Dear Diana,

Thanks for your lovely long gossipy letter. Sweetheart, you know the University in Canada have 3-4 weeks holiday for Easter, and obviously Barry is driving about during this time, and I suppose if anyone hasn't got time to write to him beloved, is when we are driving about with his wife and both not doing sight of each other for more than a couple of minutes. He was unable to write, remember, for nearly a month since he left until he organised his life a bit. No no, two or three weeks is not worrying time yet. It is true he is not the type we see or being having a real accident, because he doesn't usually not having a real accident, because he doesn’t rely on his reflexes at all, aware he is driving. I am a terrific driver — fantastic reflexes, which means that I am 80% more liable to be involved in a fatal accident than is Barry. So there.

Oh dear, oh dear about Kitty. The whole thing is so saddening, particularly saddening, because how fallacious and instructing behaviour is so common and stupid. I am so terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won't do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won't do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won't do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t do terribly sorry to think of her going up to work (she won’t
She did ask this lack of knowing names about when we were in Brighton, but then Sandor was still alive and she didn't really feel called upon to do so. But we did have a terrible row about it now, and I really left the house a terrible row about it now, and I nearly left the flat. I am so undiplomatic and nothing so intolerant and unsympathetic... but I knew I couldn't stand such a thing, even from her. Even now, too, I am dreading seeing her in this state. She and Sandor never bothered to answer my letters, although it is true that miha did write regularly.

It was very funny to read. I read his piece in the observer about the 'Coup' in Ghana, and then an extract from his book in the Stokerman, and it seems very good. I am looking forward to meeting him.

Weather has been most horrible all the time, except that the garden is still beginning to look beautiful as ever with far more mix of it the whole day has been a thousand times.

I hardly go out at all during the week—early to the building site, return of 6.30, exhausted, read, lathe and to bed, but on week-ends I am usually with Peter Scholto in Brussels, going to the theatre, but strangely shy, exceedingly well behaved and correct in all his doings. The poor chap is now turning the world upside down, trying to get me an international passport, which means I can travel and stay in any country I wish who is signatory to a certain Geneva agreement (including U.K.). According to him I am entitled to it, and he is carrying on a lengthy correspondence to U.K. and the ministry of interior about it. In the meantime he takes me to a large trial going on in Dar es Salaam.

There I met Diana, unable to believe my ears, my eyes, eyes popping out of my face... I am no longer up at the end of the session, I am actually sick.

The judge to the witness: (witness, mind you).

"And how many children did you hang?"

"About 30 children.

"The judge: Witness says you hang an average of 10 a day in a month - which means about 300..."

The defence: You know, this witness has already been in prison. I advise him not to answer the question or he might incriminate himself..."

The witness is a rich man now. He was in 45 accused of being a rich man again.

But this goes on and on and on... with an eyewitness after the other, having committed most atrocious things in their free and terrible peregrinations. They have their own organisation, and I doubt if the free Nogi cards with them. OH, but it is sickening. And why should I be particularly made sick about it? I can't understand.

Peter has a lovely, girl friend called Minna. She is also a lawyer. But she is very-minded, speaks French and English, having been brought up in France and Switzerland, her mother is Russian, and she is in this style of living and humour, which is OK agent, how me who you said was very good? Do you thing

How was your Easter? you didn't tell me about it. I spent this week in mine with Pete of course, but did drive down on Sunday to visit Bob and Madeleine in their lovely house.
You know I was a bit late getting there. Anyway, just before Easter, I was driving down to Durneld, without knowing much. (about 10 a.m. in my pocket.) Suddenly I opened my wallet, and found another 200.3 we make it 277.

It is not me in my state not to know how much I have, or it is not me in my state not to know how much I have, as the cash is in my shelf for the car or not, I suddenly asked Mrs.
yesterday, 'playing my next at lost.' Suddenly asked Mrs.
wife. Did you put 200.3 in my wallet?'

She hesitated and then said, 'Oh, she

By the way, I hope you'll keep the Magic Box until I come. I'll try to fix it, because then the Football hear of any tickets for the World Championship going,
