1877. State Agricultural and Mechanical Institute (Normal, Alabama). The Normal Index. [serial]; Huntsville and Montgomery; The Institute (later Alabama A&M University): Normal, 1887?-1982; 1995-. This title, which has never been microfilmed, is one of only two publications by Alabama A&M from the 19th century (other being the school's catalogue). University Archives holds issues from as early as December 1890 (Vol. IV, No. 5). Issues are scattered from 1890 through the late 1940s. The publication ceased to exist in 1982 and was revived in 1995. Over the years, The Index has been the sole source of information about the university, its people, and its accomplishments. Apparently, there were several "incarnations" of this title; format changes, volume/number inconsistencies, publication irregularities (monthly vs. quarterly), etc. THIS TITLE SHOULD NOT BE CONSUSED WITH THE SIMILAR TITLE THAT APPEARS AS THE SCHOOL'S ANNUAL CATALOG.
