Welcome

We, the members of the Veterinary Circle of the New York State College of Veterinary Medicine, cordially invite you to join us in participating in the Spouses' Program of the 80th Annual Conference for Veterinarians.

Each year we look forward to renewing our acquaintances and to meeting and sharing good times with newcomers. This year we have planned many new and interesting activities for you.

On Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Ann Phemister has graciously invited us to Tea at her home where we will have the opportunity to become better acquainted in a relaxed atmosphere.

In the evening we are sure you will enjoy the food and fellowship at the Annual Conference Dinner-Dance.

Wednesday morning the New York State Veterinary Medical Society will hold their Annual Winter Meeting.

The Tower Club of Ithaca College, with its spectacular views of Ithaca, Cayuga Lake and Cornell will be the site of the traditional luncheon. Our host, Bill L. VanWinkle, promises to uphold their excellent reputation for fine dining.

Following the luncheon Kevin Lambert will share his knowledge and expertise on the subject of Cameos and Intaglios. We are fortunate and grateful that Kevin has graciously agreed to appraise your cherished cameo at this time. We hope you will plan to take advantage of this rare opportunity.

A warm welcome is waiting you at the home of Mrs. Beverly Hillman where breakfast will be served on Thursday morning.

Shopping in Ithaca has always been an enjoyable experience and with the addition of our malls, the Commons, and Collegetown, it is even more inviting.

For the athletes, Mrs. Nancy Krook has once again agreed to lead cross-country skiing, weather permitting.

Many changes continue to occur on campus, in colleegetown and the surrounding areas. The new buildings and the construction of the cultural center, only emphasize the warmth and fellowship of our students and the residents. The Cornell spirit is alive and well, as evidenced by the many who so generously contribute their time, talents, and energies to so warmly welcome you and insure the success of our programs. We deeply appreciate their assistance.

Conversation, coffee and friendship will be offered in the Hagan Room. We are looking forward to sharing our community, our activities and our friendship with you.

Won't you accept our heartfelt invitation to join us?
