CORNELL UNIVERSITY

WOMEN'S RESIDENTIAL HALLS

GENERAL SUPERVISION

THE general supervision of the women students of Cornell University, whether they live in the residential halls or elsewhere, is entrusted to the Dean of Women. All undergraduate students except those who live in their own homes are required by the University's rules to live in the residential halls. Permission to live elsewhere in Ithaca is granted to an undergraduate student only upon written application to the Dean of Women, and then only in very exceptional circumstances.

Graduate students and special students of mature years can obtain rooms in University houses reserved for their exclusive use. (A list of those houses can be obtained at the office of the Manager of Residential Halls.) The Dean of Women may permit a graduate student or a special student to live in a house not under the Dean's direct supervision if the conditions are found to be satisfactory.

The University wishes to assist all students, including those who do not find accommodation in its own halls or houses, to obtain satisfactory rooms. But the University can not assume any responsibility for the selection of a room in any outside house, not even in a house that is on its approved list. Before leasing a room, the student and her parents should consider carefully all the details—the situation of the house, its distance from the campus, the possibility of finding a good boarding place nearby, the heating, lighting, ventilation, and furnishing of the room, the fire escape, the roommate if there is to be one, and the price and terms of the lease. A standard form of room contract can be obtained at the office of the Manager of Residential Halls.

THE UNIVERSITY'S HALLS AND HOUSES

The residential halls and University houses which are to be described in this booklet are:

The Residential Halls: Sage College, Prudence Risley Hall, and Balch Halls.

The University Houses: Risley Terrace, at 308 Wait Avenue, and Risley Cottage, at 613 Thurston Avenue, in the grounds of Risley Hall. Risley Cottage is reserved for graduate women only.

Sage College, opened in 1875, is the oldest of the University's residential halls. The Board of Trustees built it and named it in honor of the late Henry W. Sage, who had given a generous sum of money to provide for the higher education of women at Cornell. It is situated on the campus, in attractive surroundings and within easy reach of all the other University buildings. It accommodates one hundred and seventy-five students. It is protected from fire by a complete automatic sprinkler system. An electric elevator runs to the upper floors. The common rooms include a drawing room and six reception rooms, a students' reading room, and dining rooms. The gymnasium and swimming tank for the student women of the University are in this building. The students living in the building are under the immediate charge of the Warden of Sage College.

Prudence Risley Hall, the gift of the late Mrs. Russell Sage to the University, was opened in the autumn of 1913. It accommodates one hundred and eighty-four students. It is a fireproof building, beautifully situated on the north bank of Fall Creek Gorge, within easy reach of the main University buildings. Almost every one of the rooms is designed for a single occupant, and the building was so planned that every room in which a student lives receives sunlight at some time in the day. An electric elevator runs to the upper floors. On the first floor are three large drawing rooms, a large recreation room, and dining rooms. The students living in the building are under the immediate charge of the Warden of Prudence Risley Hall.

Risley Terrace, at 308 Wait Avenue, within two minutes' walk of Risley Hall, accommodates twenty students. The residents take their meals in the Risley dining room and are subject to the rules and regulations that govern the residents of Risley Hall. There is a bathroom on each floor. Students living in the house have the use of two reception rooms on the first floor.

The Balch Halls for Women, accommodating three hundred and eighteen students, were opened in the autumn of 1929. The University owes its possession of them to the generous interest of two Cornellians, Allen C. Balch and his wife, Janet Jacks Balch, of Los Angeles. The halls are situated north of Fall Creek Gorge, near Prudence Risley Hall. They are built of native stone in the English Collegiate Gothic style, and are thoroughly fireproof and of modern construction and appointment. They are in four units, each unit under the charge of a warden and each having its separate reception hall, living room, and dining room. In addition to ample bathrooms in all corridors, each room or pair of rooms has a hand lavatory with running water. In some cases the lavatory serves two rooms which communicate with it on either side but which are otherwise separate from each other.

FOR GRADUATE WOMEN

Risley Cottage, situated within the grounds of Risley Hall, at 613 Thurston Avenue, accommodates eleven students. The residents may take their meals in the Risley dining room and are subject to the rules and regulations that govern the residents of Risley Hall. There is a bathroom on each floor and a reception room on the first floor.

FURNISHINGS OF THE ROOMS

All the buildings have steam heat and electric lighting. Every room is completely furnished. Four single or two double all-wool blankets are supplied to each student. Students who wish additional covering should supply it themselves. Each student furnishes her own towels and soap and makes her own bed. All other service and supplies are included in the charge for residence. The student is advised to bring with her a comfortable, a hot water bottle, and an inexpensive napkin ring.

Telephone service is available to every room. There is no charge to students for incoming calls. A charge of five cents a message is made for outgoing local calls. The regular toll rates are charged for all long distance calls made through the dormitory switch board. The dormitory switch board serves Balch, Prudence Risley, and Sage Halls for women, the Baker Group, Founders, Boldt, Boldt Tower, Memorial, Lyon and McFaddin Halls for men, together with the offices of the Dean of Women, the Manager of Residential Halls, the Treasurer and the Medical Advisers.

APPLICATION FOR ROOMS

Applications for rooms are received only at the office of the Manager of Residential Halls, Morrill Hall, Ithaca, N. Y.

Students matriculating in or after 1928.—An application for a room, if made by or on behalf of a candidate for admission to one of the colleges of the University in 1928 or afterward, will be entertained only after that candidate has deposited with the Treasurer of the University the $25 which the University requires all such candidates to deposit. Under a rule effective in 1928, the Treasurer holds $15 of the deposit, after the student's matriculation and until graduation or permanent withdrawal, as a guaranty fund, which, among other purposes, serves to insure the return of keys and to cover any damage to building or furniture beyond ordinary wear and tear by a student occupying a room in a University building.

Students matriculated in or before 1927.—An application for a room, if made by a student matriculated before 1927, must be accompanied by a deposit of $10; the application will not be registered unless the deposit accompanies it.

If the lease is executed and the student occupies the room, the deposit is held until the end of the year to insure the completion of the lease and the return of keys and to cover any damage beyond ordinary wear and tear. If the application is withdrawn before September 1 for any good and sufficient reason beyond the student's control, the deposit is returned. After September 1 no deposit will be returned.

ASSIGNMENT OF ROOMS

Rooms are assigned strictly in the order of application. No double room can be held by one person, even though she may be willing to pay the full price. The University reserves all rights in connection with the assignment or reassignment of rooms or the termination of their occupancy.

CHARGES

A single charge of $560 is made for residence for the academic year. This charge covers the items of room, board, laundry, and service in Sage College, Prudence Risley Hall, Risley Terrace, or Balch Halls. Owing to the unsettled condition of prices for food and labor, the University reserves the right to increase this charge during the year if the Trustees believe such an increase to be necessary. Students living in either Sage College, Risley Hall, Risley Terrace, or Balch Halls are required to take their meals in the dining room of that building. These dining rooms are conducted by the University.

PAYMENTS

Payment of the charge for residence is made in four equal installments. The first of these is due and payable by September 1. A failure to pay the first quarterly installment by September 1 will be regarded as a surrender of the lease. The second installment is due on November 25 and must be paid not later than December 5. The third installment is due on registration day of the second term and must be paid not later than February 15. The fourth installment is due on April 5 and must be paid not later than April 15.

ADJUSTMENTS

The charge for residence covers the period beginning on the day before the first registration day of the first term and ending on the last day of work of the second term, and it does not include the Christmas Recess or the Spring Recess. Students who arrive before the day next preceding the first registration day or who remain during the Christmas Recess or the Spring Recess will be charged extra at the rate of $1 per day per room.

Entering students who must come to Ithaca for examination before registration day may arrange for rooms in the dormitories at the charge of $1 per day.

No deduction is made for an absence of ten days or less. For an unavoidable absence of more than ten days an equitable adjustment will be made by the Treasurer of the University in consultation with the Dean of Women. Absence from the dining room or failure to send in the full amount of laundry allowed each week does not entitle the student to any deduction. The allowance of laundry is purposely made as generous as possible and it is expected that every student will use the full allowance every week.

LAUNDRY

Every piece sent to the laundry should have the owner's name plainly marked on it with Payson's indelible ink or with an embroidered name tab. Marking with a rubber stamp or with the so-called indelible pad is not effective.

The laundry allowance is fifteen pieces every week, according to the following scale:

1 Bloomers or Step-in.....	count 1 piece
1 Blouse.....	2
1 Brassiere.....	1
1 Combination.....	1
1 Dress.....	4
4 Handkerchiefs.....	1
1 Nightdress.....	1
1 Pajamas.....	2
4 Sanitary Napkins.....	1
1 Skirt (plain).....	2
1 Slip (plain).....	2
1 Smock.....	2
1 Stockings (pair).....	1
1 Towel.....	1
1 Vest.....	1

Fifteen pieces are allowed each week. Only two blouses or two skirts or one blouse and one plain skirt or one plain dress or fancy pieces are included in the weekly allowance. Blouses, skirts or fancy pieces in excess of lists cannot be substituted for plain articles on list. Outside laundrymen or washerwomen are not allowed to call at the dormitories.

DAMAGES

Lamps, shades, or other furnishings broken or missing, and all damage to a room or its fixtures or furniture beyond ordinary wear and tear will be charged to the occupant or occupants of a room. Articles may not be tacked or fastened in any way to the walls, furniture, or electric light fixtures. Pictures and other ornaments may be suspended only from the picture molding. A printed card containing an inventory of the articles in the room is presented to the student at the beginning of the year for verification and signature, and after that the occupant is held responsible for any damage or loss of those articles.

GOVERNMENT OF THE STUDENT WOMEN

Under the Statutes of the University, the Dean of Women has the general charge of the interests of women students and advises them in regard to all matters, subject to the statutes and rules and regulations of the Board of Trustees and of the general and special faculties. She is recognized as the representative of the University in all matters related to the conduct, the social life, and the self-government organization of the women students.

Wardens, under the direction of the Dean of Women, are in charge of the several halls and houses of residence. Each Warden is the adviser of the students under her care and is responsible for the conduct and the social life of the hall or house which she supervises.

The students are allowed as large a measure of self-direction as possible through their organization, the Self-Government Association of the Women of Cornell University. Every woman who registers as a student in the University becomes ipso facto a member of this association. The Self-Government Association, through its Judiciary Committee, tries any charge of misconduct. If the charge is sustained, the Association either imposes and enforces a penalty or, if the offense is so serious as to call for university action and be made a matter of university record, reports its findings and its recommendation to the general disciplinary committee of the University, the Committee on Student Affairs.

Every student, upon assignment to a room in the residential halls or houses, signs a contract agreeing to abide by the rules established by the University and by the Association. Any student who wilfully and persistently disregards any of these rules renders herself liable to dismissal from the University.

THE HEALTH OF STUDENTS

The University has a Medical Adviser of Women, who is a doctor of medicine. Every entering student receives a physical examination, and every student is recommended to make free use of the privilege of consulting the Medical Adviser, who keeps regular daily office hours for that purpose. The University Infirmary has a normal capacity of seventy-five beds and the number can be doubled in an emergency.

The gymnasium for all the women students of the University is in Sage College. Physical training is required of all students in the first two years. The Medical Adviser prescribes corrective exercises for students whose health requires them. All the gymnasium and athletic work is carried on under the direction of the Department of Physical Training.

WHERE TO APPLY
