CORNELL ALUMNI NEWS

VOL. XVI., No. 40

ITHACA, N. Y., AUGUST, 1914

PRICE 10 CENTS

THE prediction has been published in some newspapers that the registration at Cornell for the year 1914-15 will far exceed that of last year and that "a new record will be established." At the Registrar's office, the only place where authentic information on that subject can be obtained, they say that no such statement has been given out. So far as they can tell from correspondence, etc., the enrollment of old and of new students this fall will be about the same as it was last year.

THE ARCHITECTS of the proposed new student residence hall, Messrs. Day & Klauder, of Philadelphia, are making experiments with a native stone, the Cayuga bluestone, before selecting the building material. Two experimental walls have been laid near the spot where the building is to stand. One of these walls is of weathered stone and the other is of blocks freshly quarried near the site of the building.

A FORMAL GRANT of the land on which the new drill hall will stand has been made by the University to the State of New York. This transfer of title is required by the State in such cases.

A PLAY based on events in the early history of the neighborhood of Ithaca was given by amateurs at Renwick Park on August 6, 7, and 8, for the benefit of Ithaca charities. The play was written by Miss Marjorie Barstow '12, of Ithaca, and was called "The Crimson Flower."

DR. L. H. BAILEY, whose departure for New Zealand was noted in the last number of the NEWS, has gone, so we learn from Science, as the guest of the New Zealand government to attend the Australasian meeting of the British Association for the Advancement of Science. A complete list of American scientific men who accepted similar invitations from the New Zealand government is given by Science as follows: Dr. L. H. Bailey, Ithaca, N. Y.; Mr. Lyman J. Briggs, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.; Professor A. P. Coleman, Toronto University, Toronto; Dr. Edwin G. Conklin, Princeton, N. J.; Dr. Charles B. Davenport, Cold Spring Harbor, Long Island, N. Y.; Professor William M. Davis, Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass.; Dr. George A. Dorsey, Curator of Anthropology, Field Museum, Chicago; President G. C. Creelman, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, Ontario; Professor R. T. Ely, Madison, Wisconsin; Professor E. C. Franklin, Leland Stanford University, Palo Alto, Cal.; Professor P. H. Hanus, Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass.; President E. F. Nichols, Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H.; Dr. Ira Rensen, President, Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore; Professor William M. Wheeler, Bussey Institution, Forest Hills, Boston.

MISS MARTHA VANRENSELAER, professor of home economics in the College of Agriculture, was elected president of the American Home Economics Association in convention at Cleveland in July.

DR. JAMES FREDERICK MASON, assistant professor in the department of Romance languages, has been promoted to the grade of professor, and has been appointed acting director of the department for the coming year, during the absence of Professor W. W. Comfort on sabbatic leave. Professor Mason is a graduate of Harvard College. He was appointed instructor here in 1909.

DONALD ENGLISH has been appointed acting assistant professor of economics for the next year. He will take the place of Professor John Bauer, who has a leave of absence and is doing special work for the State Public Service Commission. Mr. English is a graduate of the University of California and has taught at that institution, at Washington State College, and at Boston University. Last June he received the master's degree with distinction from the Graduate School of Business Administration of Harvard University.

THE CAREER OF CAR No. 305 came to a spectacular and dramatic end early this month. The car was sent off the Stewart Avenue bridge and was smashed to pieces on the rocky bottom of Fall Creek Gorge, while two moving-picture cameras registered the tragedy for the Wharton company. The only passenger on the car was a dummy. Hundreds of Ithacans saw No. 305 leave the rails for the last time and meet its last collision. In its early days No. 305 wore bright red paint and was jerked by an underground cable through Park Row, the Bowery, and Third Avenue in New York. Millions from all nations dodged it. Eminent men, like Steve Brodie and Chuck Conners, hung on its straps. Pickpockets worked on its crowded platform. When the Third Avenue road was electrified, at a cost of nobody knows how many million dollars, Car No. 305 was sent to the auction block. It was bought by the Ithaca Street Railway Company, hauled here on a flatcar, fitted with a motor, and set to work carrying students up the hill. In its old age No. 305 became feeble. It would start and stop in sections, first the trucks, then the seats, and last the sides and roof, giving its passengers a seasick feeling. No. 305 is survived by two aged sisters, No. 306 and No. 308, both of Ithaca.

ALTERATIONS in the first story of Sage College are in progress. Several partitions are to be removed so as to increase the size of the reception room. The business offices of the college have been moved to Morrill Hall.

A NEW STATION is to be built in Ithaca by the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company, and it is stated that the plans for the new structure are practically complete. The building will be much larger than the present one. Great changes are to be made in the neighborhood of the station for the better handling of traffic. The company has bought much land west of the present tracks in order to make room for new tracks and also to straighten out the curve north of the station. It is reported that the Lehigh Valley intends also to bring trains on the Cayuga Lake branch directly into the new station from the north by way of a bridge over the Cayuga Inlet, instead of running them through town and backing them in from the south.

A GIFT of $70,000, to be used in completing the track and football portion of the varsity section of Alumni Field, was announced after a meeting of the Alumni Field Committee on August 1st. The gift comes from members of the Schoellkopf family, near relatives of the late Henry Schoellkopf '02. Their action in making this provision is a sequel to the tribute which an alumnus of the University paid the memory of Henry Schoellkopf in giving the Schoellkopf Memorial Hall, a building for the use of the athletic teams. In order to record the University's appreciation of their generosity, the committee voted to name the track and football area Schoellkopf Field. This field will be a memorial of Jacob F. Schoellkopf, who was the founder of the family in this country and was the grandfather of Henry Schoellkopf. Paul A. Schoellkopf '06, of Buffalo, was elected a member of the Alumni Field Committee.

Big Stand Under Construction

What this gift will do is to complete the cinder track, build a concrete stand to seat nine thousand persons, and put a concrete fence around the field. At the meeting on August 1st the committee opened nine bids for the construction of the stand and the fences. The contract was awarded to Driscoll Brothers & Co., of Ithaca, the lowest bidders. They were asked to begin work as soon as possible, and they put a large gang of men at work on Monday morning, August 3.

The only thing that now stands in the way of putting the track and football field to use is the time required to complete it. Members of the committee confidently believe that the field will be ready for the football team's use in the fall of next year. It might even be ready for the track team to use next spring, but they will not promise that. The track itself will be ready, and so will the training house. As for the rest, the stand and enclosure should be completed next summer at the latest. Work on the track was begun soon after Commencement and is proceeding without interruption. It will be far better in every respect than the track at Percy Field. In its plan it resembles the track in the Harvard stadium, consisting of a quarter-mile oval and two furlong straightaways tangent to the oval. On this track a half-mile race can be run starting and finishing on straight stretches.

A VIEW, LOOKING EASTWARD, OF BACON PRACTICE HALL, THE BASEBALL CAGE, AND, ABOVE IT, THE SCHOELLKOPF MEMORIAL HALL. THE LATTER BUILDING STANDS ON THE LEVEL OF THE FOOTBALL AND TRACK FIELD AND ITS SOUTH FRONT FACES THAT FIELD. THE WINDOWS VISIBLE ARE IN THE SECOND STORY, WHICH IS ON THE LEVEL OF THE PLAYGROUND, TO THE NORTH. THE FOREGROUND OF THIS PICTURE IS A PART OF THE FUTURE BASEBALL FIELD.

Photograph by J. P. Troy.

Careful attention has been given to the drainage of the track and the football field. The surface of the field has a slope of one foot from the center to the edges, enough of a decline to shed excess water. All around the field, just inside the oval track, is a tile drain covered with fine gravel to a depth of two or three feet, to receive the surface drainage of the field and the track. The track itself has a complete independent system of underdrainage. Under the cinders is a deep course of gravel pitching to the middle, where runs a tile drain with outlets at intervals.

Good Quarters for the Teams

Schoellkopf Memorial Hall will provide comfortable and convenient quarters for the varsity teams. This building is practically completed except for the plumbing and furnishing. Its situation between the Playground and Schoellkopf Field increases its convenience of access, because these two fields are on different levels. The commodious first story, with generous quarters for the football, track, and baseball squads and for visiting teams, has several doors opening directly on Schoellkopf Field. In the smaller second story, on the Playground level, will be quarters for minor sports teams. The building is of sanitary construction, with cement or tile floors and very little woodwork. The team rooms are spacious and well lighted. The building is beautiful and an ornament to the Campus. The plan of the architects (Gibb & Waltz, of Ithaca) of facing the first story with rough native stone, will assist them in "tying in" the building to its surroundings, for the walls about the field and the front wall of the big stand will be of similar construction.

Progress of the Big Field

Only one section of Alumni Field now remains to be developed in order to make practically the whole area of more than fifty-seven acres available for use. That section is the baseball field, on the lowest level. It has been graded and only awaits enclosure and the building of a stand. The present stage of completion of Alumni Field may be shown as follows: Student Playground and Common, 34.64 acres, completed; track and football field (Schoellkopf Field), 7.69 acres, funds provided for completion, contract let, and final work in progress; baseball field, 7.73 acres, graded and awaiting funds for stand and enclosure; Kite Hill (site of future clubhouse and parking space), 7.41 acres, available for future development but not necessary to the use of any part of the field; Bacon Practice Hall (baseball cage), completed and used last winter by the baseball team and track squad; Schoellkopf Memorial Hall (varsity team quarters), nine-tenths completed. In doing this work the Alumni Field Committee has expended about $160,000 subscribed by alumni besides the special $100,000 gift for Schoellkopf Memorial Hall. The latest gift of $70,000 for Schoellkopf Field brings the total thus far provided to about $330,000.

The big stand (or stadium, as it probably will be commonly called) on Schoellkopf Field, will be built against the side of Kite Hill, on the east side of the field, and will be about 650 feet long. It will seat 9,000 spectators, and there will be above and behind it two terraces for automobiles containing other spectators. In the future there will be on the other side of the field steel bleachers and a press stand for about 2,000 more spectators, but the funds in hand are not enough for that construction now. Probably a temporary press stand will be built on the west side of the field for the present. The general plan of Schoellkopf Field is shown by a drawing which was published in the ALUMNI NEWS of April 30, 1914, page 368.

Will Acquire Sheldon Court

University to Receive the Dormitory Under Mr. Sheldon's Will

Under the will of Charles Lacy Sheldon, who died at his home in Auburn, N. Y., on July 28, Cornell University will become the owner of Sheldon Court, a private dormitory situated on College Avenue opposite the Central Avenue entrance of the Campus. The land on which Sheldon Court stands adjoins the University's property.

Mr. Sheldon's death was caused by heart disease, which had made him an invalid for more than a year. He was seventy-three years old. He was born at Jordan, N. Y., and moved with his parents to Auburn when he was nine years old. He was the founder of the Sheldon Axle Company, which was for many years one of Auburn's chief industries, and he remained at the head of the company even after its factory was removed to Wilkes-Barre, Pa. His widow survives him, with two children, Miss Mary Sheldon of Auburn and Dr. William H. Sheldon of New York City, and a grandson, Franklin Lacy Sheldon.

Mr. Sheldon's interest in Cornell University began when his sons were students here. His son Franklin Lacy Sheldon, of the class of 1891, died in New York in 1895. Charles Lacy Sheldon, jr., was a member of the class of 1901; after his graduation he lived in Ithaca and managed Sheldon Court; he died at Auburn in 1908. In memory of these two sons Mr. Sheldon gave the University the Sheldon Memorial Exedra, a semi-circular seat of marble which stands facing the south door of Goldwin Smith Hall.

Mr. Sheldon's will provides that Mrs. Sheldon is to have the use of the income from Sheldon Court during her life and that upon her death the dormitory is to become the property of Cornell University. The statement has been made by members of the family that Mr. Sheldon also made provision in his will for the maintenance of scholarships at Cornell. Just what these scholarships will be has not been stated.

Sheldon Court is a four-story brick building facing east on College Avenue (formerly Huestis Street) and north toward the Campus. It stands on the site of the old East Hill House, a student rookery which was destroyed by fire during a Christmas vacation in the early nineties. A few years afterward Mr. Sheldon bought the land and built the present dormitory. The property then included a building known as the Court Inn, facing on Dryden Road. That building is now occupied and has lately been acquired by the Huntington Club, an undergraduate organization under the auspices of the Central New York diocese of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Sheldon Court has quarters for about 100 students. A large part of the income from the building is derived from the rent paid by stores and shops which occupy the first story and the basement.

FEDERAL BANK DIRECTORS

Of the six directors chosen by the banks of this State for the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, two are graduates of Cornell—Robert H. Treman '78, of Ithaca, and Leslie R. Palmer '97, of Croton-on-Hudson. There are to be nine directors in all, of three classes, Class A representative of the banks, Class B representative of commercial interests, and Class C appointed by the federal government. For the purpose of electing the six directors to whom they are entitled, the banks of the district were divided into three groups according to their capital. Mr. Treman is the Class A director of Group 2, and Mr. Palmer is the Class B director of Group 3. Mr. Treman is president of the Tompkins County National Bank of Ithaca. Mr. Palmer is the president of a large realty corporation in New York City and also president of the First National Bank of Croton-on-Hudson.

Dr. Galloway in Office

Takes Up His Work as Director of the College of Agriculture

Dr. Beverly T. Galloway, lately U. S. Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, took up his duties as Director of the New York State College of Agriculture on August 1st. He succeeded Dr. L. H. Bailey, or rather Professor W. A. Stocking, jr., who had been acting director during the year following Dr. Bailey's resignation. The affairs of the college had gone on smoothly during Professor Stocking's administration, which had earned the respect of Faculty and students. There was no ceremony attending Dr. Galloway's installation, although the members of the Agricultural College Council, which had a meeting that day, went to his office to shake hands with him. One of the first to welcome him to New York was the State Commissioner of Agriculture, Mr. Calvin J. Huson.

Dr. Galloway had been asked by the editor of the Rural New Yorker for an introductory statement upon taking up his new work, and on July 4 that periodical published the following under his signature:

"You have asked for a message to the farmers of the State of New York. I am pleased through you to give this message. I want it to be a message of hope and abounding faith as to what the future holds in store for agriculture. I want it also to be a message of appreciation of the efforts of those who have struggled long and earnestly for the betterment of agriculture. Men like Dr. Bailey and Dr. Jordan need no commendation from me. Their work stands a monument to their unselfish zeal and the ideals for which they have labored. They have had profound influence for good in New York State, and profound influence for good in the nation at large.

"To all institutions within the State charged with the betterment of agriculture I extend greeting and the sincere hope and wish that the good work they are doing may be continued and broadened. The College of Agriculture of Cornell University will ever stand ready to cooperate with all institutions within the State to the end of co-ordinating agricultural activities so that the farmers and all others whom we serve may reap the fullest benefit, and may be led to still further aid the cause.

"The world is in the midst of a mighty surge of public sentiment demanding all kinds of reforms and all kinds of action to advance the cause of the man on the land. Any consideration of the question as to what is to be done for agriculture in the State of New York

DR. B. T. GALLOWAY
Director of the College of Agriculture

must be visualized from the world's point of view. The world is suddenly waking up to the fact that food and clothing must be supplied to the teeming millions of its people. The world is also waking to the fact that with the growth of democracy the man who supplies the food and clothing from the soil will be content no longer with the life of the peasant or the serf. America has developed a type of farmer differing in many respects from any others found in the world. Intelligence and individualism are his marked characteristics. He is now beginning to feel the need of organization and combined effort in meeting the problems before him. The problems in New York State, or in any other State for that matter, are not those of mere production, or the mere disposal and distribution of the things produced. In a broad sense they have to do with socializing the man on the land, of bringing to bear all those forces which the State may properly bring to bear to give him an even chance with other men whose labors fall in different fields. Education is the key to the situation, but the education must be sound, otherwise our efforts will fail. No sane man would attempt at this time to blueprint a final plan of rural education. We can feel our way only as we get the ground swell coming from the millions of people demanding light and help.

"I hope to see the State College of Agriculture in the forefront of every movement looking toward the training of leaders in rural affairs. No good work can go on without leadership. The College of Agriculture in a great university is the place to train them. They must be gifted with knowledge and experience for leadership, and enriched with the highest ideals of living. The atmosphere of a great university begets these things. The association of different classes of students makes for breadth of vision and appreciation of the work for the world at large. Obviously no college can hope to teach or train successfully for any great length of time unless it is developing a reservoir of knowledge from which to draw. Research creates this reservoir. Research is the steadying force that holds the earnest worker to the truth and the highest ideals in all things. But truth must be vitalized and used, and here again the college has an important duty to perform in bringing its work for agricultural betterment into every community and every farm home of the State. The farmers' needs are multiplying, and will continue to multiply with advancing civilization. The farmer wants a fair share of the profits of his labor. He wants home comforts, and he wants to be brought in touch and to keep in touch with the world's affairs. He is not a supplicant or a mendicant. He asks for nothing he is not entitled to receive. The college must appreciate all of these things and more, and to do so its leaders must get close to the heart of the people, and must never forget for an instant the interests of those they serve."

DATE OF 1915 REGATTA

The next regatta of the Intercollegiate Rowing Association will be held on Monday, June 28, 1915, on the Poughkeepsie-Highland course.

NASH-ARNOLD

Arthur Cleveland Nash, who was assistant professor of architecture at Cornell in 1900-02, was married at New York on August 12 to Miss Mary Screven Arnold. They will live at 152 West Fifty-seventh Street, New York.

Excelled at the Army Camp Cornell Contingent Had a Majority of the Officers at Burlington

The Cornell Daily Sun of August 10 said :

Though outnumbered by the delegations sent by several of the other colleges of the country, Cornell had what was considered the best trained group of undergraduate cadets attending the summer camps, held under the supervision of the War Department throughout the United States, according to reports received here from the Burlington, Vt., camp.

Last week the camps at Burlington, Asheville, N. C., Luddington, Mich., and Monterey, Cal., were broken up and the students returned Saturday to their homes. Those who came back to Ithaca from the Burlington camp reported the great success of the enterprise and the impression which the Cornell men made in camp circles.

Cornell had eighteen students at Burlington, the Ithaca delegation being beaten in numbers only by those from Princeton and Yale. The superior military training of the Cornellians is evidenced by the fact that five of the seven student lieutenants in the corps of 350, four student companies, were from the University cadet corps here. These men were R. W. Nix, jr., '15; T. L. McMurray '16, A. E. Krieger '15, R. C. Candee '15, and H. B. McGowan '17. Lieutenant H. T. Bull, commandant of the Cornell Cadet Corps, was one of the four student company captains.

T. L. McMurray '16 received the cup for the best individual slow fire score of the camp at Burlington. At that camp was E. G. Woehler, Cornell 1911, who served as a lieutenant in the German navy, up to his entrance at the University. He is expected to return to his fatherland this week and enter the service of the German navy.

R. W. Nix '15 was elected at the last session of the camp to represent the Burlington camp at the conference of the representatives of the other United States student camps, the members of which are now formed into a society known as the National Reserve Corps.

THE ANNUAL MEETING of the New York State Library Association is to be held at Cornell in the second week of September.

READERS are once more reminded of the index which will be published soon after this number is out, completing Volume XVI of the NEWS. A copy of the index, with a title-page for binding, will be sent free to any reader who asks for it. A volume of the NEWS is a complete record of the University year, and the index makes reference to the volume easy.

IT IS GOOD NEWS that Alumni Field will be ready for intercollegiate games next year. Cornellians are grateful to the generous benefactors who have made this early completion of the field possible. We are now within sight, if not within reach, of the practical completion of the whole area of more than fifty-seven acres. The whole field can be used when funds have been obtained and applied to the development of the baseball section. More than half of this area of fifty-seven acres is taken up by the Student Playground and Common. That part of the field has been in use for several years. It will not be of the greatest usefulness to the students, however, until the University has a new gymnasium somewhere near the Playground. And one important branch of athletics, rowing, will not be properly cared for until quarters for winter training of the crews are provided, either in a new gymnasium or in some other building yet to be erected. The buildings on Alumni Field, generous as they are, make no provision for the oarsmen.

THE PROSPECT of some day abandoning Percy Field calls attention to the loss of the Witherbee Memorial. The clubhouse on Percy Field which was destroyed by fire a few years ago was built with funds contributed by students and townspeople for a memorial to George Pease Witherbee, of the class of 1893. He was a member of several varsity crews and was captain of the football team. He was drowned in Lake Champlain in the summer of 1893 while trying to save the life of a boy friend. The tablet which was placed in the clubhouse was saved from the fire. A place should be found for it on the new field. The memorial to George Witherbee should not be lost.

A WORD about the present alumni reunion program: The present arrangement, which fixes Friday and Saturday preceding Commencement Week for the reunion, was adopted last year upon the recommendation of a committee of which the chairman was Mr. Herbert D. Mason '00, of the Board of Trustees. It was agreed to try the plan for five years. The test of two years has, in our opinion, proved the success of the program. During the recent reunion we heard no complaint from any alumnus that the reunion was held at an inconvenient time. Under the old plan, by which the alumni were expected to come back during Commencement Week, complaints were frequent and loud, not only from alumni themselves but from members of the graduating class who felt that the few days immediately preceding Commencement should be theirs.

COUNTRY LIFE SCHOOL

There were sixty-three persons in attendance as students at the fourth session of the School for Leadership in Country Life, held at the College of Agriculture early in July. This is a real school, with five hours of classroom work every day for a week. The students came from the states of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Maryland, Virginia, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, North Carolina, and Washington, and from South Africa. Among the occupations represented were those of teacher, Y. M. C. A. worker, farm bureau agent, minister, housekeeper, college student, journalist, college extension worker, and farmer.

TEACHERS OF AGRICULTURE

The Association of Agricultural Principals and Teachers of New York State held its summer meeting at Cornell on July 13-18. There were fifty-one persons present, practically the entire membership of the association. This was the first meeting yet held at Cornell, but the association voted unanimously and by acclamation to come here next summer. Sessions were held all day during the week. Most of the work consisted of lectures and demonstrations by members of the college staff on the latest advances in agricultural science. Professor L. S. Hawkins, specialist in agriculture of the State Education Department, presided.

FROM THE FROZEN NORTH

"Use this postal and write to the CORNELL ALUMNI NEWS" is the legend on postcards which the NEWS sends when it seeks some information. One of these cards came back to us bearing the date of Dawson, Yukon Territory, July 6, 1914, and the following message:

"This card was handed to me by T. D. Crippen '14, on the Yukon River at Dawson, Y. T. Mr. Crippen was en route to his new field of activities at Rampart, Alaska, where he is to have charge of the government experiment station. I was glad to welcome another Cornell man into the Frozen North. Royal A. Gunnison '96, former Judge of the First Division of Alaska, is now practicing at Juneau, Alaska. I have spent eight years in Alaska as clerk of the district court at Juneau and Fairbanks, but am now practicing law and am en route to attend a term of court now being held at a new mining camp at Iditarod, Alaska. I am, however, permanently located at Long Beach, Cal., where I shall be glad to hear from any of the boys of my time. Yours for the Cornell spirit. C. C. PAGE '99.

WOMEN'S CLUB OF ROCHESTER

The annual meeting of the Cornell Women's Club of Rochester was held at the home of Mrs. Joseph L. Humphrey (Winifred Ball) in Gates, N. Y., on July 6. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. William F. Donoghue (Mary Heughes '02); secretary-treasurer, Miss Eleanor Gleason '03.

THE NEW ORGAN

A tablet has been prepared for attachment to the new organ in Bailey Hall. It reads: "This organ, built by the J. W. Steere & Son Organ Co., of Springfield, Mass., was given to Cornell University on the eightieth birthday of Andrew Dickson White by Andrew Carnegie, of New York; Frank H. Hiscock, Cornell, Class of 1874; Henry R. Ickelheimer, Cornell, Class of 1888; George E. Molleson, of New York; Ira A. Place, Cornell, Class of 1881; Charles S. Shepard, Yale, Class of 1878; Frederick C. Stevens, Cornell, Class of 1875; James G. White, Cornell, Class of 1885. It was first publicly used on Baccalaureate Sunday, June 14, 1914."

TWO BUILDINGS on the agricultural campus are now almost complete. One is the animal husbandry hall, which, with the new judging pavilion, stands at the extreme eastern end of Alumni Field, near the barns. It will be ready in October. The other is the home of the department of agronomy, or soils. It is directly east of the home economics building. Work on this structure was begun in April. The walls and roof are finished and work on the interior is progressing so well that the building probably will be ready for use by the first of December.

A DINING ROOM under University supervision will be run in the Cascadilla building, beginning soon after the opening of the college year. Its system will be similar to that of the lunch room conducted by the department of home economics.

THE CHEMISTRY association has elected Raymond V. Puff '15, of Middletown, N. Y., president for next year. The secretary will be Walter P. Phillips '15, of Fair Haven, N. Y.

Our Friends in Europe

Several Faculty Members Are in Countries Which Are Now at War

A score or more of members of the University Faculty are in Europe, and some of them are within the region which is now involved in war. As soon as it became evident that American travelers in Europe might have difficulty in returning home President Schurman asked the heads of departments in the University for information about those teachers whose return to the University might be delayed. Of course very little could be learned of the whereabouts of most of these persons, because of the paralysis of ordinary means of trans-Atlantic communication. Some of the facts given below may be facts no longer by the time this paper goes to press:

Professor T. F. Crane and Miss Fredrika Crane had been traveling in South-eastern Europe, but they were reported to be in Switzerland when the war began.

Professor L. M. Dennis was in Dresden when the German government issued its order forbidding foreigners to leave that country while mobilization was in progress. Clark Dennis, his son, was in Belgium. Professor Dennis had been buying supplies for the department of chemistry. The department is a regular purchaser of supplies made in Germany, and a long continuance of the war would cause it some inconvenience. A large consignment is supposed now to be at Hamburg, awaiting shipment, which may be delayed. The greater part of these supplies could be duplicated in this country, at somewhat greater cost, but the uncertainty whether the shipment will be delayed indefinitely is causing the department anxiety. Plans for some research may have to be abandoned for lack of special apparatus which was expected from Germany.

Professor O. G. Guerlac was in Geneva when the war began. It is doubtful if he can return by the time instruction is resumed. He is supposed to be liable to a call for service in the reserve, for the French government has called out all reservists who served with the colors after 1887.

Professor C. E. Bennett was reported to be in Spain. Other members of the Faculty on the Continent were Professor Paul R. Pope, Professor W. W. Comfort, Professor F. C. Prescott, Instructor Albert L. Andrews, and Instructor G.

H. Brown. Professor Heinrich Ries and Professor R. S. Saby were in Norway. Halldor Hermansson, curator of the Icelandic collection in the Library, was in Iceland. Miss Elizabeth S. Ingersoll, an assistant in the Library, was with a party of tourists which intended to go to Norway, Germany and Austria-Hungary.

Professor Laurence Pumpelly and John M. Gauntlett '05 arrived in Paris late in July after a tour in Italy, Corsica and Southern France. A cable message was received from them on August 7 saying that they were in Lausanne and were well.

Professor E. P. Andrews went abroad with Pumpelly and Gauntlett, but left them in Italy and went on to Egypt. He wrote from Luxor on July 13 saying that he expected to go up the Nile as far as Assouan, and to leave Cairo, returning, about August 1st. He was planning to go to Vienna for a visit to the museums there.

Professor Andrews on August 11 cabled his parents from Gibraltar that he was sailing from there the next day for England on his way home.

Several members of the Agricultural Faculty were in Europe. Professor and Mrs. H. H. Whetzel were traveling in Germany, making their headquarters at Heidelberg. Dr. H. H. Love and Mrs. Love were in Berlin. Professor E. G. Montgomery and Mrs. Montgomery were at Halle. Professor Bryant Fleming was in England.

Dr. W. L. Williams of the Veterinary College had gone from this country to England and was believed to be either there or in Scotland.

Professor Georges Mauxion of the College of Architecture was summoned to service in the French army. Up to August 10 he was still in Ithaca because he had been unable to engage passage to France.

Alfred Oberle (D.V.M. '14), a teacher in the Sturgis preparatory school, was summoned to serve in the German army. He left Ithaca at once and went to New York to sail on the first available steamship. He was formerly a lieutenant in the German army.

Professor J. M. Hart had sailed for Europe on the Hamburg liner President Grant, which was called back to New York by her owners and returned to port three days after her departure. He told a reporter for the New York Times that he had left Ithaca in a run-down condition but that his three-day free trip on the ocean had improved his health wonderfully. Other passengers on the President Grant were Jared T. Newman '75, of the Board of Trustees; Charles H. Newman '13, and Miss Mary Newman '14.

President Schurman's family were in Brussels when the war broke out, excepting Miss Catherine Schurman, who was traveling with Mrs. Jenks and Miss Margaret Jenks in Brittany. They left Brussels at once for London, where they have been staying at the Langham Hotel. But J. G. Schurman, jr., who is a member of the class of 1917, remained behind at Brussels, where he still was on August 10. Miss Catherine Schurman, with Mrs. Jenks and Miss Jenks, are at present detained for lack of trains on the coast of Brittany at Roscoff, an interesting old town directly across the English Channel from Plymouth.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATIONS

Northern California

The annual Boat-Race Jinks of the Cornell University Club of Northern California was held on the night of the Poughkeepsie races at the Hof Brau in San Francisco. We had forty-six enthusiastic Cornellians present, the largest and best gathering that we have held in years. Cornell's two victories out of the three on the Hudson were greeted with deafening cheers, the news coming direct by wire from one of our members, L. A. Rally, who was at Poughkeepsie at the time.

Our guest of the evening was Mr. Cowell, of the Bureau of Conventions and Congresses of the Panama Pacific International Exposition to be held in San Francisco in 1915. Mr. Cowell came to tell us of the work of the bureau, and to co-operate with us in plans which we are now devising for the benefit of the Cornell alumni who will visit California next year. It is our purpose to establish, either independently, or in co-operation with the Exposition Bureau, a registry and directory. By so doing, we wish to make it possible for Cornell men coming to California to meet with us here, and to ascertain when other former classmates from other parts of the country are to be here. To carry out such a plan successfully it will be necessary for alumni to advise us in advance as to when they will reach here, where they may be found, the length of their stay, etc. Meanwhile, it will be our pleasure to co-operate as much as possible with these alumni in providing what information we can concerning the exposition. Inquiries of any kind may be addressed for the present to the secretary, Leroy R. Goodrich, 364-367 Blake Block, Oakland, California. Further announcements will be made and may be looked forward to as our plans mature.

Meanwhile, start a separate bank account, fellow Cornellians. We want you and your families out here in 1915.

Connecticut

Almost two score Cornell men from Connecticut and Western Massachusetts gathered at Momauguim on July 11 for their first summer outing. The festivities opened with a ball game between the old and new classes, according to an account sent in by Bill VanKirk.

After the game the crowd had a good swim and ended the day with a big dinner of chicken and lobster. It was "some party" and everybody voted for another one next year. "We were particularly fortunate," Bill writes, "in having with us Sport Ward '11, who regaled the crowd with his usual line of chatter and kept us in a continual laugh." Abe Lincoln and Chuck French appeared in Abe's new Mercedes Some Boat. The outing will be made an annual custom. Those present were:

C. B. Dann '84, C. R. Webster '90, P. J. Darlington '91, C. F. Camp '92, E. S. Sanderson '94, P. H. Powell '95, E. P. Guilford '96, E. Hawley '05, W. T. Rowland '07, T. H. Desmond '08, H. C. Atwater '08, C. M. French '09, J. C. Andrews '09, R. C. Germond '09, F. A. Reiley '10, L. P. Ward '11, H. A. Lincoln '11, Oscar Segalowitz '12, W. H. Pratt '12, B. A. Porter '13, W. E. Rouse '13, C. T. Barrett '13, Albert Hummel '13, E. G. Barrows '13, R. L. Seymour '13, W. VanKirk '13, and D. H. Gleason '14.

New England

The annual "wash" of the Cornell Club of New England was held at Squantum on July 25. It was a big splash, to which the Boston Post gave almost two columns of write-up and cartoons.

There were almost a hundred men present, and the affair lasted all the afternoon and well toward midnight.

Chicago

Various athletic events were included in the program of the annual outing of the Cornell University Association of Chicago. The baseball team led by J. E. Ward '99 (battery W. G. Warren '03 and Walter Kuhlmeier '05) defeated T. R. Rollo's team (battery T. R. Rollo '10 and L. G. Hallberg, jr., '09) by the score of 22 to 21. Umpire, L. D. Emmert '11. The tennis championship was won by E. P. Waud '05, with R. S. Vail '06 and Owen Roberts '02 trailing. The pentathlon (50-yard dash, standing broad jump, running hop-step-and-jump, discus and javelin) was won by L. D. Bragg '12, who took four firsts and a second. Gus Hallberg was second and Tubby Sailor third.

THE MEMBERS of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity expect to occupy their new home on Cayuga Heights when the University reopens next month.

OBITUARY

R. C. H. Catterall

Ralph Charles Henry Catterall, professor of modern European history in Cornell University, died on Sunday morning, August 2, after a long illness. His death occurred while he was a guest at the summer home of Professor William Lyon Phelps, of Yale, at Huron City, Michigan. During the last two years Professor Catterall had suffered from the effects of a cerebral hemorrhage. Early this summer he went with Mrs. Catterall to her mother's home at Bristol, New Hampshire. His health seemed to be improving, and late in July he accepted Professor Phelps's invitation and went to Huron City with his son Ralph.

Professor Catterall came to Cornell from the University of Chicago in 1902 to become assistant professor of modern European history, succeeding Professor H. Morse Stephens, who had just gone to the University of California. He was promoted to a professorship in 1905. He was born at Bolton, England, on March 29, 1866, the son of Ralph Charles Henry and Caroline (Reed) Catterall, and was brought to this country by his parents in 1869. He studied at Bucknell University (A.B., 1891) and Harvard (A.B., 1892). From 1892 till 1902 he was connected with the University of Chicago, first as senior fellow, then as reader, afterward as associate, and finally as instructor. In 1902 he received from that institution the degree of Ph.D., writing a dissertation on The Second Bank of the United States.

Professor Catterall was a stimulating lecturer. He was a witty and entertaining speaker, and until his health was broken he addressed many student gatherings every year. He was a member of the Phi Beta Kappa society, the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, the Cosmopolitan Club, and Book and Bowl.

A funeral service was held in Sage Chapel on Wednesday afternoon, August 5, conducted by the Rev. Henry P. Horton. Ex-President White and President Schurman were in attendance. The pallbearers were Professor Hayes of the College of Law and Professors Burr, Hull, Sill, Bretz and Lunt of the department of history. The burial was in Lake View cemetery at Ithaca.

McCutcheon, Munsick, Mallory, Gallogly, Snyder, MacDonald, Sherwood, Gilman, Carnal, Gass, Holtz, and Jamieson. Of the backs, Philippi, Barrett, Collyer, Lahr, Shuler, Taber, Hubbard, and Schlichter. Have you seen it?

Slightly reduced playing surface—more on the oval shape—generous rounded handle—gut as clean as a hound's tooth and well nigh as strong.

Just to feel it gives court fever.
