THE WEEK ON THE CAMPUS.

1910 and the Alumni Fund.

The class of 1910 has adopted a system of alumni pledges similar to that inaugurated so successfully last year by the class of 1909. A committee has been appointed, with Theodore White, of St. Louis, as chairman, to obtain pledges from members of the class. On the principal sum of his subscription each contributor will pay interest at 5 per cent. The annual contribution from the class of 1909 to the Alumni Fund by this system will amount to about $1,500. The present committee has just begun its work.

Upper Class Committees Appointed.

President Pond of the senior class has appointed his committees. The members of the senior ball committee are: C. J. Pope, East Orange, N. J., chairman; Stanton Griffis, Ithaca; E. E. Goodwillie, Oak Park, Ill.; D. S. Gray, Grosse Point Farms, Mich.; R. K. Blanchard, Montpelier, Vt.; E. D. Ham, Spokane, Wash.; A. P. Kelly, Baltimore, Md.; A. C. Hastings, jr., Niagara Falls; A. L. Rose, Geneva; Maximilian Elser, jr., Fort Worth, Tex.; A. D. Matthai, Baltimore, Md.; Grover Coors, Golden, Col.; H. W. Wessinger, Portland, Ore.; C. V. Lally, Pittsburg, Pa.; R. B. Holbrook, Newton Center, Mass.; R. B. Hurlburt, Buffalo. The chairmen of the other committees are: senior banquet, R. G. Handy, Bay City, Mich.; senior stunt, H. C. Schuyler, Webster Groves, Mo.; general committee, G. H. Crawford, jr., Nyack; class day, H. N. Wilson, Dansville; cap and gown, L. R. Bandler, Owego; alumni pledges, Theodore White, St. Louis, Mo. He also made the following appointments: football director, S. G. Hoffman, Philadelphia; class historian, J. C. O'Brien, Rochester; class prophet, C. A. Carroll, New York.

President MacArthur of the junior class has named the following junior promenade committee: C. S. Prescott, Milwaukee, Wis., chairman; B.

B. Wood, Portland, Ore.; L. M. Uhl, Cleveland, O.; A. K. Bell, Hollidaysburg, Pa.; W. H. Kennedy, Buffalo; L. P. Ward, Middletown, Conn.; Hugh Montgomery, jr., Madison, Wis.; C. H. Divine, Binghamton; S. J. Chesebro, Brooklyn; W. W. G. Rossiter, Brooklyn; A. M. Tilden, Pittsfield, Mass. The chairmen of the other junior committees are: general committee, L. D. Simson, Tonawanda; junior smoker, S. F. Nixon, Westfield; junior feed, H. B. Bole, Cleveland, O.; ice carnival, T. R. Cox, Albany.

Undergraduate Elections.

Alfred Wilkinson Conklin '10, of Marquette, Mich., has been elected leader of the mandolin club for this year. He is a member of Psi Upsilon and Sphinx Head.

Russell Blair Hurlburt '10, of Buffalo, has been chosen by the "C" men as their representative on the Athletic Council. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Sphinx Head.

Howard Addison Lincoln '11, of Springfield, Mass., was elected assistant manager of the navy at the last meeting of the Athletic Council. He is a member of Zeta Psi.

Leo Francis Giblin '11, of Utica, was elected assistant manager of freshman football, vice H. H. Vail, resigned. He is a member of Theta Delta Chi.

New College Boathouse Begun.

Ground was broken last week for the Cornell Boating Association's new boathouse on the west bank of the Inlet, north of Buffalo street. This house is designed for the use of the college (not the 'varsity) crews. It will be of frame construction, with stucco finish, and with a concrete foundation. The first story will accommodate the college shells and gigs, and on the floor above will be dressing and locker rooms. The Cornell Boating Association was organized to build this boathouse, with Professor C. V. P. Young '99 as president and Sherman Peer '06 as treasurer. Money to build the house was obtained by subscription last year. As soon as it obtains the necessary additional funds, the association proposes to enlarge the house and give its members a place in which to keep canoes and rowboats. It has an option on adjoining land. For the present the house will measure 72 by 22 feet and it will be ready for occupancy on April 1 next. The crews representing the various colleges of the University will then be able to practice for the intercollegiate regatta without overcrowding the 'varsity boathouse.

Crew Celebration.

Undergraduates crowded Sibley Dome last Friday night and took part in a celebration of the navy's triple victory at Poughkeepsie last summer. The meeting opened with "long yells" for the crews and Courtney, and D. A. Reed '98 was introduced as master of ceremonies. Dean Smith '78, the first speaker, said that New York had recently held what was called a Hudson celebration, but that the real Hudson celebration was right here to-night. Robert Fulton got the credit for beginning steam navigation, but those who had observed the "steam" in the Cornell boats last July knew that Courtney was the man who introduced steam navigation in shells. The speaker quoted President Nichols of Dartmouth as to the value of intercollegiate athletics, and concluded by saying that while crew celebrations nowadays had less fireworks than thirty years ago they were just as sincere.

Dean Irvine '80 said that if it was true that genius is an infinite capacity for taking pains then Mr. Courtney was a genius. Although we were incited, he said, to accept crew victories with complacency, there was appreciation under the surface, nevertheless. This year the crews had outdone expectations. Including the junior race at Philadelphia, they had set three new records. In the six races rowed, there was not a minute when the Cornell bow was not ahead of all the others. He concluded by saying that the success of their crews had done perhaps more than anything else to knit Cornell men together, and that it was for this that we owed to them our deepest and warmest feeling of esteem.

Professor Young '99 told the history of the navy with lantern slides, and the Glee Club sang several Cornell songs.

Phi Beta Kappa Officers.

The Cornell chapter of Phi Beta Kappa last week elected the following officers for the year: President, Professor G. P. Bristol; vice-president, Professor I. M. Bentley; secretary, Professor C. S. Northup; treasurer, Dr. W. B. Carver; registrar, F. C. Church '09. Professors Lane Cooper and Paul R. Pope were elected members of the executive committee.

The Cosmopolitan Club.

Last Saturday the Cornell Cosmopolitan Club gave its first "national night" of the season. The entertainment was provided by the British "colony," and the program was as follows:

"Glimpses of South Africa," H. Sonnenfeld, Transvaal.

"Some Aspects of India, Particularly Religious," S. Sinha, Bengal, India.

"Boers," J. H. Neethling, Transvaal.

"The British West Indies," J. B. Clarke, St. Lucia, British West Indies.

"Imperial Problems," S. V. Ketkar, India.

Porto Rican Law School Alumni.

The following information concerning Porto Rican alumni of the law school may be of interest: Martin Travieso, LL. B. '03, is a member of the Executive Council. F. J. V. Dominguez, LL. B. '03, is Municipal Judge of Cayey. Frank Martinez, LL. B. '06, is Justice of the Peace at Mayaguez. J. C. Seix-Rosalay, LL. B. '04, is practicing law at Ponce.

The game scheduled to be played with Niagara on Saturday, November 20, has been cancelled.

FOOTBALL.

The Schedule.

(Cornell's score given first.)

Oct. 2, R. P. I., 16-3.

Oct. 9, Oberlin, 16-6.

Oct. 16, Fordham, 6-12.

Oct. 23, Vermont, 16-0.

Oct. 30, Williams, 0-3.

Nov. 6, Harvard at Cambridge.

Nov. 13, Chicago at Ithaca.

Nov. 25, U. of P. at Philadelphia.

Williams 3, Cornell 0.

The Williams College eleven came to Ithaca last Saturday with a well developed and varied offense and a strong attack. This attack came near earning a touchdown several times, but the Cornell defense was so stiff at critical points that Williams's only tally was a field goal, kicked by Wood from placement on the 31-yard line near the end of the second half, making the final score 3 to 0. Cornell took the ball away from Williams on downs near the 10-yard line no less than four times. The strength of its defense was a gratification to the 'varsity's friends; and to those who knew that the team was a raw one with an undeveloped attack the surprise of the game was the strength it showed in rallying time and again for the defense of its goal.

Penalties deprived Cornell of many yards of hard-won ground. The 'varsity was penalized eight times for a total of 100 yards; Williams was penalized four times for a total of 30 yards. In the first half, soon after Cornell had taken the ball on downs at the 5-yard line, two penalties took it back to the same line. Twice in the second half, just as the team had got started into Williams territory, a penalty either set it back to midfield or compelled it to give up the ball. Just before Williams's winning field goal Cornell had twice been set back, each time fifteen yards.

Considering the contest as a practice game, it was encouraging. The 'varsity was better than in any of the earlier games. Fumbling had been almost entirely overcome. The tackling was improved. Simson's punting was good. Hoffman's work on the defense was strong. The team's faults were those of inexperience. Eight of the men who played most of the game are playing their first season of college football.

The line-up:

Simson.....f. b.....	Peterson

Substitutions—Cornell: Teagle for Hurlburt, Farrington for Weekes, MacArthur for Crosby; Williams: Smith for Austin, J. Brooks for Wood, Austin for Pratt, Rice for Austin, Prindle for Linder, Rogers for Stocking, Kellogg for Peterson. Goal from field—Wood. Time of halves—25 minutes. Referee—Mr. Hackett, West Point. Umpire—Mr. Louis Hinkey, Yale. Field judge—Mr. O'Neill, Williams. Head Linesman—Mr. Cooney, Princeton.

FIRST HALF.

Captain Tydeman kicked off—over the goal line. Williams elected to put the ball in scrimmage on their 25-yard line. Three line plunges barely gained first down, but a penalty for holding set them back to their 20-yard line, and after Lewis had gone around the end for only five yards, Rogers punted to Baker, who ran the punt back five yards to Cornell's 53-yard line. Baker lost four yards trying to go around the end. Teagle took Hurlburt's place. Here Cornell was set back fifteen yards for holding and Simson punted to Williams's 45-yard line. On the second down, after no gain, Williams tried a forward pass only to incur a penalty for failure, and Stocking punted to Hoffman at midfield. In two plunges Tydeman gained eight yards around tackle. Baker kicked aside, but Rogers made a fair catch of the ball on Williams's 33-yard line.

Here Williams opened an attack which, combined with penalties, kept Cornell on the defensive for most of the first half. The visitors were within ten yards of a touchdown no less than three times, but they were not able to put the ball over the goal line. After Lewis's fair catch on their 33-yard line, two plays gained only six yards for Williams, but Pratt then went around Cornell's right end for twenty yards, being tackled by Hoffman on Cornell's 50-yard line. Lewis gained seven yards and Peterson six more, making it first down on Cornell's 37-yard line. A forward pass netted only two yards, but Peterson went through to the 22-yard line. Two more bucks made it first down only ten yards from the goal, but here Cornell braced and held for three downs. Williams failed to gain on a forward pass and the ball was Cornell's on her own 5-yard line.

Simson punted to Cornell's 35-yard line, but Cornell was not yet out of trouble, for Peterson tore through left guard for twenty-five yards. From the 10-yard line Williams again was unable to gain. Peterson tried for a field goal, but the ball hit the crossbar. Putting the ball in scrimmage on her 25-yard line, Cornell lost five yards on a run from punt formation and was penalized fifteen more for holding, so that the team was once more almost under its own goal. Tydeman punted, but the kick was a poor one and the ball went out of bounds on the 16-yard line. It went to the 11-yard line for offside play by Cornell. Again Cornell took the ball on downs, and Simson punted to Cornell's 45-yard line. Again Williams brought the ball back to the 10-yard line, Lewis opening with a twenty-yard run around end. For the third time Cornell held for downs, and then the tide turned—too late, however. Hoffman gained twelve yards and Baker five more. Teagle recovered on on-side kick on Cornell's 50-yard line. Hoffman and Tydeman made it first down on Williams's 48-yard line. Tydeman went through for four yards more, when time was called, neither side having scored.

SECOND HALF.

On the kick-off Monk ran the ball back to Cornell's 38-yard line. Cornell was penalized five yards for off-side play. On the second down, with eight yards to go, Simson punted to Williams's 50-yard line. Cornell held for downs. Baker lost five yards, and punted to Williams's 35-yard line. Williams bucked for a yard, but failed on a forward pass and punted to Baker, who ran the kick back twenty-five yards to Williams's 40-yard line. Here another penalty for holding was imposed on Cornell which would have set the ball back to midfield, but Williams refused the penalty and took the ball on their 25-yard line, punting to Hoffman, who ran the kick back to Williams's 40-yard line. Again Cornell was penalized fifteen yards and Simson punted. Lewis was tackled on Williams's 42-yard line. On the third down, with six yards to gain, Williams tried an onside kick for no gain, but retained the ball. With the help of another onside kick they advanced to Cornell's 30-yard line, where Cornell took the ball on downs but was almost immediately penalized fifteen yards for holding. Simson's punt was blocked, but Tydeman recovered the ball on the 10-yard line. Simson punted to Lewis on Cornell's 40-yard line. Williams rushed the ball to Cornell's 8-yard line, where Cornell again took it on downs. Simson tore through to the 25-yard line, but again Cornell was penalized, this time to the 5-yard line. Rogers made a fair catch of Simson's punt on the 31-yard line, and Wood kicked a goal from placement. Williams 3, Cornell 0.

Williams kicked off and Baker planted the ball on Cornell's 32-yard line. A forward pass went to Williams. Teagle blocked a kick and fell on the ball on Cornell's 50-yard line. Baker tried a forward pass, but was thrown for a loss of ten yards. Teagle recovered an on-side kick on Williams's 45-yard line, when time was called.

Large Coaching Staff.

Among the graduate coaches on Percy Field during the week were C. R. Wyckoff '96, D. A. Reed '98, Edward Burns, jr., '03, T. R. Finucane '03, S. B. Hunt '04, John Newhall '06, J. E. Forgy '06, P. E. Larkin '06, Ray Van Orman '08, G. H. Walder '09, B. J. O'Rourke '09, and A. H. Hutchinson '09. On Thursday and Friday the practice was secret.

Freshmen 40, Starkey 0.

The freshman eleven continued its victorious career on Saturday by defeating the Starkey Seminary team 40 to 0. On the freshmen's first line-up Underhill, the fullback, went through on a delayed pass for a 35-yard run and a touchdown. Bates, left halfback, scored the next two touchdowns. Early in the second half "Bill" Watson, younger brother of "Tip" Watson '09, playing right end, took a forward pass from Quarterback Butler and ran 70 yards for a touchdown. Edgar, substitute right halfback, scored three more touchdowns, making seven in all for the freshmen. Champaign kicked five goals. Nine freshman substitutes had a chance to play.

The Williams-Cornell Record.

Williams and Cornell have now met in eleven football games, the first in 1888. Williams has won three, Cornell has won five, and three have been tied. The list follows:

- 1888, at Ithaca—Williams 20, Cornell 0.
- 1890, at Williamstown—Williams 18, Cornell 8.
- 1892, at Albany—Cornell 24, Williams 12.
- 1893, at Albany—Williams 10, Cornell 10.
- 1894, at Albany—Williams 0, Cornell 0.
- 1896, at Buffalo—Williams 0, Cornell 0.
- 1897, at Buffalo—Cornell 42, Williams 0.
- 1898, at Buffalo—Cornell 12, Williams 0.
- 1899, at Ithaca, Cornell 12, Williams 0.
- 1902, at Ithaca—Cornell 37, Williams 6.

Harvard-Cornell Football Record.

Harvard and Cornell will meet on the gridiron next Saturday for the eighth time. Their last game was in 1897—twelve years ago. The record is one-sided, Harvard having won all the seven games played, and having scored 215 points to Cornell's 35. The record follows:

- 1890, at Cambridge—Harvard 77, Cornell 0.
- 1892, at Springfield, Harvard 20, Cornell 14.
- 1893, at New York—Harvard 34, Cornell 0.
- 1894, at New York—Harvard 22, Cornell 12.
- 1895, at Cambridge—Harvard 25, Cornell 0.
- 1896, at Ithaca—Harvard 13, Cornell 4.
- 1897, at Cambridge—Harvard 24, Cornell 5.

FOOTBALL RALLY IN BOSTON.

Undergraduates and visiting alumni are invited to attend a football rally in honor of the varsity team to be held at the Hotel Lenox, in Boston, at 8 o'clock, Friday evening, November 5. This rally is given by the Cornell Club of New England. It will be a good opportunity to get together and meet friends before the game.

NOTICE TO 1907 MEN.

All men of the class of 1907 are requested to send their addresses to, or communicate with, H. F. Wardwell, 80 Washington Square, New York (telephone Rector 1710), in preparation for a class dinner to be held in the near future.

NEW BOOKS.

Mr. Von Engeln's book "At Cornell" is having a large sale and seems to please everybody who has seen it. From the frontispiece, a copy of Mr. Von Engeln's famous photograph "In College Precincts," to the picture of the "senior singing" at the end of the book, the illustrations not only reproduce excellently the scenery around the campus and the neighborhood but are full of the life of the place. The author's profession is teaching geology and his hobby is photography. His chapters on the geological history of the Cornell country are something new for a book of this kind and add to the pleasure of reading it.

Charles Scribner's Sons have just published "The Gateway to the Sahara," by Charles W. Furlong, F. R. G. S. Mr. Furlong was for eight years instructor in industrial drawing and art at the University, and was registered as an undergraduate student for one year. The book relates observations and experiences in Tripoli and has many illustrations from drawings and photographs by the author.

The Houghton Mifflin Company has just published a capital story for girls entitled "When Sarah Saved the Day," by Elsie Singmaster '02. It is the story of a little Pennsylvania Dutch girl and her experiences in home managing while her brother is absent in Alaska.

Prizes for Economic Essays.

The opportunity to compete for the economic prizes offered by Hart, Schaffner & Marx has been brought to the attention of students of this University by Professor J. Laurence Laughlin of the University of Chicago, who is chairman of the committee in charge of the contest.

Papers for the prizes are to be submitted before June 1, 1910. There are five prizes, totaling $2,000. The contestants are divided into three classes, fuller details of which may be had from the head of the department of political economy. The prizes are divided as follows: Class "A," first prize $600; second prize $400; Class "B," first prize $300; second prize $200; Class "C," one prize $500.

Classes "A" and "B" refer particularly to college graduates and undergraduates, and the following subjects have been suggested by Professor Laughlin's committee:

1. The effect of labor unions on international trade.
2. The best means of raising the wages of the unskilled.
3. A comparison between the theory and the actual practice of protectionism in the United States.
4. A scheme for an ideal monetary system for the United States.
5. The true relation of the central government to trusts.
6. How much of J. S. Mill's economic system survives?
7. A central bank as a factor in a financial crisis.

The members of the committee, aside from Professor Laughlin, are: Professor J. B. Clark, Columbia University; Professor Henry C. Adams, University of Michigan; Horace White, New York city, and Edwin F. Gay, Harvard University.

The sophomores won the annual flag rush, held on the Armory green last Friday evening, taking the heavyweight and lightweight bouts. The freshmen won the middleweight contest. This gives 1912 a lead for the underclass supremacy, they having won the baseball series and lost only the track meet to 1913. Football remains to be played.

The first military hop will be held on Friday, November 12.

OBITUARY.

R. H. BISHOP '07.

Roberts Huntington Bishop, of Norwich, Conn., died in Elmira, N. Y., on October 13, of typhoid pneumonia. He attended Cornell for two years as a member of the class of 1907. He was a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity and rowed on the freshman crew in 1904. After he left college he was employed in engineering work on the East River tunnel of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company at New York, and his health was broken down during that time. He was twenty-five years old.

FRED HARTT SIMONDS.

Died, in Austin, Texas, October 22, 1909, Fred Hartt Simonds, elder son of Professor Frederick W. and Norma Wood Simonds, aged twenty-five years.

The mother of the deceased, a niece of the late Mrs. Ezra Cornell, was one of the first women to enter Cornell University; the father, a well-known graduate of the class of 1875, was formerly instructor in geology and paleontology in the University and later lecturer on economic geology.

University Club in Buenos Ayres.

The Yale Alumni Weekly says that a United States University Club was formed at a meeting at the United States Legation, Buenos Ayres, Argentine Republic, South America, on August 4. Sixty-six graduates of some thirty American universities and colleges assembled at the call of Charles H. Sherrill, Yale '89, American Minister to the Argentine Republic. Mr. Sherrill was elected president and Charles Lyon Chandler, Harvard '05, secretary, of the newly organized club, and these officers, together with Samuel Hale Pearson and Dr. Luis Huergo, were appointed to perfect details of organization, call further business meetings, and arrange for an annual dinner and reunion. Among the charter members of the club are the following Cornell men: P. A. Clisdell '90, J. H. Dunn '05, G. A. Newbery '95, and F. Urrutia '08.

A SUGGESTION REGARDING THE SIBLEY LABORATORY.

A letter has been received from Mr. Judson H. Boughton '03, of St. Louis, suggesting that alumni of Sibley College might do much good by donating to the college modern mechanical and electrical appliances. The emphasis in Mr. Boughton's suggestion is on the word modern. Owing to the present rapid development of engineering and manufacturing methods and appliances, he says, the laboratory equipment of any technical school must tend to become obsolete; and the graduate is likely to enter upon his career with too little knowledge of the present state of his art. He continues: "It may be said with entire accuracy that with the present very fortunate tendency toward the liberal education of engineers, there is only a limited amount of time during the ordinary four year course which can be devoted to the handling and study of commercial apparatus, but it is granted that a considerable amount of such handling and study is essential, and it is the belief of the writer that marked value would be added to the training of students of engineering if they were brought in contact with modern rather than obsolete apparatus." He is of opinion that some Cornell graduates may be able to give apparatus which would be useful in the Sibley laboratories.

SATURDAY'S FOOTBALL DEFEAT.

Last Saturday's defeat by Williams need not cause despondency. The Williams eleven has done well against other teams than Cornell this season. Harvard defeated it 8 to 6. Our coaches have said ever since the beginning of the season that our squad was largely raw material and that their idea was to develop the team gradually, with an eye not on Fordham or Williams but on larger rivals. They warned us that we need not be surprised if an unfinished team met with one or two reverses. Although it did not win the Williams game, the 'varsity eleven showed more knowledge of football than it had displayed in any previous contest this year. Its offense was not equal to Williams's, but its attack has not yet been developed. Too much attention has had to be given to fundamentals for that to be accomplished yet. The team's defense showed that it has strength. The schedule for this season is a hard one. Let's be patient.

Cornell Meeting in Newark.

Fifty Cornellians attended the dinner and informal evening given on Saturday, October 23, by the Cornell Club of Northern New Jersey. The meeting was held at Achtel-Stetter's, in Newark. Addresses were made by Professor E. L. Nichols '75, of the department of physics; Charles E. Timmerman '92, of De Witt Clinton High School, and Arthur T. Seymour '92, of Lafayette College.

The annual fruit exhibit, under the auspices of the New York State College of Agriculture, will be held in the laboratories of the department of horticulture from Wednesday to Saturday of this week.
