

FAQs

What are you doing?

Participating in a citizen science event, called a Tick Blitz, hosted by Cornell University and NYS Integrated Pest Management.

Why are you doing that?

We are looking for two new ticks to see if they are living in our county. The two ticks are the lone star tick and the Asian longhorned tick.

How can I learn more?

You can learn more about the project and see what we collect at this website:

<https://www.neregionalvectorcenter.com/new-york-state-tick-blitz>

