THE Trustees' committee on buildings and grounds has selected Messrs. Gibb & Waltz, of Ithaca, with Messrs. Day & Klaunder, of Philadelphia, as associates, to make preliminary studies for the new laboratories of the department of chemistry. The architects are working with that department. Visits to chemical laboratories in this country will be made by Professor Dennis, Mr. Gibb, and Mr. Charles E. Curtis, the superintendent of buildings and grounds. Mr. Gibb took his degree in architecture at Cornell in 1890. He is the architect of Alumni Field and the Schoellkopf Memorial. Messrs. Day & Klaunder are the architects of the new residence halls.

QUARTERS in University residence halls have been assigned to three classes for the reunion next June. The Class of 1891 has Cascadilla Hall. Baker Tower has been assigned to the Class of 1906. Founders Hall will be the headquarters of the Class of 1901. These are the only University residence buildings which will be available at that time. Work has progressed to some extent during the winter on North and South Baker Halls, and those two buildings should be practically completed in the spring, but no effort will be made to furnish them until late in the summer.

NO SIGN OF SPRING could be seen, up to this week, on the "bird chart" which is kept in the north entry of McGraw Hall. This chart records the first appearance in Ithaca of the migratory birds. March 6 is the date of the average spring arrival of the robin and the bluebird. Two unhappy robins were seen on February 24, but up to March 11 no observer had reported even a single bluebird. What was worse, several Lapland longspurs were seen on Alumni Field on March 9 and 10. This is the first time in the twelve years the chart has been kept that members of this circumpolar finch family have been reported in Ithaca.

TWO ADDITIONAL WINDOWS have been cut in the north end of the first story of McGraw Hall. Several changes have been made by the removal of partitions in the building. These changes give the department of vertebrate zoology a larger and better lighted laboratory than it has ever had. Space formerly devoted to offices has been added to the laboratory, and economy of office space has been effected by the building of a mezzanine floor, for which there was ample room.

THE RIFLE TEAM had a match with Harvard the other day, at Harvard's invitation. Each team of five men shot on its own range, and the Cornell targets were sent to Cambridge for the comparison. The scores were, out of a possible 1,000: Cornell, 996; Harvard, 959. This match was outside the regular intercollegiate series now in progress. Cornell scored 994 in its seventh match of that series and lost the match to the University of West Virginia by one point. In the eighth match the Cornell team defeated the North Georgia Agricultural College team by the score of 995 to 961. In last week's match against the Naval Academy Cornell scored 993; the score made at Annapolis has not been reported yet. The Cornell team's average thus far is 993.9.

The Sibley Journal for March presents an extended synopsis of the report of the commission on the Panama Canal slides, edited by Professor R. C. Carpenter, who was a member of the commission. The commission "looks to the future of the Canal with confidence" and "firmly believes that, after the present difficulties have been overcome, navigation through the canal is not likely again to be seriously interrupted." Other articles in the Journal are by Professor G. B. Upton '04, Norman G. Reinicker '11, and Professor C. W. Ham.

THE LECTURE in the course on citizenship last week was given by John Martin, chairman of the committee on vocational schools of the New York City board of education. He expounded the citizen's duty to take an interest in the schools, related the success of efforts to divorce the New York City school system from politics, and described the Gary system. The next lecture of the series was given on March 13 by Eugene T. Lies '00, general superintendent of the United Charities of Chicago. His theme was "The citizen and poverty." Mr. Lies has been continuously in charity organization work, in Buffalo, Minneapolis and Chicago. He is secretary of the Illinois committee on social legislation, a lecturer at the Chicago school of civics and philanthropy and a director of the American association of societies for organizing charity.

JOHN A. FITCH will be the next lecturer in the citizenship course, speaking here on March 20. His topic is "The citizen and industry." Mr. Fitch took part in the survey of the City of Pittsburgh which was made in 1907-8. In 1909-10 he was employed as an expert by the New York State department of labor. Since 1910 he has been a member of the staff of The Survey and is now the editor of its industry department. He wrote "The Steel Workers."

The Cornell Architect for February contains an article by Benjamin S. Hubbell, B.S. in Arch., '93, of Cleveland, on "Building an art museum." The article is an abstract of a lecture which Mr. Hubbell gave here recently. The subject of it is the Cleveland Museum of Art. A colored rendering of the front elevation of the building forms the frontispiece of the magazine, and there are many illustrations of other buildings designed by Messrs. Hubbell & Benes. Other contributors to the number are Horace W. Peaslee '10, H. S. Kirchner '15, and G. L. Kaufman '15. There are six pages of plates illustrating work done by students of the College of Architecture.

The Cornell Era has elected Bertram Francis Willcox '17 editor-in-chief for next year. He is a son of Professor Walter F. Willcox and is a member of Psi Upsilon. J. Maxwell Pringle '17, of New York, will be the managing editor, and George J. Hecht '17, of New York, the business manager. Arthur Salinger, jr., '17, of New York, was elected photographic editor.

THE REV. CHARLES L. GOODELL, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church, New York City, will preach in Sage Chapel on March 19.

Campaign On in Chicago

A Committee of Seventy-five Working All this Month for the Alumni Fund

The Alumni Fund campaign in Chicago was launched on March 1st and is now in full swing under Erskine Wilder '05, as general chairman. Seventy-five of Chicago's most active and enthusiastic Cornellians, working in seven committees, are spending the month of March rounding up the 800 and more Cornell men in Chicago.

An illustrated "Bulletin" of the Cornell University Association of Chicago, devoted entirely to promoting the Cornellian Council campaign, appeared on March 1st. It was edited by R. W. Sailor '07, secretary of the association.

Mr. Wilder has been the chairman of the committee of the Class of 1905 which has raised and turned over to the University a class fund of more than $8,000. Under his leadership and with the hearty support of the entire Chicago association, this local campaign is sure to be a brilliant success. Associated with Mr. Wilder as sub-chairman are George W. Graham '76, A. C. Bell '95, S. A. Bingham '05, Robert H. Coit '06, W. H. McCaully '08, L. D. Emmert '11, and T. K. Webster, jr., '03. Serving on the committees are men from the classes of 1869 to 1915, which goes to show how comprehensive is the interest in this campaign. The committees will finish their work on April 1st, after which final results will be announced.

The "Bulletin" says: "We've finally, after all these years, tumbled to what is our duty as an association, and from the way in which the committee of seventy-five have gone through the preliminary drills, we're convinced that our whole membership, active and otherwise, will recognize in this a chance to do something worth while. * * * We're only about eight years late, but we can make up for it by putting our whole strength behind this campaign. * * * No Cornell man, with any sentiment left in him, or justice either, can be shown that Cornell is really in need without coming across for something, provided always, of course, that he has that something."

H. W. Peters Resigns

Will Leave the Secretary's Office as Soon as a Successor is Chosen

H. Wallace Peters '14, Secretary of the University, has resigned his office. His resignation has been accepted by the Trustees to take effect as soon as a successor is appointed. In accepting it, the Trustees expressed their appreciation of the work which Peters has done in developing and carrying on the functions of the Secretary's office.

Peters was appointed Secretary in the spring of 1914, when he was an undergraduate in the College of Arts and Sciences. He has given especial attention to the development of means by which the office is able to serve the needs of the alumni.

He will be employed by the Packard Motor Company in Detroit.

A New Engineering Firm

Daniel W. Mead '84 and F. W. Scheidenhelm '05 Associated in Practice

Daniel W. Mead (C.E., '84) and F. W. Scheidenhelm (A.B., '05; C.E., '06) have announced their association in the practice of engineering with offices in the Equitable Building, 120 Broadway, New York. They will continue to give their attention to reports, designs and construction, covering hydraulic and electric developments, water supply and reclamation works.

Mr. Mead has been in consulting practice at Madison, Wis., and has been at the same time professor of hydraulic and sanitary engineering in the University of Wisconsin. In 1914, as a member of the board of consulting engineers for the American Red Cross and for the Chinese Republic, he spent several months in China investigating the problems of flood control and river regulation along the Huai river. He is now acting as consulting engineer for the Miami conservancy district, which is handling the problem of flood prevention at Dayton, Ohio. Among his published works is "Water Power Engineering," 1908. He will divide his time between Madison and New York.

Mr. Scheidenhelm goes to New York from Pittsburgh, where he has been engaged in private and consulting capacities in hydro-electric and other hydraulic work. For several years, as vice-president and chief engineer of the Hydro-Electrical Company of West Virginia, he was in charge of the Cheat River developments of that company. He has been specializing in dam design and construction. Recently he completed the reconstruction of the Stony River dam which failed in 1914.

Both Mr. Mead and Mr. Scheidenhelm are members of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

Probation for Cutters

Arts College Decides on a Penalty for Stretching Vacations

Students in the College of Arts and Sciences who cut classes before or after vacations will hereafter be put on probation, unless they obtain a term mark of C (70 to 80) in all of the courses from which they were absent. This action was passed with very little opposition at a meeting of the college faculty on March 10. The rule covers two types of absentee, those who cut on the day before or on the day following the recess, and those who cut on both the day before and the day after the recess. A student who takes cuts at only one end of the vacation will be on probation during the following term in case he fails to obtain a grade of at least C in each course in which he was absent. The student who cuts at both ends of the recess will be dealt with more severely. The rule provides that he "shall be put on probation forthwith for the remainder of the term, and if he fails to obtain a grade of at least C, or its equivalent, in each course in which he was absent, shall remain on probation during the following term."

These rules apply to the Thanksgiving, Christmas, and spring recesses, and go into effect at once.

The rules were adopted in order to settle a ground of controversy between faculty and students which has existed for many years. The chief cause of trouble has been the Thanksgiving vacation. After allowing two days, Thursday and Friday, for several years, the University Faculty last fall reduced the recess to Thanksgiving Day only. On account of the general exodus to Philadelphia on that day the attendance at classes on Friday and Saturday fell off considerably. The Arts College is the first of the colleges to impose a penalty for cutting before or after the vacations.

OBITUARY

Samuel T. Maddox '74]

Samuel Thomas Maddox, a Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, died at his home in Brooklyn on March 12. He was a student at Cornell University throughout the year 1870-71. He was admitted to the bar in Kings County in 1875 and rose to a high place in his profession in Brooklyn. He was elected to the Supreme Court in 1896. His wife and one son survive him.

Edward T. Betts '75

Edward Tatnall Betts, B.S., '75, died on February 28 at his home in Wilmington, Del. He was vice-president and treasurer of the Betts Machine Company and a director in several banking corporations in Wilmington. He was born at Wilmington on July 17, 1855. His wife, a son, and a daughter survive him.

C. C. Scaife, jr. ['96]

Charles Cooke Scaife, jr., died at Pittsburgh, Pa., on November 13, 1915. He was secretary of William B. Scaife & Sons Company of Pittsburgh. Scaife was for three years with the class of 1896 in Sibley College and was a member of the Psi Upsilon fraternity.

A. E. Rommel '02

Arthur Evan Rommel, a graduate of the College of Civil Engineering in the class of 1902, lost his life by drowning in the Des Moines River near Oskaloosa, Iowa, on February 26. Rommel was the county engineer of Mahaska County, Iowa. He was superintending a gang of men who were trying to dislodge an ice gorge in the river, when the boat in which he was working was capsized. He was encumbered by a heavy fur coat and was swept away in the flood waters before help could reach him. His body was recovered two days afterward.

Rommel was born in Henry County, Iowa, on November 26, 1877. His father, Alexander Rommel, is the dean of Iowa Wesleyan College at Mount Pleasant. The son attended that college and was a member of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity there. He entered Cornell in 1898 and took the C.E. degree in 1902. After his graduation he was employed in railroad construction work in Wyoming, South Dakota, and other states by the Chicago & North Western Railroad. He went to Oskaloosa to live about two years ago. His wife, a son, and two daughters survive him.

J. S. Work '18

John Stewart Work, a member of the sophomore class in Sibley College, died at the University Infirmary on March 10 of pneumonia. He was a son of the Rev. Dr. Edgar Whitaker Work, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian Church of New York City.

OBITUARY NOTES

Clancey Ross Dempster, 1870-71, died January 18, 1916, at San Francisco, Cal.

David Arthur Hughes, M.L. '95, Ph.D. '98, D.V.M. '03, died February 14, 1916, at Chicago, Ill.

Frederick William Whitten, 1893-95, died January 24, 1915, at Columbus, Ohio.

AN ELECTION of officers will be held by the senior class on Friday of this week. A class president is to be chosen in place of Charles Barrett; class day officers will be elected, and a representative to the Cornellian Council. The candidates for class president are the senior members of the Student Council.

SUBJECTS FOR THE FORUM

An annual Forum of the Associate Alumni of Cornell University will be held in Detroit on Friday, March 31, 1916. The meeting will take place at the Hotel Statler.

Through the courtesy of Mr. W. H. H. Hutton of Detroit, arrangements have been made to hold a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Associate Alumni on March 30 at the University Club, Jefferson Avenue and Russell Street, Detroit.

The Cornell University Club of Michigan will hold its weekly luncheon on Friday, March 31, at the Hotel Statler.

Notice is hereby given in accordance with the By-Laws, Sections 29 and 30, that the Secretary of the Associate Alumni has received the following subjects for discussion at the Forum to be held in Detroit on March 31, 1916:

Proposed at the last meeting of the Board of Directors:

1. That reports of retiring Alumni Trustees be presented annually to the March Forum, rather than to the June meeting of the Association, and that Alumni Trustees be invited to attend the Forum for the purpose of advising their constituency as to the purpose and progress of their several efforts during the year.

Proposed by W. J. Dugan:

2. That the general rules and regulations governing the election of Alumni Trustees be changed so there may be less campaign effort made in behalf of individual candidates.

Proposed by Professor C. S. Northup:

3. Discussion of ways and means for raising a large additional endowment, largely for the purpose of strengthening the Faculty.

4. How to cut down outside activities and make study more attractive to the undergraduate.

Proposed by the Cornell Club of New England:

5. What dates during the spring semester are best suited for class reunions? Should the new five-year calendar shortly to be presented by the Faculty to the Trustees include alumni days in June as at present or should the alumni days be changed to Navy Week or some other time when the University is in session?

6. Should not at least two elective Alumni Trustees, selected each year by the board of directors of the Associate Alumni from among the eight elective Alumni Trustees continuing the office, be requested to report to the Associate Alumni at their annual meeting in June on the work of the Alumni Trustees during the current year?

Proposed by Miss Alice Bruere:

7. Discussion of ways and means for establishing a fund for the rebuilding of Morse Hall.

Proposed by The Cornell Women of Washington, D. C.

8. That further consideration be given by the Trustees to the appointment of a woman to the Faculty of Arts and Sciences.

Proposed by R. W. Sailor:

9. Discussion of ways and means for making effective the development of any new clubs and associations.

Proposed by N. H. Noyes:

10. Change of constitution or by-laws as may be necessary so that what is now called "Forum" may be designated "Convention" and also make changes so that annual convention will be held during an attractive season of the year, preferably May or October, and partake of the character of a reunion, as well as of a business session; that the board of directors meet once a year in addition to the annual convention; that the annual convention be held in Ithaca not more than once every five years, at other times in various cities north, south, east, and west.

Proposed by L. L. Tatum:

11. That the Trustees and Faculty of Cornell University be requested to make provision whereby there may be conferred under suitable restrictions the honorary degrees of Doctor of Applied Economics and Master of Applied Economics on former students of the University who shall have distinguished themselves by eminent achievement in their respective lines.

Proposed by the Cornell Club of New England:

12. How the work and advantages of Cornell University may be brought to the attention of preparatory schools without direct publicity or direct advertising. Can the local clubs and associations assume such work? (For the benefit of the Committee on Relations with Preparatory Schools.)

13. How can the alumni in various sections of the country be brought in closer touch with each other for such purposes as (a) employment, (b) business introduction, (c) information relating to affiliation with nearby local clubs, and generally all matters pertaining to the University of interest to the alumni? (For the benefit of the Committee for Promoting the Interest of the Alumni.)

14. What do the local clubs and associations find to be necessary regarding (a) number of alumni and (b) territory to be covered, in maintaining a successful local club or association? (For the benefit of the Committee for Establishing Local Clubs and Associations.)

15. Is it wiser at present to foster the establishment of alumni club scholarships which add to the financial burdens of the University, or to use such alumni club moneys as may be available toward the relief of pressing financial needs of the University? (For the benefit of the Committee on Local Association Scholarships.)

THE ASSOCIATE ALUMNI*Officers

THE 13TH CAVALRY

Only one Cornell man is an officer of the 13th Cavalry, which was at the scene of the attack by Mexican bandits in Columbus, New Mexico, last week. Edward Davis '96 is a captain in the 13th, but he was not with his regiment. He had just been detailed as military attaché to the U. S. Legation in Athens, and was in Washington when the attack took place. E. L. Phillips '91 was a captain in the 13th until his recent attainment of the rank of major, when he was assigned to the 9th Cavalry. He is now on duty in the Philippines. First Lieutenant Henry T. Bull, lately professor of military science and tactics at Cornell, was an officer of the 13th Cavalry when he was detailed to Cornell, but when his detail expired last November he was assigned to the 5th Cavalry and is now at Fort Myer, Virginia.

THE ANNUAL MUSIC FESTIVAL will take place on April 27, 28, and 29.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATIONS
EASTERN NEW YORK

At the annual meeting of the Alumni Association of Eastern New York, held in Troy on February 24, the following were elected officers for the ensuing year: President, Randall J. Le Boeuf '92; vice-president, F. S. Dunn '92; secretary and treasurer, C. R. Vanne-man '03. All these men reside in Albany.

The Alumni Association of Eastern New York was reorganized for the purpose of promoting closer relationship among the Cornell men of the district and of facilitating the campaign work now being conducted by the Cornellian Council. Local clubs were created in the centers of the several sections of the Association's territory. It was decided that there should be six clubs, located respectively in Albany, Troy, Schenectady, Saratoga, Amsterdam, and Hudson. The president of the "mother" association was instructed to appoint presidents for the several clubs; their successors are to be elected by the members of the respective clubs. These men, together with the officers of the association, will constitute the executive committee of the association.

THE NEW YORK CLUB

Track Championship Day (March 4) at the Cornell Club of New York was celebrated by the unveiling of the 1915 trophy which the Cornell track team had won last May. Jack Moakley was present, with several members of the team, at the luncheon which began the doings. Jimmy Gregg '98 presided at the unveiling, and other speakers were Powell '98 and Burt Lemon '08.

Bassett Jones, a member of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, was the speaker on club night, Friday, March 10. His subject was "Color."

For Friday night of this week, St. Patrick's Day, the entertainment committee of the club has organized a dance, for which J. André Smith designed an attractive announcement. The patronesses are Mrs. F. L. Ackerman, Mrs. W. F. Atkinson, Mrs. George W. Bacon, Mrs. John H. Barr, Mrs. Frank L. Cook, Mrs. Henry P. de Forest, Mrs. Frederick L. Durland, Mrs. John L. Given, Mrs. Walter Jones, Mrs. Henry R. Ickelheimer, Mrs. Roger Lewis, Mrs. Frank S. Marlow, Mrs. Robert T. Morris, Mrs. Leroy L. Perrine, Mrs. Sidney F. Ross, Mrs. Henry W. Sackett, Mrs. Edwin N. Sanderson, Mrs. Schurman, and Mrs. Albert W. Smith.

THE Cornellian Council will no doubt move the office of its secretary from New York to Ithaca, and that very soon. The Council is now taking a postal ballot of its members on the question of removal. A circular letter has been sent to them in which the executive committee of the Council sets forth its reasons for recommending the change. Experience has shown that distance from the University is impairing the effectiveness of the Secretary's efforts to build up the Alumni Fund. Advantages which were gained by having his office in New York while the Council was getting itself organized are now outweighed by the disadvantages of that location. One of the reasons for moving to Ithaca is a sentimental one. Solicitation for the Alumni Fund is expected to have a stronger appeal, coming from Ithaca, than coming from 30 Church Street. Other reasons are practical. At present the Secretary must maintain in New York a duplicate of the alumni directory or lose time in making use of the University's own records. He has in fact depended upon the University's records and has even had all the Council's literature mailed from the office of the University Secretary in Ithaca. Removal to Ithaca is expected to save the Council three or four hundred dollars a year now spent in office rent. The arguments advanced against the proposed change are not many. One of them is answered thus: "The fear that some unknown person or persons in Ithaca, of vicious proclivities, will control the Council to his or their profit is sheer nonsensical superstition. The individual Trustees have no control over or influence upon the Council or its Secretary. They will not be able to get their fingers on a single dollar of the money the Council collects, be they ever so criminal and ever so clever. All funds will go, as before, direct to the Treasurer of the University." Two additional reasons for the removal to Ithaca have just appeared, in the executive committee's opinion. One is the fact that there will soon be a change in the office of Secretary of the University and the feeling that the experience of the present Secretary, Mr. Peters, should be available while the Council is getting re-established. The other is the decision of the Western New York alumni association to await the removal to Ithaca before beginning its local campaign for the Alumni Fund. The members of that association are said to be so strongly of the opinion that the proposed move is essential that their officers are unwilling to hazard the success of their campaign by beginning it before the move is made.

BWARE OF SWINDLERS

A Fraud Worked by Young Men Posing as Magazine Solicitors

Cornell graduates are warned to beware of a swindle which is being worked by young men who pretend to be earning scholarships in Cornell University by soliciting subscriptions to magazines. This form of solicitation has been used in good faith by some reputable magazines. It is now so well known that impostors are taking advantage of it. A case has been brought to the attention of the University authorities in which money was obtained by supposed solicitors who used the University's name for the purpose, and who failed to deliver the magazines which they pretended to be selling. It will be well for all persons who are solicited in this way to make very sure that the solicitors have proper credentials and certificates of good faith. The NEWS hopes to be able soon to give more specific information of the methods of these swindlers.

OPINION AND COMMENT

The Borghese Warrior

Editor, Cornell Alumni News:

How curious that, when marble statues are copied back into their original bronze, the modern sculptor fails to recognize that the tree stump support necessarily added in the marble copy to re-enforce the marble ankles, should be omitted. Myron's discobolus was of bronze in the original. All the copies are in marble and of course have an added tree stump of one sort or another connecting the base with the leg. The statue loses enormously of course in thus being weighted down, when the whole of Myron's idea was agility. But the bronze cast of the Vatican copy in front of the Harvard gymnasium has unhappily retained the great mass adhering to the left leg, whose foot touches the ground only with tiptoe in the great sweep of the throw. The bronze copy of the Borghese warrior (not "gladiator") for the I. C. A. A. A. trophy repeats the blunder. Just fancy how the statue would gain with the absurd prop amputated from the right hip! What a pity that these modern copyists, making their expensive copies in bronze, should not know such a rudimentary and self-evident fact!

JUDGE IRVINE'S RESIGNATION

The Board of Trustees has adopted the following minute:

"Upon the occasion of the resignation of Judge Frank Irvine from the Faculty and from the Deanship of the College of Law, the Trustees of the University desire to express to him, and to record upon their minutes this appreciative recognition of his devoted and loyal service to the University.

"After twenty years of varied and highly effective labors at the Bar and upon the Bench, he returned to his Alma Mater and became a member of the Law Faculty. For nearly fifteen years he has been a wise and learned teacher of law; for more than half of that period he has performed the duties of head of his College with a quiet and impressive strength, mingled with a geniality, which has won the respect and admiration of all the members of the College of Law. Nor do we forget his unobtrusive but potent influence in many other affairs connected with the life of the University. His counsels have been frequently sought beyond the walls of Boardman Hall, by undergraduates and by his colleagues in the University Faculty; and his sagacity and foresight have guided many of the activities of our university life.

"While we sincerely regret the necessity which compels his resignation, we congratulate the State of New York upon having brought his distinguished abilities and sound judgment into the important office of Public Service Commissioner."

1908 HAD A DINNER

Between forty and fifty men turned out for a 1908 dinner at the Cornell Club, New York, on March 3. Jack Dods blew in from Chicago and Joe Pew came over from Philadelphia. Jack Moakley was the guest of honor. Frank B. Elser '06 related personal experiences obtained during eighteen months at the front. Edwin N. Sanderson '87 spoke on plans for a new and larger Cornell Club in New York. Ken Roberts just missed being present but wired. Ric Lally started, so his wire said. Steve Vanderveer was toastmaster. Among those present were Jack Dods, Carl Parker, Eddie Stillman, Louie Root, Bill Mennen, Ned Hall, Cliff Husted, Dick Geis, Freddie Townsend, Ritt Rittenhouse, Davie Davidson, Bunny Bousfield, Joe Pew, Ross Harrison, Frank Hoyt, App Appel, Hein Appel, Kil Slauson, Willie Willgoose, Ed Gibson, Tommy Jackson, Roy Paulus, Bert Lamberton, Perce Peck, Johnny Taussig, George Paaswell, Carl Schmidlapp, Squire Coffin, Burt Lemon, Stew Owens, Al Franklin, Rosy Rosevear, Bill Hoschke, Steve Vanderveer, Harry Wilson, Pud Clark, George English, Vic Herriman, Mit Mitler, Stud Sturgis, Van Bylevelt, Rosey Rosenbaum, Hazy Haskell and Charlie Burns.

WITH THE YORK MFG. CO.

With the York Manufacturing Company at York, Pa., are George E. Evans '11, Harry B. Hull '13, Wilbur C. Suiter '13, Frederick Downs '14, and Daniel F. Vanderlyn '14.

THE UNIVERSITY ORCHESTRA gave the final concert of a series in Bailey Hall on March 7, assisted by Miss Helena Guenther, soprano; Cass W. Whitney, barytone, and Mrs. Eric Dudley, accompanist. The orchestra played Beethoven's First Symphony, and selections from Rachmaninoff, Tschaiowsky, and Mendelssohn.

The Christian Association

Large Audiences of Students Heard Mr. Mott and Other Speakers

The Christian Association's campaign ended Monday night with the last address by John R. Mott '88, the leader of the week's activities. Mr. Mott spoke six times in Bailey Hall before great audiences of men. On Sunday afternoon the chapel exercises were held in Bailey Hall, and he spoke to a mixed audience.

About forty speakers came to Ithaca for the campaign. They were the guests of fraternities. Many of them gave several talks in chapter houses after luncheon and dinner. Meetings were held in the four days of the campaign for different groups of undergraduates. Each group was addressed by a leader who, for one reason or another, was particularly in sympathy with it.

The motive of the whole campaign was an appeal for deeper religious thought among Cornell men, but none of the meetings was "revivalistic" in any sense. There was almost as much emphasis on clean living as on religious faith. Mr. Mott devoted one of his talks to that subject, and some of the speakers appealed rather to ideals of manhood than to religion. The campaign was so thoroughgoing that almost every man in the University must have been touched by it at some time.

WANTS A STUDENT FORUM

The Cornell Daily Sun says the students should have more opportunities to meet their professors in more intimate and less formal communication than on the class room plane. The solution, it says, "is the inauguration of a so-called Forum. A Forum, as the name is applied to university institutions, is an open meeting, conducted by a body of enthusiasts who provide subjects for open discussion and enlightenment, and means for social entertainment. To such an open meeting every graduate is always welcome, while professors known to be authorities upon the subject chosen for discussion, whether they be from the departments of Greek or Animal Husbandry, are invited either to lead or assist in the discussion. Even in its fundamental intentions the Forum is democratic, broadening and solidifying."

The Sun proposes that such a meeting be held every other week.

APRIL 6 will be the first day of the spring recess. Instruction will be resume on April 13.

CORNELL LUNCHEONS

The list below is published here for the guidance not only of members of the associations in the cities mentioned but also of Cornell men from other towns who may be able to attend any of the luncheons. The NEWS wishes to keep it complete and accurate, and requests those in charge of the luncheons to inform the editor of any change that may be made in their arrangements.

THE LAST CONCERT before the Music Festival will be given in Bailey Hall next Tuesday, March 21, by Alice Nielsen, soprano, and Ossip Gabrilowitsch, pianist. The Music Festival will take place on April 27, 28, and 29.

ATHLETICS

Basketball

Cornell Ties for Third Place

The basketball team has finished the season tied with Yale for third place in the league, having won five games and lost five. The team won both its games with Yale; both its games with Columbia, and one of its games with Dartmouth. It was beaten twice by Pennsylvania and twice by Princeton. First place in the league is shared by Pennsylvania and Princeton; each of those teams won eight of its ten games. The final game of the season, which enabled Princeton to tie Pennsylvania for first place, was played at Ithaca and the Tigers defeated Cornell by the score of 22 to 19.

Cornell's playing toward the end of the season was disappointing. The team was composed almost entirely of veterans. It took on a heavy handicap, however, by losing its first two games to Princeton and Pennsylvania. Then it won five straight games and thus worked its way up to third place and gained a chance at the championship, but its last three games resulted in defeats. Practically the whole team will graduate this year, but Dr. Sharpe has developed a large number of good substitutes, many of whom have managed to get practice in intercollegiate games this year.

The league standing follows:

	Won	Lost	Grade
Pennsylvania.....	8	2	.800
Princeton.....	8	2	.800
Cornell.....	5	5	.500
Yale.....	5	5	.500
Dartmouth.....	3	7	.300
Columbia.....	1	9	.100

Princeton 22, Cornell 19.

The game with Princeton was lost after a promising start. Seven points had been scored by Cornell before the Tiger five accomplished much of anything. Cornell was scoring rather infrequently on long shots, and Princeton was failing continually on easy tries. A change in the Princeton line-up had an immediate effect, and the visitors began an uphill fight that was ultimately successful. Haas, who had been shifted from forward to guard in order to let Paulson into the game, began the scoring for Princeton by dropping two field goals in quick succession. Shelton added one for Cornell and Haas scored from the foul line. The half ended with the score standing 9 to 5 in Cornell's favor.

By faster play in the second half Princeton soon tied the score. Austin's long goal put Cornell ahead again, but a goal by Paulson made it 11—all. Princeton then went into a one point lead by virtue of a foul goal by Haas. This lead was never overtaken, although Cornell was twice within one point toward the end, the score standing 15 to 16 at one time and 19 to 20 a little later. Glick's field goal ended the game. The summary:

Cornell	Princeton
Brown.....	right forward.....	Peree
Lunden.....	left forward.....	Haas
Sutterby.....	center.....	McTigue
Austin.....	right guard.....	Davies
Shelton.....	left guard.....	Rahill

Goals from field—Sutterby 3, Shelton 3, Brown 1, Austin 1, Lunden 1; Haas 4, Paulson 3, McTigue 1, Davies 1, Glick 1. Goals from fouls—Brown 1 out of 3; Haas 2 out of 4. Substitutions—Paulson for Haas, Haas for Rahill, Glick for Davies. Referee—Deering, N. Y. U. Umpire—Lush, N. Y. U.

Fencing

Meets with Penn and the Navy

The team nosed out Pennsylvania in a very close match in Philadelphia last Friday night. After the first eight bouts the score stood 4 to 4. The last bout was between De Lima, of Cornell, and Smiley, of Pennsylvania. The outcome of the meet depended upon the result. When the required four minutes had elapsed each man had scored nine touches. In the extra period de Lima won by 4 touches to 2, capturing the meet for Cornell, 5 bouts to 4. Summary:

P. de Lima '16: Defeated Bartol, 6-0; defeated Patterson, 8-6; defeated Smiley, 9-9, 4-2.

O. M. da Costa '16: Defeated Bartol, 7-4; lost to Smiley, 3-6; lost to Patterson, 4-5.

N. M. Davies '16: Defeated Bartol, 7-6; lost to Patterson, 4-7; lost to Smiley, 6-10.

On Saturday night Cornell was outclassed by the Naval Academy trio at Annapolis. The score of the meet was 8 to 1. De Lima was the only Cornell man to win a bout.

Wrestling

Cornell 21, Lehigh 0

Cornell defeated Lehigh in the final dual meet of the season by the score of 21 to 0. It was the fourth successive victory for the Cornell team, which has now defeated every team in the intercollegiate league. The meet was held in the Armory Saturday night. The Cornell wrestlers won three falls and three decisions, one bout ending in a draw after Martin of Lehigh had been injured. Wigsten, who was opposing Martin in an extra period, was entitled to the decision, but he refused it. The summary:

115-pound class—H. MacKenzie '16 won decision from Kirkhuff, Lehigh, in 9 minutes.

125-pound class—J. Wigsten '17 drew with Martin, Lehigh, after 12 minutes.

135-pound class—R. K. Reynolds '17 threw Shaffer, Lehigh, in 3 minutes 16 seconds.

145-pound class—E. S. Post '17 won decision from Parrish, Lehigh, in 9 minutes.

158-pound class—F. C. Sager '16 won decision from Levin, Lehigh, in 9 minutes.

175-pound class—J. A. McKeage '16 threw Scruggs, Lehigh, in 3 minutes 33 seconds.

Heavyweight class—H. Snyder '16 threw Ketcham, Lehigh, in 5 minutes 29 seconds.

Track

Relay Teams Defeated

Cornell's one and two-mile relay teams were both defeated at the Meadowbrook Athletic Club games held in Philadelphia last Saturday night. In a special match race with the Pennsylvania quarter-milers Cornell was defeated by a small margin. J. S. Lewis '16, W. C. Bartsch '17, W. D. Crim '17, and W. B. Shelton '18 made up the Cornell team, and ran in the order named. Dorsey, Kauffman, Lennon, and Meredith ran for the Red and Blue. The Cornell team ran again in the intercollegiate mile relay, Acheson having been substituted for Bartsch. Harvard won the race, running Minot, Pennypacker, Willcox, and Bingham. Princeton was second, Cornell third, and Pennsylvania fourth.

Cornell's two-mile team finished second to the fast Yale quartet of half-milers, Barker, Rolfe, Cooper, and Overton. Michigan and Maine finished third and fourth, respectively. The Cornell runners were H. E. Irish '16, G. M. Taylor '16, D. F. Potter, jr. '16, and L. V. Windnagle '17.

A. W. Richards '17 was Cornell's only entry in the individual events. He finished second in the invitation scratch high jump with a mark of 6 feet 1 3-4 inches. Oler, of Yale, won the event at 6 feet 2 3-4 inches. Richards won the open handicap high jump at 6 feet 2 inches. He failed to place in the handicap shot-put.

Hockey.—Watson Giles Harding '17, of Saranac Lake, has been elected captain of the hockey team for next year. He played at right wing this season.

Detects Variations in Stroke

Electrical Device Used for Testing the Rhythm of Oarsmen

An electrical device for synchronizing the strokes of the eight men composing a crew on the rowing machines has been installed on one of the sets of machines in the Gymnasium. It will be tested during the remainder of the indoor practice. The mechanism is the work of W. F. Beachy '17, of Oak Park, Ill., assistant manager of the Navy. Mr. Courtney has been much interested in the development of the device, but he has not yet seen it work. The Sun describes the apparatus as follows:

"The device as now working consists of a series of tiny electric bulbs, a red one and a white one in front of each oarsman, with a set of eight together, one representing each rower, in front of the entire combination. The lights flash on only during the forward stroke of the oars.

"Pulling the stroke oar of the combination, number 8, lights all of the white lights down the row and the one representing stroke in the group in front of the combination. Then as each of the other oars is pulled the individual red lights, together with the given one in the front group, flash on. Exact correspondence of action between the red and white lights in front of any oarsman shows that he is in time with the stroke. Exact correspondence of the eight lights of the group shows that the entire combination is rowing in perfect regularity.

"Although the entire mechanism is a novelty and worked out now for the first time, the coaches are expecting marked assistance from it in developing the perfect regularity necessary to a first class crew. With the lights to indicate at a glance the exact timing of any man in relation to the stroke, the coaches will be able to devote almost their entire attention to perfecting the oarsmen individually in necessary points of form and style and will not have to devote the time formerly necessary to watching the combination's rhythm.

"The chief difficulty in installing the system was in designing a form of switch which would complete the circuit during the forward stroke of the oar and break it instantly on the beginning of the return. With this difficulty overcome the completion of the outfit depends simply on setting up the lamps and wiring. As now installed errors between the operation of the oars and the working of the lights are impossible. The simplicity of the entire mechanism is such that it can be transferred if necessary from one set of machines to another in a few hours."

Rowing.—The average date of the first practice on the Cayuga Inlet by the Cornell crews of the last ten years is March 15. On Tuesday of this week, March 14, the ice had not gone out of the stream. There have been three years—1912, 1914, and 1915—when the oarsmen were unable to take to the water until the last week of March. In 1909 the crews had their first row on February 22 and their practice from then on was interrupted only occasionally by bad weather.

Rowing.—The following rule has recently been adopted by the Board of Stewards governing the races held under the auspices of the Intercollegiate Rowing Association (Columbia, Pennsylvania, and Cornell):

"No man shall be eligible to compete in a freshman crew who has, prior to entering his university, represented in competition any club or rowing organization other than a club or rowing organization of a preparatory school.

"No man shall be eligible for competition in any varsity or junior varsity crew who has represented any club or rowing organization of a preparatory school, until he has been a year in residence at the university which he desires to represent, provided nothing herein contained shall prevent a man during his year's residence from representing in competition a club or rowing organization other than a club or rowing organization of a preparatory school."

STATISTICS compiled by Graduate Manager G. E. Kent show that 44.55 per cent of the undergraduates have purchased season tickets from the Athletic Association this year. The classes subscribed as follows: seniors, 43.5 per cent; juniors, 44.8 per cent; sophomores, 41.3 per cent; freshmen, 48.6 per cent.

THE ATHLETIC COUNCIL recently elected Herbert R. Kuhns '18, of Dayton, O., assistant manager of football for 1916-17. He is a member of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity. Merrill Blanchard '18, of Evanston, Ill., was elected assistant manager of freshman football. He belongs to Alpha Delta Phi. The Council also elected S. E. Hunkin '16, the retiring manager of football, to the chairmanship of the Spring Day Committee.

FORTY CANDIDATES have turned out for lacrosse practice in the baseball cage.

CLASS ANNOUNCEMENT

1901 15-YEAR REUNION

According to latest reports there are 523 members of the Class of 1901 still extant, 440 men, 74 women and nine nomads whose present hiding places are unknown. The nine must be discovered. Their names will be published presently. And nine nomads, 74 women and 440 men must meet in Ithaca June 16th and 17th next. Every member of the Class will receive personal notice to that effect. If you fail to receive yours, advise the chairman. The committee will do the rest.

Plans are being rapidly matured to make ours the largest and best class reunion Cornell has ever known. No individual point of view, no individual tastes, will be overlooked, but there will be a program which all will enjoy and in which all will wish to participate. This is to be a class reunion in the fullest sense of the word. And note

Announcement Extraordinary

Following the precedent established by '99 and maintained by 1900, with most gratifying results in each case, 1901 will this year be the host to the visiting alumni and members of the University, at a special entertainment to be given at the Star Theater, Saturday evening, June 17th. A special committee is now at work on a program of a very high order, which will include not only Cornell movies, musical numbers and bits of humor by the way, but also some real intellectual stimulus, to be imported if necessary. 1901's show will be the best performance Ithaca has ever witnessed, and every member of the Class must help to make it a supreme success. Send us your suggestions, everybody! The committee will welcome them. Send a small contribution ($2.00 or more) to help meet the expense. The chairman and treasurer ("Rod" Williams) are both under bond. And come and take part. Your one chance to get before the footlights—perhaps! To quote the Cleveland slogan (copyrighted by "Bub" North): "Don't just get educated! Keep educated!"

J. P. HARRIS, Chairman,
714 Cuyahoga Bldg., Cleveland.

THE PAGEANT prepared by the women students has been definitely postponed till next fall. They had planned to give it in the spring, but have been unable to find a suitable day without conflict with some University event already on the calendar. They plan now to give the play in October.

'12, B.S.—Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Blanche Dalton durability is standard. Years of service in thousands of offices, banks, Governmental Departments, factories and business institutions of all kinds everywhere, have long since demonstrated this fact.

In times past, however, before the experience of these users was available, actual tests under the direction of our own engineers had conclusively demonstrated that, while springs and a few minor parts subject to peculiar wear might require replacement now and then, there is no such thing as wearing out a Dalton.

Owners of early models have in some instances replaced them with Daltons of late manufacture in order to secure the benefit of improved features; but the old machine was found in every instance none the worse for wear and still capable of years of effective service.

And why not? The Dalton is built of the best materials that money can buy. It is constructed on the best and soundest mechanical principles known to the genius of man, and no better or more durable machine ever will or ever can be built until someone produces a better grade of steel than is now on the market, or discovers a better mechanical principle than the pivotal, which prevails throughout. This is the pledge of Dalton durability.

A Dalton at $125.00 will handle anything up to $10,000.00. Perhaps you would need a machine of larger capacity; but whatever your requirements, there is a Dalton to fill the bill. Write or telephone for free demonstration—Today.

BOOKS

At this time of the year college men are buying books which they need for extra reading and many not required in the class rooms. Those who are in business also find it necessary to do considerable reading, and at this time, when our stock of this kind of books is larger than ordinary, we could probably give your order more prompt attention than usual. Write us regarding the things you need.

THE question is not so much What does your printing cost?—but rather, What does it bring?

The Sign of A Good Print Shop

Cayuga Press Printing is sold on the assumption that there's economy in quality.

Did you read about the old fellow named Murphy, who provided an endowment to pay the expenses of worthy chaps bearing his surname who were ambitious to go through college?

Did you ever wish you could endow your college with something worthy?

That's one of the big features of an Endowment policy—making such wishes come true.
