instantly between a sucker and a pop bottle. Where it skirts Percy Field, Fall Creek is full of both.

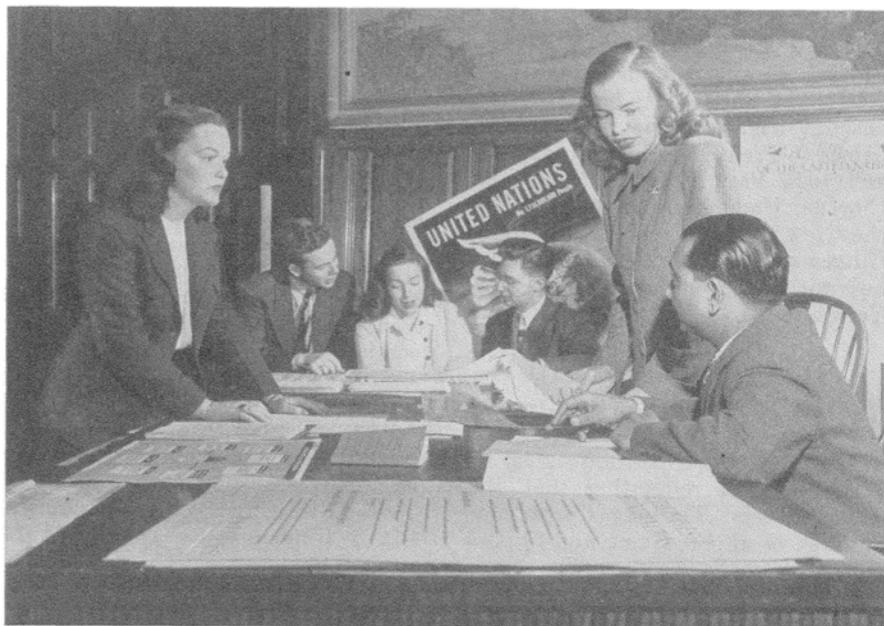

"It's a democratic sport. As your party wades the stream with ruddy flares and poised lances, a gallery of small boys follows you along the bank. Demos crowds the frequent bridges. From that angle anyone could see the fish. The remarks are more pungent than polite: 'Fer cry sake—yeh big dub! He's right in front of yeh feet. Hit 'im!'

"Whenever I feel conceit stealing in upon me, I shall recall the comments that were made when I speared that pop bottle."—"Sport Stuff," by R.B.

Ten Years Ago

April, 1937—University Proctor Charles D. Manning gives this year's Freshmen, living in the dormitories, kind words for good deportment. The Proctor says (and he ought to know): "They have not had illicit bonfires in the halls, nor female visitors in their rooms; they have not celebrated by exploding firecrackers, nor indulged in promiscuous gunfire." But Mrs. Anna Fielden Grace '10, Manager of Residential Halls for both men and women, takes a gloomier view. She points out (and she has access to the books) that since September "almost $500 worth of glass has been shattered in the men's dormitories" while the women at their end of the Campus have broken "only about $25 worth."

The League of Nations came to Ithaca last week in the persons of 265 student delegates from thirty-six colleges and universities, for the eleventh annual Model League of Nations Assembly, Middle Atlantic Division. Plenary sessions were held in the moot court room of Myron Taylor Hall. For two days the problems of the world were debated. Cornell's delegation numbered eighteen, including A. Bonham Campbell '36, retiring president of the League Council, and Harvey R. Wellman '37, secretary-general of the Assembly.

MODEL UN STUDENT DELEGATES REGISTER IN WILLARD STRAIGHT Wesp

More than 300 students, including fifty from foreign countries, are at work on various committees and delegations of the second annual Model United Nations. Plenary session of the General Assembly will be May 5. Pictured above are (left to right) Ann B. Crowley '49 of Torrington, Conn., John F. Vance '48 of Buenos Aires, Argentina, Martha J. McKelvey '49, daughter of Joseph V. McKelvey '06 of Ames, Iowa, Secretary-general Leonard Lehman '49 of Brooklyn, Bette J. McGrew '49 of Chicago, Ill., and Pranlal Shah, Grad, of Bombay, India.

Cornell Alumni News

3 EAST AVENUE, ITHACA, N. Y.

FOUNDED 1899

Published the first and fifteenth of each month except monthly in July, August, and September: twenty-one issues a year.

Owned and published by the Cornell Alumni Association under direction of a committee composed of Phillips Wyman '17, chairman, Birge W. Kinne '16, Clifford S. Bailey '18, John S. Knight '18, and Walter K. Nield '27. Officers of the Alumni Association: Elbert P. Tuttle '18, Atlanta, Ga., president; Emmet J. Murphy '22, Ithaca, secretary-treasurer.

Subscriptions $4 in U. S. and possessions; foreign, $4.50. Life subscription, $75. Single copies, 25 cents. Subscriptions are renewed annually unless cancelled.

Managing Editor H. A. STEVENSON '19

Assistant Editors:

JOHN H. DETMOLD '43

RUTH E. JENNINGS '44

As a gift to Cornellians in the armed forces, Willard Straight Hall and Cornell Alumni Association send the ALUMNI NEWS regularly, upon request, to reading rooms of Army posts, Naval stations, and military hospitals and rehabilitation centers.

Member, Ivy League Alumni Magazines, 22 Washington Square North, New York City 11; phone GRamercy 5-2039.

Printed at The Cayuga Press, Ithaca, N. Y.

Crew Alumni to Organize

ALL former crew men and alumni interested in rowing are invited to attend an organization meeting of a Cornell Alumni Crew Association, April 4 at the Cornell Club of New York, at 8. Coach R. Harrison Sanford will speak and motion pictures will be shown. Alumni who cannot attend but who wish to be enrolled as charter members may send their names to Fred H. Guterman '42, Box 4C, 1025 Park Avenue, New York City 28. Undergraduate president of the Crew Club and Varsity coxswain, Guterman is an air-conditioning engineer with General Electric at the New York address.

Ask Elective Drill

BOARD OF TRUSTEES executive committee at its March meeting received a petition signed by 1184 students, requesting that Reserve Officers' Training Corps, now required of all Freshmen and Sophomores, be made elective. The Trustees did not take action on the matter, but decided that it "should await both the recommendation of the Faculty committee on University policy, to whom the same question had previously been referred by this committee, and Federal legislation concerning universal military training." The student petition was transmitted to the Trustees by Norman Frankel '50 of New York City.

Resolutions favoring making the ROTC elective at Cornell have been adopted by the University chapter of the Student League for Industrial Democracy, the Cornell Teachers' Union, and the Ithaca chapter of the American Veterans' Committee. The Student Council has appointed a committee "to investigate the present status of the ROTC."

Folk Singers Charm

FOLK singers Alan Lomax and Leadbelly wowed 'em, March 21 in the Willard Straight Theater.

Tickets for the evening performance were sold out in one hour, so the University Theatre quickly made arrangements for a matinee as well. The programs varied, since a folk singer's repertory is inexhaustible, but both capacity houses listened with delight, joined in several choruses, and demanded encores.

Young Lomax disclaims any vocal talent, but he picks a soft guitar, sings high and true, and is wholly charming. Leadbelly has all the assurance of a top-notch, old-time professional. His guitar is big, fast, and loud; his voice masterful; his manner dynamic.

Probably the happiest man in the audience was Professor Harold W. Thompson, English, who more than anyone else is responsible for the current interest in folklore among the University community. Lomax and Leadbelly stayed over to sing for Professor Thompson's 250 students of American Folk Literature, Saturday morning in Goldwin Smith Hall.

Rochester Symphony

EIGHTH and final concert in this year's augmented Bailey Hall series was the second appearance of the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra, March 11, this time with Leonard Bernstein as guest conductor. (The same group, with Erich Leinsdorf conducting, appeared December 2 to accommodate those who could not get tickets for the regular series.)

The talented young conductor, pianist, and composer demonstrated well his versatility in a program which opened with Haydn's "Symphony No. 102, in B flat major"; went on to the spirited modernistic "Facsimile" from his own Ballet and the "Danzon Cubano" by Copland; and closed with the impressive Beethoven "Piano Concerto No. 1, in C major," Bernstein both playing the solo part and conducting from the piano. Prolonged applause brought as a "very tiny" encore the Gavotte from Prokofieff's "Classical Symphony."

Chicago Speaker

CORNELL Club of Chicago, Ill., met for lunch March 27 at the University Club. John P. Kottcamp, Jr. '34 gave an illustrated talk on "Visualization: A New Profession Grown out of Wartime Training Experiences."

Coming Events

FRIDAY, APRIL 4

New York City: Organization meeting Alumni Crew Association, Cornell Club, 8

SATURDAY, APRIL 5

Ithaca: Spring recess begins

MONDAY, APRIL 7

Durham, N. C.: Baseball, Durham professionals, afternoon

Raleigh, N. C.: Baseball, Raleigh professionals, evening

Washington, D. C.: Tennis, American University

TUESDAY, APRIL 8

Rochester: Musical Clubs show, Strong Hall, 8:45

Wake Forest, N. C.: Baseball, Wake Forest

Washington, D. C.: Tennis, George Washington

Havana, Cuba: Basketball, Havana

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 9

Utica: Musical Clubs show, Proctor High School, 8:30

Durham, N. C.: Baseball, Duke

Tennis, Duke

Havana, Cuba: Basketball, Havana

THURSDAY, APRIL 10

Albany: Musical Clubs show, Chancellor's Hall, 8:30

Chapel Hill, N. C.: Baseball, North Carolina

Tennis, North Carolina

Havana, Cuba: Basketball, Vedado Tennis Club

FRIDAY, APRIL 11

Garden City: Musical Clubs show, Adelphi College Gymnasium, 8:45

Annapolis, Md.: Baseball, Navy

Chapel Hill, N. C.: Tennis, North Carolina

Elmira: President Edmund E. Day at Cornell Club dinner, Mark Twain Hotel, 6:30

SATURDAY, APRIL 12

Philadelphia, Pa.: Baseball, Pennsylvania

Charlottesville, Va.: Tennis, Virginia

SUNDAY, APRIL 13

Ithaca: Spring recess ends

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 16

Ithaca: Baseball, Cortland Teachers' College, Hoy Field

Detroit, Mich.: Dean William I. Myers '14, Agriculture, speaks on "A Quick Look at Post-war Europe" at Cornell Club dinner, Wardell Sheraton Hotel 6

New York City: President Edmund E. Day at Seventieth Anniversary Dinner of the School of Nursing, Hotel Plaza, 7

SATURDAY, APRIL 19

Ithaca: Baseball, Princeton, two games, Hoy Field

Northfield, Vt.: Polo, Norwich

On The Campus and Down the Hill

Debating "American Intervention in Greece" before a capacity crowd in the Willard Straight Memorial Room March 16, Professors Mario Einaudi, Government, and Curtis P. Nettles, History, were for and against, respectively. "If Congress adopts the Truman proposals," Professor Nettles asserted, "the Russians will regard it as a mortal threat and will oppose us with all means at their disposal." Professor Einaudi defended American intervention on humanitarian grounds, and pointed out that "at this point, the UN is not equipped to handle problems of this kind." The debate was arranged by the Student League for Industrial Democracy.

Committee Against US Aid to Greece has been established, with Professor Paul W. Gates, History, and Rubin Diamond '50 of Poughkeepsie as co-chairmen. Members include delegates from the Student League for Industrial Democracy, Young Progressive Citizens of America, Cosmopolitan Club, Cornell Teachers Union, American Youth for Democracy, Marxist Discussion Group, Cornell Review, and the American Veterans Committee.

Panhellenic Night honored new sorority pledges, March 24 in Bailey Hall. Emily Hickman '01, professor of history at New Jersey College for Women and delegate to the 1945 UN Conference at San Francisco, spoke on "Larger Horizons for Women." The Women's Glee Club sang, and the traditional candle light ceremony for pledges was conducted by Council President Barbara A. Everitt '47 daughter of William L. Everitt '20 and Mrs. Everitt (Dorothy Wallace) '23 of Urbana, Ill.

"Opinion Please," national CBS radio forum, discussed the teaching of Communism and other "isms" in our schools, March 21, with five Cornellians participating: Leverett Saltonstall, Jr., son of US Senator Saltonstall of Massachusetts, F. Clifton White, John P. Roche, all in the Graduate School; and Donald H. Myers '44, Merwin K. Hart, Jr. '45, and Alfred E. Brandt '48.

Summer school for bankers, offered annually by the College of Agriculture, took a ribbing at "The Financial Follies of 1947," March 1 at the Hotel Astor in New York. Financial page of The Times reported that "rural high jinks ran rampant when a group of New York State bankers adjourned to Cornell to study agriculture. Their curriculum was confined to learning how to speed up mortgage foreclosures and how to milk a cow instead of a customer."

Frank Sullivan '14, in his PM column March 16, mentioned a recent visit from Raymond F. Howes '24 and Professor Charles L. Durham '99, and reported Liberty Hyde Bailey's solo trek to the Amazon: "Go out and get yourself a reputation, George Bernard Shaw!"

Eight members were elected to the Student Council, March 12, in what The Sun called "one of the poorest turnouts in years." Only 1,257 ballots were cast. Successful candidates are Robert J. Koehler '49, Robert A. Ornitz '45, Richard J. Huff '44, and Ronald L. Hailparn '47, men's representatives-at-large; Evelyn M. Senk '47 and Barbara E. Dwyer '47, women's representatives-at-large; Richard A. Paddock '46, Senior representative; and Hillary A. Chollet '49 Sophomore representative.

'94 Memorial Debate prize of $94 was won March 19 by Robert Dill of '46 of Brooklyn, arguing the negative of "One Six-Year Term for the President of the US?" Contestants were narrowed to four for the finals, which were judged by Raymond F. Howes '24, administrative assistant to the Vice-president; Professor Charles K. Thomas '21, Speech; and Clinton L. Rossiter III '39, Government.

Alexander Graham Bell, whose 100th birthday was observed last month, lectured at Cornell, sixty years ago. Sherwood J. Larned '90 writes that the inventor of the telephone described his experiments to students in Sibley College, March 11, 1887.

BOOK AND BOWL gathered at Fontainebleau March 20 for the annual formal banquet. Guest of honor was A. J. Liebling of The New Yorker, who castigated The "Wayward Press." As an aperitif, Cousin Morris Bishop '14 regaled some seventy celebrants with a lantern-slide travelogue on "The Quaint Customs and Costumes of Paris, France." Roast duckling and spirituous liquors were also served.

Airplane, tagged the "Flying Bull," delivered last month a small package of semen by parachute to the Artificial Breeders' Cooperative, southeast of the Campus, saving twenty-four hours on the trip from Ulster County and marking the first time air transport had been used by the Coop.

Lectures: "American Far Eastern Policy," by Owen Lattimore, director of the Page School of International Relations, Johns Hopkins University, March 13; "Education in Puerto Rico," by Jose M. Gallardo, former commissioner of education in Puerto Rico, and "The Administration of Criminal Justice in a Large City," by Supreme Court Justice Felix C. Bengvenga, March 14; "The First Battle of the Marne," by Colonel Girard L. McEntee, USA (ret.), March 17; "Problems of Trusteeship," by Sir Carl Berendsen, New Zealand Minister to the US and chief UN delegate, March 25.

Industrial and Labor Relations Faculty members are lecturing evenings at Ithaca High School. Professor Alpheus W. Smith '19 led off February 27 with "The Psychology of Industrial and Labor Relations; Professor Maurice F. Neufeld gave a "History of the American Labor Movement" March 6; "The Future of Labor-Management Relations" was discussed March 13 by Professor Vernon H. Jensen; Professors John W. McConnell and Milton R. Konvitz, PhD '33, spoke about "Industrial and Labor Relations and the Problems of Economic Change and Security," March 20, and "Current Trends in Labor Legislation," March 27, respectively.

Forum on "Prospects for World Control of Atomic Energy" was led by Dean Cornelis W. de Kiewiet of Arts and Sciences, with Professors Edward W. Fox, History, Hans A. Bethe and Philip Morrison, Physics.

Other forums: "Women in Radio," arranged by the WSGA committee on vocational information, University Station WHCU, and the Counselor of Students, with seven prominent women broadcasters and radio executives participating, March 15; "India," Cornell Hindustan Association, March 27; "The International Labor Organization of the UN," with Professor Robert E. Cushman, Government, as chairman, and three ILO representatives, March 28.

The Faculty

Provost Arthur S. Adams, Captain, USN (ret.), was a member of the five-man selection board of the Navy which recently appointed an academic dean for the US Naval Academy post-graduate school.

University Trustee Harry G. Stutz '07, editor and manager of The Ithaca Journal, was appointed February 24 by Governor Thomas E. Dewey to a five-year term on the New York State Board of Social Welfare.

Dean S. C. Hollister Engineering, who has also been Vice-president of the University since May, 1946, resigned the latter office, March 8. He asked to be relieved of his duties as Vice-president in charge of University development and executive of the Trustees' committee on planning and development, following illness brought on by overwork. The Trustees accepted his resignation with deep regret, and on leave of absence as Dean until April 20, he and Mrs. Hollister and their daughter, Elizabeth, have gone to Sanibel Island, Fla., for him to get a needed rest. During Dean Hollister's absence, Assistant Dean Walter L. Conwell '09 heads the College of Engineering.

Professor Vladimir Karapetoff, Engineering, Emeritus, spoke on "The Young Engineer and Human Society," March 6 in New York City to members of the ten student branches of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers in the Metropolitan area, under the auspices of the New York section, AIEE.

Professor Victor Lange, chairman of the German Department, addressed the Literary Society of Chicago, Ill., February 28 on "The Poetry of Eduard Moerike." He edited the German material for the Columbia Dictionary of Modern European Literature, and contributed to the work a number of biographical essays and an article on "German Literature."

Walden String Quartet, in residence at the University, will give a concert of contemporary American works at a symposium on music criticism at Harvard University, May 1-3. Professor Otto Kinkeldey, Musicology, Emeritus, and former University Librarian, is to be a speaker.

Professor Carl E. F. Guterman, PhD '30, Director of Research in the College of Agriculture and Director of the Agricultural Experiment Station, left Ithaca March 15 for Hawaii at the request of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association to visit their experiment station and to study their organization and research programs. During his scheduled three-week stay in Hawaii, he will visit all the major islands, the University of Hawaii agricultural experiment station, and the Pineapple Research Institute.

Professor Herbert W. Briggs, Government, flew to Turkey March 28, at invitation of the US Department of State, Division of International Exchange of Persons, to give five lectures on international law at the University of Istanbul and two at the University of Ankara. He is the guest of Professor Celal Bikel, former rector of the University of Istanbul, who founded the Turkish Institute of International Law and is now a deputy of the National Assembly of Turkey. Professor Briggs will return by plane, April 16.

Professor Lloyd P. Smith, PhD '30, Physics, presented a paper at a meeting of the Institute of Radio Engineers in New York City March 4, disclosing work done during the war at the RCA Laboratories on a revolutionary method of achieving frequency modulation and control of super-high-frequency communication and radar systems. The method makes use of spiral beams of electrons in a magnetic field with which the first practical frequency modulation of magnetrons was perfected.

Professor William B. Ward, Extension Service and editor and chief of publications in the College of Agriculture, and Mrs. Ward have a son, Alan Miller Ward, born March 2 in Ithaca.

Captain William I. Leahy, commanding officer of the University NROTC unit, received March 11 the Legion of Merit and the Bronze Star Medal from the US Navy Department. He was presented the former for "exceptionally meritorious conduct . . . as executive officer of the USS Denver, operating in the Northern Solomon Islands area against enemy Japanese forces"; and the latter for "meritorious achievement as commanding officer of a US Naval Transport in the assault forces, during action against enemy forces in the initial invasion of France. . . . While subjected to a heavy bombing attack, Captain (then Commander) Leahy succeeded in landing assault troops, vehicles, and vital equipment on the Normandy beaches under extremely hazardous conditions."

Time magazine, February 24, pictured "ex-Powersmodel" Carol Moody, secretary of the English Department, 1941-42, and wife of Richard Moody, PhD '42, former assistant in the University Theatre and now a professor in Indiana University. Mrs. Moody is the originator of "Quizdown," a radio program conducted in elementary schools like an old fashioned spelling bee, and now popular in fourteen US cities.

Mrs. Viola Doyle King, wife of Professor Asa C. King '99, Farm Practice, Emeritus, of Forest Home, Ithaca, died March 12, 1947. She also leaves two daughters, Mrs. Frank H. Hoyt (Dorothy King) '31 and Mrs. James S. Fulton (Edythe King) '32.

Brigadier General Herbert D. ★ Gibson, USA (ret.), on the ROTC staff here in 1931-41, and Mrs. Gibson visited friends in Ithaca in February. After leaving the University, General Gibson was stationed at Governors Island. When war broke out, he was sent to Canton Islands in the Pacific, where he was in charge of amphibious training. From the fall of 1942 until January, 1944, he was tactical commander and military governor of Hawaii. Then he commanded the first Army units to land at Kwajalien and Eniwetok. In the spring of 1944, he returned to Hawaii and organized the replacement training command. He and Mrs. Gibson now live in New York City.

A daughter, Sylvia Urquhart, ★ was born February 14 to Colonel Leonard C. Urquhart '09, former professor of Structural Engineering, and Mrs. Urquhart of 4837 Kahala Avenue, Honolulu. T. H. Colonel Urquhart is chief of the engineering division of the US Engineers District Office in Honolulu.

Several members of the Education Faculty attended the first post-war convention of the American Association of School Administration in Atlantic City, N. J., March 1-6. Professor Clyde B. Moore, Rural Education, spoke on "State School Board Associations Take the Lead." Professor Julian E. Butterworth, Rural Education, described "Specialized Educational Services for Rural Communities" at a meeting of the department of rural education of the National Education Association, and participated in a discussion of "Research in School Administration" at a meeting of the American Educational Research Association. Professor Frank S. Freeman, Education and Psychology, discussed "Child Growth and Development" at a meeting of the National Society of College Teachers of Education.

News of the Alumni

Personal items and newspaper clippings about Cornellians are earnestly solicited

'02 CE—George J. Davis has retired as dean of the engineering college at the University of Alabama, University, Ala. He had been on the staff of the university since 1912.

'10, '11 CE—Earle B. Holdredge is district manager for H. S. Chaffee Co., distributors and appliers of fibreglass in industrial engineering, with office at 204 State Tower Building, Syracuse. His son, a graduate of Annapolis in 1939 and of the Philadelphia Marine School in 1940, was lost December 15 on a ship off Manila. The young man was a captain in the Marines and held the Navy Cross and a Presidential Citation for the Bataan engagement. Holdredge has two married daughters, including Mrs. Donald Smith (Mary Holdredge) '40, and three grandsons. He lives at 944 Westcott Street, Syracuse.

'10 AB—Dean William F. Russell of Teachers College, Columbia University, New York City, writes on "Teaching in a Changing World" in the January issue of the Columbia Alumni News. On the Columbia faculty since 1913, Dean Russell succeeded his father, the late Dr. James E. Russell '87, as head of Teachers College in 1927.

'15 AB—Emanuel M. Ostrow has opened a law office in Suite 1110, 50 Court Street, Brooklyn.

'16—Classmates and others who saw the Thirty-Year Reunion Crew on the Inlet last June, or who read Manager Ted Jamison's account of it in the September ALUMNI NEWS, may join with one of the oarsmen in that boat in wanting to have a picture of it. Anyone who has pictures taken then, or knows who took them, please communicate with John T. Moir, Jr. '16, Manager, Pioneer Mill Co., Ltd., Lahaina, Hawaii, U. S. A.

'16 ME—Frederic E. Lyford, president of Merritt, Chapman & Scott Corp., 17 Battery Place, New York City, maritime salvagers and constructors, returned recently from a business trip to Mexico. While there he had a conference with Mexico's president, Miguel Aleman, on a construction program for the country. Merritt, Chapman & Scott Corp. is now building the Franklin Delano Roosevelt Hospital in Peekskill.

'17 BS—Aquiles Armas Mendez of Apartado No. 36, Trujillo, Peru, S. A., is chief of the food supply and nutrition for the department of Ancash, Peru.

'17 AB—Robert U. Carr is president of Ushco Manufacturing Co., Inc. His address is 135 Tonawanda Street, Buffalo 7.

'18, '44 WA—John S. Knight, editor and publisher of the Chicago Daily News, Detroit Free Press, Miami Herald, and Akron Beacon Journal, has received a Brotherhood of Children Award for 1946 from the Foster Parents' Plan for War Children for his work in obtaining 20,000 food and clothing parcels which were sent by Illinois residents to children in Europe. Knight is a member of the ALUMNI NEWS publishing committee.

'18, '21 AB—Henry W. Roden (above), president of American Home Foods, Inc., 22 East Fortieth Street, New York City, is retiring from the "daily administrative function" of the presidency, and in the future will confine his business activities to the "policy formulation level." He has changed his residence to 864 Stradella Road, Bel-Air, Cal., to devote himself to writing murder mysteries. Roden has written four successful "who-dun-its": You Only Hang Once, Too Busy to Die, One Angel Less, and Wake for a Lady. American Magazine published in February his "Crime on the Pegasus" and in its "Interesting People" department gave a biographical sketch of him with the heading, "Bulldog Roden." Roden is secretary of the Class of 1918; from 1939-42 he served as Class representative for the Alumni Fund and from 1940-43 was a member of the executive committee of the Alumni Fund Council. He is a member of Chi Phi, Quill and Dagger, Alpha Delta Sigma, Mystery Writers of America, Inc., and the Author's League.

'18—Wendell Westover and Mrs. Westover of 21 Plaza, Albany 7, have a daughter, Lucy Scott Westover, born February 18.

'19, '20 AB—Jacob Mertens, Jr., attorney, has moved his office from 1 Wall Street to 270 Madison Avenue, New York City 16.

'19, '20 AB—In Good Housekeeping for March, Henry F. Pringle reports his findings on a 10,000-mile trip to American colleges and universities, investigating salaries paid to members of the instructing staffs and their effects on education. With but few exceptions, he concludes that the pay of college teachers must be increased to preserve educational standards, and cites startling conditions to prove it. Pringle says that the remedy is important to all college alumni. Title of his article is "Who Can Afford to be a Professor?"

'19, '23 WA—Edgar M. Queeny, president of Monsanto Chemical Co., St. Louis, Mo., is a member of the editorial advisory board of The Executive Book Club, 475 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

'21, '22 ME; '20 AB, '22 LLB—William H. Hill left on the Queen Elizabeth March 7 from New York City for Copenhagen on a business trip to Denmark, Sweden, and England for the Baldwin-Hill Co., thermal insulation specialists, of Trenton, N. J. He will be gone two months. Counselor of Students Frank C. Baldwin '22 is his partner in the firm. Hill and Mrs. Hill (May Thropp) '20 live at 455 West State Street, Trenton 8, N. J.

'22 MF—Felix Franco is with the Bureau of Forestry of the Department of Agriculture and Commerce of the Philippines in Manila. He writes: "November 30 my wife and I attended a 'home coming' of the inquisitorial 'institution of Fort Santiago' where we were locked up and where we both graduated early in 1944 . . ."

'22—Pre-reunion luncheon of the women of the Class of '22 who live in the Metropolitan area was held March 1 at the Cornell Women's Club of New York. Bertha H. Funnell, who will be Reunion chairman for the women, told of plans being formulated to make 1922's 25th an outstanding occasion. Among those present were Mrs. Nathalye Cohen Davis, Mrs.

Helen Cherouny Durkin, Mrs. Sara Merritt Gully, Ruth F. Irish, Mrs. Lucile Knight Johnston, Clara N. Loveland, Mrs. Gertrude Lynahan Sayre, Ferdinande Steadman, Mrs. Elizabeth Pratt Vail, and Mrs. Jean Errington Wright. Other pre-union events are being planned.

'23 ME—Robert W. Breckenridge is vice-president and director of Automatic Die & Products Co., producers of large quantity metal stampings, 5446 Dunham Road, Maple Heights, Ohio. He lives at 21899 Parnell Road, Shaker Heights 22, Ohio.

'23 AB—Cabot Coville of 3114 Dumberton Avenue, NW, Washington, D. C., first secretary and consul at London, England, has been assigned to the staff of the US Political Adviser in Tokyo, Japan. Commissioned a foreign service officer in 1926, he has served at Kobe, Dairen, Corregidor, Lima, Rio de Janeiro, and Stockholm. He also was executive assistant to the Secretary General of the United Nations Conference in San Francisco in 1945, and adviser to the US delegation to the UN Preparatory Commission in London in that same year. He has contributed articles to the Saturday Evening Post, the Foreign Service Journal, and the Department of State Bulletin.

'26 AB—Edward C. Newfang was released in September, 1945, after four years of service, starting out as a private in the Army and ending up as a commander in the Navy. He is now back with the Chemical Bank & Trust Co. of New York City; recently was appointed assistant secretary; travels for the bank in Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, and Wisconsin. Newfang is married, has a son, William Alan Newfang, two and a half years old, and lives at 20 White Hall Road, Tuckahoe.

'27 AB, '28 AM—Robert B. Brown, vice-president of Bristol-Myers Co., 630 Fifth Avenue, New York City, has been elected to the board of directors of the Advertising Research Foundation in New York City. He is secretary of his Class and a member of the ALUMNI NEWS advisory board.

'27—Through twelve inches of snow which fell a day or two before, fifteen members of the Class of '27 met at the Cornell Club of New York for Sunday lunch, February 23, to organize the Class effort in the 1947 Alumni Fund drive and discuss next June's Twenty-year Reunion. Present were R. D. Hobbie, G. Norman Scott, Homer T. Hirst III, Robert W. Hughes, Bernard Cioffari, A. H. Villepique, Lyman D. Hall, Alvin R. Cowan, Glen W. Bennett, Herbert A. Goldstone, Edgar F. Sachs, J. M. Van Law, S. S. Nathan, Eugene K. Tonkonogy, and J. S. Fair,

Jr. Fair reported that about seventy members of the Class have volunteered to work as committeemen in the Alumni Fund drive. This is one of the largest committees among all Classes, and as a result it was decided to have two Class representatives to better coordinate the work. Van Law of Larchmont will act for the Metropolitan area of New York City, nearby New Jersey, and Connecticut, and will also reach members of the Class in foreign countries. Fair will work from Philadelphia with the 1927 committeemen covering the rest of the United States. Norman Scott explained that a committee of arrangements was being formed for the Reunion, June 13-15. The Class has assurance that living quarters will be provided in Ithaca, even if 1927 turns out in record numbers. Judging by the interest already being shown, that does not seem unlikely.—J. S. F., Jr.

'27 AB—Glen W. Bennett and Mrs. Bennett have a daughter, Jane Barbara Bennett, born November 11. Bennett is with the New York State Department of Labor, Governor Alfred E. Smith State Office Building, Albany.

'27 BLA—American Home for March describes and illustrates, under the title, "These Gardens and Homes Developed Together," a modern industrial real estate development in Kalamazoo, Mich., of which Michael Rapuano was the landscape architect. Member of the New York City firm of (Gilmore D. Clarke '13), Rapuano, & Holleran, Rapuano is secretary of the New York Municipal Art Commission and president of the New York Chapter, American Society of Landscape Architects.

'28 BS, '30 MS; '28 AB, '30 MS—Ernest C. Abbe is chairman of the botany department at the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis. Mrs. Abbe is the former Lucy Boothroyd '28, daughter of Professor Samuel L. Boothroyd, Grad '04-'08, Astronomy, Emeritus.

'29—David C. Stowe, formerly job expeditor with Western Electric Co., is now life underwriter with the Home Life Insurance Co. of New York City. He has three children: Kate, ten years; Harold, nine years; and Roger Marshall, thirteen months. Address: 55 Liberty Street, New York City 5.

'31 BS, '34 MS—W. Gifford Hoag is principal editor of the information and extension division of the US Department of Agriculture Farm Credit Administration, Washington, D. C.

'31 BS, '41 AM in Ed—Exhibition of nineteen paintings by Mrs. Frank Hoyt (Dorothy King), daughter of Professor Asa C. King '99, Farm Practice, Emeritus, was shown at the Macbeth Gallery in New York City, March 3-22. It was Mrs. Hoyt's first show. Two of the entries were "Taughannock Gorge" and "Cayuga Lake."

'33 AB—Dr. Robert E. Buck has been made chief of the fruit and vegetable products section of the Quartermaster Food and Container Institute for the Armed Forces, 1849 West Pershing Road, Chicago, Ill. One of the "American Men of Science," he was previously research chemist at the US Department of Agriculture's Eastern Regional Laboratory at Philadelphia, Pa., where he worked on the development of new apple products and apple by-products. He also was an instructor in chemistry at Massachusetts State College, at which he received the MS and PhD.

'33 AB, '37 MD—Dr. Carleton M. Cornell returned to surgical practice last June, and reassociated with the Cornell Medical College, New York Hospital and Cornell Division (2d Surgery) of Bellevue Hospital. He has his office at 115 East Sixty-first Street, New York City. He and Mrs. Cornell (Isabel Stewart) '35, with daughters, Margaret, age four years, and Mary, born February 15, live at 118 Archer Avenue, Mt. Vernon.

'33—Captain Clifford B. Raymer ★, commanding officer of Company K, 3d Battalion, 18th Infantry Regiment, 1st Infantry Division, who was killed in action May 6, 1943, in the hills of Mateur, Tunisia, has been awarded posthumously the Distinguished Service Cross for "extraordinary heroism" in action in March, 1943, in Tunisia. The citation states that he "personally directed the stubborn and successful defense of his position in the face of determined assault elements of an enemy division attacking at dawn with automatic weapons, tanks, and mobile artillery support. During the attack, which lasted almost incessantly until dark, Captain Raymer moved throughout his forward defense lines, strengthening resistance at threatened points to throw back close quarter assaults with hand grenades. Although constantly exposed to severe enemy fire at close range, he anchored the defenses of his position, encouraged his men and gave them the confidence that assured their stand. Captain Raymer was largely responsible for holding that important position until ordered to withdraw under cover of darkness that night." Before he entered the service, Raymer ran three farms near Sodus and a trucking firm. He was a member of Alpha Gamma Rho. Mrs. Raymer's address is Box 156, East Williamson, Wayne County.

'34, '35 BS—J. Richard McGraw and Mrs. McGraw of PO Box 81,

Washburn, Me., have a daughter, Patricia Rose McGraw, born February 13 in Presque Isle, Me. McGraw is sales representative in Maine for The Oliver Corp.

'34 AB—Dorothy E. Foster is seventh grade critic at Brockport State Teachers' College.

'34 AB, '38 MD—Dr. Herbert J. Wright, Jr. was recently appointed assistant attending surgeon on the staff of Ellis Hospital in Schenectady. February 5, a daughter, Leslie Ann Wright, was born to him and Mrs. Wright. They live at 710 Union Street, Schenectady.

'35 BS—Frank J. Irving, managing director of Hotel Tampa Terrace, Tampa, Fla., has inaugurated a new and comprehensive catering service for the convenience of patrons and the general public in the Tampa area. The hotel advertisement says, "We will deliver anything . . . anytime . . . anywhere."

'35 AB, '37 CE—Benigno Rodriguez, Jr. of Box 248, Mayaguez, Puerto Rico, is secretary of Porto Rico Salt Works, Inc., and of F. Carrera & Hno., Inc. He is also a civil engineer for the former firm. Rodriguez has been elected treasurer of the Mayaguez Lions Club; is a trustee of the Knights of Columbus; member of Yaguez Rifle, Shotgun & Pistol Club, of Casino de Mayaguez, and of the Cornell-Pennsylvania Club.

'36 BS—Stephen G. Burritt is manager, distributor sales, for Starline, Inc., Harvard, Ill.

'36 EE—William K. Mayhew of 2085 Wascana Avenue, Lakewood 7, Ohio, is an electrical engineer with the Aluminum Co. of America. He and Mrs. Mayhew have three children: two daughters, Wendy K. and Lynn A.; and a son, William Kirk.

'37 AB—Mrs. Robert M. Imrie (Alice Walker) of 163 Moffat Road, Waban, Mass., has a son, William Imrie, born last June.

'37 AB, '42 LLB—John C. Weld was recently appointed law clerk to Judge Marvin R. Dye '17 of the New York State Court of Appeals. His address is Court of Appeals Building, Albany.

'38 ME—Warren G. Jones, Jr. is vice-president of W.A. Jones Foundry & Machine Co., Chicago, Ill. He writes that he sees quite frequently John A. Meaden '37, Theodore Hoffman '39, and James R. Ware '37. The Joneses, to whom a second daughter was born several months ago, live at 211 North Garfield Avenue, Hinsdale, Ill.

'38 AB—John B. Williams is with Newell-Emmett Co., advertising firm, 40 East Thirty-fourth Street, New York City. He lives at 331 East Fifty-eighth Street, Apartment 1A, New York City.

'39 AB, '47 LLB; '39 AB—George W. Ainslie has joined the law offices of Kramer, Knight & Wales, Security Mutual Building, Binghamton. Mrs. Ainslie is the former Elizabeth Lee '39.

'39 LLB—Sidney J. Norton has become assistant to the general counsel of the M. W. Kellogg Co., 225 Broadway, New York City.

'39 BS—Mark T. Muller of 1416 Wurtelle Avenue, Louisville, Ky., is general manager of the Cooperage Division of the United Distillers of America, Inc., of New York City.

'39 LLB—Charles M. Weber is dean and professor of business administration at New England College, Henniker, N. H. Previously he had taught economics at Hofstra College, Hempstead.

'40 AB—John H. Gray of 3124 University Boulevard, Dallas, Tex., is working for Madden-Eckels, Inc., advertising agency. He and Mrs. Gray have a baby daughter, Jan Hollister Gray.

'40 AB, '41 LLB—Norton L. Penney is with the law firm of Hay, Morton, Finn & Van Mell, 39 South LaSalle Street, Chicago 3, Ill.

'40; '41 AB—Arthur I. Smook and the former Sylvia Rosen '41 of 11 Terrace Place, Baldwin, L. I., have a daughter, Diane Patricia Smook, born February 23.

'40, '41 CE—William A. White, Jr. of 11 Judson Street, Braintree, Mass., is an engineer with White Fuel Corp. in Boston, Mass. He was formerly with Bethlehem Steel Co. in Quincy, Mass., for about four years. He is married and has a small son.

'40 CE—Malcolm L. Wilcox has been with the structural steel and fabricating department of J. T. Ryerson & Son, Inc., 40 Stanley Street, Buffalo, for the last six years.

'40 EE—Leroy A. Woodruff is an equipment engineer with Western Electric Co., 100 Central Avenue Kearny, N. J. He lives at 529 Valley Road, Roselle Park, N. J.

'40 BS in AE(ME)—William H. Worcester is an application engineer with Cutler-Hammer, Inc., 2759 East Grand Boulevard, Detroit, Mich. His home is at 587 Greenwood, Birmingham, Mich. He and Mrs. Worcester have one son.

'40 AB—Arthur J. Wullschleger is general manager and partner in Wullschleger & Co., 1412 Broadway, New York City. Before he entered the Navy in 1941, he was a geologist with The Texas Co., Fort Worth, Tex.

THE first breath of Spring drifted across the Campus the other day, and outside my office door a couple students began to reminisce about the Spring Beer Parties of other years and to anticipate Spring Beer Parties to come. I grabbed the phone and ordered down a flock of Cornell Beer Steins from our warehouse, for we have to be prepared, when Spring is just around the corner!

The Cornell Beer Stein has been a tradition as long as the Cornell Co-op, and there have been all kinds of styles, shapes, and sizes. We have a stein which combines ample capacity, attractive design, heavy pottery to stand the bumps, and it is inexpensive too. We don't want to confine it to the Campus; Cornellians everywhere can improve the flavor and zest of their favorite beer by using a Cornell Stein for just $1.25, postpaid.

And we don't want to slight those Cornellians who prefer highballs or lemonade: we have Cornell Glasses for them. Six-ounce (just right for old-fashioned) and nine-ounce (for highballs) at $3.50 dozen. Twelve-ounce and fourteen-ounce (for long, tall drinks) at $4.50. Postpaid, of course.

The Co-op owns no brewery or distillery stock; we're just selling Cornell Steins and Cornell Glasses.

THE CORNELL CO-OP.
BARNES HALL ITHACA, N. Y.

CORNELL MEN'S GLEE CLUB

Makes Merry Music

at

ROCHESTER

April 8

Stone Hall

UTICA

April 9

Proctor High School

ALBANY

April 10

Chancellor's Hall

GARDEN CITY

April 11

Adelphi College Gym.

In Presenting

'47 In A-Chord

Alumni . . . Make Reservations Early

ROCHESTER—Mr. George S. Babcock '16, . . . 3 Inwood Drive, Rochester, N.Y.

UTICA—Mr. George S. Smith '38, 127 Lafayette St., Utica, N.Y.

ALBANY—Mr. John N. Schilling, Jr. '40, 111 State St., Albany, N.Y.

GARDEN CITY—Mr. Mead W. Stone '14, 152 Kilburn Road, Garden City, L.I., N.Y.

Students, Too!

Students may obtain tickets for any of the above cities, by contacting the city chairman.

Wullschleger's duty in the Navy included two years in the Aleutians and one year aboard an aircraft tender with the 5th Fleet. He was released as a lieutenant.

'41 BS—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lamborn (Lucille Haupin) have a daughter, Karen Ann Lamborn, born February 10. They live at 52 Willard Avenue, Bloomfield, N. J. Lamborn is assistant production manager for Metals Disintegrating Co. in Verona, N. J.

'41 BS—Laurine E. Raiber, health education field worker with the Buffalo & Erie County Tuberculosis Association, 708 Ellicott Street, Buffalo, is assisting the director of the Association's mobile unit X-ray service in Buffalo and Erie County. At present she is working on the project of organizing the city of Lackawanna for a complete adult population X-ray survey.

'41 BS—Nathan W. Bass of 441 East 222d Street, Cleveland, Ohio, is sales manager of the Brush Beryllium Co. He was formerly with the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., as chief of the beryllium section.

'42 BS—Mrs. Harold Berg (Geraldine Backus) lives at 21 Euclid Avenue, Hamburg. She writes: "Ann Dye Harvey '44 lives here in Hamburg, and I see her quite often. Gene Hanson '43 and Phyllis Lamb Hanson '44 live nearby, and we get together quite frequently."

'42 BCE—Joseph L. Boyer, formerly engineer with Lockwood, Kessler & Bartlett, Inc., Brooklyn, has joined the sales engineering department of Timber Structures, Inc., 535 Fifth Avenue, New York City. He and Mrs. Boyer live at 8815 Fourteenth Avenue, Brooklyn 28.

'42, '43 AB—In a letter received March 12, Mrs. Michael G. Frisch (Elizabeth Dallenbach) wrote: "I arrived in Tokyo to join my husband just a month ago, departing from Seattle on the USAHS Comfort. Eighteen days of some mighty rough sea ensued between there and Yokohama, but I've fully recovered and am touring the city by jeep, attending Jap parties, and trying to learn the language. Literally ran into Betsy Small '43 in the doorway of the Tokyo PX. She is in the Red Cross and has been in Japan for fourteen months, I believe she said. We plan a reunion in the new apartment we will move into March 10. Our temporary quarters have been in General Charles Ferrin's home." [General Ferrin was a major in charge of the Field Artillery unit at the University from 1932-35.] Mrs. Frisch is the daughter of Professor Karl M. Dallenbach, PhD '13, Psychology. Her address is Care Major M. G. Frisch, Provost Marshall Office, CID, Tokyo, APO 181, Care Postmaster, San Francisco, Cal.

'42—Mrs. John K. Gossland (Ruth Dynes) of 8 Jones Street, New York City, has a son, Alex Dynes Gossland, born December 3.

'42 AB—George G. Inglehart, Jr., son of George G. Inglehart '15 of 321 Ten Eyck Street, Watertown, holds the Distinguished Flying Cross, a Gold Star in lieu of a second DFC, the Air Medal, and two gold stars in lieu of second and third Air Medals. Inglehart received the DFC awards when a first lieutenant in the USMCR, for "extraordinary achievement while participating in aerial flight as a fighter pilot and division leader while attached to a Marine Fighting Squadron in combat against enemy Japanese forces in the Solomon Islands-Bismarck Archipelago areas during the period of 18 June, 1944, to 28 December, 1944; and in the Philippine Islands area from 2 January, 1945, to 9 February, 1945." July 17, 1944, on an extremely hazardous assignment, he scored a damaging hit on an important enemy installation south of Rabaul Town, New Britain. August 12, 1944, with "skillful handling and superior airmanship," he brought

Some words fool you:

PALM
means

PALM
means

but BALLANTINE Ale & Beer always means: "The Perfect Glass!"

When the "treat's on you" . . . do yourself proud. Make it Ballantine all 'round. Look for the 3 rings that stand for PURITY, BODY and FLAVOR. America's finest since 1840.

P. Ballantine & Sons, Newark, N. J.

Pres., Carl W. Badenhausen, Cornell '16

Vice Pres., Otto A. Badenhausen, Cornell '17

safely to base his badly damaged plane which had been hit over New Britain. He scored a direct hit on an enemy bivouac at New Britain, October 17, 1944, and another on a large enemy-occupied building on Cebu, P. I., February 7, 1945. His flying record consists of seventy-six combat missions totalling 214 combat flying hours.

'42; '43—William H. Kleppinger and the former Jeanne Moorman '43 of 124 South Sixteenth Street, Richmond, Ind., have a second son, Arthur Moorman Kleppinger, born December 10.

'42 BS, '45 DVM—Dr. Lisbeth M. Kraft is doing medical research at the Division of Laboratories and Research, New York State Department of Health, New Scotland Avenue, Albany 1.

'42 AB—Robert F. MacFarland married Margaret E. Ott, March 1 in New York City. Their address is 1103 Parkway East, Utica.

'42, '43 BChemE—John R. Powers is a chemical engineer with Du Pont in Wilmington, Del. He and Mrs. Powers and daughter live at 607 Melrose Avenue, Wilmington, Del.

'42 AB—Albert L. Samis of 18 West 192d Street, New York City, has been with the professional service

CAMP OTTER

A Summer Camp for Boys 7 to 17
37TH SEASON

Leadership in a boys' camp is of extreme importance. Camp Otter is very fortunate this season in having several pre-war counselors return after their experiences in the services of the Armed Forces. The rest of the staff has been very carefully selected and is now complete; it includes several specialists in handicraft, nature study, woodcraft, canoe tripping, swimming, etc., and each will have six or seven boys under his supervision, in permanent cabins.

This season, the new Senior Division, for boys of fifteen and older, will branch out with more canoe trips, more trail building, and other vigorous woodcraft programs under excellent supervision.

Write for Booklet or colored movies.

Resident Physician.

HOWARD B. ORTNER '19, Director

132 Louvaine Drive
KENMORE 17, N. Y.

Cornell University SUMMER SESSION

July 1—August 9, 1947

Instruction by members of these faculties:

Graduate School
College of Arts and Sciences
College of Engineering
College of Agriculture
College of Home Economics
School of Education
School of Industrial and Labor Relations
Department of
Hotel Administration

•
For Upperclassmen, Teachers, and Graduate Students

•
Write for Announcement

RKO PATHE, INC.

625 Madison Ave. 333 N. Michigan Ave.
New York 22, N. Y. Chicago, Ill.

STUDIOS:

New York City Hollywood, Calif.

Producers of Motion Pictures for

Business—Industry—Institutions

Training	Merchandising
Labor Relations	Education
Fund Raising	Public Relations

"The Rooster Crows," our booklet on contract pictures will be sent at your request.

PHILLIPS B. NICHOLS '23
Sales Manager

Today and Yesterday

A Radio Program
featuring

RYM BERRY, as the Squire of Stoneposts Farm

LEE HAMRICK, with news of the rural Northeast

Heard Every Sunday Morning

8:00—WHN, New York

8:15—WGY, Schenectady

9:15—WHCU, Ithaca; WSYR, Syracuse; WWNY, Watertown; WMSA, Massena; WGR, Buffalo; WIBX, Utica; WGBI, Scranton; WCAX, Burlington; WATN, Watertown.

9:30—WHAM, Rochester

Sponsored by

Dairymen's League Cooperative Assoc.

OUR CORNELL

Now reissued in new format

$1 a copy, postpaid, from

Cornell Alumni Association
3 EAST AVE. ITHACA, N. Y.

division of International Vitamin Corp. since leaving the Army more than a year ago.

'42 BS; '42 BS—Wendell H. Wilson is dispatcher in charge of Robinson Airlines flight control system at the Ithaca Municipal Airport. A former Army Air Forces weather officer and a graduate of the Army course in meteorology at New York University, Wilson was in flight control work for a while with Colonial Airlines in New York City before joining the Robinson staff several months ago. He is a grandson of the late Professor Wilford M. Wilson, Meteorology, Emeritus. Mrs. Wilson is the former Phyllis Sainburg '42.

'43 LLB—Tozier Brown has accepted a position with the US Bureau of Reclamation, with headquarters in Denver, Colo. This year he has been teaching business law (contracts) at the University of Denver.

'43; '42 AB—A daughter, Virginia Marie Tradup, was born to Robert H. Tradup and the former Jean Garrett '42, January 14 in Syracuse, where they live at 101 Pond Lane. Tradup is a commercial photographer, and attends evening classes of the college of business at Syracuse University.

'43 BS—Gordon E. Jones married Thelma Popp, Buffalo State Teachers College '44, and sister of Alice Popp '42, December 27. Jones is in charge of the flower seed department and small vegetable and flower plant breeding at Robson Seed Co., Hall. He was separated from the Army as a captain (Reserve) in March, 1946. Address: 48 North Main Street, Geneva.

'43 BS—Melvin I. Kolker wrote ★ February 16: "I am just winding up my job as special agent, Counter Intelligence Corps, here in Germany and hope to be back in civilian life at the end of the month." His address is 1444 Gipson Street, Far Rockaway.

'43 BS—Robert D. Ladd, son of the late Dean Carl E. Ladd '12, Agriculture, was released from the Army in February, 1946, spent a term at the University, and then entered the graduate school of business administration at Harvard in June. "With me here in the school are W. Jordan Severinghaus '40, Fred Schulte '43, and Strabo Claggett '43," he writes. "I see Stan Levy '43, Dexter Kohn '43, and Bill Fisher '40, who are in the law school here. Also bumped into Spencer Kimball '44, an Alpha Phi sorority sister of Mrs. Ladd's (Carol Bowman '43). Almost forgot Bruce Cormack '39, a former Jap prisoner, who is in my section in school also. He certainly has an interesting story of the death march on Bataan. Heard from George Longbothum '43 that he is about to be married to an Army nurse. He is a first lieutenant stationed in Puerto Rico. Talked with Alumni Trustee George H. Rockwell '13 at the business school yesterday. We reminisced about the famous Quill & Dagger breakfasts we used to have and other Cornell memories." Ladd's address is 99 Irving Street, Cambridge, Mass.

'43 BS—Robert J. Lehde, student in the department of regional planning at Harvard University, expects to receive the Master's in city planning in June. Then he hopes to go to England to work in the field of planning there for a year or so. His address is 36 Shepard Street, Cambridge 38, Mass.

'43 AB; '43 AB—Mrs. John K. Singlaub (Mary Osborne), daughter of John L. Osborne '13, has joined her husband who is now in the regular Army and stationed at Mukden, Manchuria, China. They have a home in the Socony compound there. Recently Mrs. Singlaub wrote: "I arrived in Shanghai January 3 and here soon afterwards. One week after I left San Francisco for Shanghai, Marion E. Keller '43 left New York for London, England, where her family is now living." Both Mrs. Singlaub and Miss Keller were lieutenants (jg) in the WAVES. Mrs. Singlaub may be addressed Care Major K. Singlaub, 0-38040, PO Box 10, Navy #3930, Care FPO, San Francisco, Cal.

'43 BArch—Lloyd S. Papez, son of Professor James W. Papez, Anatomy, is junior set designer in the art department of 20th Century Fox Studios in Hollywood, Cal. His address is 1135 South Catalina Street, Los Angeles, Cal.

'43 BS—Leon Schwarzbaum has resigned as landscape designer with the Veterans' Administration to join the office of Jo Ray, landscape architect and site planner, 101 Park Avenue, New York City. As a candidate for the Master of Public Administration, he is taking evening courses in city planning and housing at New York University. He lives at 2340 Valentine Avenue, New York City 57.

'43 AB; '44, '45 AB—Barbara Wahl is studying for the AM at Columbia University. She is engaged to William B. Kaufman '44, who is attending Columbia law school. During the war, Kaufman served with the Office of Strategic Services in China. Miss Wahl's address is 2702 Avenue P, Brooklyn.

'43 BS—Alwin J. Ward married Sophia B. Wagner, December 30 in Alexandria, Minn. Lynette A. Ward '44, the groom's sister, who is a laboratory assistant at the Geneva Experiment Station, flew out there to be a bridesmaid. Ward, who served with the Army Air Forces during the war, has been transferred to Springfield, Ill., from the grain merchandising department of Pillsbury Mills, Inc., in Clinton, Iowa. He and Mrs. Ward live at 905½ A-South Sixth Street, Springfield, Ill.

'44 BS—Paul T. Bailey of 1868 North Cove Boulevard, Toledo 6, Ohio, is superintendent of the Henry W. Bruning Construction Co.

'44 AB—Mrs. Fred Hadland (Jane H. Bliven) of 2107 Malcolm Avenue, Los Angeles 25, Cal., has a daughter, Phyllis Leslie Hadland, born February 18.

'44, '47 BS; '15 BS; '15 AB—Robert P. Bryant, who served about forty months in the Army, returned to the University in October and received the BS in February. In November he was elected to Ye Hosts. Bryant is the son of Thomas V. Bryant '15, assistant manager of the New York district building products division of Johns-Manville Sales Corp., 22 East Fortieth Street, New York City, and the former Rosanna M. McRoberts '15.

'44, '45 BS in N—Muriel H. Clark was married January 4 in Sage Chapel to Russell D. Fereday of Pocatello, Idaho, '42 graduate of the University of Washington, and a lead test engineer at Pratt & Whitney Aircraft Division of United Aircraft in Hartford, Conn. Mrs. Mary Pearson Brandis '43 was a bridesmaid, and her husband, Fay W. Brandis '43, was an usher. Mrs. Fereday was a staff nurse at New York Hospital, New York City, from November, 1945, to May, 1946, and at Tompkins County Memorial Hospital from June until December, 1946. The Feredays live at 49 Pleasant Street, Windsor, Conn.

'44 BChemE; '43 AB—Fay McClelland and Mrs. McClelland (Phyllis Dittman) '43, "settled at last" in their new home at 71 Prospect Street, Nutley 10, N. J., have a son, Duane Keith McClelland, born January 18. Their first child, Phyllis Lucile, is two and a half years old. McClelland is a research engineer in the plastics division of E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co., Arlington, N. J.

'45, '44 BS—A son, Guy Webster Towle, was born September 9 to Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Towle (Virginia Dahm) of 533 Gonzalez Drive, San Francisco 12, Cal.

'45 AB; '44—Doris E. Klein and Sidney Lechhook '44 were married January 19. A student in Mechanical Engineering before serving with the Army Engineers in Berlin, Germany, Lechhook is now an engineer for the Onondaga Pottery Co. in Syracuse. The Lechhooks live at 823 Tallman Street, Syracuse 4.

START YOUR DAY THE SPORTSMAN WAY

Sportsman

GROOMING ESSENTIALS

DISTINCTLY MASCULINE • DECIDEDLY CORRECT

Gift Packages, $2 to $10. At Better Stores • JOHN HUDSON MOORE, INC., 663 FIFTH AVE., N. Y. 22

Cascadilla School

ESTABLISHED 1870

A Regents'

Preparatory School
for Rapid Yet Thorough
Preparation for College

For Information about
Entrance and Credits

Inquire

MAXWELL KENDALL, MS '36
Headmaster

116 SUMMIT AVENUE
ITHACA, N. Y.

Here is Your
TIMETABLE
TO AND FROM ITHACA

Light Type, a.m. Dark Type, p.m.

Lv. New York	Lv. Newark	Lv. Phila.	Ar. ITHACA
10:55	11:10	11:05	6:24
7:05	7:21	7:15	2:50
[†] 10:25	[†] 10:40	[†] 10:12	[°] 6:19
[°] 11:50	[‡] 12:05	[*] 11:00	[°] 7:22

Lv. Ithaca	Ar. Buffalo	Lv. Buffalo	Ar. Ithaca
2:55	5:43	10:10	1:01
6:25	9:35	8:30	2:50
7:26	10:15	10:40	1:26
6:30	9:25

Lv. ITHACA	Ar. Phila.	Ar. Newark	Ar. New York
1:07	8:30	8:34	8:50
^y 11:51	7:45	7:54	8:10
1:31	9:20	8:49	9:05

[†]Sunday only ^{*}Daily except Sunday
[‡]Monday only [#]Daily except Monday
[°]New York-Ithaca sleeping car open for occupancy at New York 10:30 p.m. May be occupied at Ithaca until 8:00 a.m.
^yIthaca-New York sleeping car open for occupancy at 9:00 p.m.

Coaches, Parlor Cars, Sleeping Cars, Cafe-Lounge Car and Dining Car Service

Lehigh Valley
Railroad

CORNELL HOSTS

A Guide to Comfortable Hotels and Restaurants
Where Cornellians and Their Friends Will Find a Hearty Cornell Welcome

NEW YORK CITY

HOTEL LATHAM

28TH ST. at 5TH AVE. - NEW YORK CITY
400 Rooms - Fireproof

SPECIAL ATTENTION FOR CORNELLIANS

J. Wilson '19, Owner

- THE BIG RED
- IS WELL FED
- AT WORLD FAMOUS
- LEON & EDDIE'S
- NEW YORK & PALM BEACH
- LEON ENKEN, JR. '40

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Cleves Cafeteria

1715 G Street, Northwest Washington, D. C.

CARMEN M. JOHNSON '22 - Manager

ROGER SMITH HOTEL

WASHINGTON, D. C.

PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE AT 18 STREET, N.W.

Located in the Heart of Government Activity Preferred by Cornell men

A. B. MERRICK '30 . . . MANAGER

CORNELL HEADQUARTERS
IN WASHINGTON

THE SHERATON HOTEL

15 and L STREETS, N. W.

Completely Air Conditioned

THOMAS C. DEVEAU '27, Gen. Mgr.

Cornellians Prefer

to patronize these
CORNELL HOSTS

For special advertising rates in this directory, write
CORNELL ALUMNI NEWS
3 East Ave., Ithaca

Stouffer's

WELCOME YOU IN THESE CITIES

Cleveland	New York	Pittsburgh
Detroit		Chicago
Minneapolis		Philadelphia

NEW ENGLAND

Stop at the . . .

HOTEL ELTON

WATERBURY, CONN.

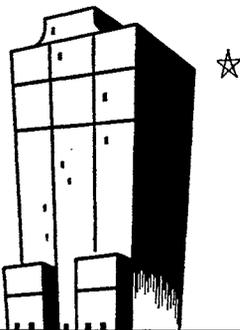

"A New England Landmark"

Bud Jennings '25, Proprietor

FLORIDA

★
RENOWNED FOR SERVICE
GOOD FOOD
HOSPITALITY

SPACIOUS ROOMS
MODERN SHOPS
NAME BANDS IN ITS FAMOUS PALM ROOM

HOTEL TAMPA TERRACE

TAMPA, FLORIDA

Frank J. Irving . . . General Manager

Frank J. Irving, '35 ● Art Taft, '26

Visit the West Coast of Sunny Florida this Winter

PENNSYLVANIA

Recommend your friends to

The St. James Hotel

13th and Walnut Sts.

IN THE HEART OF PHILADELPHIA

*Air-conditioned Grill and Bar
Air-conditioned Bedrooms*

WILLIAM H. HARNED '35, Mgr.

POCONO MANOR INN

POCONO MANOR, PENNA.

155 miles south of Ithaca directly enroute to Philadelphia or New York (100 miles)

Superb Food—Excellent accommodations—
All sporting facilities

Bob Trier, Jr. '32, General Manager

CENTRAL STATES

TOPS IN TOLEDO HOTEL HILLCREST

EDWARD D. RAMAGE '31
GENERAL MANAGER

CORNELL HEADQUARTERS IN DETROIT

Wardell Sheraton Hotel

15 KIRBY EAST

Single from $3.50 Double from $5.00

ROBERT B. STOCKING '27
General Manager

Cornellians Prefer

to patronize these
CORNELL HOSTS

For special advertising rates in this directory, write
CORNELL ALUMNI NEWS
3 East Ave., Ithaca

Necrology

'93 PhB—Mrs. Anna Conant Bronson Root of Slaterville Springs, widow of Dr. William W. Root '90, February 15, 1947. Before her marriage in 1895 she was acting professor of romance languages at the women's college of Brown University. After Dr. Root's death in 1932, she became assistant secretary-treasurer of the national medical honor society, Alpha Omega Alpha, which he founded. Brothers, the late Walter C. Bronson, AM '90, and the late Frank M. Bronson, Grad '91-'92, instructor in Greek and Latin, 1888-92, and University Organist. Son, Dr. Manley B. Root '18 Daughter, Mrs. John L. Lounsbury (Anna Root) '29. Granddaughters, Hazel R. Brill '46 and Georgia A. Westervelt '48. Delta Gamma.

'96 LLB—Thomas Henry Lee of 19 Jackson Street, Holley, January 21, 1947.

'96 ME(EE)—Carlos Whitney Van Law, mining engineer with Vanadium Corp. of America, New York City, and vice-president of its subsidiary, Rhodesian Vanadium Corp., February 26, 1947, at his home, 1 Mulberry Road, New Rochelle. For many years he worked in Mexico, Central America, and South America, and after joining Vanadium Corp. in 1942, he made a survey of their chrome mines in Southern Rhodesia. Brother, the late Durbin Van Law '13. Son, Jesse M. Van Law '27.

'99 AB—Henry Hubbard Foster, dean emeritus of the University of Nebraska law college, February 22, 1947, at his home, 1821 Pershing Road, Lincoln, Neb. After practicing law in Peoria, Ill., for several years, he became professor of law at the University of Oklahoma in 1910. Ten years later, he became professor of law at the University of Nebraska. He was made dean in 1926 and dean emeritus in 1945.

'01—Edward Clarence Vincent of Angling Road, RR 7, Kalamazoo 87, Mich., March 18, 1946. Son, Dr. Edward H. Vincent '37.

'03—Edward Everett Walker, president of The Walker Corp., Erie, Pa., and former president of the Cornell Club of Northwest Pennsylvania, February 19, 1947. He was president and later chairman of the board of the Erie Malleable Iron Co. and president of Castings Corp., Buffalo. Son, B. J. Walker '42. Phi Delta Theta.

'06 ME—Edward Fussell Entwisle, general manager of the Bethlehem Steel Co. Lackawanna Works in Buffalo, March 8, 1947. He was a former director of the Associated Industries of New York State and the Buffalo Chamber of Commerce. Chi Phi.

'06 ME—Edward Hall Faile of RFD 1, Westport, Conn., retired construction engineer, February 21, 1947, at his winter home on Jupiter Island, Hobe Sound, Fla. For many years he practiced in New York City as head of the firm of E. H. Faile & Co. and later as E. H. Faile, engineer. He designed or supervised the construction of many important buildings in New York City; was a director of Allied Products, Inc., and of many other firms. Son, David H. Faile '43. Delta Tau Delta.

'08 ME—Charles Barnett Goodspeed, retired president of the Buckeye Steel

Great Western

AMERICAN CHAMPAGNE

PARIS 1867

VIENNA 1873

PARIS 1889

BRUXELLES 1897

PARIS 1900

BRUXELLES 1910

ONE OF THE WORLD'S
GREAT CHAMPAGNES

PLEASANT VALLEY WINE CO.
RHEIMS, NEW YORK

WINES SINCE 1860

BARR & LANE, INC.

BUILDERS

New York

Ithaca

Boston

Eastman, Dillon & Co.

MEMBERS NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

Investment Securities

DONALD C. BLANKE '20

Representative

15 BROAD STREET NEW YORK 5, N. Y.

Branch Offices

Philadelphia Los Angeles Chicago
Reading Easton Paterson Hartford

SERVING

NEW YORK STATE

ALBANY
SCHENECTADY
BINGHAMTON
ENDICOTT
JOHNSON CITY
ITHACA
BUFFALO
NEW YORK

CENTRAL NEW YORK'S
PIONEER AIRLINE

Air Chiefs have flown more than 2,000,000 passenger miles, serving the heart of New York State. New, airline-equipped transports on all flights, manned by Captain and Co-pilot.

ROUTE OF
THE AIR CHIEFS NEW YORK

ROBINSON AIRLINES

SENECA BUILDING, ITHACA, N. Y.
ALBANY Albany 2-9397
BINGHAMTON Binghamton { 2-9104
2-7255
BUFFALO Taylor 6700
ENDICOTT Endicott 2313
ITHACA Ithaca 3-1576
JOHNSON CITY Enterprise 9413
NEW YORK Circle 6-4545
SCHENECTADY . Enterprise 9705

Cornell Club of New York

107 East

Forty-eighth Street

New York, N. Y.

Hemphill, Noyes & Co.

Members New York Stock Exchange

15 Broad Street

New York

INVESTMENT SECURITIES

Jansen Noyes '10 Stanton Griffis '10

L. M. Blancke '15 Willard I. Emerson '19

Jansen Noyes, Jr. '39 Nixon Griffis '40

BRANCH OFFICES

Albany, Chicago, Indianapolis, Philadelphia,
Pittsburgh, Trenton, Washington

PROFESSIONAL DIRECTORY

OF CORNELL ALUMNI

NEW YORK AND VICINITY

CELLUPLASTIC CORPORATION

Injection & Extrusion
Molders

Plastic Containers

50 AVENUE L, NEWARK 5, N. J.

Herman B. Lerner '17, President

William L. Crow Construction Co.
Established 1840

101 Park Avenue New York
JOHN W. ROSS '19, Vice President

The General Cellulose Co., Inc.

Converters and Distributors of Cellulose
Wadding and Absorbent Tissue Products

Garwood, New Jersey

D. C. TAGGART '16 - - Pres.-Treas.

STANTON CO.—REALTORS

GEORGE H. STANTON '20

Real Estate and Insurance

MONTCLAIR and VICINITY

Church St., Montclair, N. J., Tel: 2-6000

The Tuller Construction Co.

J. D. TULLER, '09, President

BUILDINGS, BRIDGES,

DOCKS & FOUNDATIONS

WATER AND SEWAGE WORKS

A. J. Dillenbeck '11 C. P. Beyland '31

C. E. Wallace '27

95 MONMOUTH ST., RED BANK, N. J.

KENOSHA, WIS.

MACWHYTE COMPANY

Manufacturer of Wire and Wire Rope, Braided Wire,
Rope Sling, Aircraft Tie Rods, Strand and Cord

Literature furnished on request

JESSEL S. WHYTE, M.E. '13 PRES. & GEN. MGR.

R. B. WHYTE, M.E. '13

Vice President in Charge of Operations

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

PHILIP A. DERHAM & ASSOCIATES
ROSEMONT, PA.
PLASTICS
DESIGN MODELS ENGINEERING DEVELOPMENT
PHILIP A. DERHAM '19

Power Plant Equipment
Machine Tools
New—Guaranteed Rebuilt
Write for Catalog 544

Everything from a Pulley to a Powerhouse

THE O'BRIEN MACHINERY CO.
PHILADELPHIA'S LARGEST MACHINERY DEALERS AND EXPORTERS

113 N. 3rd ST., PHILADELPHIA 6, PA.

Frank L. O'Brien, Jr., M. E., '31

BALTIMORE, MD.

WHITMAN, REQUARDT & ASSOCIATES Engineers

Ezra B. Whitman '01
Richard F. Graef '25
Stewart F. Robertson
Roy H. Ritter '30

Gustav J. Requardt '09
Norman D. Kenney '25
A. Russell Vollmer '27
Theodore W. Hacker '17

1304 St. Paul St., Baltimore 2, Md.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

THEODORE K. BRYANT

LL.B. '97—LL.M. '98

Master Patent Law, G. W. U. '08

Patents and Trade Marks Exclusively

Suite 602-3-4 McKim Bldg.

No. 1311 G Street, N.W.

Your Card

IN THIS DIRECTORY

will be regularly read by

7,000 CORNELLIANs

Write for Special Rate

Castings Co., Chicago, Ill., and treasurer of the Republican National Committee in 1936 and 1940, February 23, 1947, in Castle Hot Springs, Ariz. He lived at 2430 Lake View Avenue, Chicago, Ill. He was a trustee of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra Association and of the Art Institute of Chicago, and president of the board of managers of Presbyterian Hospital. Alpha Delta Phi.

'08—Mrs. Emma Massey Lewis Switzer, widow of John A. Switzer '96, who was for many years professor of hydraulic and sanitary engineering at the University of Tennessee, at her home in Osborn, Ohio. Her funeral was February 24, 1947.

'09 ME—Harold Folsom Howarth, technician at the University auxiliary Diesel engine laboratory during the war, February 21, 1947, at his home in Wichendon, Mass. He was formerly with Westinghouse Electric Co. and Western Electric Co. In 1935, he was sanitary adviser for Tompkins County.

'10, '11 CE—Frederic Vieweg, who resigned in February as president of American Potash & Chemical Corp., March 3, 1947, in Los Angeles, Cal. He joined the firm, then known as the American Trona Corp., in 1919, was made a director and vice-president in charge of sales in New York City in 1930, later went to Los Angeles to take charge of the company's western operations, and was elected president in November, 1945. His address was 609 South Grand Avenue, Los Angeles 14, Cal. Son, Frederic Vieweg, Jr. '38.

'13 ME—George Plummer McNear, Jr., president of the Toledo, Peoria & Western Railroad, which has been embroiled in a violent strike for the last seventeen months, assassinated, March 10, 1947, in an ambush shooting near his home in Peoria, Ill. The present strike dates back to December, 1941. It was interrupted in March, 1942, when the Government seized the railroad after McNear failed to get an arbitration of the dispute, and was renewed in October, 1945, when the road was returned to McNear's management. Recently, McNear had testified before the House Labor Committee in support of strong restrictions on labor. McNear purchased the Toledo, Peoria & Western Railroad in 1926 for $1,300,000 at a bankruptcy sale, having spotted it while an investigator of investments for the Guaranty Trust Co., New York City, and shortly had it making money. Alpha Delta Phi.

'16 CE—Reinaldo Ramirez, chief engineer of the American Railroad Co., San Juan, Puerto Rico, January 19, 1947. Mrs. Ramirez lives at 1508 Maribel Street, Ferraza del Parque, Santurce, Puerto Rico. Brother, David S. Ramirez '22. Son, Rene O. Ramirez '44.

'17—Harry Alfred Carnal, in Ogdensburg, February 15, 1946. His address was 617 Knox Street, Ogdensburg.

'18—Walter Browning McGrew, who was with the A. H. McGrew Lumber Co., 6358 Dorchester Avenue, Chicago, Ill., April 16, 1946.

'30 BS—Madelyn Louise Davis of 1637 Turner Street, Allentown, Pa., April 12, 1946. Delta Zeta.

'42—Louis Lester Baldwin, former ★ student in Engineering, killed in October, 1944, in a plane crash near Sidney, Nova Scotia, while in service in the US Naval Reserve. His home was at 33 Laurel Avenue, Binghamton.

Do you believe in THRIFT?

"I'm a regular Scotsman for thrift. I never throw away anything I can use again.

"Every year I salvage millions and millions of pounds of metal from what you might call junk.

"I collect all the old telephone equipment, wire and cable no longer useful to the Bell System . . . and all the machine scrap, turnings and rejected parts from the factories where I make Bell Telephone equipment.

"I turn this scrap metal into bars and billets of refined metals and alloys out of which I make new telephone equipment. I salvage rubber, textiles and paper, too . . . and anything I can't use again, I sell. Nothing is wasted.

"My thriftiness, as supply unit of the Bell System, is one reason why you get telephone service . . . the world's best . . . at the lowest possible cost.

"Remember my name. It's Western Electric."

MANUFACTURER... PURCHASER... DISTRIBUTOR... INSTALLER...

of 43,000 varieties
of telephone
apparatus.

of supplies of all kinds for telephone companies.

of telephone
apparatus and supplies.

of telephone
central office equipment.

Western Electric

A UNIT OF THE BELL

SYSTEM SINCE 1882

Rogers Peet Company

MAKERS OF FINE CLOTHES for Young Men and Men Who Never Grow Old

The wily trout not only eludes, but offers the keenest contention, even when on the hook. In making the cast, in playing and netting the fish, the sportsman knows that his skill must approach perfection . . . At Rogers

Peet the same basic idea—the approach to perfection—is always uppermost in the mind of our Master Designer—perfection in fabric, style, tailoring and fit—perfection in clothes for young men, and men who never grow old.

FIFTH AVENUE at 41st STREET, NEW YORK 17, N. Y.
THIRTEENTH ST. at BROADWAY, NEW YORK 3, N. Y.
WARREN STREET at BROADWAY, NEW YORK 7, N. Y.
TREMONT ST. at BROMFIELD ST., BOSTON 8, MASS.

The right thing in everything men and boys wear