KENNETH D. OWEN '26

Ken has maintained an avid interest in Cornell, and Cornell track in particular, ever since his undergraduate days as a hurdler and high jumper under the legendary Jack Moakley. He was a member of Phi Kappa Psi and earned his A.B. degree in geology in 1926.

A native of New Harmony, Indiana, Ken and his wife, the former Jane Blaffer, have resided in Houston, Texas, for the past few years where he pursues his career as a geologist and oil producer. He is also prolific at raising cattle and horses. As a matter of fact, he is the owner of Noble Victory, a horse which recently gained wide repute around the racing circuit.

Owen has continued his active interest in Cornell not only as a substantial contributor to the Moakley Fund, but also as a member of the Equine Advisory Council of Cornell's College of Veterinary Medicine as a representative on the University Council. He served as leadership gifts chairman in the Houston area until recently.

Hats off to a fine Cornellian in every sense of the word!

The Cornell indoor season is best described as one with limited success and ample frustration. On the plus side were the squad's 2-1 dual meet record, sophomore Steve Putscher's (Newark, Del.) pole vault record, Jacob Dennis' (Brooklyn, N.Y.) Coxe Cage record in the 440, and perhaps most important, a strong team spirit which was often put to the test during moments of discouragement. Chief among the "blue" periods was the team's dismal finish in the indoor Heps, though a dual meet loss to Army and a frighteningly narrow victory over Yale were other sources of frustration.

The first few weeks of the competitive season were spent on the traditional non-scoring meets: Cornell Relays, Syracuse Relays, Syracuse Invitational, and Cornell Invitational. The highlight from that group of meets was Putscher's initial breaking of the varsity vault record. In the Syracuse Relays the sophomore cleared 14-6 3/4, bettering Gordon Stoffer's 1966 record by 1/8 inch. Also in that meet, Dennis turned a few heads with a sizzling 400 time of 49.1 -- remarkable for that early in the season...The University of Tennessee brought a handful of athletes to the Cornell Invitational, adding national caliber skill to practically every event it entered. Several Cornellians benefitted from the first class competition. Al Buckley (Washington, D.C.) was pushed to a personal best in the 400 (48.85). Tennessee's 1600-meter relay, which won the 1980 NCAA title, pulled the Red to a promising 3:18.41 -- another good early season mark, and only one second behind the All-Americans...In the middle of those non-scoring affairs, Cornell trackmen and women competed in the Eastman Invitational at East Tennessee U. and the Dartmouth TFA/USA Relays. The men in the northeast had the greater success, as Dennis won his section of the 400, with Buckley in second place and freshman Fritz Gaspard (Jamaica, N.Y.) in fourth. The same three joined Jim Kinnier (Concord, N.H.) to take third place in their section of the mile relay (3:20.79). The meet marked Kinnier's return after a bout with a viral infection.

Cornell's first scoring meet turned out to be its worst dual of the entire year. West Point was the site of the Red's 100-36 loss to powerful Army. Sophomore Bob Diaz (New York, N.Y.) was about the only real standout of the day for the Ithacans -- he won the 800 in 1:55.03 and anchored the 3200-meter relay to victory in the final event of the day...Rather than shutting down operations for the rest of the season, however, the team united under a common cause -- refusing to be the first Warner-coached team to lose a dual track contest to Syracuse. The Orangemen looked to be formidable adversaries, but the Red forces had been stung into top form by the disaster at West Point. Using the Barton home advantage, Cornell won 12 of 17 events, including sweeps of the high hurdles, high jump and 1500. Leading those sweeps, respectively, were Mark Thompson (Woodstock, N.Y.), Bob Jones (East Brunswick, N.J.) and Colin McClive (Williamsville, N.Y.). Junior Dave Smith (Freehold, N.J.) was a double winner in the weight throw and shot put, while classmate Dave Bailey (Margate, N.J.) won the 500 meters in only his second meet of the year -- he had taken a leave of absence during the fall semester. The final tally was a surprisingly one-sided 99-46 Red triumph.

At Yale the 79-57 Red victory was in doubt until very close to the end. Dennis broke the Coxe Cage 440 record with a 50.1 time, Bailey won the 600-yard run (1:13.2) and then both ran strong legs on the winning mile relay team. Jones doubled, winning the high jump and triple jump. Diaz won the first 1000-yard race of his career (2:15.0) and Lou Montgomery (St. Louis, Mo.) won the 60-yard dash in 6.5...Cornell continued to build momentum toward the Heps by turning in several top efforts at the Cornell Open. Putscher improved his PV record to 14-8 and four men broke the tape in the 500 meters under the 1:06 mark, led again by Bailey (1:05.17). Diaz and co-captain Jim Draddy (Tarrytown, N.Y.) finished the 800 meters in the low 1:54s...In view of the great progress over the three weeks prior to the Heps at Harvard, the team's dismal 5-point, ninth place showing was shocking, to say the least. Bailey got two points in the 500, taking fourth place in 1:04.56. Co-captain Mike Grogan (Canisteo, N.Y.) took fifth in the 1000 meters in a personal best of 2:28.47 and Jones grabbed the final point in the high jump, taking fifth at 6-8.

The Red certainly didn't boast the overall depth it had enjoyed in the past, but the real difference in the final standings was that the team's strengths seemed to match up with the strengths of the other teams. In any event, defending champion Princeton was edged by one point -- Penn scored 51 points to 50 for the Tigers -- with Army third at 49½. It was one of the closest meets in history that only a small crowd of spectators turned out to see...Further discouragement surfaced for the Red at the IO4A championships when 3200-meter relay anchorman Grogan had the baton knocked from his hand down the homestretch disqualifying the team's potential third or fourth place finish. All four of the team's 500-meter qualifiers were unable to advance beyond trial heats. Dennis reached the finals in the 400 but did not place.

OUTDOOR HIGHLIGHTS

The change of seasons brought new life to the beleaguered Redmen. In the opener -- the Atlantic Coast Relays in Raleigh, N.C. (first weekend of the spring trip) -- the squad turned its back on the indoor season. One of the meet's high points was the new world record set in the shuttle hurdle relay by the Philadelphia Pioneers. Cornell's team of Thompson, Kinnier, Jones and Wayne Rose (Waterbury, Conn.) took fifth in that event. Junior Brian Cullinan (Conway, N.H.), who suffered extensive leg injuries in a November car accident, made his comeback debut a memorable one, taking third place in the javelin (216-2). All of the running relay teams entered by Cornell placed in the top five; the foursome of Buckley, Montgomery, Rose and Dennis took third places in the 440-yard relay (41.64) and the 880-yard relay (1:26.80)...Sunshine continued to smile on the men at the Duke Invitational. Jones was the only champion -- he won the high jump at 6-10 -- but the day was PR city for several Cornellians. Grogan ran his best ever in the 1500 (3:52.23) for third place, junior Mike McCann (Endwell, N.Y.) took fifth in the 800 in a best time of 1:53.02, and Dennis turned on his jets in the 400, taking second in his best time ever (excluding relay splits) of 47.99. Buckley and Montgomery had two PRs each in the 100 and 200. Smith took third in the shot put in his year's best toss of 51-4, while Greg Knue (Cincinnati, Ohio) heaved the shot 49-5, his best ever, for fifth place.

Back to the dual meet schedule, the Red sailed past Colgate, 144½-27½, winning all but one event and sweeping six. Smith registered a 52-7 toss in the shot put and Dennis and Montgomery set PRs in the 100 (10.5, 10.6, respectively)...Twice every four years, a combined team from Oxford and Cambridge has clashed with a combined Cornell-Penn team. This year broke somewhat from that traditional confrontation because the Britains came to America earlier than usual. So, April 18 at Schoellkopf Field was the site of a double dual meet: Cornell, Penn and Ox-Bridge were the rivals. The Red's loss to the Quakers, 91 2/3 to 80 1/3, was every bit as close as the score indicates, while Cornell easily handled the English with 12 first places to four first places...The pre-Heps weekend saw Cornell split forces. At the Drake Relays in Des Moines, Iowa, the 3200-meter relay of McCann, Draddy, Grogan and Diaz turned in one of the five fastest times ever by a Cornell foursome, 7:30.0, for ninth place. At the Penn Relays, the 400-meter quartet of Buckley, Montgomery, Rose and Dennis finished with the same time as Penn and Connecticut. The judges picked Penn as the winner when they discovered the photo-finish machine had malfunctioned.
The Big Red entered the Heps in a far healthier position than might have been expected from its indoor Heps showing because of its rapid outdoor progress. The team did in fact improve to a seventh place tie in the meet, which Princeton won on its home track. The Cornell finish would have been another notch higher had it not been for Dennis' untimely leg injury early in the day of the finals. Montgomery was the top scorer for Cornell, taking second in the 100 meters in 10.9. Steve Putscher finally cleared 15 feet in the pole vault; his jump of 15-4 gave him fourth place and a new Cornell outdoor record, wiping out Al Greynolds' 1973 mark of 14-11. McClive took fourth in the 1500 (3:49.4), Bailey took third in the 400 (48.2) and Buckley grabbed fourth in the 200 (22.0). Dennis and McClive were the only two to make the trip to Villanova for the IC4As since several men had conflicts with final exams. Dennis reached the finals of the 400 and wound up eighth overall, while McClive ran a personal best in the 1500 (3:49.31), which was not fast enough to advance him to the finals. Certainly the outdoor season did much to atone for the disappointing indoor season, leaving the men with a feeling of pride and togetherness.

WOMEN'S HIGHLIGHTS

The Cornell women continued to keep pace with their success of the past few years and considering the rapidly increasing caliber of women's athletics across the country, maintaining former success is tantamount to forward progress. Junior Doriane Lambelet (Woodstock, N.Y.) had an especially stellar year, unleashing the great potential that remained hidden through much of the '80 season because of injuries. The middle distance runner gained All-America status -- the first Cornell woman ever to achieve that distinction in track -- and she did it in both seasons. Indoors she placed fourth in the 800 meters at the AIAW championships in Pocatello, Idaho, despite a fall on the first turn of the race. She equalled that feat at the outdoor nationals (held in Austin, Texas), taking fourth in a final time of 2:09.1.

Doriane Lambelet-McClive, formerly Doriane Lambelet, is pictured here anchoring a relay in the Ivy League championships, which were held at Barton Hall last winter. The middle distance runner was Cornell's first track All-American ever, and she won the honor both indoors and outdoors. (Photo by Jon Crispin)
Among other highlights of the year was her 880-yard victory in a top field at the Eastman Invitational, hosted by East Tennessee University in mid-January, and her first place in the 800 and second place in the 1500 at the indoor Easterns. At the outdoor Easterns, Doriane won the half-mile in 2:06.58, a Cornell and Penn State track record, and set another Cornell mark in the 1500 (4:21.65) for second place.

Lambelet was not the only Cornellian to enjoy a fair measure of success both indoors and outdoors. Sophomore Sue Elliott (Utica, N.Y.) was a picture of consistency in the high jump, clearing 5-6 with regularity and hitting 5-7 and 5-8 on a few occasions. At the indoor Ivy championships, which were held at Cornell on the same weekend as the men's Heps at Harvard, Elliott won the high jump and led off the winning 1600-meter relay. Those big points, along with Lambelet's win in the 1500, led the Red to a tie for third place with 38 points. Middle distance events seemed to yield the best results for Cornell. Sophomores Judith Moody (Laurelton, N.Y.) and Antoinette Bush (Teaneck, N.J.) and freshman Pam Carter (Ossining, N.Y.) accounted for substantial scoring in events from the 400 to 1500, with plenty of relay power included, during both the indoor and outdoor seasons.

COACH EVANS' COMMENTS

The Cornell women's team turned in some fine performances during the 1980-81 track seasons. Our middle-distance crew, consisting of Maureen Sheehan, Judith Moody, Pamela Carter, Antoinette Bush and indoor-outdoor record holder Doriane Lambelet, was especially impressive. The five women combined their talents throughout the year and broke a total of six Cornell records. Credit should also be awarded to Sue Elliott, Evelyn Taylor and Trina Russell for their efforts in the jumps and sprints. All in all, the year was a good one. We fell short in some areas. Our weight events, hurdles and distances were especially in need of fortification, but this year's and next year's recruiting should help remedy those shortcomings. I'm already looking forward to next year's track campaign when we will have a stronger, more mature team. With the return of all of the mid-distance runners mentioned above and some exceptional newcomers -- like Kathy McPherson, a mid-distance/distance runner from Nashville, Tenn. -- and we should move up some in the Eastern ranks. That improvement goes for cross country as well as track, but of course we'll have to wait until September to see just exactly what our strengths and weaknesses will be.

ANOTHER ONE BITES THE DUST

Sprinters are never ones to be outdone by longer-distance runners. This August, Lou Montgomery, ILR '81, will follow the lead of Colin and Doriane Lambelet-McClive. The sprinter's new bride will be Carol E. Bell, another 1981 Cornell graduate (College of Human Ecology). After a honeymoon, the couple will take up residence somewhere in North Carolina where Lou will start his new career with IBM. Just like his sprint races, it looks like Lou is off to a good start.

COACH'S COMMENTS

Needless to say, the 1981 track seasons left a bit to be desired. The graduation losses of the past two years really decimated the team. Gone was the great depth that we had in the triple jump, long jump, weights, sprints and distances. We were still pretty strong "up the middle" but so was everyone else in the league. The spirit, however, was still at a high level as a number of people who witnessed the indoor Heps at Harvard remarked to us. Now another graduation has taken much of that "up the middle" strength away from us. So 1982 looks like a rebuilding year. However, we had a decent year recruiting so that may start us on the way back to the top. (See list of recruits included in this issue.)
We wish the very best of luck and success to the Class of 1981: Howie Borkan, Al Buckley, Jacob Dennis, Jim Draddy, Jim Fleet, Mike Grogan, Jim Hertzog, Ken Johnson, Bob Jones, Jim Kinnier, Lou Montgomery, Duncan Scott, Curt Stautz and Mark Thompson. They will all be missed in more ways than one and they are a fine group of young men.

Cross Country Sponsors

We are now starting to continue a young tradition of covering the cost of the annual cross country dinner at the Varna Church through gifts from "sponsors." Anyone who wishes to be a "sponsor" may do so by pledging 1¢ per mile that a cross country runner logs between July 1 and the end of the cross country season. The dinner now includes the women's team; a total of 60 or so people now attend. The menu is still the same great turkey dinner that we have had over the years, but those years have seen inflation raise the cost considerably. If you want to become a "sponsor," please let Coach Warner know. At the end of the season, we will notify you of how many miles your runner covered and how much you owe (most are in the area of 1000 to 1500 miles or $10 to $15). Checks would be made payable to the Spiked Shoe Society.

Indoor Heps Return to Ithaca

The indoor Heps will return to Ithaca next February 27th. In 1981 it was at Harvard before a crowd of perhaps 500 to 600, a far cry from the crowds of 3000 or 4000-plus that was the rule at Cornell for some 26 years. The last time it was here (1980) we had about 1800. The year that it went to Dartmouth broke our continuity and as a result it really hurt the attendance here in 1980. It will be interesting to see if any further damage has been done to the attendance at Cornell after the move to Harvard. It is due to go to Princeton in 1983. We seem to be effectively "killing" the meet that Cornell had made into such a success through the foresight of Bob Kane back in the '50s when he brought it to Cornell and saved it. In these times of financial difficulties, it seems foolish to be tampering with success.

High Praise for Coach Bowman

Coach Bowman deserves high praise for the job he did this year, both in his coaching job and recruiting efforts. His sprinters came along very well and ran some fine races (including relays) and set numerous PRs (personal records). The jumpers, and Putscher in particular, also showed good improvement. The list of the expected incoming trackmen is quite impressive -- our best recruiting year in several years. This is perhaps the most crucial area because the immediate future of Cornell track depends on the quality of the incoming trackmen. We seem to have a pretty well-balanced group coming in. We say "seem" because it is still possible that we might lose one or more of these men between now and September, as other schools offer scholarships that might be more attractive than Cornell's financial aid package. Also, some may come to Cornell but for one reason or another, might not come out for the team or might not stay out. This is not a new phenomenon, but it always hurts when this happens because so much time and attention is given to each recruit.

LAMBELET AND McCLIVE TIE THE KNOT

For the past few years the coaches have continued their efforts to bring the men's and women's teams closer together -- practicing together, traveling to many meets together and raising extra funds together. Well, now the dream of making one team from the two teams has advanced one step further with the recent marriage between Colin McCLive and Doriane Lambelet. The two middle distance runners have enjoyed outstanding success with their careers at Cornell, both on the track and in the classroom. They were married in early June and took off soon after for Doriane's native country, Switzerland (she had lived in the U.S. most of her life, however). Colin stood on crutches throughout the ceremony, having sprained an ankle the week before. Mr. and Mrs. Lambelet-McClive will round out their careers as seniors next year and, as of this writing, both planned to run cross country as well as indoor and outdoor track. Good luck to both.

TRIP TO EUROPE IN PLANNING STAGES

Arrangements have already been initiated for next spring’s trip to Europe — how quickly the four years since the last trip seem to have gone. We want to extend an invitation to any and all alumni and friends who may wish to journey with the team (at their own expense of course!). The trip, which will run from June 8th to June 29th, will include stops at Oxford and Cambridge for that quadrennial confrontation between Ox-Bridge and Cornell-Penn. Anyone wishing to relive past European memories, watch the current Cornellians in international action and just plain travel abroad for a couple of weeks should contact Jack Warner at the Track Office (P.O. Box 729, Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y. 14850) and request information on the trip.

The Cornell track and cross country family mourns the loss of teammate and friend Ensign Chris Reid, U.S. Navy ROTC Class of ’61, who was killed in a car accident while stationed in Florida in mid-June.

IN DAYS OF YORE by Hunt Bradley ’26

DO YOU KNOW THAT...Jack Moakley used to take his teams for the IC^As ("Intercollegiates" in those days of 1910-1920) to Atlantic City or a north shore Massachusetts resort (depending on whether the championships were at Franklin Field or Harvard Stadium) on the day before the meet...IC^A stands for Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America...The 1932 championships were held at the University of California at Berkeley because of the Olympics being at Los Angeles a month hence; the Eastern and Mid-West teams traveled on a special IC^A train.

...The 1925 Cornell-Princeton vs. Oxford-Cambridge meet was held at Atlantic City, with the hotels housing the men (four in each) along the Boardwalk in return for the meet profits (nil)...The English trip (an ocean cruise) in 1926 cost Cornell $10,500 for 14 people, while the 1978 trip (by plane) was $18,000 for 18 men. The '78 trip also included stops (and competition) in Scotland and Ireland.

There is good cause for optimism in Cornell track circles these days, and a major source of that optimism lies with the incoming class of recruits attained through the efforts of Jack Warner and first-year assistant Rich Bowman. Among Cornell's Class of '85 are some two dozen proven standouts who will lend strength to nearly every event for Cornell.

The new batch of sprinters are particularly boast-worthy. Among the prospects are Mike Crawley, a Columbus, Ohio, native who has done the 100 meters in 10.6, 200 in 21.7 and 400 in 48.6; Jim Lem of Owego, N.Y., who has an automatic time in the 100 meters of 10.75; and Charles Fleming of Woodleaf, N.C., who has done 10.6 in the 100 meters and 6.35 in the 60-yard dash.

A solid group of half-milers should bolster a traditionally strong Cornell mid-distance crew. Among the proven newcomers are Tom Basting of Janesville, Wis. (4:13.6 in the mile, 1:55 in the 800); Godfrey Hall of Brooklyn, N.Y. (1:53.0 in the 800, 48.7 in the 400); Lowell Gibbs of Stanford, Calif. (1:54.7 in the 800); and Brian Whitten of Northeast, Pa. (1:54.8 in the 800). Two of the top distance recruits are Dave Mears of Salem, the New Hampshire state cross country champion last fall, and Blake Krueell of Eden Prairie, Minn., the brother of senior Cornell distance runner Chris Krueell.

The field events will also benefit from the new class. One of the top newcomers is John Passalacqua of West Nyack, N.Y., who has thrown the shot very close to 60 feet (59-6) and the discus 170 feet. Mike Franz of Miami, Fla., is a 6-10 high jumper and has done 21 feet in the long jump. Fleming, the sprinter mentioned above, has leaped 23-4 in the long jump. Richard Howarth of Durham, N.H., is capable of giving the Red immediate help in the javelin with his personal best of 211-8. Brian Quinn of Wilmington, Del., has pole vaulted 14-2 and was Delaware state champion this past spring.

Rounding out some of the top prospects are a few talented hurdlers. Curt Hempstead of Plainfield, N.J., has done the 60-yard high hurdles in 7.7 (and is also a top sprinter and long jumper). Bucknell University transfer Bob Lachenauer of Lake Forest, Ill., has done the 110 highs in 14.8 and the intermediates in 55.0. Kurt Boluch of Delmar, N.Y., is another good intermediate hurdler with a 54.4 effort to his credit.

"We have to call this a very successful recruiting year," Warner said. "If we could get another class as good next year, then there's no question that we would jump back to the top where we were in 1977 and '78 (when Cornell won two indoor and one outdoor Heps championships)."

For the present, the Cornell coaches are looking forward to next year's rebuilding period, in which the newcomers will combine forces with 15 returning lettermen and the rest of the Big Red contingent.

JACK MOAKLEY FUND -- $183,500!

CONGRATULATIONS to the 160 individuals (including 20 newcomers this year) who have given to the Fund since our December letter. They are responsible for boosting the total to the above fine figure, and the known future bequests amount to $15,000. These contributions together with some others (amount unknown) will eventually be added to our ever-increasing endowment, whose market value of securities comes to $216,000 at the present time.

Sincere thanks to each and everyone who helps the continuing success of the Fund.

Cornell Relays
Dec. 6, 1980

Efforts please Warner
Cornell held its annual Relays Saturday night at Barton Hall, drawing out a large number of men and women collegians from all over the state.

There were both team and individual performances as the following results indicate.

Coach Jack Warner of the Big Red was pleased with Bob Jones’ 6-8 in the high jump, also of Steve Putscher’s 14-foot pole vault. Freshman Lee Wyckoff vaulted 13-6.

The results:

MEN

- Shot put—1, Kim Bouck, Herkimer, 11.07
- Long jump—1, Tracy Tucker, LIU, 4.93 meters
- High jump—1, Sue Elliott, Cornell, 5-8

Track: Doriane Lambelet, Cornell
880-yard runner, finished second in the finals of the East Tennessee Invitational at Johnson City, Tenn., Saturday night. She had a school record time of 2:10.06, and was but 1.1 seconds back of the winner, Delisa Walton of the University of Tennessee.

Doriane topped her old mark of 2:12.7, set 24 hours earlier.

Bob Jones, who has done 7 feet in the high jump, wasn't able to clear the qualifying height of 6-10. Leo Williams of Navy won the event with 7-4. The two-mile relay team placed a disappointing 10th in the 12-team field in a slow 7:48.

A Big Red mile relay team placed third in the Dartmouth Relays at Hanover in 3:20.79. It was nosed out for second by Penn. Georgetown won the race. The Red quartet was Al Buckley, Fritz Gaspard, Jim Kinnier and Jacob Dennis.

Cornell will be in the Syracuse Relays Saturday.

Syracuse Invitational Jan 17, 1981

Three track firsts for Cornell women

Three Cornell women track athletes, Judith Moody, Doriane Lambelet, and Sue Elliott, were first-place winners in the Syracuse Invitational Sunday at Carrier Dome.

Moody, sophomore from Laurelton, won the 1,500 meters in 4:57.

Lambelet, junior from Woodstock, won the 800 in 2:14.6. And in that event teammate Pam Carter was second in 2:20.7.

Elliott, sophomore from Utica, won the high jump at 5-7. She was second in the 55-meter dash in 7.6.

Jane Mosey was fourth in the shot put with 7.23 meters.

-The Big Red women's 400-meter relay team took first place and Kent Johnson finished fourth in the 5,000 meters for the men.

-For the men, Curt Miller came in fourth place in the 55-meter hurdles with a mark of 7.9; Steve Putscher finished fourth in the pole vault with a height of 14-2; and Jake Dennis came in fourth in the 400-meter dash in 49.7.

-In the Club Invitational, Cornell grad Dan Predmore came in second behind Olympian Don Paige in the 5,000 meters with a time of 14.27.4. The winning time by Paige was 14.19.3.

-The next meet for the Cornell men's and women's track teams will be Saturday in the Cornell Invitational at Barton Hall.

Army Feb 2, 1981

Men's track: Cornell, rusty after the break, ran into a fine-tuned Army team at West Point Saturday and lost, 91-36.

It was Cornell's first dual meet of the indoor season. The Big Red had winners in Bob Jones (high jump), Bob Diaz (800-meter run) and the 3,200-meter relay team of Greg Geiger, Dan Richards, Jim Draddy and Diaz.

Colin McClive doubled in the 1,500 and the 1,000, placing second in both. Jacob Dennis was second in the 400, just .01 seconds behind the winner.

Cornell will meet Syracuse at 1 p.m. Sunday at Barton.

University of Tennessee runners and hurlers sped off with major laurels in the 14th annual Cornell Invitational track and field meet Saturday at Barton Hall. Most all of the 15 schools that had both men and women competitors got their due shares.

Host Cornell had high jump winner Bob Jones while Chris Herrick, Tom Adams and Ken Johnson won races and Omar Jackson won the long jump.

Susan Elliott won both the high jump and the 55-meter dash for the Red while teammates Pamela Carter, Judith Moody and Cynthia High were other winners and so was the 3200 relay team of Antoinette Bush, Carter, Caroline Lubick and Moody.

Ithacan Kevin Markwardt was third in the pole vault for Cortland. Barry Jordan, Mansfield hurdlser, son of Lansing's Milt, was second in the 3200 relay team of Antoinette Bush, Carter, Caroline Lubick and Moody.

Red trackmen blitz Syracuse at Barton, 99-46

By KENNY VAN SICKLE
Journal Sports Editor

Cornell may not do too well competing with Syracuse in football and basketball, but in some of the other sports it does. Consider, for example men's track. Sunday at Barton Hall the Big Red defeated the Orange, 99-46, and boosted its series lead to 27-1.

It was the Big Red's lone indoor dual meet at home this indoor season.

Jack Warner's thinclads won 12 of the 16 events and senior weightman Dave Smith took both the shot put and weight throw. The Orange had a double winner in Mel Lee in the jumps. Its football rushing star Joe Morris took the 55-meter dash in 6.51.

Charley Bevier won the 3,000 meters for SU. Last fall he led the cross country pack in a win over Cornell.

Coach Warner was pleased with the showing, especially with indoor Heptagonals looming. They will be Feb. 28 at Harvard. This Saturday there will be a dual meet at Yale.

Cornell had sweeps in the hurdles, 1,500 meters and high jump. Colin McClive fought off teammate Ken Johnson to take the 1,500.

Wayne Rose, freshman from Waterbury, Conn., was a top scorer for the Red, finishing second in the hurdles and high jump and taking third in the long jump. He was a Connecticut state outdoor scholastic hurdles champion and was a state all-star in the decathlon.

Women's track: Judy Moody placed second in the 1,000-yard run, ran on two winning relays and anchored the third-place two-mile relay to help Cornell to a third-place finish out of 11 teams participating in the University of Pittsburgh Invitational Friday and Saturday.

Moody ran a personal best 2:38.1 in the 1,000. She joined Evelyn Taylor, Trina Russell and Pam Carter on the winning mile relay (4:04.4). She and Carter teamed with Caroline Ludick and Doriane Lambelet to win the distance medley in 12:10.

In the medley, Lambelet clocked the team's fastest 4:54. Carter also had a second in the 880, running it in 2:17.5.

Maryland won the meet. The Red women will be at Bucknell for a dual meet Feb. 21.

YALE
Feb. 19, 1981

Men's track: Cornell made its indoor dual meet record 2-1 as it defeated Yale at New Haven Saturday, 79-59.

The Big Red won 10 of the events. Jacob Dennis set a Coxe Cage record with 50.1 in the 440.

Cornell Open
Feb. 22, 1981

Men's track: Steve Putscher, sophomore from Newark, Del., improved on his Cornell pole vaulting record Sunday in the Cornell Open at Barton Hall when he did 4.47 meters or 14 feet, 8 inches. He came very close at 15 feet, a figure he may need to clear to do much in this Saturday's Heptagonals at Harvard.

Colin McClive won the 1500 meters. He is another of Coach Jack Warner's top prospects.

Cornell dominated Sunday's Open that drew some entries from Binghamton, Syracuse and Colgate.

Cornell's Pfitzinger wins race

Cornellian Pete Pfitzinger set a course record of 1 hour, 40 minutes, 14 seconds Sunday in winning the 20-mile Cannon Memorial run in New York's Central Park.

Pfitzinger beat out another Cornell Craig Holm by one half-mile. The old record of 1:40:47 was set in 1974 by Tom Fleming. Holm was timed in 1:43:06.

Women's track: Sue Elliot had three first places for Cornell in the Cortland Invitational Saturday, with a 5-7 high jump, 27.4 in the 200 meters and 61.1 in the 400.

Evelyn Taylor won the long jump, Ellen Birkhimer the 300-meter run in 10.37 3, Maureen Sheehan the 1500 in 5:00.8, and Cindy High the 55 dash in 7.7.

Trina Russell was second in the 200 and High was fourth. High also was third in the long jump. The 3520 relay team of W. Sampson, Krause, Sheehan and C. Lubick was first. The 1760 relay team, second, was comprised of Russell, Taylor, Elliot, and S. Fierro.

IC4A

Mar. 8, 1981

Cornell's two-mile relay team was motoring along at close to NCAA-qualifying pace Sunday in the IC4A indoor track and field championships at Princeton's Jadwin Gym when anchorman and senior co-captain Mike Grogan had the baton knocked out of his hand.

That was grounds for disqualification for the Big Red relay, which would have finished third or fourth. It was another disappointment for the 11 Cornell trackmen at the meet, all but one of whom did not make it past the trials.

Senior Jacob Dennis advanced to the semi-finals of the 400 meters and took fourth in 48.7.

Maryland won the team title, ending Villanova's string of four consecutive victories. Fairleigh Dickinson was second and Villanova third.

The Red relay was composed of junior Mike McCann (1:57.3), sophomore Bob Diaz (1:53.3), senior co-captain Jim Draddy (1:53.9) and Mike Grogan (1:54.1). Their time of 7:38.6 was the best they have run this season.

This was the final indoor activity for Cornell, which will see its first outdoor action March 28 in the Atlantic Coast Relays at Raleigh, N.C.

Princeton women win Ivy track title

Princeton captured the first indoor women's Ivy League track and field championships Sunday at Barton Hall; Cornell tying Harvard for third among the six teams.

Doriana Lamebele won the 1500 meters and was second in the 800 for the Big Red and she anchored the winning 1600 relay team. Sue Elliott won the high jump and led off on the relay team.

Doriana, with her track record time of 4:24.83, qualified for the nationals at Pocatello, Idaho.

Sari Chang of Princeton was named the meet's outstanding field event competitor; Pat Melton of Yale "outstanding" in the running events.

TEAM SCORING: Princeton 78, Penn 48, Harvard 38, Cornell 35, Dartmouth 29, Yale 16

Women's track: Sue Elliot had three first places for Cornell in the Cortland Invitational Saturday, with a 5-7 high jump, 27.4 in the 200 meters and 61.1 in the 400.

Evelyn Taylor won the long jump, Ellen Birkhimer the 300-meter run in 10.37 3, Maureen Sheehan the 1500 in 5:00.8, and Cindy High the 55 dash in 7.7.

Trina Russell was second in the 200 and High was fourth. High also was third in the long jump. The 3520 relay team of W. Sampson, Krause, Sheehan and C. Lubick was first. The 1760 relay team, second, was comprised of Russell, Taylor, Elliot, and S. Fierro.
Lambelet sparkles in Atlantic Coast Relays

RALEIGH, N.C. — Cornell's Dorianne Lambelet was a standout among many good Big Red individual track and field performances in Saturday's Atlantic Coast Relays here.

Things are now looking up outdoors for Cornell, which suffered a disappointing indoor season.

"We performed much better than expected," said Red coach Jack Warner. "We put our indoor season very far behind us."

Lambelet raced to a first place finish in the 1,500 meters with a meet-record time of 4:30. She also ran on two winning relays, teaming with Pam Carter, Antoinette Bush and Judy Moody for a 9:05.7 in the two-mile, and joining with Sue Elliott, Bush and Moody for a 3:54.5 in the mile.

Elliott tied for second in the high jump with a 5-6 effort.

The Redmen also did well. The two-mile relay of Mike McCann, Bob Diaz, Jim Draddy and Mike Grogan took fourth in 7:33, a time that ranks among Cornell's best five ever.

The distance medley team of Grogan, Tom Adams, John Randall and Colin McClive placed third in 10:04.6, while the the 440-yard shuttle hurdle relay, composed of Mark Thompson, Jim Kinnier, Bob Jones and Wayne Rose, took fifth in 1:03.16.

Brian Cullinan was third in javelin with a throw of 216.2 feet. Lou Montgomery ran seventh in the 100 meters in 11.15.

In sprint relays, the team of Al Buckley, Montgomery, Rose and Jacob Dennis took second in both the 440 (41.84) and 880 (1:26.6). The sprint medley of Buckey, Montgomery, Jay Lesch and Diaz was fourth in 3:28.46.

The mile relay team of Fritz Gaspard, Greg Geiger, Dennis and Kinnier ran fourth in 3:15.83.

Cornell will be training all this week in Durham, N.C., in preparation for Saturday's Duke Invitational.

Big Red's Bob Jones wins Duke Invitational high jump

Cornell made an impressive showing at the WRAL-Duke Invitational Track Meet Saturday in Durham, N.C. Bob Jones was the top Big Red performer, winning the high jump at 6-10.

In the 10,000 meters, Duncan Scott was third (31:26.89) and John Mirth was fourth with a personal best of 31:43.53. In the 4x100 meter relay, Cornell's team of Al Buckley, Lew Montgomery, Wayne Rose and Jacob Dennis took second in 41.56.

Dennis was second in the 400 meters with a personal best of 47.9. In the shot put, Dave Smith was third (51-4 1/4) and Greg Knus was fifth (49-5). Brian Cullinan was second in the javelin (212-7).

Mike Grogan was third in the 1500 meters (3:52.23) and Tom Healey was fourth in the long jump (21-10 3/4). In the 200 meters, Buckley was third (21.57) and Dennis fourth (21.75). Mike McCann was fifth in the 800 meters (1:53.02).

Buckley, Fritz Gaspard, Dennis and Kinnier were third in the 4x400 meter relay (3:14.48). Cornell's next action is a dual meet Saturday at Colgate (1 p.m.).
Penn Nips Red
In Track Battle

By SUE DOLAN

The Cornell trackmen lost to Penn 92.5-79.5 and beat the combined Oxford-Cambridge team of England 12-4 in a three day meet at Schoellkopf Field on Saturday.

Despite gusty winds that hindered times, the team looked like a different squad than the one that raced Penn only a month and a half ago at the Indoor Heps. Penn is now the Indoor Heps champion, and Cornell tied for last in that meet, yet the margin between the two on Saturday was only 13 points.

Head Coach Jack Warner said of the day’s event “I am very pleased — we knew it would be a struggle, but we took them to the wire and we almost did it. It was an all out effort.”

There were several close races throughout the meet, but most of the excitement came in the two relays. Penn edged the Red’s 400 meter team of Al Buckley, Lou Montgomery, Wayne Rose, and Jacob Dennis by only .02 seconds in a relay early in the meet, and the excitement and tension grew as the meet progressed and Cornell realized it had a chance of beating Penn.

The last event of the day was the 1,600 meter relay, and because of a two point error in scorekeeping, Cornell thought it could still win the meet.

Buckley, Fritz Gaspard, Dave Bailey, and Dennis kept pace with Penn and lead the race several times until 400 meter phenom Jeffrey Hill ran the last leg for the Penn team. He managed to pull his team’s ahead to a second and a half victory.

Coach Warner said, “It’s a great feeling to compete as well as we did. They were aggressive and really competed. If we continue to compete like this we should do much better at the Outdoor Hepts.”

Cornell’s record is now 2-1, and the relay teams will have another shot at Penn this weekend when they compete in the Penn Relays Saturday.

Men’s track: Cornell easily defeated Colgate at Hamilton Saturday, 144 1/2 to 27 1/2. Now they are looking forward to Saturday and their dual meet with Pennsylvania and Oxford-Cambridge of England. It will be their only home meet of the season.

Dave Smith won three field events, hammer, shot, and discus, for the Big Red. Cornell won every event except the steeplechase and was one-two-three in five events.

Cornell’s 3,200-meter relay team at Des Moines ran its fastest ever but it was enough only for ninth. Notre Dame nipped it for eighth. The field, doing 7:30, had Mike McCann 1:54.9, Jim Draddy 1:51.8, Mike Grogan 1:51.2, and Bob Diaz 1:51.1.

Diaz had another 1:51.8 in the distance medley and he had his same mates, but in a different order. The medley was 11th.

The Cornell’s 4x100 team at Penn was fourth in 3:13.66. It was comprised of Buckley, Fritz Gaspard, Jim Kinnier and Dennis. Gaspard and Dennis had their personal bests of 48.2 and 46.4, respectively.

The Redmen will go to Princeton for the Hepts this Saturday and Sunday.

Men’s track: The races were a little too much for Cornell men track athletes in the Penn and Drake Relays Saturday but they accounted for themselves well.

There was a malfunctioning electronic gadget at Penn and it was difficult to determine the finishing order in the 4x100 relay. All three in the photo were clocked in 41.2 and it was decided that Penn was first, Connecticut second and Cornell third. The Red four were Al Buckley, Lou Montgomery, Wayne Rose and Jacob Dennis.

The Redmen will go to Princeton for the Hepts this Saturday and Sunday.
Men's track: Cornell did better in the outdoor Heeps over the weekend, a tie for seventh, than they did indoors when they tied for ninth. Princeton won the competition on its home Palmer Stadium track. The scoring was Princeton 71, Penn 65 1/2, Navy 41, Harvard 34, Dartmouth 17 1/2, Cornell and Brown 13 1/2, Columbia 6 and Yale 4.

Cornell's best showing was Lou Montgomery's second in the 100 meters in 10.9. Steve Putscher was fourth in the pole vault, but his 15 feet 4 inches was a school record. Dave Bailey was third in the 400 in 48.2 and Al Buckley fourth in the 200 in 22.0.

The 4x100 relay team tied for fifth with Brown. It was made up of Buckley, Montgomery, Wayne Rose and Jacob Dennis. Dennis pulled up lame, though finishing well. However he had to scratch from other events, thus reducing the Red's scoring potential.

Women's track: Cornell placed third with 72 points in the New York State championship meet Saturday at St. John's in Jamaica. St. John's won with 121 points and Cortland was second with 79.

Cornell winners were Judy Moody in the 800 meters (2:19.3) and Doriane Lambelet in the 1,500 (4:39.8). Second places were taken by Sue Elliott in the high jump (1.57 meters) and the 400-meter relay team of Trina Russell, Sue Fiero, Elliott and Evelyn Taylor (50.0). Elliott recorded a third in the 200 (26.84), as did Maureen Sheehan in the 1,500 (4:52.2). Cornell will be in the Easterns at Penn State next weekend.

Red tracksters fail to place in IC4A meet

Cornell had a pair of track participants in the IC4As at Villanova, Pa., last weekend, neither of whom placed.

Senior Jacob Dennis ran his personal best, 47.54, in the semifinals of the 400-meter run but didn't place. He got into the final heat with a run of 48.26. His 21.71 in the 200 found him back in the pack.

Junior Colin McClive ran his personal best, 3:49.31, in the trial heat of the 1500 but failed to advance.

Red's Montgomery fourth in Penn State track meet

Lou Montgomery, Cornell track senior, placed fourth in the 100 meters at the Penn State Invitational Saturday, doing 10.92. In the prelims he ran it in 10.6. Teammate Al Buckley placed seventh.

Cornell freshman Wayne Rose set a school record of 15.5 in the 110 high hurdles but didn't place. Classmate Harvey Robinson did 14.49.8 in the 5,000 for his personal best and finished seventh.

Red track team receives awards

Cornell held its track banquet Monday night at Moakley House. Here is a list of the award winners:

Men—Jacob Dennis, best sprinter and most points in career; Jim Kinner, outstanding senior hurdler and trainers' award as donated and presented by trainer Dick LaFrance; most improved field event man, pole vaulter, Steve Putscher; most improved track man, Lou Montgomery; best middle distance man, Bob Diaz; best distance man, Duncan Scott.

Also best jumper, Bob Jones; best weight man, Dave Smith; Gatling Award for the senior who has done most for Cornell track, Mike Grogan; Lou Montgomery Spiked Shoe award to Al Buckley, for unselshiness and dedication; Bob Kane Sportmanship Award to Jim Draddy.

Next year's captain will be Dave Bailey.

The women's awards: Fleet Morse Award—Most improved, Maureen Sheehan; most valuable, Doriane Lambelet. A special presentation was made to LaFrance by Cornell tracksters, past and present.
