CHEER exists to support the physical, social and psychological well-being of staff working in the College of Human Ecology by:

- ❖ coordinating and sponsoring events that advance our lives through education, entertainment, and social connection
- ❖ promoting and celebrating the diversity that each individual brings to the CHE community
- ❖ encouraging staff to reflect on and engage in the mission of the College
- ❖ liaise regarding work environment issues that could be improved to the benefit of all

CORNELL UNIVERSITY

Ways to Say Cornell

Catch the Sesquicentennial Exhibit

Tuesday, October 28, 9:30-10:30am

Meet in Belkin Courtyard (MVR) at 9:15am to walk to Kroch together

This exhibit, part of Cornell's celebration of its Sesquicentennial, provides a lively tour through Cornell's inspiring history through original documents, letters, photographs, postcards, maps and artifacts. Highlights include the Cornell University Charter, the original telegraph receiver and a new 3-D printed version, the Cornell seal, McGraw Tower plan, sheet music for Big Red Team, and much, much more.

The tour will be led by Elaine Engst, the University Archivist.
