

Cornell Chronicle

Volume 16, Number 32

Thursday, May 2, 1985

Charges Total 1,195 in Continued Demonstrations

Faculty Meets To Consider Divestment Vote

Sixty-three protestors were taken into custody Wednesday night for disrupting university operations when they refused to leave Day Hall during the 10th day of sit-ins. Another 190 marched out after being given a second warning to vacate the administration building after the 5 p.m. closing time.

Wednesday's arrests bring to 1,195 the number of charges filed against about 1,000 protestors in connection with the demonstrations that began two weeks ago today.

The demonstrators are protesting apartheid and Cornell's investments in companies doing business in South Africa. Cornell's holdings in such companies total about $112 million, according to the university's office of investments.

Fourteen of the 53 students charged last night were temporarily suspended, pending a review panel hearing within 48 hours. Also charged Wednesday night were six staff members, one faculty, and three non-Cornellians. There were 36 first-timers referred to the judicial administrator for violating the campus code of conduct; 27 charged with criminal trespass will have to appear in Ithaca City Court either May 29 or 31. Among those sent to City Court were 24 Cornellians who are repeat offenders.

Also Wednesday night, at least 300 members of the faculty met in Bailey Hall to consider a proposal that the faculty call for divestment.

Meanwhile, about two dozen protestors continued to maintain a "shanty town" on the west side of Day Hall Wednesday to protest the housing conditions of many blacks in South Africa. Five people are still believed to be on hunger strikes.

Campus demonstrations began around noon April 18, when about 75 people entered Day Hall shouting "divestment now!" Since then, the protests have followed a similar pattern, with a group of 20 to 50 protestors entering the building at various times during weekday afternoons. The group is then joined by additional demonstrators beginning at about 4 p.m., swelling the number participating in the sit-ins by 5 p.m. closing time.

The number of protestors taken into custody each day has ranged from 24 on April 25 to 367 the previous day. On two occasions, the protestors avoided arrest by leaving Day Hall after officials read a second warning.

University administrators have asked the protesting students, staff, and faculty to express their concerns through their representatives on the Board of Trustees, rather than disrupting the functioning of the university. Protest leaders claim, however, that they will continue demonstrating until Cornell divests from companies doing business in South Africa.

Several meetings on campus related to apartheid and divestment began with a panel discussion Monday night about the potential impact of divestment for South Africa's majority black population. Cornell's Proxy Review Committee will hear public comment tonight and a series of programs on "Education Against Oppression" will be held today through May 17. (See related story on page 5.)

During the height of demonstrations late last week, an officer escorts people being taken into custody through the crowd gathered outside the main entrance to Day Hall.

Proxy Committee Meets Tonight, Considers Issues

The Proxy Review Committee will meet on campus from 8 to 10:45 p.m. today in Ives 120. The purpose of the meeting is to provide Proxy Review Committee members with an opportunity to listen to the opinions of the university community.

The first 30 or 45 minutes of the meeting will be devoted to discussions and recommendations on stockholder proposals relating to South Africa contained in the proxies of Ford Motor Company, General Motors, and Texaco, Inc. The remainder of the session will be used to discuss the broader issues of American investment in South Africa, and the calls for Cornell to divest from companies that do business in South Africa.

The committee will draw upon the views it hears tonight as it continues its investigation of investments with companies in South Africa. While the Proxy Review Committee reports directly to the Trustee Investment Committee, it is empowered to vote proxies without prior Investment Committee approval. It also communicates directly with companies regarding issues such as South Africa.

Over the past several months, the committee has been reviewing the university's policy regarding investment in companies doing business in South Africa. Its report to the investment committee is expected by year-end.

Overflow Space

Overflow space for people who wish to attend tonight's hearing by the Proxy Review Committee has been made available in Ives Hall. Audio hook-ups and seating will be provided in Ives 117 and 215.

Summary of Proxy Issues

Following is a summary of proxy statements submitted by Shareholders of Ford Motor Co., General Motors, and Texaco:

The Board of Trustees of the New York City Employees' Retirement System has asked Ford and General Motors to stop selling all motor vehicles and their parts which are used by the South African military, police, or any other groups who help uphold the system of apartheid. They call for this ban until the government of South Africa "takes meaningful steps" to achieve equality for blacks in that country.

The response by the board of directors for both companies was to reject the proposal. Both stated that their business practices were in compliance with U.S. policy on the sale of vehicles to the South African military and police (e.g. the State Department has indicated that sales by U.S. subsidiaries of non-U.S. origin commodities and technical data to the South African military and police are not affected by U.S. law).

Moreover, both companies called for the shareholders to recognize that they have signed on as supporters of the Sullivan Principles and that "peaceful" change can be af-fectured if the companies stay in South Africa, employ its natives and "pursue all constructive alternatives which have any reasonable prospect for redressing that country's racial policies."

Six groups of shareholders in Texaco, Inc. asked that the company, through its subsidiary Caltex, do one of two things: implement or increase activity of Bishop Desmond Tutu's four conditions for western investors in South Africa (e.g. house the black workforce in family housing near the workplace, recognize black unions, oppose the influx laws which stop the worker from selling his labor at the best price, and invest in black education) and report yearly to shareholders how this implementation is going; or if the South African government does not take steps to stop the Group Areas Act and the influx control laws within two years, begin pulling out of the country.

The Board of Directors rejected this proposal stating Texaco, Inc. and Caltex Petroleum Corp. support the Sullivan Principle and questioned the need to adopt Tutu's recommendations in view of their support of the principles. They further stated that Caltex was a positive influence in South Africa.

Hearing Board To Hear Cases This Weekend

The university will continue to press charges for violations of the Campus Code of Conduct through the campus judicial system, beginning with two meetings of the university's hearing board this weekend.

The five-member board will meet Saturday and Sunday, May 4 and 5, to hear the cases of about 320 Cornell students, faculty, and staff who have been charged in connection with campus protests that began two weeks ago. The hearings will be the first in a series in connection with those charges, according to Rosanne Mayer, judicial administrator.

More than 900 different members of the Cornell community, most of them students, have been referred to the judicial administrator for refusing to leave Day Hall at closing time as part of anti-apartheid and pro-divestment demonstrations. Seventeen students were temporarily suspended for violating the campus code three or more times in ten days of protests.

Students who are charged with violating the campus code two or more times are charged with criminal trespass, a misdemeanor, and referred to Ithaca City Court. Faculty and staff who are repeat offenders, and non-Cornellians, also are charged with criminal trespass. All offenders who are members of the campus community also are referred to the judicial administrator for violating the campus code.

Last Friday, the campus review board upheld the right of the president to suspend students for "good cause," but said it felt that circumstances surrounding the demonstrations had changed. Thus, the nine member review panel lifted the suspensions of two students.

This week, President Rhodes lifted the suspension of a third student on the grounds that his case was similar to the others, preferring to let the campus judicial process take its due course. The suspensions could be reinstated by the hearing board.

Clearinghouse Established For Community Service Work

More and more students at colleges and universities across the nation are performing community service as part of their undergraduate education. Cornell students are part of the growing trend that has gained the support of presidents of ten top institutions.

Meeting last week in Washington, D.C., the top administrators at 10 colleges and universities established a national clearinghouse to enable universities and students to tap into effective community service programming. Frank Newman, president of the Education Commission of the States, will head the new clearinghouse to be located at Brown University.

W. Keith Kennedy, acting dean of admissions and financial aid, represented Cornell at the April 23 meeting at which several examples of the community service work were reported.

From coast to coast, Cornell students, for example, are working with youths in detention facilities in Alaska, developing nutritionally sound recipes for the U.S. Olympic trainees in Colorado, and assisting enforcement attorneys at the Federal Trade Commission in Washington.

Locally, students in a Human Ecology field study program are conducting a housing survey in Newfield in cooperation with Better Housing for Tompkins County, Inc. and the Newfield Town Board. Their goal is to obtain a grant for home improvements and repairs.

Harvard students work to register low-income Americans to vote, Georgetown law students teach a year-long course in fundamental law to high school seniors, and Stanford undergrads work with Mother Theresa in India.

Advisory Committee on Status of Women Seeks Nominations for Membership

The Advisory Committee on the Status of Women is seeking nominees for posts on the 21-member group.

The ACSW reviews current university policies and procedures as they affect women as students, staff and faculty at Cornell; recommends changes to the associate provost and the Office of Equal Opportunity; reviews reports on the status of women and minorities, and identifies issues and strategies for addressing concerns.

In past years, issues have included affirmative action and hiring procedures, dual-career couples, management training for supervisors, dependent care, parental leave, upward mobility for clerical workers and the status of non-professional academics.

Meetings are held the second Tuesday of each month during the academic year at 3 p.m. in the Day Hall conference room, and are open.

Five new representatives are elected by the existing committee and five are appointed by the president each year. To nominate someone for membership (self-nominations are welcome) or for more information, call Natalie Kazmierski, coordinator of women's services in the Office of Equal Opportunity, 256-7596.

Lurie: Pulitzer Unexpected

When Alison Lurie was notified last week that she had won the 1985 Pulitzer Prize for fiction, she told reporters, "I didn't expect it at all."

"Foreign Affairs," Lurie's story of an Ivy League professor of children's literature on a six-month sabbatical leave in England, is her seventh and latest work of fiction. Currently on leave this semester, she is in London and is expected to return to campus next fall to teach a creative writing course and a course in folklore.

Lurie, who is the fifth Cornell faculty member to win a Pulitzer, could very well have been joined by another member of the faculty up for a Pulitzer this year. Howard M. Feinstein, adjunct professor of psychology, was among three finalists in the biography category for his book, "Becoming William James," published by the Cornell University Press.

While the prestigious award was a surprise to Lurie, book reviewers have been praising her "Foreign Affairs" for some time. Christopher Lehmann-Haupt of the New York Times wrote last September that Lurie "has quietly but surely established herself as one of this country's most able and witty novelists."

Other Cornell faculty who have received Pulitzers are Carl Sagan (1977) in non-fiction; Michael Kammen (1973) in history; Karel Husa (1969) in music; and David B. Davis, now at Yale, (1966) in general non-fiction.

Cornell Chronicle

EDITOR: Randall E. Shew

CONTRIBUTING WRITERS: H. Roger Segelken, Martin B. Stiles, Lisa H. Towle, Anne S. Moffat, David I. Stewart, Mark Eyerly, Yong H. Kim, Susan S. Lang, Jeanne Mackin, Joseph Leeming.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Sol Goldberg, Charles Harrington.

CIRCULATION MANAGER: Joanne Hanavan.

Published 49 times a year except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's weeks. Distributed free of charge to Cornell University faculty, students and staff by the University News Bureau. Mail subscriptions, $15 per year. Make checks payable to Cornell Chronicle and send to Editorial Office, 110 Day Hall, Ithaca, N.Y. 14853.

Telephone (607) 256-4206.

Second-Class Postage Rates paid at Ithaca, N.Y.

POSTMASTER: Send address changes to the Cornell Chronicle (ISSN 0747-4628), Cornell University, 110 Day Hall, Ithaca, N.Y. 14853.

It is the policy of Cornell University actively to support equality of educational and employment opportunity. No person shall be denied admission to any educational program or activity or be denied employment on the basis of any legally prohibited discrimination involving, but not limited to, such factors as race, color, creed, religion, national or ethnic origin, sex, age or handicap. The university is committed to the maintenance of affirmative action programs which will assure the continuation of such equality of opportunity.

The Week in Sports

Women's Lacrosse Team Aims For State Title This Weekend

Sports Information Office

The Cornell women's lacrosse team has its attention focused on capturing a third consecutive New York state championship. The Big Red will be attempting to defend its crown at home this weekend, serving as the host for the ninth annual New York state championships.

Three other teams will compete on campus this weekend. The baseball team closes out its Eastern League schedule with doubleheaders against Harvard and Dartmouth on Saturday and Sunday, respectively (both starting at 1 p.m. on Hoy Field). The men's tennis team makes its final appearance in the Kite Hill Bubble, entertaining Princeton at 4 p.m. Friday. The women's crew has its last regatta of the regular season, racing Dartmouth on the Cayuga Lake Inlet Saturday morning.

The New York State AIAW Women's Lacrosse Tournament will get under way at 10 a.m. Friday, and the tournament will run through Sunday. There will be four games on both Friday and Saturday at Schoellkopf Field, and the championship game is scheduled for 2 p.m. Sunday.

Cornell is the No. 2 seed in the eight-team tournament. Colgate holds down the top ranking, while Ithaca College is seeded third and Cortland is rated fourth. The other schools competing in the event are St. Lawrence (No. 5), William Smith (No. 6), Hamilton (No. 7) and Oneonta (No. 8). Cornell will play Hamilton in a first-round game at noon Friday. The winner of that contest will take on the I.C.-William Smith victor at noon Saturday.

The Big Red, which took a 3-6-1 overall record into Tuesday's home contest with Cortland, is coming off its finest victory of the season. Cornell edged Princeton in New Jersey Sunday, 11-10 in overtime, for its first Ivy League win of the year. The Red rallied from a 9-5 deficit by scoring four unanswered goals in the final 10 minutes of regulation play to force overtime. Senior Lyn Reitenbach had three goals and one assist, and she also went 3-1 in the team's tough 7-6 loss to Dartmouth last Friday. Reitenbach now leads the team in scoring with 19 goals and 11 assists.

Freshman Mary-Beth DeLaney, who also had three goals and one assist against Princeton, ranks second with 10-11-21. Junior Kate Howard-Johnson has 18 points on 15 goals and three assists. Junior goaltender Ellen Grant currently has a 10.0 goals against average and a save percentage of .541. Senior Claudia Casavecchia came in and played the final 16 minutes in the nets to earn the victory against Princeton. She now has a 9.6 goals against mark with a save percentage of .571.

The state tournament is the last competition of the season for the squad. Last year, Cornell swept past three opponents, outscoring them 40-17, to win the title. It defeated William Smith in the championship game by a score of 14-6. In 1983, the Red topped Cortland 10-4 for the crown. Cornell has already played four of the other teams competing in the tournament. It tied St. Lawrence (5-5), defeated both Ithaca College (7-6) and William Smith (15-10), and lost to Colgate (12-7) on the road.

The Big Red baseball team took a 12-22 record into this week's action, and the squad has a 5-9 mark in the Eastern Intercollegiate Baseball league. The Red took on two of the top teams in the league, Navy and Princeton, this past weekend and lost doubleheaders to both schools. One of the losses to Navy was by two runs in extra innings, while the Big Red dropped a tough three-run game to Princeton. Senior third baseman Joe Darlak had a fine weekend and has upped his batting average to .328. He was 4x5 in the doubleheader against Princeton, including two doubles in the second contest. Senior first baseman Terry Birrer also fared well Sunday, going 3x6 at the plate. Birrer has also raised his average above the .300 mark. Cornell received two strong pitching performances Sunday from Gary DiGiuseppe, who scattered 10 hits in seven innings, and Steve Huber, who also went the distance and allowed eight hits and three earned runs.

LYN REITENBACH
Women's Lacrosse

Senior left fielder Mike Kalfopoulos still leads the Red in hitting with a .394 average, while he is also the top performer in RBI (31) and home runs (five). Senior center fielder Dan Autiello has a .347 average. Cornell lost two games to Harvard last season, 3-0 and 8-3. The Big Red defeated Dartmouth twice last spring, 11-0 and 7-1.

The men's tennis team plays its final EITA match Friday against Princeton. The Red, 11-7, overall, is 2-6 in the league after losses to Dartmouth (6-3) and Harvard (9-0) this past weekend. Senior Dave Merritt has the top singles record on the team, 10-8, while classmate Mike Rytting is 8-8. Junior James Connolly is 6-8. The Big Red has wrapped up its first winning season since 1983. Last year, the Red lost to Princeton in New Jersey, 9-0.

Sign Amnesty Period Will Be May 10-13

An amnesty period has been set by the university for the return of stolen traffic signs. The period starts at 4 p.m. Friday, May 10, and ends at 8 a.m. Monday, May 13.

According to Cornell Public Safety Lt. Robert G. Sims, individuals can avoid future criminal prosecution for possession of these signs if they notify public safety at 256-1111 and arrange to have the signs picked up at their rooms during the amnesty period.

Sims said scores of traffic signs have been stolen from the campus and the surrounding area during the school year. They include stop signs, parking, street, and other traffic controls signs.

"Not only are these expensive to replace, about $45 each," he said, "but their absence can create dangerous situations."

Cornell Council Board Is Here This Weekend

The Administrative Board of the Cornell University Council will be on campus this weekend for its annual meeting, the final one to be presided over by Albert J. Kaneb '60, outgoing chairperson of the council.

During his two years at the helm of the council, Kaneb has seen the birth and growth of two major programs for undergraduates at the university — the Cornell Tradition and the Cornell Connection.

The Cornell University Council is a group of 400 outstanding Cornellians and other friends, including 20 international members, elected by the Board of Trustees whose function is to assist the university in its immediate and long-range development and in other areas where leadership is required. The university looks to council members to play leading roles in their communities and in professional fields. The council also serves as a group of informed alumni and other friends dedicated to promoting Cornell's interests.

A major role in establishing the Cornell Tradition, a program initially supported by a gift of $7.5 million from a group of alumni, has been played by council member Leslie W. Stern '60. The Tradition rewards students who demonstrate a particular commitment to working and funding a portion of their own education, through fellowships and summer work programs.

Stern, who will become a vice chairperson of the Administrative Board in July, also has been an active leader with the Cornell Connection, which uses an alumni network to help graduating seniors gain entry-level jobs in society.

The next major network in which members of the council and other alumni expect to be involved is the Alumni Career Advisory Network, which will set up a program to assist undergraduates in exploring career interests and options.

During the stay here this weekend, some 40 members of the council's Administrative Board will hear several reports and be introduced to the integrated energy system in agriculture that has been developed on Milbrook Farm in Freeville by the university in conjunction with farm owners Ronald Space Jr. and Ronald Space II. Larry P. Walker, assistant professor of agricultural engineering, who worked in developing the project, will take part in the presentation. Walker is currently one of four faculty members on the council.

The Administrative Board will receive reports and discuss activities of the council committees: Admissions, Annual Meeting Planning, Athletic Affairs, Career Advising and Placement, Cornell Adult University, Federal Government Relations, Human Resources, International Programs, Membership, New York State Relationships, Nominating, Public Relations and Real Estate Investment.

The final report of the Membership Committee, chaired by Grace Richardson MS '62, will recommend to the Administrative Board those alumni and other friends nominated to become council members upon election by the Board of Trustees.

The new officers of the Administrative Board as of July 1 will be Marjorie L. Hart '50, chairperson, and three vice chairpersons, Dorothy A. Free '53, Stern, and Arthur W. Wolcott '49.

New members at large on the Administrative Board after July 1 will be David W. Feehey '60, Stephen W. Fillo '59, Robert B. Goldfarb '64, Margaret Osmer-McQuade '60, Alice Reynolds-Tatum '80, David G. Sheffield '55 and Dennis A. Williams '73.

They will join continuing members C.K. Poe Fratt '53, Barbara H. Freed '51, Mary F. Fuller '63, Grace E. Richardson '62, Elizabeth C. Staley '60 and H.L. Tower '55.

CHARLES R. HENDERSON

WALTER ISARD

WENDELL L. ROELOFS

EUGENE B. DYNKIN

National Academy Names Four Cornell Professors

Four Cornell professors were among 60 scientists elected to the National Academy of Sciences during the academy's 122nd annual meeting in Washington, D.C., last week.

The four are: Eugene B. Dynkin, professor of mathematics; Charles R. Henderson, professor emeritus of animal science; Walter Isard, professor of economics and regional science; and Wendell L. Roelofs, the Liberty Hyde Bailey Professor of Insect Biochemistry at the New York State Agricultural Experiment Station at Geneva. (Roelofs' name was inadvertently omitted from the brief notice in the Chronicle last week.)

Tuesday's announcement brings to 36 the number of Cornell faculty members who are members of the academy. Membership is awarded in recognition of distinguished achievement in original research. The academy has a total membership of 1,453.

Election to membership in the academy is considered one of the highest honors that can be accorded an American scientist or engineer. Established in 1863, the National Academy of Sciences is a private organization of scientists and engineers dedicated to the furtherance of science and its use for the general welfare. Although not a government agency, the academy acts as an official adviser to the federal government, upon request, in matters of science and technology.

Dynkin, one of the world's foremost mathematicians and a specialist in modern probability theory, has written seven books and numerous journal articles. He holds candidate of science and doctor of science degrees from Moscow University, and taught at Moscow University from 1948 until 1968. He then conducted research at the Central Institute for Mathematics and Economics of the Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R., before joining the Cornell faculty in 1977.

Henderson, a leader in the genetic improvement of dairy cattle, was awarded emeritus status when he retired in 1976. The Iowa native, who joined the Cornell faculty in 1948, has published more than 220 papers and has developed theoretical research methods to evaluate the genetic merits of farm animals. He is continuing his research at Cornell and at the University of Illinois, where he is a visiting professor. Henderson is known to statisticians as the developer of methods to estimate variances and covariances. He holds bachelor's, master's, and Ph.D. degrees from Iowa State College.

Isard is recognized as the founder of regional science as an academic discipline and has served on the faculties at Harvard, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the University of Pennsylvania. He has helped edit several journals and reviews, and is a leading figure in the developing field of peace science. He directs peace science research and study at Cornell. Isard holds a bachelor's degree from Temple University and master's and Ph.D. degrees from Harvard.

Roelofs, who earlier this year was awarded the National Medal of Science, joined the Agricultural Experiment Station in 1965. His pioneering studies on the isolation, identification, and synthesis of the insect sex attractants known as pheromones have resulted in an increased use of those substances in agriculture. His studies have improved pest-management programs in orchards, allowing growers to eliminate unnecessary pesticide treatments. Roelofs holds a bachelor's degree from Central College, Iowa, and a Ph.D. from Indiana University.

Dean Book Collection Contest first place winner Vladimir J. Dragan, left, a fifth-year student in the College of Architecture, Art and Planning, shows one of his books on architecture to Yoram Szekely, librarian of Uris Library, during reception for the contest winners Friday in the Andrew D. White Library of Uris Library.

Architecture Student's Book Collection Wins 1985 Dean Contest, Prize of $250

Vladimir J. Dragan, fifth-year student in the College of Architecture, Art, and Planning, has won the 1985 Arthur H. Dean and Mary Marden Dean Book Collection Contest, worth a cash prize of $250.

One of 28 entries in the eleventh biennial contest begun in 1966, Dragan's collection was on "American Architectural Books." Because the quality of the top collections was so close, the judges awarded two second prizes, $175 cash for each winner. Sharing second prize were Richard W. Buck, division of unclassified students; and Robert T. Pappalardo, a junior in the College of Arts and Sciences.

Buck's collection was on "Turn of the Century Pastoral Romantic American Literature. Pappalardo's books were on astronomy. Although the personal collections may be considerably larger, the entrants submitted no more than 50 books in the contest.

Honorable mentions, worth $50 cash prizes, were awarded to three students:

— Suzanne E. Bator, a junior in the College of Arts and Sciences, for "Dracula and Son: a Collection of the Vampire in Literature;"

— James C. Loehr, a senior in the College of Arts and Sciences, for "A Collection for a 12-year Old;" and

— Paul W. Romaine, a senior in the College of Arts and Sciences, for "Western Epics."

Alain Sezec, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, announced the winners and made the award during a reception Friday afternoon, April 26, in the Andrew D. White Library of Uris Library.

All 20 entrants received a copy of Morris Bishops' "A History of Cornell." The contest is open to all undergraduate students at Cornell.

Judges this year were Marcia G. Jebb, resources and collections librarian in Olin Library; Edward P. Morris, Romance Studies, and Neal Zaslav, Music.

Faculty Respond Well To 'Fellows' Program

Cornell faculty have responded enthusiastically to a special program designed to build closer relationships between students and faculty and a closer connection between the classroom and life in the residence halls.

According to professors Steven Kaplan, history, and Isaac Kramnick, government, co-chairmen of the Faculty Committee for Residence Life, more than 40 professors already have agreed to participate as "faculty fellows" in the program to be inaugurated this fall.

President Frank Rhodes appointed the 12-member committee earlier this year "to bring about greater integration of academic and campus life."

He also created the position of "faculty fellows" to serve as catalyst for the program. In a letter to faculty, Kaplan and Kramnick stated:

"Our hope is to have up to 40 faculty fellows appointed by the end of the academic year. These 40 will then be clustered in two groups of 20, one group affiliated with the dorms on West Campus and one group affiliated with the North Campus dorm complex."

Faculty fellows will be provided with office space in their dorm complex. Seminar rooms will also be made available to encourage faculty fellows to hold small classes or sections in their affiliated dorm, or to organize talks or discussions on topics of mutual interest.

"Because the sharing of a meal is such a pleasant and easy way to meet and talk, faculty fellows will have the opportunity to eat as often as they wish in the dining units (e.g., Noyes Center and Robert Purcell Union). To encourage them to bring guests (their family or visitors to Cornell or students), they will also be given guest privileges. Fellows who wish to organize social or cultural activities, in conjunction with students and residence-life staff, will be able to draw upon program funds."

Kaplan and Kramnick emphasize that "there will be no model of participation to which fellows must defer. They will be free to participate in ways that they feel will produce the most fruitful results. We believe that the multiplication of informal contacts will lead spontaneously to joint undertakings of all kinds."

"The program could," according to Kaplan and Kramnick, "dramatically affect the style and tone of life on campus."

William P. Paleen, director of residence life, said he was particularly optimistic about the long-term effects of the program on the quality of student life at Cornell.

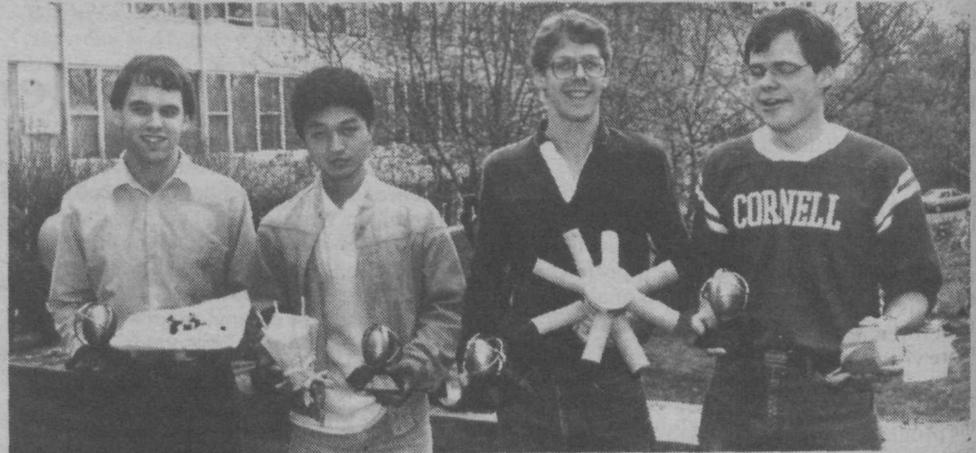

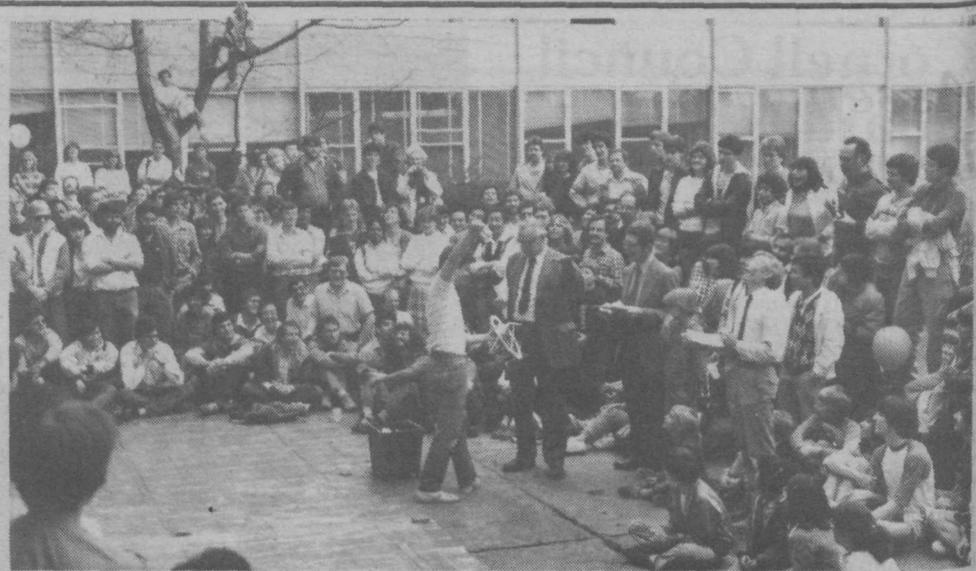

Paleen, who has been closely involved in the design of the "faculty fellows" project, said it is a natural outgrowth of the Faculty-in-Residence Program inaugurated in 1980. Currently six faculty, some with families, are living in student dormitories on campus.

"This is highly successful innovation," Paleen said, "has done much to enrich the atmosphere of learning on campus not only for students but for the faculty as well. The 'faculty fellows' will significantly enhance and broaden the student-faculty dialogue at Cornell."

Faculty interested in participating in this new program in coming years should notify William D. Gurowitz, vice president for campus affairs.

The co-chairmen or other members of the committee will contact the interested faculty to provide more detailed information.

Each year, the committee will pick the fellows for the coming academic year. Selections have been made for the 1985-86 academic year.

Proving once again there's more than one way to drop a raw egg four stories without breaking it, engineering students gathered at Upson Hall last Friday to pit their cleverest devices against the harsh realities of gravity and concrete. Judging the Egg Drop Contest were mechanical and aerospace faculty members (top photo, from left) Robert H. Wehe, P.C. Tobias deBoer and John F. Booker. When the shattered shells had settled, winners of Golden Egg Trophies were (bottom, from left) Doug Franklin, best drag device; Cheng K. Chang, most creative; Bob Larson, best engineered; and Peter Glassey, best impact device.

Ushers Have Red Coats and Compelling Reasons for Doing the Job

By LISA H. TOWLE

The red coats are coming. But this time it's not the Queen's army disrupting order on American shores, it's Cornellians keeping order during Ithaca's largest annual gathering.

On Sunday, June 2, 175 ushers wearing easily identifiable red coats will be stationed at strategic points on campus assuring a smooth and orderly 117th commencement day.

Overseeing the processional, crowd control, and seating for graduates, faculty, and guests will be five group leaders all reporting to head usher Vickie Goss. The group leaders come to the job with years of experience behind them.

Ushering is a family affair for Mary Grainger, group leader for the procession ushers, and usher-husband Bradley. Mary, an Oswego native and a 1979 communications arts graduate, is the associate coordinator for admissions in the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences. She has worked as head procession usher for the past three years.

Making sure that the graduates show up on time, line up three abreast in the correct section of the processional, and behave in a manner befitting the occasion is a time-consuming task. However, with the aid of her 30 team members who come from all departments of the university including athletics, admissions, and alumni and development affairs, Grainger will get the job done.

Grainger, who also serves as adviser to three student groups says, "All of my job revolves around students. To help and watch them graduate is a very exciting capstone to my job."

Carolyn Cook, a 1972 grad of the College of Human Ecology, is celebrating her third year as an usher and her second as a group leader. Along with 25 ushers, Cook will guide guests to their seats in the crescent and will answer questions about the placement of the graduates. Cook, whose husband Tom ('75) is a lecturer in the department of agricultural engineering, urges guests to make their way to the crescent before "the big crunch comes" at 11:30 a.m.

Three of the five group leaders met last week with head usher Vickie Goss to discuss plans for commencement, now only five weeks away. From left: Goss, Carolyn Cook, Mary Grainger, and Allene Hays. Not pictured are Susan Murphy and Tom Brown.

A change in commencement procedure this year means the ceremony begins at noon instead of 1 p.m.

"During the rest of the year, my job revolves around alumni," states Cook, director of alumni affairs for the College of Human Ecology. "Therefore on graduation day, it is wonderful to see alumni, many of them with children graduating, so happy. It's a moving time for everyone involved."

In charge of faculty and graduate seating on Schoellkopf field will be Susan Murphy, director of financial aid and a graduate of the College of Arts and Sciences. "I have worked as a commencement volunteer for the past five years, but this will be my first time as a group leader," says Murphy, whose own graduation was held in Barton Hall 12 years ago.

She took a circuitous route to her current post, first spending time at Stanford where she earned a Master's degree in education, then in her native New Jersey where she worked as a high school guidance counselor. From there it was on to work for Cornell's admissions office, then as interim director of financial aid, and finally director. Murphy and her 30 ushers will count heads and make sure that the graduate and faculty processional move quickly and to the right sections so that seating of the 4,000-plus people is completed with minimal confusion. All the planning for this quick spurt of activity is worth it, though, when one considers what it symbolizes.

"In an administrative post, you tend to forget why you're here because it's so easy to get caught up in the paper flow. But the real reason for Cornell's existence and my job is confirmed during commencement," she adds.

Ten years ago Allene Hays, the administrative manager for plant breeding and biometry, began working as an usher during commencement. This year's graduation marks her third year as group leader for the ushers who help the mobility impaired find their way around the day's activities.

Last year, more than 100 people used the service Hays coordinates, including the community's Gadabout buses that provide transportation from the baccalaureate service to Schoellkopf. A special seating area is designated in the crescent for mobility impaired guests and transportation is also provided from the Kite Hill parking lot.

The meetings required throughout the year to make sure all goes well on graduation day are worth it in the end, says Hays. "You are physically drained, but on an emotional high. It makes you feel so good to know you've made people feel safe and secure."

Tom Brown, who makes his home in Newfield, came to work for Cornell almost 12 years ago. Ten of those years have been spent working as an usher during commencement. For the past two years, the director of maintenance service operations has served as group leader for those ushers helping with seating and crowd control in the west stand/Hoy Field area.

Assembly Intern Learns Much About Politics

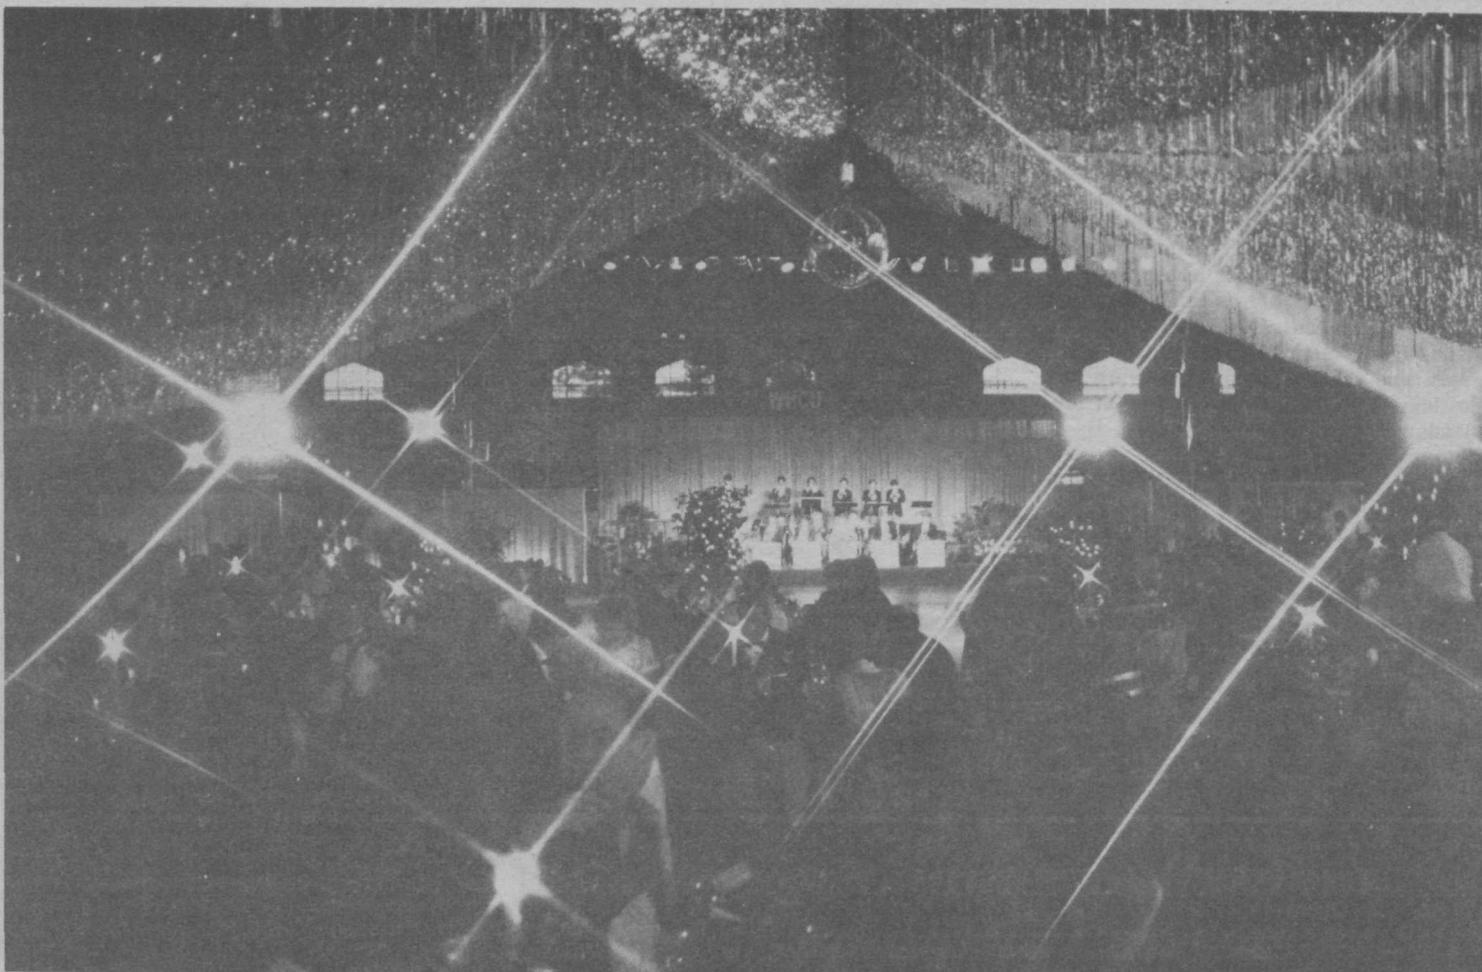

John Sheeley, a senior majoring in agricultural economics, is one of 136 students from many colleges who are spending their spring semester at the New York State Assembly in Albany.

In addition to attending regular classes at the Assembly, session interns work directly with Assembly members. They draft and brief bills, research and respond to questions from people in the member's district and attend meetings and hearings held by Assembly committees.

Sheeley is assigned to Assemblyman Richard I. Coombe, a Republican from Grahamsville. According to Sheeley, "At Cornell the most popular political intern program is Cornell in Washington, and few students ever hear of the programs in Albany. I believe, despite the aura of our nation's capital, that a much more hands-on, diverse and truly political experience can be obtained in our state's capital."

He also said, "I have found that the strength of political parties and party leadership is much stronger at the state level and therefore the dynamics of politics are much more visible here."

Session interns receive a semester of credit and a $1,000 stipend. More information on the program is available from William N. Alberta, coordinator, Career Development, 16 Roberts Hall.

"Diamonds Are Forever" was the theme in Barton Hall Saturday for the main banquet the 60th annual Hotel Ezra Cornell, the School of Hotel Administration's extravaganza

Series of Campus Discussions to Focus on Issues of South Africa

Several campus discussions focusing on the issues of South Africa and social protest continue through May 16. The series -- "Education Against Oppression" -- is sponsored by groups affiliated with the University Unions and Activities. Most of the people taking part in the discussions, which began April 29, are Cornellians.

The schedule of events, presenters, and their topics follows:

-- THURSDAY, May 2 - Anabel Taylor Auditorium. 2 p.m., Peter Kahn, professor emeritus in the history of art department, "Racism -- A Personal Experience in Germany." 3 p.m., Congress Mbata, associate professor in the Africana Studies and Research Center, "South Africa: A Black's Perspective."

-- FRIDAY, May 3 - Anabel Taylor Auditorium. 2 p.m., Daryl Bem, professor of psychology, "Discrimination, Attitude Change and Social Protest."

-- MONDAY, May 6 - Willard Straight Hall Memorial Room. 2 p.m. Martin Bernal, associate professor of government, "Racism in Scholarship and Education, Point I."

-- TUESDAY, May 7 - Willard Straight Hall Memorial Room. 2 p.m. Don Barr, chairman and associate professor of human service studies, and Josephine Allen, assistant professor in the human service studies department of unions and activities, "What About Us? Racism in America."

-- WEDNESDAY, May 8 - Willard Straight Hall Memorial Room. 2 p.m. Dorothy Cotton, director of student activities for the department of unions and activities, "The Steps in Nonviolent Protest."

-- THURSDAY, May 9 - Anabel Taylor Auditorium. 2 p.m. Locksley Edmondson, visiting professor at the Africana Studies and Research Center, "Race and Racism: Reflections on an International Perspective." 3 p.m. Congress Mbata, associate professor in the Africana Studies and Research Center, "South Africa: A Black's Perspective."

-- FRIDAY, May 10 - Anabel Taylor Auditorium. 2 p.m. staff members, Cornell United Religious Work, "Making Decisions of Conscience."

-- MONDAY, May 13 - Willard Straight Hall Memorial Room. 2 p.m. Martin Bernal, associate professor of government, "Racism in Scholarship and Education, Point II."

-- TUESDAY, May 14 - Willard Straight Hall Memorial Room. 2 p.m. Chris Brown, formerly affiliated with Cornell's government department and now residing in Toronto, "Historical Roots of Apartheid."

-- WEDNESDAY, May 15 - Willard Straight Hall Memorial Room. 2 p.m. Porus Olpadwala, assistant professor of city and regional planning, "Transnational Companies in Developing Countries."

-- THURSDAY, May 16 - Willard Straight Hall Memorial Room. 2 p.m. Trevor Abrams, formerly at SUNY Binghamton, "South Africa: A Colored's Perspective."

3 p.m. Brahm Fleisch, Ithaca High School teacher who has lived in South Africa, "South Africa: A White's Perspective."

-- FRIDAY, May 17 - Willard Straight Hall Memorial Room. 2 p.m. staff members, Cornell United Religious Work, "God and Oppression."

Geneva Researchers Isolate Major Disease of Grapes

A team of researchers at Cornell's New York State Agricultural Experiment Station in Geneva have made a major breakthrough in isolating the apparent cause of grapevine leaf roll. This disease is the most widespread and economically important virus disease of grapevines today.

Lamartine F. Hood, director of the station, and Joseph Gerace, state commissioner of agriculture, announced this discovery to grape and wine industry representatives and the press last week at Barton Laboratory at the station.

This new development is expected to have a significant impact on the state's wine and grape industry.

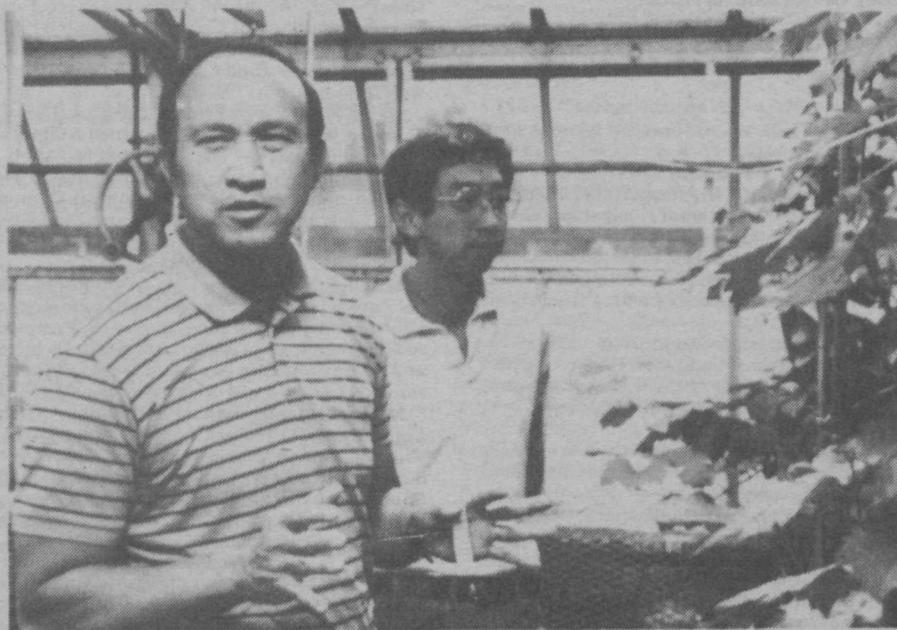

The work was carried out in the department of plant pathology at the station under the direction of Prof. Dennis Gonsalves.

This discovery will enable researchers to develop new testing techniques for the virus disease. Currently, testing takes at least two years, often longer. Gonsalves said this breakthrough paves the way for researchers to develop new testing procedures to determine if a grapevine is infected within two days.

"We are exceedingly proud of Dr. Gonsalves' accomplishments," said Hood.

"They will be of significant benefit to the grape industry. Cooperative support provided by the Department of Agriculture and Markets, New York State Grape Production Research Fund, and the American Vineyard Foundation has enabled us to make rapid progress in isolating this important virus."

Before any grapevines are imported into the U.S. they must be tested, or indexed for leaf roll. Since the wine and grape industry is very interested in obtaining and growing many European varieties of grapes this indexing is becoming increasingly important. However, New York and California are the only two states in the U.S. that are certified to index these vines and release them to growers and nurseries.

Prof. Dennis Gonsalves, foreground, and Francis Zee, both of Cornell's New York State Agricultural Experiment Station, examine grapevines in the greenhouse.

"The ultimate aim is to develop a rapid test for detecting leaf roll, but, before we could do that we had to isolate the casual organism," said Gonsalves. Once isolated, researchers can use the virus to develop an antiserum to use in indexing the vines. This type of test is very specific and much quicker than current procedures.

Calendar

All items for publication in the Calendar sections, except for Seminar notices, must be submitted (typewritten, double spaced) by mail or in person to Fran Apgar, Central Reservations, 531 Willard Straight Hall at least 10 days prior to publication. Seminar notices should go to the Chronicle office, 110 Day Hall. Items should include the name and telephone number of a person who can be called if there are questions, and also the subheading of the calendar in which it should appear (lectures, colloquia, etc.) ALL DEADLINES WILL BE STRICTLY ENFORCED.

*—Admission charged.

Announcements

Brown Bag Luncheon Discussion

Donald Johnson, Director of the Office of Equal Opportunity, "Confessions of an Affirmative Action Officer." This luncheon discussion will be held on May 3, in the Hoyt W. Fuller Room, 310 Tripphammer Road, and is hosted by the Africana Studies and Research Center.

Application deadline for CCPA Individual Grants

Applications for creative and performing arts projects for 1985-86 are being accepted by Cornell's Council of the Creative and Performing Arts. Application deadline is May 6. Students and staff are eligible for individual grants of up to $500 for projects to be completed and presented within 12 months. The awards, which are to cover costs of materials, are for art projects not primarily concerned with course work or research. For application information contact: Vincent Mulcahy, Architecture; Greg Page or Jean Locey, art; Thomas Leavitt, art/museum; James McConkey or Walter Slatoff, creative writing; Beate Ziegert, design; Steven Stucky or Sonya Monosoff, music; Steve Cole, theatre; Richard Herskowitz or Marilyn Rivchin, film; Joyce Morgenroth, dance; or Anna Oeske in the Andrew D. White House Office.

Alternatives Library

Students who borrowed materials from the Alternatives Library in 122 Anabel Taylor Hall should return them before April 30. If not, replacement charges will be put on your bursar bill.

Gay Jews Support Group

A support group for gay Jews is being formed, to share and explore related concerns and conflicts, possible ways to confront them, exchange religious and cultural context material. If interested in taking part, please call GayPac, 256-6482. Confidentiality ensured.

Risley Festival of the Arts

Thursday, May 2 at 5:00 p.m. and running through Saturday, May 4, performances of "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf", in Risley Theater, May 2, 3, and 4 at 8:00 p.m. and May 5 at 2:00 p.m., and a Courtyard Boogie Saturday, May 4 at 11:00 p.m., behind Risley.

Tanya Stremelin and Kurt Lichtmann

On Wednesday, May 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the Anabel Taylor Chapel, Kolot, an Ithaca-based musical group, will present Tanya Stremelin, Kurt Lichtmann, the CSMA Children's Choir and other classical and folk performers in concert to benefit Ethiopian Jewry. Suggested donation: $5.00. For more information, please call Corinne at 272-7799.

Dance

Dance Concert at WSH Theatre

Theatre Cornell will present new and original works by student and faculty choreographers in a wide range of styles and methods. "Dance Concert '85" will be presented in the Willard Straight Theatre on May 2-4, 9-11 at 8:15 p.m., and May 5 at 2:30 p.m.

Reservations for "Dance Concert '85" may be made by calling the Theatre Cornell box office at (607) 256-5165. The box office is located on the lower floor of Willard Straight Hall, and is open Monday-Friday from 1:00-6:00 p.m. Mail orders should be directed to Theatre Cornell, 101 Willard Straight Hall, Ithaca, N.Y. 14853. Visa/Mastercard are accepted.

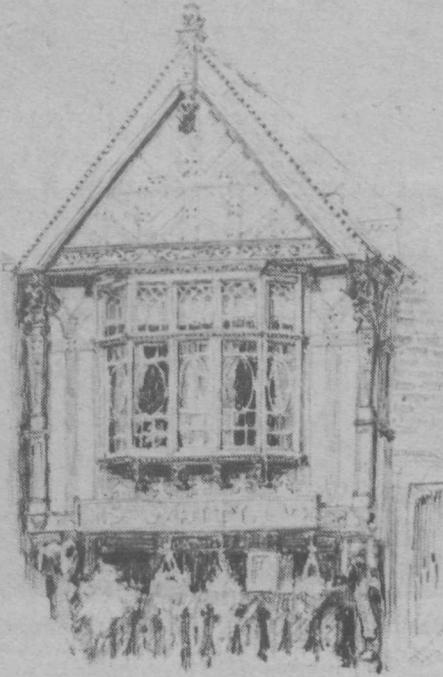

Group rates are available for theatre parties of fifteen or more. Group reservations information may be obtained by calling 256-3688.

Exhibits

The Prinzhorn Collection

The Prinzhorn Collection will be on view at the Herbert F. Johnson Museum of Art from May 8 to June 30, 1985. This exhibition features approximately three hundred artistic expressions of institutionalized psychiatric patients, most of whom were diagnosed as schizophrenic. The majority of the works were created in Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Italy, and the Netherlands between 1890 and 1920. Traveling for the first time in the United States, the collection was amassed in the 1920's by art historian and physician Hans Prinzhorn of the University Psychiatric Hospital in Heidelberg, West Germany. It constitutes the first systematized attempt to present the art of the insane.

Travel sketches such as this scene of Chester, England, made in 1908, and letters and photographs from the personal papers of famed city planner Clarence S. Stein (1882-1975), are on exhibit through the month of May at the Department of Manuscripts and University Archives in Olin Library, and also the Fine Arts Library and Dome Gallery of Sibley Hall. Material for the exhibit was drawn from the papers of Stein which were first presented to the university in 1975. They have been added to on a number of occasions since.

Films

Unless otherwise noted films are sponsored by Cornell Cinema.

Thursday

May 2, 7:30 p.m. 101 Bradfield Hall. "Plenty of Nothing", about the impact of changes in Canadian tax laws which allow male farmers to obtain tax credit for wages they pay their wives. Cosponsored by Agronomy Graduate Students Association and Cornell Women's Center with funding from GAFC and SFC.

May 2, 8:00 p.m. •Uris Auditorium. "MacBeth", (1972), directed by Roman Polanski, with Jon Finch and Francesca Annis. Limited. Cosponsored by the English Department.

Friday

May 3, 10:00 p.m. •Uris Auditorium. "Stranger than Paradise", directed by Jim Jarmusch, with John Lurie and Eszther Balint.

May 3, 12:00 a.m. •Uris Auditorium. "Dune", (1984), directed by David Lynch, with Sting and Linda Hunt.

May 3, 8:15 p.m. Anabel Taylor Auditorium. "M", in German (with English subtitles). Sponsored by the German Language House.

Saturday

May 4, 7:00 p.m. •Uris Auditorium. "Dune", (1984), directed by David Lynch, with Sting and Linda Hunt.

May 4, 8:00 p.m. •Anabel Taylor Hall. "It's A Wonderful Life", (1946), directed by Frank Capra, with James Stewart and Donna Reed.

May 4, 10:00 p.m. •Uris Auditorium. "Stranger than Paradise", (1984), directed by Jim Jarmusch, with John Lurie and Eszther Balint.

May 4, 12:00 a.m. •Uris Auditorium. "Dune", (1984), directed by David Lynch, with Sting and Linda Hunt.

Sunday

May 5, 2:00 p.m. •Uris Auditorium. "Aida",

(1953), directed by Clemente Fracassi, with Sophia Loren and Lois Maxwell. Cosponsored by Ithaca Opera.

May 5, 8:00 p.m. •Uris Auditorium. "Swing Time", (1936), directed by George Stevens with Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers.

Monday

May 6, 9:00 p.m. •Uris Auditorium "Red Psalm", (1971), directed by Miklos Jancso. Film Club Members Only.

Tuesday

May 7, 8:00 p.m. •Uris Auditorium. "Forbidden Planet", (1956), directed by Fred M. Wilcox, with Walter Pidgeon and Anne Francis.

Wednesday

May 8, 4:30 p.m. Uris Auditorium. "The Family Game", (1984), directed by Yoshimita Morita, with Yusaku Matsuda and Juzo Itami. Cosponsored by the China-Japan Program.

May 8, 8:00 p.m. •Uris Auditorium. "Once Upon a Time in the West", (1969), directed by Sergio Leone, with Henry Fonda and Claudia Cardinale.

Friday

May 10, 8:00 p.m. •Statler Auditorium. "A Star is Born", (1954), directed by George Cukor, with Judy Garland and James Mason.

May 10, 10:15 p.m. •Uris Auditorium. "After the Rehearsal", (1984), directed by Ingmar Bergman, with Erland Josephson and Lena Olin.

May 10, 12:00 a.m. •Uris Auditorium. "King of Hearts", (1967), directed by Philippe de Broca, with Alan Bates and Pierre Brasseur.

Saturday

May 11, 7:00 p.m. •Uris Auditorium. "King of Hearts", (1967), directed by Philippe de Broca, with Alan Bates and Pierre Brasseur.

May 11, 9:15 p.m. •Uris Auditorium. "After the Rehearsal", (1984), directed by Ingmar Bergman, with Erland Josephson and Lena Olin.

May 11, 11:00 p.m. •Uris Auditorium. "What's Up, Tiger Lily?", (1966), directed by Senkichi Taniguchi/Woody Allen, with Woody Allen.

Sunday

May 12, 2:00 p.m. Uris Auditorium. "The Animals Film", (1981), directed by Victor Schonfeld, narrated by Julie Christie, music by Robert Wyatt.

May 12, 8:00 p.m. •Uris Auditorium. "Meet Nero Wolfe", (1936), directed by Herbert Biberman, with Edward Arnold and Lionel Stander.

May 12, 10:00 p.m. Uris Auditorium. IFMAC screening, special screening of new works by the Independent Filmmakers at Cornell.

Lectures

Thursday

May 2, 12:20 p.m. 102 West Avenue Ext. "Nursery Rhymes in Central Thailand: Socialization or Sex Education?" with Suvanna Kriengk-raipetch, SEAP Graduate Student in Anthropology. Sponsored by the Southeast Asia Program.

May 2, 4:30 p.m. 101 Bradfield Hall. "The Invisible Farmer - Women in Agriculture", by Fran Shaver, University of Concordia, Montreal, Canada. Cosponsored by Agronomy Graduate Students Association and Cornell Women's Center with funding from GAFC and SFC.

Friday

May 3, 4:00 p.m. Hollis E. Cornell Auditorium. "Animal Research -- The Argument for Abolition," with health care professional, Steven Tiger. Cosponsored by People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals and the Eco-Justice Council of Cornell.

Monday

May 6, 7:30-9:00 p.m. One World Room, Anabel Taylor Hall. "Economics and Technology for Global Sanity", with Jaroslav Vanek, Professor of Economics, and Director of "Solar Technology and Energy for Vital Economic Needs". Sponsored by Center for World Community and IRIM.

May 6, 8:15 p.m. Sigma Phi Fraternity, One Forest Lane. "The Dark Ages: Or Were They?", with Dr. James Graham-Campbell, Reader in Medieval Archaeology, University College, London. Sponsored by ULC, College of Arts & Sciences, and Classics, English, German Literature and History of Art Departments.

Wednesday

May 8, 7:30-9:00 p.m. One World Room, Anabel Taylor Hall. "Beyond Tomorrow, Ways Toward World Community", a student wrap-up of the course. Sponsored by Center for World Community and IRIM.

Thursday

May 9, 12:20 p.m. 102 West Avenue Ext. "Diversifying, Designing, and Dividing: New Irrigation and the Logic of Settlers in North Sulawesi, Indonesia", with Douglas Vermillion, SEAP Graduate Student in Development Sociology, Cornell University. Sponsored by the Southeast Asia Program.

Friday

May 10, 3:30 p.m. G-3 Veterinary Research Tower. "Factors that Complicate Animal Research with Special Reference to the Effects of Subclinical Infections in Rodents", with Fred W.

May							1984
S	M	T	W	T	F	S	S	M	T	W	T	F	S
			1	2	3	4	5
6	7	8	9	10	11	12
13	14	15	16	17	18	19
20	21	22	23	24	25	26
27	28	29	30	31

Quimby, Director, Center for Research Animal Resources. Sponsored by the Center for Animal Resources.

Music

Several Free Concerts Planned

A number of free public concerts have been scheduled by the Cornell Music Department for the closing days of the academic year.

At 8:15 p.m. Friday, May 3, Trevor Stephenson will give a fortepiano recital in Barnes Hall. A graduate assistant in the department and student of Professor Malcolm Bilson, he will play Sonata in E flat, K. 282, and Fantasy in D minor, K. 397 by Mozart, Sonata in F, Hob. XVI/23 by Haydn, and Sonata in D, Opus 2, No. 3 by Beethoven.

At 4 p.m. Sunday, May 5, the concert bands of Cornell will perform in Bailey Hall under the direction of Professor Marice Stith. The large Symphonic Band will play Officer of the Day March by R. B. Hall, Suite from Sir Arthur Sullivan's ballet "Pineapple Poll," a concerto which will have Carl Stevens and Eric Freeman as trumpet soloists. The Cornell Wind Ensemble continues the concert with Olympic Fanfare and Theme by John Williams, Second Symphony and Elegy by John Barnes Chance and the Whirlwind Polka by Phil Cardew. James Ludwig will be euphonium soloist in Morceau de Concert by Saint Saens, and Laura Van Putte will play the flute solo in Kent Kennan's Night Soliloquy.

"Gamelan Under the Sun" will take place on the Arts Quadrangle at 2:30 p.m. Friday, May 10. Professor Martin Hatch will direct the Cornell Gamelan Ensemble in its final program of Indonesian music this year. (In case of rain, the informal concert will not take place.)

A recital of chamber music will be presented in Barnes Hall at 8:15 p.m. Saturday, May 11. Performers are Carl Blake, piano; Marion Hanson, soprano; Takanori Ohira, violin; Ruth Berry, cello. The program includes Six Preludes from Book II by Debussy, Debussy's Ariettes Oubliees, and Trio No. 2 in C Major, Opus 87 by Beethoven.

At 8:15 p.m. Sunday, May 12, the Sage Chapel Choir will sing sacred works in the chapel. With Stephen May, acting University organist and choirmaster conducting, the ensemble will open the program with the brief "Mass for the Apostles" by the 17th century composer, Girolamo Frescobaldi, followed by Schubert's German Mass.

A highlight of the choir concert is the premiere of a new work by May, entitled Psalter. Written for 6-part chorus, it contains settings of ten texts from metaphysical poets. May holds a doctorate in composition from Cornell University.

Theatre Cornell and Pandaemonium Germanicum will present Martha Schlamme in "A Concert Cabaret" at 8:15 p.m. Friday, May 3 in Statler Auditorium, featuring the theatre songs of Becht, Weill and Brel and European and American folk songs. Tickets are available at the Theatre Cornell Box Office, 256-5165, and the Willard Straight Hall Ticket Office.

The last concert of the 1985 spring concert series will take place tonight when Austrian-born Alfred Brendel visits Bailey Hall Auditorium. One of the world's most recorded pianists, Brendel will play selections from the works of Haydn, Schubert and Mussorgsky beginning at 8:15 p.m. Tickets for the concert are still on sale at the Lincoln Hall ticket office, which is open from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Festival Ends with Two Events

This year's Festival of Contemporary Music at Cornell will conclude with a lecture-recital May 7 by composer Elliott Schwartz and a concert on May 8 presented by the New England Piano Quartette. Both events are free and open to the public.

Schwartz will discuss his compositions at 4 p.m. Tuesday, May 7, in Barnes Hall. Educated at Columbia University where he studied with Otto Leuning, Jack Beeson and Paul Creston, he has been on the Bowdoin College faculty since 1964. He is a professor of music and chairman of the department.

Schwartz has been a guest composer at festivals at the Universities of Kentucky and Memphis State, University of California at Santa Barbara, Trinity College of Music and the Royal College of Music in London, and Institute for Advanced Musical Studies in Switzerland. Honors and awards include residence fellowships at the MacDowell Colony, Wolf Trap, Yaddo, Bellagio, Italy; Gaudamus Prize from the Netherlands, and multiple grants from the National Endowment for the Arts. As a pianist, he has recorded and performed his own music and others, and he is the author of several books. Next September he will be guest artist and judge for the International Contemporary Piano Competition at the Debussy Conservatory in France, and he has been named Distinguished Guest Professor at Ohio State University for the coming academic year.

At 8:15 p.m. Wednesday, May 8, in Barnes Hall, the New England Piano Quartette will play Schwartz's Dream Music with Variations, written in 1983. Quartet, also dating from 1983, by Werner Torkanowsky, a member of the ensemble; and Variations (1984) by Cornell's own Karel Husa. Dream Music is a series of brief character variations, most of them connected and interrelated. Husa's Variations, commissioned by the National Endowment for the Arts and completed last year, explores the possibilities of techniques and sounds of the instruments.

Thursday
May 2, 8:15 p.m. •Bailey Hall. Alfred Brendel, piano. Works of Haydn, Schubert, Mussorgsky (Series concert). Sponsored by the Department of Music and the Faculty Committee on Music.

Friday
May 3, 8:15 p.m. Barnes Hall. Student Recital: Trevor Stephenson, fortepiano. Works of Mozart, Haydn, Beethoven.

Saturday
May 4, 8:00 p.m. •Bailey Hall. The legendary Pete Seeger will be appearing at Cornell. The concert is being presented by the Cornell Folk Song Club. Tickets will cost $7.00 and will go on sale March 25 at Rebob Records in Collegenetown, Noyes Lodge at Cornell, and the Ithaca Guitar Works downtown. In addition, tickets can be ordered by mail by sending a check or money order to: Pete Seeger tickets, c/o Cornell Folk Song Club, PO Box 481, Ithaca, N.Y. 14851

Tickets for the handicapped and the hearing impaired (there will be a sign language interpreter) are available, but only by mail.

Sunday
May 5, 4:00 p.m. Bailey Hall. Combined Concert: Cornell Symphonic Band and Cornell Wind Ensemble conducted by Marice Stith. Works of Del Borgo, Hall, Vivaldi, Ravel, Williams, Chance, others. Sponsored by the Department of Music.

Tuesday
May 7, 4:00 p.m. Barnes Hall. Lecture-Recital: Elliott Schwartz, guest composer, with assisting instrumentalists (Contemporary Music Festival). Sponsored by the Department of Music.

Wednesday
May 8, 8:15 p.m. Barnes Hall. New England Piano Quartette. Works of Husa, Schwartz, Torkanowsky (Contemporary Music Festival). Sponsored by the Department of Music.

Friday
May 10, 2:30 p.m. Arts Quad. Gamelan Under the Sun: Cornell Gamelan Ensemble directed by Martin Hatch (cancelled in the event of rain).

Sunday
May 12, 8:15 p.m. Sage Chapel. Sage Chapel Choir, Stephen May conducting. Works of Schubert, Frescobaldi, May. Sponsored by the Department of Music.

Religious Services

Friday
May 3, 6:00 p.m. Founders Room, Anabel Taylor Hall. Shabbat Services, Conservative Egalitarian Minyan.

May 3, 6:00 p.m. Anabel Taylor Chapel. Shabbat Services, Reform Minyan.
May 3 Shabbat Services. Call 272-5810 for information about the Orthodox Minyan.

Saturday
May 4, 9:15 a.m. Edwards Room, Anabel Taylor Hall. Shabbat Services, Orthodox Minyan.

May 4, 10:00 a.m. Founders Room, Anabel Taylor Hall. Shabbat Services, Conservative Egalitarian Minyan.

Sunday
May 5, 11:00 a.m. Sage Chapel. Student Preacher (to be announced).

May 12, 11:00 a.m. Sage Chapel. Gail V. Riina, Assistant Director, CURW.

Catholic
Mon.-Fri., 12:15 p.m. Anabel Taylor Chapel Catholic Mass

Every Saturday, 5 p.m. Anabel Taylor Auditorium Catholic Mass

Every Sunday, 9:30 & 11 a.m., 5 p.m. Anabel Taylor Auditorium Catholic Mass. Sacrament of Reconciliation by appt. G-22 Anabel Taylor Hall.

Christian Science
Every Thursday, 7 p.m. Anabel Taylor Founders Room

Episcopal
Every Sunday, 9:30 a.m. Anabel Taylor Chapel.

Friends (Quakers)
Every Sunday Anabel Taylor Edwards Room. Meeting for Worship at 11 a.m.; Adult Discussion and First Day School at 9:45 a.m. Babysitting provided.

Korean Church
Every Sunday, 3 p.m. Anabel Taylor Chapel.

Lutheran
Every Sunday, 10:45 a.m. Worship Service. Sunday Church School at 9:30 a.m.

Muslim
Every Friday, 1 p.m. Anabel Taylor Edwards Room. Juma Prayer. Anabel Taylor 218. Zuhr, Asr and other prayers.

Every Sunday, 12:30 p.m. Anabel Taylor Hall. Sunday meeting, discussion groups, children's classes, etc.

Protestant Cooperative Ministry
Every Sunday, 11:15 a.m., Anabel Taylor Chapel.

Seventh Day Adventists
Every Friday, 7:30 p.m. Anabel Taylor Room 314.

Seminars

Agricultural Economics: "United States and Caribbean Trade in Fresh Fruits and Vegetables and the Potential Impact of the U.S. Caribbean Basin Initiative," Mark Mayrsohn, vice president of Mayrsohn International Trading Co. in charge of the Miami office, 11 a.m. Friday, May 3, 401 Warren Hall.

Agricultural Economics: "Limits on Price Analysis," William G. Tomek, professor, Cornell, 4 p.m. Monday, May 6, 145 Warren Hall.

Agronomy: "External and Internal Forces Involved in the Deformation of Unsaturated Soils," Victor Snyder, assistant professor, Cornell, 4 p.m. Tuesday, May 7, 135 Emerson Hall.

Animal Science: "International Animal Agriculture," Jerome Maner, program officer for International Agricultural Development Service, 11:15 a.m. Monday, May 6, 348 Morrison Hall.

Applied Mathematics: "Modulation Codes with an Algebraic Structure," Martin Hassner, IBM San Jose Research Laboratory, 4 p.m. Friday, May 3, 275 Olin Hall.

Astronomy: "Clouds and Chromophores in the Jovian Atmosphere," Robert A. West, Jet Propulsion Lab, 4:30 p.m. Thursday, May 9, 105 Space Sciences.

Atomic and Solid State Physics: "Picosecond Luminescence from Quantum Wells," John Worlock, AT&T Bell Laboratories, 4:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 7, 700 Clark Hall.

Boyce Thompson Institute: "Modification of Bacillus Tehuringensis Crystal Protein Gene Affecting Expression and Toxicity," Dr. M. Adang, Agrigenetics, Madison, 3:15 p.m. Wednesday, May 8, BTI Auditorium.

Chemistry: "Is There a Unifying Mechanism for All Electrophilic Reactions in Organic Chemistry?" Jay Kochi, University of Houston, 4:40 p.m. Monday, May 6, Baker 119.

CISER: "Hazard Models with Applications to Statistical Demography," Jane Menken, professor of sociology, Princeton, 4 p.m. Wednesday, May 8, G92 Uris Hall

CISER, Communication Arts and Government: "Polling on the Issues," Michael R. Kagay, vice president, Louis Harris & Associates Inc., 4 p.m. Friday, May 3, G92 Uris.

Design and Environmental Analysis: "Technological Forecasting: A Necessary Tool for Long Range Strategic Planning," Gene Pontrelli, E. I. duPont de Nemours & Co., 4:30 p.m. Thursday, May 2, 317 Martha Van Rensselaer Hall.

Design and Environmental Analysis: "Use of Kevlar in Braids," Sham Mandaiker, 4:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 7, 317 Martha Van Rensselaer Hall.

Ecology and Systematics: "Interspecific Interactions Among Gulls; Predicting Winners," Patricia A. McGill-Harelstad, Cornell, 4:30 p.m. Monday, May 6, Morison Seminar Room, Corson/Mudd Halls.

Ecology and Systematics: "Plant Distribution Along Alpine Moisture Gradients: The Relative Importance of Competition and Physiological Tolerance," Philip M. Dixon, Cornell, 4:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 8, Morison Seminar Room, Corson/Mudd Halls.

Education: "General Education and Common Learning," Barry B. Adams, Urie Bronfenbrenner and George Posner, 4:15 p.m. Monday, May 6, 401 Warren Hall.

Environmental Toxicology: "The Formation of N-Nitrosamines in Man After Consumption of Nitrate Rich Vegetables," Dr. Willem van Dokkum, Head, Metabolic Ward, Institute CIVO - Toxicology and Nutrition TNO, Department of Human Nutrition, Zeist, Netherlands, 12:15 p.m. Friday, May 3, N207 Martha Van Rensselaer Hall.

Floriculture and Ornamental Horticulture: "Estimating Transpirational Demand from Containerized Trees," Donald A. Rakow, 12:15 p.m. Thursday, May 2, 37 Plant Science.

Floriculture and Ornamental Horticulture: "Vegetative Propagation of Pines; Light Effects on Cuttings and the Use of Fascicles," Brian Maynard, 12:15 p.m. Thursday, May 9, 37 Plant Science.

Geology: "Synthetic Stratigraphy of Carbonate Platforms," J. Cisne, 4:30 p.m. Thursday, May 9, 1120 Snee Hall.

History and Philosophy of Science and Technology: "Geology in the Eighteenth Century," Prof. Rhoda Rappaport, Department of History, Vassar, 4:35 p.m. Wednesday, May 8, 165 McGraw Hall.

Immunology: "Nutrition, Autoimmunity and Cancer," Dr. Gabriel Fernandes, Department of Medicine, University of Texas Health Science Center, 12:15 p.m. Friday, May 3, D-105 Schurman Hall.

Immunology: "Aspects of Immunity to Intestinal Parasites," Dr. Javier Enriquez, Department of Preventive Medicine, Cornell, 12:15 p.m. Monday, May 6, D-105 Schurman Hall.

International Nutrition: "Population as Crisis: Impact on Health Services and Women in Bangladesh," Shelley Feldman, Rural Sociology and Women in Development Program, 12:10 p.m. Thursday, May 2, 130 Savage Hall.

Manufacturing Engineering (COMEPP): "The Great American Chocolate Factory," Ron Orlosky, Hershey Chocolate Co., 4:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 8, 111 Upson Hall.

Material Science and Engineering: "Optical Spectroscopy in Reactive Ion Etching," S. Dzioaba, Bell Northern, 4:30 p.m. Thursday, May 2, 140 Bard Hall

Microbiology: "Regulation of Escherichia Coli Xylose Operon," Dr. Carl A. Batt, MIT, 4:30 p.m. Thursday, May 2, 124 Stocking Hall.

Neurobiology and Behavior: "Organization and Post-Embryonic Development of an Insect Nervous System," Dr. Leslie Tolbert, Anatomy, Georgetown University School of Medicine, 12:30 p.m. Thursday, May 2, Morison Seminar Room, Corson/Mudd Hall.

Neurobiology and Behavior: "Analysis and Isolation of Mammalian Neurons by Fluorescence-Activated Cell Sorting," Paul St. John, Laboratory of Neurophysiology, National Institute of Health, NINCDS, 3 p.m. Friday, May 3, Morison Seminar Room, Corson/Mudd Hall.

Ornithology: "Birds of the Andes," Cynthia Carey, University of Colorado - Boulder, 7:45 p.m. Monday, May 6, Laboratory of Ornithology, 159 Sapsucker Woods Road.

Pathology: "The Effect of Trypanosomiasis on Reproduction in Domestic Ruminants," Dr. Samson Gomba, head of the Reproductive Biology Unit and the Department of Animal Physiology at the University of Nairobi, Kenya, 12:15 p.m. Friday, May 3, Boyce Thompson Institute Auditorium.

Pharmacology: "Evidence that a Na⁺/H⁺ Exchange Mechanism Control 2-Adrenergic Induced Platelet Secretion," Lee Limbird, Pharmacology, Vanderbilt University, 4:30 p.m. Monday, May 6, Pierre A. Fish Laboratory.

Planning: "The Forgotten Ones; Agricultural Laborers in Southern India," Joan Mencher, Anthropology, City University of New York, 12:15 p.m. Friday, May 3, 157 East Sibley.

Plant Biology: "Activity and Activation State of Tomato Leaf RuBP Carboxylase," Joshua Hurewitz, Cornell, 11:15 a.m. Friday, May 3, 404 Plant Science.

Plant Pathology: "The Physiology of Reproduction in Botrytis Squamosa," Fred Balis, 4:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 7, 404 Plant Science.

Plasma Studies: "Resistive Instabilities of Self-Pinched Beams," Dr. M. Lampe, Nabal Research Laboratory, 4:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 8, 282 Grumman Hall.

Pomology: "Tour of Horticulture Interests in California," Pomology Club, 11:15 a.m. Monday, May 6, 114 Plant Sciences.

Poultry Biology: "Relationship Between Carcinogen Metabolism and Genetic Damage in the Chick Embryo," Joshua Hamilton, Cornell, 4:30 p.m. Thursday, May 9, 300 Rice Hall.

Psychology: "What the Gonads and Adrenals Tell the Brain," Dr. Bruce McEwen, Rockefeller University, 3:30 p.m. Friday, May 3, 202 Uris Hall.

Remote Sensing: "Cultural and Physical Feature Extraction from a Landsat Snow-Covered Scene: J. R. Eytan, Pennsylvania State University, University Park, Pa., 4:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 8, 110 Hollister Hall.

Rural Development Committee: "Potatoes, Prices and Food Policy: An Inferior Food Revisited," Doug Horton, International Food Policy Research Institute, Washington, D. C., 12:15 p.m. Thursday, May 9, 153 Uris Hall.

Vegetable Crops: "Applications of Computers in Food Processing," Mark McLellan, professor of food science, New York State Agricultural Experiment Station, Geneva, 4:30 p.m. Thursday, May 9, 404 Plant Science.

Continued on page 8.

Calendar—

Continued from Page 7

Sports

Friday

May 3, 3:30 p.m. Hoy Field. Men's Baseball-New Paltz.

May 3, 4:00 p.m. Cascadilla Courts. Men's Tennis-Princeton.

Friday-Saturday

May 3-4 Schoellkopf. Women's Lacrosse-NY-SAIW Champs.

Saturday

May 4, a.m. Inlet Flood Control. Women's Crew-Dartmouth.

May 4, 12:00 p.m. Schoellkopf. Men's J.V. Lacrosse-Nassau CC.

May 4, 1:00 p.m. Hoy Field. Men's Baseball-Harvard (2).

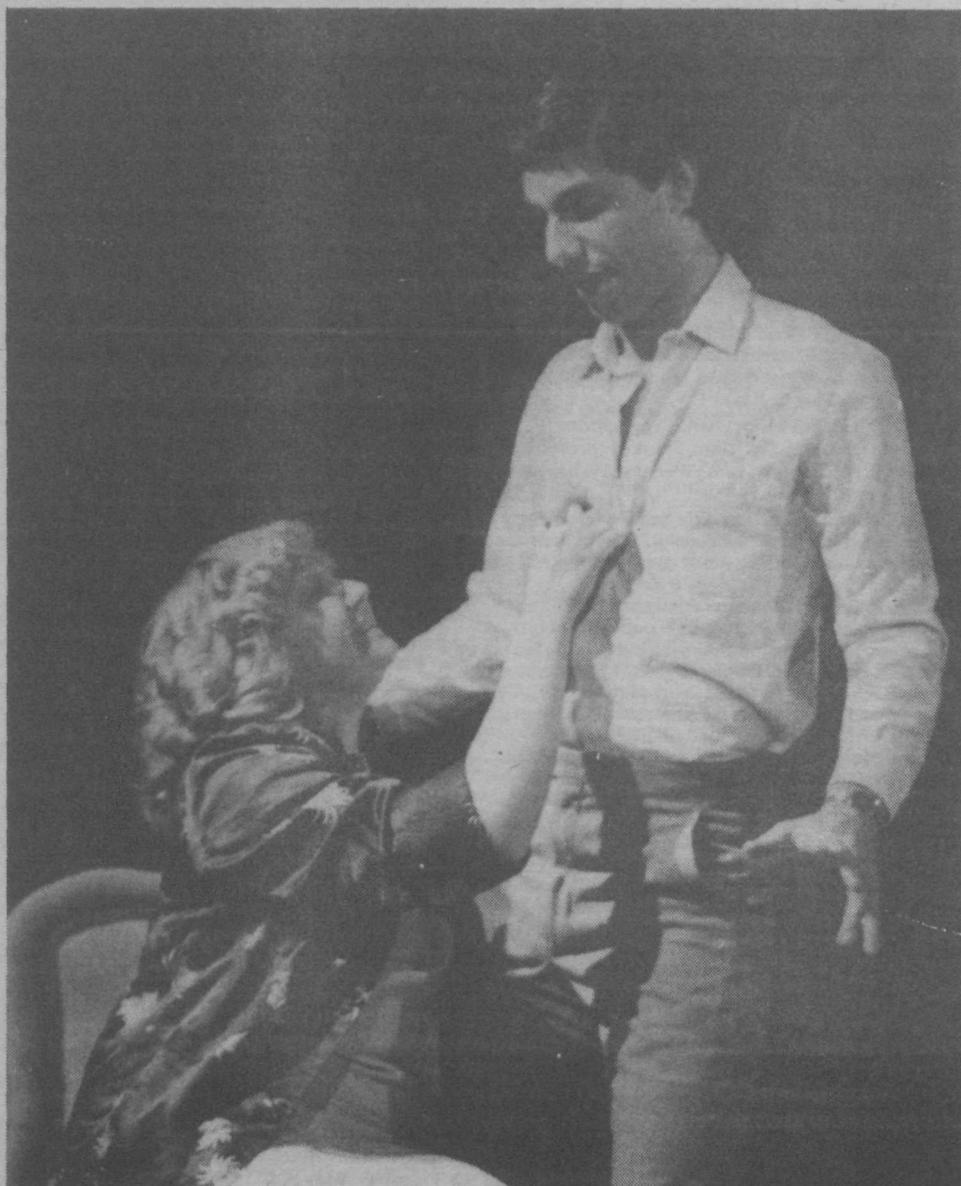

Sunday

May 5, 1:00 p.m. Hoy Field. Men's Baseball-Dartmouth (2).

Theater

Theatre Cornell Wrap-Up: Dance Concert '85

Rounding out a very successful season, Theatre Cornell is proud to present new and original works by student and faculty choreographers. Join us for an evening of innovative dance in a wide range of styles and methods. Dance Concert '85 will be presented in the Willard Straight Theatre on May 2-4, 9-11 at 8:15 p.m., and May 5 at 2:30 p.m. Reservations for Dance Concert '85 may be made by calling the Theatre Cornell box office at (607) 256-5165. The box office is located on the lower floor of Willard Straight hall, and is open Monday-Friday from 1:00-6:00 p.m. Mail orders should be directed to Theatre Cornell, 101 Willard Straight Hall, Ithaca, NY 14853. Visa/Mastercard are accepted.

Featured actors in the Risley Theatre production of "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf" are Christie Weiss as Martha and Mark Boyland as Nick. The production of the work by Edward Albee will be at 8 p.m. May 2-5 and 9-11 and at 2 p.m. May 12. It is directed by Dan Oliverio. Tickets are available at the Willard Straight Hall box office and at the door, for $3 each. Call 256-5365 for information and reservations. The production is funded in part by the Student Finance Commission.

CIVITAS

BIOLOGY TUTORS STILL NEEDED for Ithaca High School students failing their courses. Tutor also sought for student in PRE-CALCULUS course and for student not doing well in SCIENCE, GENERAL MATH, and ENGLISH. We also need one PHYSICS tutor. These high school students can come to campus after school, evenings or weekends. Tutoring usually takes 1-2 hrs./wk.

ITHACA'S RECYCLING PROGRAM seeks block leaders to serve as neighborhood focal point, providing information, solving problems, setting an example. Volunteers will be provided with necessary materials, names of regional contact persons and neighborhood map. Time commitment about 1 hour per month minimum. Two neighborhoods near campus need more thorough coverage. The success of this important ecological program depends on citizen participation, so volunteer now to help in your neighborhood through the summer.

TWO OBSERVERS SOUGHT in nursery school computer study of the behavior of young children exposed to "Macpaint" on the computer. Both observers to work twice a week, one from 8:45-10:15 am, the other 1-3 pm. On campus till the end of the semester.

GENERAL HELPER SOUGHT by administrative office of program serving developmentally disabled adults. Typing, filing, phone answering. Any time between 8-4:30, M-F, for 4-6 weeks. Close to the Commons.

WORKSHOP ON KITEMAKING needs extra hands to help children attending the session with their 4-H leaders. Wed. eve., May 1, 6-9 pm at downtown location.

MEDIA BLITZ is planned as part of a recruitment effort to find family caregivers for developmentally disabled adults. Volunteers are sought to organize and carry it out. Good experience for anyone interested in human services and/or public relations. Time commitment of 3 hrs./wk. to start now and continue through the summer. Office located near Ithaca Commons.

OFF-CAMPUS COUNSELORS sought by Dean of Students Office to provide information to new and transfer students in August concerning off-campus housing and/or living in Ithaca area. Must be available for several 2-hour assignments between Aug. 15-28. Two training sessions, one last week in April, one in August. Application deadline: Friday, April 26. CIVITAS has application forms at 119B Anabel Taylor, or go see Cindy, 103 Barnes Hall.

VISUALLY IMPAIRED FOREIGN GRADUATE STUDENT living in Sage hopes to find companions to take him for evening walks. He also needs help daily getting from Sage to Morrill at 8 am, back to Sage at 9 am, and on Tues. and Thurs. from Sage at 2:30 pm and Morrill at 3:30 pm. On Wed. Aft. he has to go from Sage to Stone at 3:30 pm and back at 6 pm. This student's visual impairment has recently become severe; any help you can offer him will be much appreciated.

4-H NATURAL RESOURCES APPRECIATION PROGRAM seeks 10 volunteers to work as Site Coordinators on May 10, 13 or 15. Work involves coordinating a half day of environmental education activities for 4, 5, 6th graders at any of 6 sites. Training session will be scheduled and help will be provided with transportation.

TO RESPOND: Come to CIVITAS, 119B Anabel Taylor Hall, Open M, W, F 9-3; T, Th 10-2. Or call 256-7513.

Funded in part by the Student Finance Commission and open to the entire Cornell community.

Prinzhorn Collection Exhibits Art of Psychiatric Patients

"Selected Works from the Prinzhorn Collection" will be on view at the Herbert F. Johnson Museum of Art from May 8 to June 30. This exhibition features approximately 300 various artistic impressions of institutionalized psychiatric patients, most of whom were diagnosed as schizophrenic. The majority of the works were created in Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Italy, and the Netherlands between 1890 and 1920.

Traveling for the first time in the United States, the collection was amassed in the 1920s by art historian and physician Hans Prinzhorn of the University Psychiatric Hospital in Heidelberg, West Germany. It constitutes the first systematized attempt to present the art of the insane.

The art in the collection is commonly called "spontaneous" because of the urgency with which it was created. Yet the works encompass styles that range from a great freedom of expression to a painstaking precision and obsession with detail. The subject matter is similarly diverse. Included in the show are drawings, paintings, collages, sculpture, and notebooks, all executed without instruction or assistance. Above all, the Prinzhorn collection demonstrates that even under the most adverse circumstances, human creativity will flourish.

The exhibition was organized by Stephen Prokopoff, director of the Krannert Art Museum of the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign, in collaboration with the Prinzhorn Collection of the University of Heidelberg. A catalogue with many color and black-and-white reproductions is available for purchase in the museum lobby.

Events offered in conjunction with the Prinzhorn exhibition include "Madness and Art: The Prinzhorn collection and Modern Art," a lecture by Stephen Prokopoff, which will take place at 8:15 p.m. Wednesday, June 26, in Bailey Hall. Prokopoff will discuss the collection, its artists, and the impact of the Prinzhorn works.

In addition, a walking lecture/tour of the Prinzhorn Collection will be led by Sander Gilman, professor of psychiatry from the Cornell University Medical College in New York City, at 4 p.m. Thursday, June 27, in the museum. Both programs are sponsored by the Division of Summer Session, Extramural Study, and Related Programs.

Women's Studies Board Adds Six

Four Cornell faculty members and two Cornell students will take seats on the University's Women's Studies Program Executive Board next fall as a result of recent elections.

Elected to faculty board posts are Judith Ginsburg, associate professor of Classics; Davydd J. Greenwood, the John S. Knight Professor of Anthropology and director of the Center for International Studies; Jean Locey, assistant professor of art; Samia Emad El Din Mehrez, assistant professor of near Eastern Studies.

New student members are Nimat Hafez Barazangi, an education major in the State College of Agriculture and Life Sciences, and Jennifer Sharp, a history major in the College of Arts and Sciences.

The Women's Studies Program in the College of Arts and Sciences encourages the development of teaching and scholarship about women and sex roles for both women and men. The executive board, which sets policy, is composed of members of the Cornell and Ithaca communities interested in women's issues.

Graduate Bulletin

May 10 is the last day that any add/drop or changes to course registration for spring semester 1985 may be made. A petition and $10 late processing fee are required.

Summer Graduate Registration materials will be available in the Graduate Office on May 13. May 20 will be the first day of summer registration.

For more information on the fellowships below contact your graduate faculty representative or the Fellowship Office, 116 Sage Graduate Center.

June 1, 1985: Herman Kahn Resident Fellowship Program, Hudson Institute The first fellowships will be offered for the 1985-86 academic year to support Ph.D. candidates who have completed their course work and have only their dissertation remaining. Selected fellows will be able to work on their doctorate fifty percent of the time with the remainder devoted to policy-oriented research projects assigned by Hudson Institute in their general area of interest.

June 14, 1985: Center for Women in Government Legislative Fellowships The program is designed to encourage graduate students to pursue careers in public policy while increasing the capacity of New York State government to address issues of concern to women. Fellowship carries a $9000 stipend and 12 graduate credits from the Graduate School of Public Affairs (Albany, NY).

Diagnostic Laboratory Gains in State Funding

Efforts of dairy, agricultural and livestock groups in the state are credited with helping the Diagnostic Laboratory at the State College of Veterinary Medicine receive $467,000 from the 1985 state budget to support services and new programs.

The laboratory is operated by Cornell with support and collaboration of the State Department of Agriculture and Markets.

Dr. Raymond Cypess, director of the laboratory, said $251,000 is intended to support the laboratory's services, for renovation of physical facilities, purchase of new laboratory equipment and to support new personnel in extension field services for the swine, dairy and equine industries in the state.

With the remaining $216,000, Dr. Donald Lein, assistant director of the laboratory, will coordinate efforts to develop a "3 Disease Program." This is aimed to control and certify cattle herds free of three key diseases — Johne's disease, bovine leukosis and blue tongue. All three have a major impact on livestock production and particularly on the exportation of animals.

Number 17
Cornell University
 University Personnel Services
 Day Hall
 Ithaca, New York 14853
 607/856-8226

Please Note:

Job Opportunities is a publication of Staffing Services and is distributed each Thursday through the Cornell Chronicle. Job Opportunities lists current vacancies within the University, consistent with the University's commitment to promotion from within, affirmative action, and equal opportunity employment.

Applications for employment are available at Cornell University's employment office at East Hill Plaza at the intersection of Ellis Hollow Road and Judd Falls Road in Ithaca, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, Monday through Friday. Applications can be submitted through the mail to University Personnel Services, Staffing Services, 160 Day Hall, Ithaca.

N.Y. 14853. For more information on jobs listed, contact Staffing Services (607) 256-5226.

Employee Transfer Applications: Employees who wish to transfer to other jobs within the University should complete a separate Employee Transfer Application form for each position and submit them to Staffing Services. Individuals with official University layoff status will be given preference in referrals.

This listing is also available on CUINFO

Cornell University's computerized information service. For further CUINFO details, contact the Information and Referral Center at 256-6200 or Computer Services.

New vacancies are listed for two weeks in Job Opportunities.

*Asterisks identify jobs that were not listed last week.

Full-time jobs are 39 hours per week unless otherwise indicated. Jobs listed as SO, U1 and U2 are represented by bargaining units.

vanced graphics program. Develop highly specialized and complex large scale operating systems, software and hardware. Design and oversee engineering modifications on extension to such operating systems to meet organizational goals for computer usage. Responsible for overall system efficiency. Oversee development of scientific work stations.

Requirements: Bachelor's degree or equivalent with related computer courses. 3 - 5 years experience. Knowledge of UNIX, microcomputers and graphics hardware devices. Ability to program in FORTRAN, C, PASCAL, and Assembler. Please send cover letter and resume to Cynthia Smithbower.

Job Number: PT124

Position: Systems Programmer III
 Department: Theory Center

Description: Participate, under general supervision, in major upgrade and expansion of high speed network connecting superminicomputers and scientific workstations to a production supercomputer facility as well as experimental systems. Participate in development of software for prototype systems.

Requirements: Bachelor's degree or equivalent. 3 - 5 years minimum experience. Considerable basic knowledge of operating systems, programming, procedures and techniques. Operating systems, e.g. 4.2 UNIX; TCP-IP Protocols. Please send cover letter and resume to Cynthia Smithbower.

Job Number: PT123

Position: Applications Programmer III
 Department: Theory Center

Description: Design and implement, under general supervision, complex applications software for high speed network and experimental systems.

Requirements: Bachelor's degree or equivalent desired. 3 - 5 years experience. Considerable basic knowledge of major programming languages, particularly C-UNIX. Considerable experience with applications programming. Please send cover letter and resume to Cynthia Smithbower.

Job Number: PT125

Position: Systems Programmer II
 Department: Theory Center

Description: Assist, under general supervision, in upgrade and expansion of high speed network and in development of software for prototype systems.

Requirements: Bachelor's degree desired. 2 - 3 years minimum experience. Basic experience with operating systems, programming, procedures, and techniques. Please send cover letter and resume to Cynthia Smithbower.

Job Number: PT122

Position: Applications Programmer II
 Department: Theory Center

Description: Assist, under general supervision, in design, development modification, maintenance and documentation of straight forward applications software in support of a major high speed network and experimental systems.

Requirements: Bachelor's degree desired. 2 - 3 years experience. Basic experience with applications programming. Knowledge of C-UNIX and at least one other major programming language. Familiarity with VAX, IBM 2081, mini-microcomputers, and network communications. Please send cover letter and resume to Cynthia Smithbower.

Job Number: PT126

Position: Systems Programmer II (Repost)
 Department: Materials Science Center (MSC)

Description: Assist manager in the support of a multi-user computer facility for the physical scientists in MSC. Develop and maintain system software for PRIMOS and UNIX co-operating system for the Prime, and for network connections to laboratory minicomputers. Aid in software problem diagnosis for system and user software. Provide consultation support to users of the facility. Supervise daily operation of the facility.

Requirements: Bachelor's degree in computer science or physical sciences. Programming experience in FORTRAN and some high level structured language. Experience working with multi-user computer systems. Some knowledge of operating systems is useful. Good interpersonal and organizational skills required. Please send cover letter and resume to Cynthia Smithbower.

Job Number: PT065

Position: Research-Planning Associate II (Repost)
 Department: Institutional Planning and Analysis

Description: Coordinate data collection, analysis and reporting of University employees for decision making, affirmative action, comparisons with

Continued on Page 10

Job Opportunities

Cornell University is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer.

Administrative/Professional

The minimum salaries listed are for recruitment purposes only.

*Position: Associate Director of Admissions
 Department: University Admissions Office
 Description: Interpret market research findings, formulate recruitment strategies, and coordinate and implement University recruitment activities in important student market areas in the Northeastern and Southeastern United States. Prepare statistical reports and analyses, supervise junior staff in the region, recruit and develop alumni volunteers, expand and develop the University's on-campus recruitment activities (hosting) program, administer recruitment budget.

Requirements: Bachelor's degree required with some graduate course work preferred. Five years of experience in progressively responsible positions in undergraduate admissions are required. Candidates should have experience with a quantitative, market research based approach to planning recruitment activities. Some supervising experience required. Excellent public speaking and writing abilities. Well developed organizational and interpersonal skills. Familiarity with computer and word processing applications is highly desirable. Please send cover letter and resume to Ralph D. Jones by May 23, 1985.
 Job Number: PA175

Position: Development Officer
 Department: Johnson Graduate School of Management
 Description: Plan, develop and implement annual fund drive to obtain support from private sources. Plan publications and financial reports. Coordinate School's drive with University Development Office.

Requirements: Bachelor's degree required; Master's degree preferred. Five years fund raising experience required. Good knowledge of computing and knowledge of Cornell desired. Please send cover letter and resume to Ralph D. Jones by May 16, 1985.
 Job Number: PA159

*Position: Student Development Specialist IV
 Department: NYSSILR - School Relations
 Description: The NYSSILR is seeking an experienced career counselor to serve as the director of its Career Services. Design, implement, and administer a career planning and placement program for students and alumni and administer the academic internship program. Travel is required.

Requirements: Master's degree in counseling, higher education administration or relevant field or equivalent combination of education and experience. Two years experience in career counseling, placement activities. Competence in career counseling, program planning, administration and exceptional oral and written communication skills. Please send cover letter and resume to Ralph D. Jones by May 15, 1985.
 Job Number: PA172

*Position: Photo Specialist II
 Department: Plant Pathology
 Description: Provide chemical and electronic photography services to a large academic department. Duties include studio photography of biological specimens, produce photographic prints and slides, copy photographs, prepare print slides for seminars, prepare illustrations for publications, provide photographic advice to members of the department, and other related duties.

Requirements: Bachelor's degree or equivalent combination of education and experience in biological or plant sciences. Experience with chemical and electronic techniques of color and black and white photography necessary.

Minimum Starting Salary: $13,625
 Job Number: PS174

*Position: Visual Specialist I
 Department: Media Services
 Description: Conceive, design, and fabricate exhibit and display materials for local, statewide, and national use by faculty, staff, and other members of the university.

Requirements: Associate's degree in graphic design, fine arts or related field or equivalent combination of education and experience. Considerable experience in design, illustration, layout, typography, and graphic arts production. Ability to estimate cost of materials and supporting vendor services needed in exhibit fabrication, shipment, and display. Knowledge of computer-driven X-Y plotter for producing computer-generated typography and graphics desirable.

Minimum Starting Salary: $13,625
 Job Number: PS173

Position: Counselor-Therapist I
 Department: University Health Services
 Description: Professional expertise required in working with a university population as a short-term therapist. Crisis intervention, community consultation, campus outreach, emergency coverage, group work and couple therapy will comprise the majority of duties so that skills commensurate with such services are crucial.

Requirements: Master's degree in social work. Internship and 1 - 2 years' experience in comparable setting desirable. Please send cover letter and resume to Ralph D. Jones.
 Job Number: PA1510

Position: Assistant Director of Program & Development, Willard Straight Hall
 Department: Unions & Activities

Description: Develop and coordinate program and services. Advise WSH Program Board, its committees and assigned program groups and functions. Plan and coordinate volunteer and staff training for 150 (including volunteer board and committee members, student staff, support staff and professional staff). Develop and coordinate marketing, promotional and public information programs and services. Budget and supervisory management of several operational areas including University Audio Visual Services, the Browsing Library, Graphic Design Services and others. Develop and supervise submission of grant proposals. Coordinate program and student evaluations and assessments.

Requirements: Bachelor's degree required. Advanced degree and/or significant experience in student and community development preferred. Three years experience in a related field. Experience with program development and advisement, group development and training and grant proposal writing. Please send cover letter and resume to Ralph D. Jones.
 Job Number: PA161

Position: Project Coordinator II
 Department: Maintenance & Service Operations
 Description: Serve as a liaison between University departments and M&SO on building maintenance matters. Identify building operating problems and project scope. Schedule and coordinate maintenance and rehabilitation projects; inspect construction. Approve maintenance work for payments.

Requirements: Associate's degree in engineering or construction technology is required. Bachelor's degree in engineering, architecture or business administration preferred. Strong technical background in buildings needed, with a minimum of 4 - 5 years of experience in construction or maintenance management. Demonstrated strong oral and written communication skills required. Please send cover letter and resume to Ralph D. Jones.
 Job Number: PA162

Position: Technical Advisor
 Department: Theory Center
 Description: Reporting directly to the Manager of Experimental Systems and Networks, provide direction and supervise the upgrade and expansion of a high speed network, and supervise development of software for experimental supercomputers.

Requirements: Bachelor's degree or equivalent with completion of related computer science coursework. Considerable experience in large scale computer systems software, programming experience and techniques. Extensive knowledge of UNIX and VMICMS. Please send cover letter and resume to Cynthia Smithbower.
 Job Number: PT1210

Position: Technical Specialist II
 Department: Theory Center
 Description: Work directly with supercomputer users to assist in solving problems in the theoretical sciences using unique resources of massively parallel systems. Provide direction to research process including definition of problem and objectives, outlining and testing of procedures and techniques.

Requirements: Bachelor's degree or equivalent with graduate study in computer science, one of the physical or biological sciences, or engineering. 5 - 7 years experience including 1 - 2 years analysis, design, implementation and/or maintenance of a major interactive computer system. Experience with parallel systems desirable. Fluency in at least two programming languages; commitment to UNIX. Please send cover letter and resume to Cynthia Smithbower.
 Job Number: PT129

Position: Technical Specialist I
 Department: Theory Center
 Description: Work directly with supercomputer users to assist in solving problems in the theoretical sciences using unique resources of massively parallel systems. Work with scientist in algorithm development; develop methodology for utilizing parallel systems.

Requirements: Bachelor's degree or equivalent. 3 - 5 years experience. Sound knowledge of operating systems and programming. Experience with parallel systems desirable. Fluency in at least two programming languages; commitment to UNIX. Please send cover letter and resume to Cynthia Smithbower.
 Job Number: PT128

Position: Senior Systems Programmer
 Department: Theory Center
 Description: Provide, under general supervision, highly specialized systems support to an ad-

Job Opportunities

Continued from Page 9

other institutions; develop management indicators and supporting base data; assist in support of University planning process; provide project support as necessary.

Requirements: Master's degree or equivalent experience. Familiarity with personnel information systems, affirmative action reporting requirements, systems analysis—data base management helpful. Good communication skills necessary. Please send cover letter and resume to Cynthia Smithbower.

Job Number: PT4910

Position: Research Support Specialist (Repost)
Department: Food Science

Description: Provide technical support in research on physical properties of proteins. Will involve determination of processing and chemical factors affecting surface area and flavor absorption, in addition to protein association, viscosity, gelation and surface activity. Help maintain laboratory instrumentation and coordinate purchasing and instrument use. Assist in supervision of lab operations.

Requirements: Bachelor's degree preferred. Knowledge of physical chemistry of proteins. Experience in physical testing of biological—food materials as well as coordinating and maintaining a research laboratory. Please send cover letter and resume to Cynthia Smithbower.

Minimum Starting Salary: $16,000
Job Number: PT102

Position: Student Development Specialist III
Department: Division of Student Services Admissions, College of Human Ecology

Description: Coordinate and execute recruitment and selection programs; travel to high schools and to community colleges; advise student ambassadors; develop and execute publications, videotapes and hosting efforts; assist with general administration and interface with alumni, guidance counselors and selection committee.

Requirements: Master's degree or equivalent in counseling, student personnel or related field. Admissions office experience required; counseling, publication and videotape development experience preferred; excellent interpersonal and communication skills essential. Please send cover letter and resume by May 2, 1985 to Ralph D. Jones.

Job Number: PA156

Position: Research Support Specialist I
Department: Neurobiology and Behavior

Description: Provide technical support involving data collection, perform experiments, library research and prepare publications. Will also participate in field work, sometimes away from Ithaca. Some routine lab duties.

Requirements: Bachelor's degree in entomology or a related field preferred. Two to three years experience involving library work and field experimentation. Must own car. Please send cover letter and resume to Cynthia Smithbower.

Job Number: PT144

Position: Student Development Specialist III
Department: Career Center

Description: Oversee the activities of a part-time placement office located in College of Architecture, Art and Planning. Coordinator reports to Director of Career Center. Provide advice—counseling to students regarding job hunting; sponsor career—placement programs (i.e., resume, portfolio); foster communication with employers pertaining to on-campus recruiting and job development. Serve as liaison with faculty and college administrators; supervise student assistants. Four days per week, 8:00 to 4:30 (negotiable).

Requirements: Bachelor's degree required; advanced degree preferred. Experience in or knowledge of architecture, art or planning required. Excellent organizational, interpersonal, and writing skills; experience in career planning and placement desirable. Please send cover letter and resume to Ralph D. Jones.

Job Number: PA145

Position: Student Development Specialist I
Department: Career Center

Description: Serve as Coordinator of Career Library responsible for overseeing activities of the Career Center library. Assist students in using library resources; review publications; process and maintain all resources in cooperation with the Information Specialist. Coordinate the program calendar of events; publish a nationally acclaimed annotated bibliography (biannual); offer job search workshops.

Requirements: Bachelor's degree required; advanced degree preferred. Excellent organizational, interpersonal and writing skills; extensive interaction with students. Previous library experience helpful, but not required. Please send cover letter and resume to Ralph D. Jones.

Job Number: PA146

Position: Computer Systems Administrator

Department: School of Hotel Administration

Description: Reporting to the Director of Business and Administration, will develop, modify and maintain computer operations for the School and Statler Inn. Responsibilities include project development and implementation in addition to supervision of one programmer.

Requirements: Bachelor's degree in computer science or related field. At least three years relevant experience including project management and systems analysis. Must have working knowledge of COBOL. Familiarity with the WANG VS system desirable. Knowledge of the Cornell accounting system helpful. Familiarity with file management, report utilities, data base—telecommunications and word processing concepts preferred. Prior experience in a hotel environment preferred. Send cover letter and resume to Cynthia Smithbower.

Job Number: PT132

Position: Applications Programmer—Analyst III

Department: University Registrar

Description: Direct, organize, schedule and supervise a computer programming staff of 3 - 5. Analyze system requirements and prepare programming specifications for programming projects conducted by this staff.

Requirements: Bachelor's degree with computer-related courses. 3 - 7 years of experience in application design and development, preferably in an interactive environment. Familiarity with IBM or WANG VS equipment preferred. Please send cover letter and resume to Cynthia Smithbower.

Minimum Starting Salary: $20,000

Job Number: PT134

Position: Technical Consultant

Department: Residence Life

Description: Coordinate management systems in Residence Life, a $16 million enterprise responsible for on campus housing for 7,000 students. Design plans for current and future systems (hardware and software) development. Train Residence Life staff in use of mainframe and microcomputers.

Requirements: Bachelor's degree with related computer courses. Proven knowledge and experience in management systems, both microcomputer and mainframe based required. Experience with ADABAS—NATURAL and microcomputer software is extremely helpful. Ability to work independently and collaborate with non-technically oriented users. Please send cover letter and resume to Cynthia Smithbower.

Job Number: PT117

Clerical

All applicants interested in positions requiring typing must take an official University test. Tests are given on Monday and Wednesday at 8:00 A.M. in Room 337, Statler Hall. Please contact Staffing Services for an appointment.

*Position: Administrative Aide, GR23

Department: Theatre Arts

Description: Market and promote Theatre Cornell. Develop audience base for theatre productions; initiate and implement publicity campaigns; research, write and edit promotional pieces (brochures, programs, newsletter, releases); maintain mailing lists; supervise box office operations and front of house staff.

Requirements: Associate's degree or equivalent. Bachelor's degree in an arts or arts—business field or equivalent desirable. Performing arts management (non-profit). Good journalism and promotional writing skills. Knowledge of graphic arts. Experience with box office operations and accounting systems. Ability to work independently. Please send cover letter and resume to Esther L. Smith by May 20, 1985.

Minimum Starting Salary: $13,928

Job Number: C175

*Position: Editorial Assistant, GR21

Department: CRSR

Description: Primary responsibility as editorial assistant for monthly journal, ICARUS, the major scientific publication in planetary studies. Provide clerical support to one faculty member. Scientific typing; answer telephone; some bookkeeping; arrange travel.

Requirements: Associate's degree or equivalent. Medium typing. Excellent command of English, style and grammar. Ability to keep excellent rerecords. Some knowledge of astronomy and mechanics of journal production would be helpful. Please send cover letter and resume to Esther L. Smith by May 17, 1985.

Minimum Starting Salary: $12,469

Job Number: C161

*Position: Secretary, GR20

Department: Laboratory of Nuclear Studies

Description: Provide secretarial support for several physics researchers. Type technical manuscripts; answer telephone; make travel arrangements. Other clerical duties as assigned.

Requirements: Associate's degree or equivalent. Heavy typing. Extensive secretarial experience; strong organizational, interpersonal and communication skills. Knowledge of and—or willingness to learn scientific word processing using a computer (TROFF) essential.

Minimum Starting Salary: $11,739

Job Number: C1715

*Position: Secretary, GR19

Department: Modern Languages and Linguistics

Description: Provide secretarial support to FALCON program and special Japanese summer program. Type correspondence for three faculty; assist in preparation of reports and classroom materials; process applications; assist in organizing workshops; process expenditures; arrange travel; supervise work-study office assistant.

Requirements: Associate's degree or equivalent. At least one to three years secretarial experience. Medium typing. Excellent interpersonal and organizational skills. Ability to work under pressure. Shorthand desirable. Knowledge of word processors helpful.

Minimum Starting Salary: $11,125

Job Number: C172

*Position: Accounts Assistant, GR19

Department: Residence Life

Description: Manage the security deposit account; provide coordination and billing for residence hall telephone during summer; input housing assignment data into computer; type; answer telephones and inquiries. Other duties as assigned.

Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent with strong math skills. Additional training in accounting and computers highly desirable. Medium typing. Strong communications and interpersonal skills. Organizational ability and accuracy extremely important. Ability to work in an environment with several distractions occurring simultaneously.

Minimum Starting Salary: $11,125

Job Number: C177

*Position: Circulation Secretary, GR18

Department: Philosophy

Description: Maintain computerized circulation records for 3200 subscribers of The Philosophical Review. Record checks and organize them for deposit; record new expiration dates, new subscribers and subscriber address changes; write to subscribers regarding queries and problems; plan circulation procedures related to a quarterly scholarly journal; proofreading.

Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Associate's degree or equivalent desirable. Light typing. Familiarity with publishing process. Publication-circulation experience. Strong organizational skills and attention to detail essential. Familiarity with philosophical symbols helpful. Word processing skills for IBM PC XT desired. train if necessary. Excellent proofreading skills. Please send cover letter and resume to Esther L. Smith by May 13, 1985.

Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500

Job Number: C1713

*Position: Secretary, GR18

Department: Center for International Studies—Peace Studies

Description: Provide secretarial—clerical support to the Peace Studies Program. Maintain and monitor department accounts; prepare vouchers, monthly statements, deposit slips and travel reimbursements; type book length manuscripts, and articles for three professors and two visitors.

Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Business or secretarial school desirable. Medium typing. Knowledge of Cornell Accounting procedures and word processing equipment. At least one to two years office experience. Excellent organizational and interpersonal skills.

Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500

Job Number: C174

*Position: Office Assistant, GR18

Department: Statler Inn

Description: Provide receptionist—clerical support for purchasing agent and personnel office.

Answer all telephones and inquiries; maintain files and records; type letters, correspondence, etc.; handle mail; maintain calendars; other clerical duties as assigned. Full-time, regular, Monday - Friday 8:00 - 4:40 (some weekends).

Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Business or secretarial school desirable. Medium typing. At least two years secretarial experience. Excellent interpersonal and organizational skills. Knowledge of word processors.

Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500

Job Number: C178

*Position: Secretary, GR18

Department: University Relations—News Service

Description: Type (using Xerox 860 word processing system); maintain files; answer telephones and refer calls; process mail; operate photocopier; use mail and mimeograph equipment.

Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Business or secretarial school desirable. Associate's degree or equivalent years of experience necessary. Heavy typing. At least one to three years experience working knowledge of word processing equipment (Xerox 860) preferred; excellent knowledge of spelling, grammar, and punctuation. Must be able to type accurately under pressure and respond to deadlines.

Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500

Job Number: C176

*Position: Office Assistant, GR17

Department: Endowed Accounting

Description: Serve as Controller's Office Receptionist at East Hill Plaza. Answer telephone console and refer calls; greet visitors and direct to appropriate area; sort mail; process deposit tickets; type; other clerical duties as assigned.

Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Medium typing. Previous receptionist experience. Some accounting or bookkeeping experience. Good interpersonal and communications skills.

Minimum Starting Salary: $9,967

Job Number: C179

*Position: Secretary, GR16

Department: Animal Science

Description: Receptionist; answer telephones; place outgoing calls; type; xerox; check and prepare processed barn sheets for filming; pull AM-Calf—MCPFR edits. Other clerical duties as assigned. Monday - Thursday 7:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m. Friday 7:00 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.

Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Medium typing. Some clerical experience. Excellent organizational and interpersonal skills.

Minimum Starting Salary: $9,494

Job Number: C1712

Position: Administrative Aide, GR20

Department: University Development

Description: Provide administrative and organizational support for the Director of Donor Relations. Research and track endowed and annual funded scholarships, fellowships, professorships and prize accounts; prepare formatted reports to donors; assist at donor—recipient events and coordinate fund raising for financial aid.

Requirements: Associate's degree or equivalent. Heavy typing. Basic writing and editing skills. Knowledge of grammar and syntax. Strong organizational ability in managing complex records system. Knowledge of computer terminal operation and other data systems.

Minimum Starting Salary: $11,739

Job Number: C168

Position: Secretary, GR19

Department: Public Affairs - Engineering College

Description: Provide administrative and secretarial support for the Director of Public Affairs, the Alumni Assistant and the Dean of the College of Engineering. Manage complex data file systems; prepare vouchers and maintain alumni dues membership files; make travel arrangements; plan and execute large mailings to alumni, oversee work study student on occasion.

Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Associate's degree or equivalent desirable. Medium typing. Related word processing or IBM Displaywriter experience essential. Strong organizational, interpersonal and written and verbal communications skills required. Minimum of two years secretarial experience. Ability to work independently. Confidentiality essential.

Minimum Starting Salary: $11,125

Job Number: C169

Position: Secretary, GR18

Department: Civil and Environmental Engineering

Description: Provide secretarial support for an

Endowed Chair faculty member. Type correspondence, classwork, technical manuscripts (using Greek symbol), etc.; transcription; answer telephone; file; arrange appointments; keep calendar; assist in main office duties as assigned.

Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Business or secretarial school desirable. Heavy typing. Some secretarial and dictaphone experience. Knowledge of technical typing and word processing equipment helpful. Strong organizational and interpersonal skills.
Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500
Job Number: C162

Position: Senior Records Assistant, GR18
Department: Fine Arts Library
Description: Pre-order search on RLIN, order books with LC copy; process incoming new books and card sets; responsible for daily filing of circulation cards; process overdues and tracers; order and maintain departmental supplies; department secretarial work. Monday - Friday, 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.; may include some weekends.
Requirements: Associate's degree or equivalent; Bachelor's degree or equivalent desirable. Light typing. Library experience helpful. European language useful but not required. Strong organizational skills. Must be willing to do a variety of tasks and work independently.
Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500
Job Number: C165

Position: Receptionist, GR18
Department: Student Employment Office
Description: Coordinate staffing of SEO main desk and switchboard. Assist with training of student employees working at the main desk; handle paperflow of appointment forms and other information to and from public; provide general information or make appropriate referrals; process payroll forms; handle incoming and outgoing mail; provide clerical back-up to administrative staff as required.
Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Business or secretarial school desirable. Medium typing. Ability to operate word processor; proven strong communication skills. Some secretarial experience preferred. Ability to work under pressure.
Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500
Job Number: C1611

Position: Secretary, GR18
Department: Engineering Dean's Office - Engineering Advising, Counseling and Minority Programs
Description: Provide secretarial and receptionist support for administrative staff. Type reports, manuscripts, etc.; answer telephone; word processing; handle accounts receivable and payable. Other duties as assigned.
Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Business or secretarial school desirable. Medium typing. Excellent interpersonal and organizational skills necessary. Basic accounting and office experience required. Knowledge of word processor or computer helpful.
Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500
Job Number: C167

Position: Personnel Assistant, GR16
Department: University Personnel Services
Description: Maintain confidential employment files for all staff and faculty at the University. Complete requests for verifications of employment and for credit references; process I.D. card replacements, sort and distribute all mail for University Personnel Services. Annual W-2 mailing for Cornell employees.
Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Light typing. Some office experience. Excellent organizational and interpersonal skills. Ability to work independently. Confidentiality essential.
Minimum Starting Salary: $9,494
Job Number: C1610

Position: Building Attendant, GR16
Department: Circulation - Uris Library
Description: Inspect knapsacks, briefcases, books, etc., of exiting patrons; answer general questions; perform a variety of clerical duties as assigned; prepare bills for bursar, collections, fines, etc.; may assist with weekly overdue notices. Other duties as assigned. Monday - Friday, some weekend and evening hours.
Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Medium typing. Ability to work with a variety of people at a public service desk. Knowledge of basic accounting—billing procedures.
Minimum Starting Salary: $9,494
Job Number: C166

Position: Circulation—Reserve Supervisor, GR20 (Repost)

Department: Veterinary Library
Description: Coordinate the daily operation of the Circulation—Reserve Desk and perform various circulation functions. Searches missing items; bills fines and replacements; maintains the reserve collection and stacks; staff the Circulation—Reserve Desk and answers directional and informational questions; trains and oversees 12 student assistants; coordinates non-ILL photocopy service.
Requirements: Bachelor's degree or equivalent experience and/or training. Light typing. Strong public service orientation essential. Previous library experience highly desirable. Ability to accurately perform and organize detailed work. Strong communication and interpersonal skills.
Minimum Starting Salary: $11,739
Job Number: C4913

Position: Senior Special Collections Assistant, GR20 (Repost)
Department: History of Science - Olin Library
Description: Catalog rare books using existing catalog copy; catalog special rare books such as manuscripts and graphics; provide specialized information service; supervise reading room and circulation; make decisions about binding and preservation; search bibliographic records; maintain departmental catalogs; other special projects as appropriate.
Requirements: Bachelor's degree or equivalent in the humanities and/or the sciences. Excellent reading knowledge of French; reading knowledge of Latin desirable. Ability to work independently and to interact effectively with graduate students, faculty and visiting scholars required. Initiative and a willingness to perform complex tasks in which sensitivity to detail and accuracy is necessary. Appreciation of the nature and significance of rare books. Ability to provide information service for collection users in their research needs.
Minimum Starting Salary: $11,739
Job Number: C024

Position: Custodian—Group Leader SO17
Department: Residence Life - W. Campus (Endowed)
Description: Coordinate and assign all project work. Keep inventory records and issue supplies. Assist Housekeeping Supervisors with daily housekeeping operation. Monday - Thursday, 7:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.; Fridays 7:30 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.
Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Supervisory experience helpful. Excellent organizational skills and record keeping. Excellent interpersonal skills to work with students, staff and visitors.
Minimum Starting Salary: $4.69—hour
Job Number: S172

Position: Custodian, SO16
Department: Residence Life (Endowed)
Description: Perform maintenance and custodial care of buildings and ground in immediate vicinity of assigned area. Monday - Thursday, 7:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.; Fridays, 7:30 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.
Requirements: Ability to operate a variety of heavy power operated equipment, climb an 8' ladder and lift 50 lbs.
Minimum Starting Salary: $4.47—hour
Job Number: S171

Position: Vehicle Mechanic, SO23
Department: CU-Transit, Inc. (Endowed)
Description: Responsibilities divided 50—50 between vehicle maintenance and driving. Responsible for repair and maintenance of diesel engines and general maintenance of over-the-road coaches. Drive over-the-road coaches.
Requirements: High School diploma or equivalent. Five years experience as a diesel mechanic 2-3 years minimum experience driving over-the-road coaches. Valid NYS Class II license. Monday - Friday, 7:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon and 1:00 p.m. - 3:48 p.m. Must be available to go out of town for up to five days and to work weekends and holidays.
Minimum Starting Salary: $6.61—hour
Job Number: S156

Position: Animal Technician, GR18
Department: Veterinary Microbiology
Description: Assist in care of large laboratory animals (horses, cattle) and maintenance of isolation units following strictly prescribed procedures. Responsible for collection of blood samples, measurement and recording of animal temperature, animal observation and maintenance of accurate health records.
Requirements: High School diploma or equivalent. 2-4 years experience in large animal handling. Available to work weekends and holidays. Pre-employment physical required.
Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500
Job Number: S154

Position: CHES Operator, GR24
Department: CHES (Applied and Engineering Physics)
Description: Provide technical assistance to users of six experimental beam lines at the Cornell High Energy Synchrotron Source. Responsible for the development and maintenance of x-ray instruments, both hardware and software. Supervise the enforcement of various safety codes. May assist in experimental programs. Some evening and weekend hours.
Requirements: Bachelor's degree in the physical sciences or equivalent experience. Good mechanical and lab skills.
Minimum Starting Salary: $14,779
Job Number: T169

Position: Computer Operator, GR21-24 (Six positions)
Department: Computer Services - Production Supercomputer Facility
Description: Operate large scale computer systems and associated peripheral equipment and monitor data communications networks. Consult with vendor customer engineers and departmental support staff. 39 hours per week, shift work, weekends.
Requirements: Associate's degree or equivalent combination of education and experience in large data processing facilities. Computer operating experience required, data communications experience helpful. Knowledge of computer hardware, software, operating systems and programming languages preferred. Apply by May 10, 1985, to Cynthia Smithbower.
Minimum Starting Salary: $12,469
Job Number: T163

Position: Technician, GR20
Department: Avian & Aquatic Animal Medicine
Description: Assist in diagnostic and research procedures in histology (GMA plastic) and microbiology and water quality analysis related to the study of lesions in fish that may be affected by environmental toxicants.
Requirements: Bachelor's degree in the biomedical sciences or aquatic biology. Training and/or 2-3 years experience in histotechnology. Specific training in water quality analysis desirable. Some training in microbiology techniques helpful.
Minimum Starting Salary: $11,739
Job Number: T162

Position: Technician, GR18

Department: Equine Drug Testing & Research - Yonkers—Roosevelt Racetracks
Description: Perform analysis of blood and urine samples in a field drug testing laboratory to serve Roosevelt—Yonkers race tracks.
Requirements: Associate's degree in chemistry or a related field or equivalent lab experience. Experience with thin layer chromatography and general laboratory procedures. Familiarity with gas chromatograph.
Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500
Job Number: T161

Position: Technician, GR20
Department: Genetics and Development
Description: Maintain Drosophila stocks and populations, prepare nucleic acids, gel electrophoresis, blot transfers, radioactive labelling, hybridization. Some routine lab maintenance such as ordering and monitoring isotope use.
Requirements: Bachelor's degree or equivalent in biological sciences or in chemistry. Prior technical lab experience essential.
Minimum Starting Salary: $11,739
Job Number: T144

Position: Accelerator Operator, GR24
Department: Lab of Nuclear Studies
Description: Perform skilled work in the operation of a computer-controlled accelerator system and on special projects related to maintaining and improving components of the system. Rotating shift work.
Requirements: Associate's degree in electronics or comparable training through similar relevant courses or programs, or a Bachelor's degree in physics. Some experience in a electronics or physics laboratory with mechanical skills preferred. Apply by May 17, 1985.
Minimum Starting Salary: $14,779
Job Number: T171

Position: Research Assistant
Department: Boyce Thompson Institute
Description: Carry out studies in cell wall biochemistry and physiology, especially enzymatic degradation of plant tissues and cell walls. Assist in maintenance of fungal and plant protoplast cultures.
Requirements: Bachelor's degree or better in plant sciences or biochemistry. Familiarity with spectrophotometric and chromatographic techniques desirable. Knowledge of plant pathology and/or enzymology helpful. Send cover letter and resume to Dr. Harry Mussell, Boyce Thompson Institute, 257-2030.
Minimum Starting Salary: $11,200
Job Number: T173

Position: Secretary, GR18
Department: NYC Extension Associate, (Off Campus)
Description: Provide clerical—receptionist support to EFNEP program. Type reports, letters, memos and educational materials; answer telephone inquiries; assist staff in scheduling and making arrangements for meetings and conferences; maintain and process petty cash, vouchers and travel requests; maintain an accounting of funds expended and multiple files. 22.5 hours per week—flexible until April 1986.
Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Business or secretarial school desirable. Medium typing. At least one year secretarial experience. Excellent organizational and interpersonal skills.
Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500—annual equivalent
Job Number: C1714

Position: Program Advisor
Department: Unions and Activities
Description: Provide assistance to and serve as resource for outdoor summer and winter trip programs involving undergraduate students. Provide advice and expertise in outdoor programming decisions; provide informal counseling to student members on various outdoor issues; assist and participate in guide training for trips; be a permanent member of the guide selection committee; evaluate with trip coordinators the safety of all trips and guide performance. Casual appointment, days and hours vary, 185 hours per year.
Requirements: Bachelor's degree or equivalent in higher education administration, counseling, student personnel. Substantial experience in leadership, training, programming, counseling, general administration. Excellent interpersonal, communication and organizational skills required. Please send cover letter and resume to Ralph D. Jones by May 3, 1985.
Annual Salary: $3,000
Job Number: PA163

Position: Records Assistant, GR16
Department: Acquisitions - Olin Library
Description: Process books as received; record receipt of books sent on standing order; process invoices for payment; update RLIN data base; other duties as assigned. 20 hours per week, flexible.
Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Medium typing. Experience with computers

Position: Administrative Aide, GR20
Department: Agricultural Engineering
Description: Provide administrative—secretarial support to the Environmental Quality—Renewable Energy Group. Type classwork, correspondence, manuscripts, etc; proofread and edit proposals and progress reports; answer telephone; assist with budget; handle mail. Other duties as assigned. Monday - Friday, 20 - 30 hours per week.
Requirements: Associate's degree in secretarial science or equivalent. Heavy typing. At least three to five years experience. Excellent grammar, punctuation, editing and communication skills. Machine transcription experience. High speed—accurate typing.
Minimum Starting Salary: $11,739—annual equivalent
Job Number: C1714

Position: Secretary, GR18
Department: NYC Extension Associate, (Off Campus)
Description: Provide clerical—receptionist support to EFNEP program. Type reports, letters, memos and educational materials; answer telephone inquiries; assist staff in scheduling and making arrangements for meetings and conferences; maintain and process petty cash, vouchers and travel requests; maintain an accounting of funds expended and multiple files. 22.5 hours per week—flexible until April 1986.
Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Business or secretarial school desirable. Medium typing. At least one year secretarial experience. Excellent organizational and interpersonal skills.
Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500—annual equivalent
Job Number: C171

Position: Secretary, GR18
Department: NYC Extension Associate, (Off Campus)
Description: Provide clerical—receptionist support to EFNEP program. Type reports, letters, memos and educational materials; answer telephone inquiries; assist staff in scheduling and making arrangements for meetings and conferences; maintain and process petty cash, vouchers and travel requests; maintain an accounting of funds expended and multiple files. 22.5 hours per week—flexible until April 1986.
Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Business or secretarial school desirable. Medium typing. At least one year secretarial experience. Excellent organizational and interpersonal skills.
Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500—annual equivalent
Job Number: C171

Position: Secretary, GR18
Department: NYC Extension Associate, (Off Campus)
Description: Provide clerical—receptionist support to EFNEP program. Type reports, letters, memos and educational materials; answer telephone inquiries; assist staff in scheduling and making arrangements for meetings and conferences; maintain and process petty cash, vouchers and travel requests; maintain an accounting of funds expended and multiple files. 22.5 hours per week—flexible until April 1986.
Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Business or secretarial school desirable. Medium typing. At least one year secretarial experience. Excellent organizational and interpersonal skills.
Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500—annual equivalent
Job Number: C171

Position: Secretary, GR18
Department: NYC Extension Associate, (Off Campus)
Description: Provide clerical—receptionist support to EFNEP program. Type reports, letters, memos and educational materials; answer telephone inquiries; assist staff in scheduling and making arrangements for meetings and conferences; maintain and process petty cash, vouchers and travel requests; maintain an accounting of funds expended and multiple files. 22.5 hours per week—flexible until April 1986.
Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Business or secretarial school desirable. Medium typing. At least one year secretarial experience. Excellent organizational and interpersonal skills.
Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500—annual equivalent
Job Number: C171

Position: Secretary, GR18
Department: NYC Extension Associate, (Off Campus)
Description: Provide clerical—receptionist support to EFNEP program. Type reports, letters, memos and educational materials; answer telephone inquiries; assist staff in scheduling and making arrangements for meetings and conferences; maintain and process petty cash, vouchers and travel requests; maintain an accounting of funds expended and multiple files. 22.5 hours per week—flexible until April 1986.
Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Business or secretarial school desirable. Medium typing. At least one year secretarial experience. Excellent organizational and interpersonal skills.
Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500—annual equivalent
Job Number: C171

Position: Secretary, GR18
Department: NYC Extension Associate, (Off Campus)
Description: Provide clerical—receptionist support to EFNEP program. Type reports, letters, memos and educational materials; answer telephone inquiries; assist staff in scheduling and making arrangements for meetings and conferences; maintain and process petty cash, vouchers and travel requests; maintain an accounting of funds expended and multiple files. 22.5 hours per week—flexible until April 1986.
Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Business or secretarial school desirable. Medium typing. At least one year secretarial experience. Excellent organizational and interpersonal skills.
Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500—annual equivalent
Job Number: C171

Position: Secretary, GR18
Department: NYC Extension Associate, (Off Campus)
Description: Provide clerical—receptionist support to EFNEP program. Type reports, letters, memos and educational materials; answer telephone inquiries; assist staff in scheduling and making arrangements for meetings and conferences; maintain and process petty cash, vouchers and travel requests; maintain an accounting of funds expended and multiple files. 22.5 hours per week—flexible until April 1986.
Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Business or secretarial school desirable. Medium typing. At least one year secretarial experience. Excellent organizational and interpersonal skills.
Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500—annual equivalent
Job Number: C171

Technical

Applications for Technical positions should include the following information:

- Scientific/technical courses completed
- Lab techniques and/or equipment (knowledge of)
- Special skills (e.g. knowledge of computer language)

Part-time

*Position: Administrative Aide, GR20
Department: Agricultural Engineering
Description: Provide administrative—secretarial support to the Environmental Quality—Renewable Energy Group. Type classwork, correspondence, manuscripts, etc; proofread and edit proposals and progress reports; answer telephone; assist with budget; handle mail. Other duties as assigned. Monday - Friday, 20 - 30 hours per week.
Requirements: Associate's degree in secretarial science or equivalent. Heavy typing. At least three to five years experience. Excellent grammar, punctuation, editing and communication skills. Machine transcription experience. High speed—accurate typing.
Minimum Starting Salary: $11,739—annual equivalent
Job Number: C1714

*Position: Secretary, GR18
Department: NYC Extension Associate, (Off Campus)
Description: Provide clerical—receptionist support to EFNEP program. Type reports, letters, memos and educational materials; answer telephone inquiries; assist staff in scheduling and making arrangements for meetings and conferences; maintain and process petty cash, vouchers and travel requests; maintain an accounting of funds expended and multiple files. 22.5 hours per week—flexible until April 1986.
Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Business or secretarial school desirable. Medium typing. At least one year secretarial experience. Excellent organizational and interpersonal skills.
Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500—annual equivalent
Job Number: C171

*Position: Secretary, GR18
Department: NYC Extension Associate, (Off Campus)
Description: Provide clerical—receptionist support to EFNEP program. Type reports, letters, memos and educational materials; answer telephone inquiries; assist staff in scheduling and making arrangements for meetings and conferences; maintain and process petty cash, vouchers and travel requests; maintain an accounting of funds expended and multiple files. 22.5 hours per week—flexible until April 1986.
Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Business or secretarial school desirable. Medium typing. At least one year secretarial experience. Excellent organizational and interpersonal skills.
Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500—annual equivalent
Job Number: C171

*Position: Secretary, GR18
Department: NYC Extension Associate, (Off Campus)
Description: Provide clerical—receptionist support to EFNEP program. Type reports, letters, memos and educational materials; answer telephone inquiries; assist staff in scheduling and making arrangements for meetings and conferences; maintain and process petty cash, vouchers and travel requests; maintain an accounting of funds expended and multiple files. 22.5 hours per week—flexible until April 1986.
Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Business or secretarial school desirable. Medium typing. At least one year secretarial experience. Excellent organizational and interpersonal skills.
Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500—annual equivalent
Job Number: C171

*Position: Secretary, GR18
Department: NYC Extension Associate, (Off Campus)
Description: Provide clerical—receptionist support to EFNEP program. Type reports, letters, memos and educational materials; answer telephone inquiries; assist staff in scheduling and making arrangements for meetings and conferences; maintain and process petty cash, vouchers and travel requests; maintain an accounting of funds expended and multiple files. 22.5 hours per week—flexible until April 1986.
Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Business or secretarial school desirable. Medium typing. At least one year secretarial experience. Excellent organizational and interpersonal skills.
Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500—annual equivalent
Job Number: C171

*Position: Secretary, GR18
Department: NYC Extension Associate, (Off Campus)
Description: Provide clerical—receptionist support to EFNEP program. Type reports, letters, memos and educational materials; answer telephone inquiries; assist staff in scheduling and making arrangements for meetings and conferences; maintain and process petty cash, vouchers and travel requests; maintain an accounting of funds expended and multiple files. 22.5 hours per week—flexible until April 1986.
Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Business or secretarial school desirable. Medium typing. At least one year secretarial experience. Excellent organizational and interpersonal skills.
Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500—annual equivalent
Job Number: C171

*Position: Secretary, GR18
Department: NYC Extension Associate, (Off Campus)
Description: Provide clerical—receptionist support to EFNEP program. Type reports, letters, memos and educational materials; answer telephone inquiries; assist staff in scheduling and making arrangements for meetings and conferences; maintain and process petty cash, vouchers and travel requests; maintain an accounting of funds expended and multiple files. 22.5 hours per week—flexible until April 1986.
Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Business or secretarial school desirable. Medium typing. At least one year secretarial experience. Excellent organizational and interpersonal skills.
Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500—annual equivalent
Job Number: C171

*Position: Secretary, GR18
Department: NYC Extension Associate, (Off Campus)
Description: Provide clerical—receptionist support to EFNEP program. Type reports, letters, memos and educational materials; answer telephone inquiries; assist staff in scheduling and making arrangements for meetings and conferences; maintain and process petty cash, vouchers and travel requests; maintain an accounting of funds expended and multiple files. 22.5 hours per week—flexible until April 1986.
Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Business or secretarial school desirable. Medium typing. At least one year secretarial experience. Excellent organizational and interpersonal skills.
Minimum Starting Salary: $10,500—annual equivalent
Job Number: C171

Brief Reports

Nature Documentary Set For Telecast May 2, 4

An award-winning nature documentary, featuring the work of Cornell University researchers Thomas Eisner and Jerrold Meinwald, will be shown May 2 and 4 on WSKG-TV in Binghamton.

"The Garden of Eden," a half-hour film about preservation of the natural world, has been honored with a blue ribbon from the American Film Festival, a first place in the American Outdoor Writers Film Festival, a CINE Golden Eagle award, and honorable mentions in the San Francisco International Film Festival and the International Wildlife Film Festival. Produced by Florentine Films for the Nature Conservancy, the documentary also received a 1985 Oscar nomination for best documentary short subject by the American Motion Picture Academy.

Included in "The Garden of Eden" is a discussion of studies by Eisner and Meinwald of the Polyzoonium millipede, a species that exhibits some unusual chemical properties. Eisner, the Jacob Gould Schurman Professor of Biology, and Meinwald, the Goldwin Smith Professor of Chemistry, are specialists in chemical ecology.

The documentary will be shown at 8:30 p.m. today and at 1 p.m. Saturday, May 4. WSKG-TV, a PBS affiliate, is available on most cable television systems in the southern tier of New York state.

Audiovisual Center Has '85-86 Catalog Available

The Media Services Audiovisual Center has recently published its 1985-86 catalog listing hundreds of films, videotapes, slide programs and audiocassettes.

These concern such topics as agriculture, home economics, nutrition, health, safety, Southeast Asia, chemistry, textiles, planting and environment.

The catalog is free to Cornell departments. Anyone wanting a copy should call or write the AV Center at 8 Research Park, 256-2090.

Bishops' Letter Author To Talk on Nuclear War

The Rev. Brian Hehir, one of the principal authors of the U.S. Catholic Bishops' Letter on Nuclear War, will speak at 8 p.m. Monday, May 6, in room 200 of Baker Laboratory.

His topic will be "The U.S. Catholic Bishops and the Strategic Debate." Hehir is currently the secretary of the Department of Social Development and World Peace of the U.S. Catholic Conference in Washington, D.C. He has written widely on the moral aspects of war.

His talk here is sponsored by the November 11th Committee, Cornell's chapter of United Campuses to Prevent Nuclear War.

Computer Graphics Tapes to Be Shown

Computer Services will host a one-hour showing of video tapes that demonstrate the state-of-the-art in computer graphics on Friday, May 3, at 3 p.m. in G94 Uris Hall. They will show one of the newest issues of the SIGGRAPH Video Review, a series of tapes in full color representing advanced applications of both hardware and software computer graphics technology. The tape contains the following sections:

1. The Mechanical University - JPL Computer Graphics Lab
2. Clinical Aspects of Alcoholism - VA Medical Center
3. The Last Supper at the Computer - Computervision

4. Still-Life Etude-1 - Hiroshima University
 5. Star Rider Laser Disk Video Game - Computer Creations VideoCel
 6. The Sudanese Mobius Band - Doug Lerner & Dan Asimov
 7. Fly Lorenz - H. Juergens & H. O. Peitgen
 8. Link Flight Simulation Demo - The Singer Company
 9. Beethoven's Sixth in CIG - Geoffrey Chester
- If there is sufficient interest this series will be continued.

British Scholars to Talk About Middle Ages

Two lectures by three British scholars covering new perspectives on the early Middle Ages are scheduled here May 6 and 7. They are free and open to the public.

At 8:15 p.m. Monday, May 6, in Sigma Phi Fraternity, One Forest Lane, Richard Bailey, professor of English and Anglo-Saxon civilization at the University of Newcastle, will discuss the theme, "The Dark Ages: Or Were They?"

At 4:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 7, in room 24 of Goldwin Smith Hall, James Graham-Campbell, reader in Medieval archaeology at University College, London, and Leslie Webster, deputy keeper of Medieval antiquities at the British Museum, will give presentations on "New Perspectives on Art and Archeology in the Early Middle Ages."

The talks are sponsored by the University Committee on Lectures, the College of Arts and Sciences, and the departments of Classics, English, German language and literature, and history of art.

Louis Harris Pollster Final Series Speaker

Michael R. Kagay, vice president of the private polling firm of Louis Harris & Associates, will discuss "Polling on the Issues" at 4 p.m. Friday, May 3, in room G92 of Uris Hall.

Free and open to the public, the talk is the fifth and final in a seminars series this spring on the topic, "Polling and the Political Process."

Kagay holds a Ph.D. in political science from the University of Wisconsin. He joined Harris in 1982 and before that taught at Princeton University and was a consultant on survey projects to the New York Times.

The series is sponsored by the Cornell Institute for Social and Economic Research (CISER), and the departments of communication arts and government.

University Hearing Board To Fill Three Vacancies

Applications are being invited from employees for three vacancies on the University Hearing Board, with memberships to start as soon as possible. The request is being made by the University Assembly.

Applications may be obtained from the Office of the Assemblies, 165 Day Hall, and are due no later than 9 a.m. Monday, May 6.

Parking Applications Mailed Next Week

Applications for 1985-86 faculty/staff parking permits will be distributed in the campus mail next week, according to Sally Van Etten, traffic bureau manager.

The forms are due back at the traffic bureau by May 17, said Van Etten. Employees should contact the traffic bureau if they do not receive an application form by May 10.

For further information, call the bureau at 256-4660.

Performance-Tested Bulls to Be Sold

More than 300 beef producers from throughout the Northeast are expected to converge on Cornell to buy yearling bulls that have just completed a 140-day performance test.

Of 85 bulls evaluated, 50 will be auctioned off in the Livestock Pavilion on the campus, starting at 7 p.m., Friday, according to William M. Greene, a Cooperative Extension associate and a beef cattle specialist in the State College of Agriculture and Life Sciences.

Greene, who heads a committee overseeing the annual performance test program, says that the bulls to be sold represent six different breeds -- Angus, Polled Hereford, Red Angus, Shorthorn, Charolais, and Simmental. They range in age from 12 months to 14 months.

The bulls in the "Class of '85" came to Cornell for evaluation from several states in the Northeast, including New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Delaware, and Pennsylvania.

Black Theatre Workshop To Present Three Plays

The Africana Studies and Research Center's Black Theatre Workshop will present a bill of three one-act plays in Anabel Taylor Auditorium for two performances, one at 8 p.m. Friday, May 10 and the other at 7 p.m. Sunday, May 12.

The plays -- all by black American playwrights -- are "String," by Alice Childress; "Rosalee Pritchett," by Carlton and Barbara Molette, and "Herbert III," by Ted Shine. Admission is free.

The presentations, which are being entirely produced, directed and acted by students in the center's Black Theatre and Dramatic Literature course, mark a return to black theatre activity by the center after a hiatus of several years.

Supervising will be New York playwright and film producer William Branch, who is a visiting professor at the center for the spring semester.

One-Lane Traffic Planned Along Jessup Road

There will be one-lane traffic on Jessup Road through May 15 while a sewer line is installed to Tobin Fieldhouse on North Campus.

The one-lane traffic will occur along the road near the intersection with Tripphammer Road and Dearborn Place.

Job Opportunities

Continued from Page 11

helpful. Knowledge of at least one foreign language desirable. Accuracy and attention to detail.
Minimum Starting Salary: $9,494--annual equivalent
Job Number: C164

Temporary

TEMPORARY OPPORTUNITIES: Cornell University has an ongoing need for qualified individuals willing to work on a temporary basis. We frequently need individuals to work as word processor operators, secretaries, typists, receptionists, office assistants, account clerks and data entry clerks. Requirements for these positions range from medium to heavy typing, some office--secretarial experience and knowledge of word processing equipment. If you have an interest in working on a temporary basis in the clerical area, please contact Tambi Benzon at 256-5226 ext. 266; in the general service area, please contact Sharon Warunek at 273-1179. Temporary opportunities in the technical field are posted here, and applications are made with a general application, cover letter and resume.

SAGE CHAPEL

Student Sermon Winner Will Talk

Joyce Wise, Human Ecology '85, is recipient of the first annual Sage Chapel Student Sermon Award. She will preach at the Sage Chapel Service at 11 a.m. on Sunday, May 5. The topic of her sermon is "Walking A Tightrope."

The selection process for the Sage Chapel Student Sermon Award included submission of an outline of proposed sermon text and a two-part preaching practicum, in which semi-finalists delivered their sermons. The judges were members of the Sage Chapel Advisory Council, CURW chaplains and local clergy. The criteria used in judging were:

- Depth of Spiritual or Moral Insight
- Clarity of Message
- Personal Integrity
- Suitability for Cornell Congregation
- Ability of Presentation

The purpose of the award is to give students an opportunity to express their concerns and commitments through the Sage pulpit.

Wise is a first semester senior majoring in Human and Family Development. After she graduates, Joyce plans to play, think and work for a year. Long-range plans include probable seminary education.

Music for the service will be provided by the Sage Chapel Choir under the direction of Stephen May, Acting University Organist and Choirmaster.

JOYCE WISE

Workshop Is Added For IBM-PC Users

To meet the demand, Computer Services has scheduled an additional section of the "Introduction to the IBM-PC" workshop for May 8 from 9:05 to 11 a.m. in 160 Warren Hall. Participants in this workshop will learn the names for the components of an IBM microcomputer, how to turn the micro on and off, and how to store information, find it again, change it, and print it. Cost for this workshop is $5.00 for registered students and $15 for everyone else. Register for this course in G20 Uris Hall from 8:30 a.m. until noon or 1 to 4 p.m. For additional information contact Helen Russler, 256-4981

Position: Temporary Office Assistant
Department: Computer Services - NetComm
Description: Assist in distributing microcomputers and data communications equipment sold by NetComm Marketing. Record service calls and coordinate repairs with Field Installation and Repair Group, process various forms with regard to inventory, warranty claims and repairs. Monday-Friday, full-time, until 10-15-85

Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent. Business or secretarial school preferred. 1-2 years secretarial experience. Customer service experience. Knowledge of personal computers and data communications preferred.
Minimum Starting Salary: $5.00--hour
Job Number: C163

Academic

Please contact department directly.
Position: Veterinary Pathologist
Department: Veterinary Pathology, New York State College of Veterinary Medicine
Job Number: A161