Confidentiality, Privacy, and the Ethics of Social Data

John M. Abowd
January 2007
Outline

• Overview of human rights and social science
• Brief history of human subjects abuses and confidentiality breaches
• Statutory protections and authorizations
• Informed consent
• Institutional review boards
Privacy and Public Policy

- The right to privacy
- The public demand for information
- Balancing these concerns
Unethical Medical and Social Research

• Unethical medical and social research
• The Tuskegee Syphilis Study
• Eugenics
Breaches of Confidentiality with Statistical Data

- Illegal uses of statistical data
- The French Census of 1941
- Japanese Internment In WWII
Basic Public Policy

• The Privacy Act
• The Confidential Information and Statistical Efficiency Act
• URLs on course web site
Statutes Affecting Census and Census Research Data Centers

- Title 13 (Census Bureau data)
- Title 26 (Internal Revenue Service data)
- Titles 44 (CIPSEA)
Mandatory v. Voluntary Censuses and Surveys

- Mandatory: response compelled by law
- Voluntary: respondent may refuse all or items
Informed Consent

• What will be asked/collected?
• Current uses
• Potential future uses
Institutional Review Boards

• Human subjects
• Ethical treatment of subjects
• Protection of confidentiality
• Secondary data analysis