

SECOND
ANNUAL CONFERENCE
FOR VETERINARIANS
JANUARY 11 AND 12, 1910

NEW YORK STATE
VETERINARY COLLEGE
AT CORNELL UNIVERSITY

ITHACA, N. Y.

PROGRAM

TUESDAY, JANUARY 11

- 9:00 A. M. The acid-fast bacteria in their relation to disease with special reference to Johne's disease and tuberculosis, V. A. MOORE
- 10:00 A. M. State stallion legislation, CARL W. GAY,
Vet. Dept., Univ. of Pennsylvania
- 11:00 A. M. Colic, D. H. UDALL
-
- 2:00 P. M. Surgical clinic, W. L. WILLIAMS
J. N. FROST
- 4:00 P. M. Discussion of Operation for roaring, Opened by DR. BERNES
W. L. WILLIAMS presiding
Laboratory demonstrations.
-
- 8:00 P. M. Address, PRESIDENT SCHURMAN
Address—The responsibility of the veterinary profession in the control of bovine tuberculosis,
W. H. JORDAN,
Director Geneva Experiment Station
Smoker.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 12

- 9:00 A. M. The identification of cattle
by branding and otherwise,
P. A. FISH
- 10:00 A. M. Agricultural law of interest to veterinarians with special reference to glanders and tuberculosis,
J. F. DEVINE, Chief Veterinarian,
State Dept. of Agric.
- 11:00 A. M. Granular venereal disease of cattle, W. L. WILLIAMS
Discussion, opened by DR. LAW
-
- 2:00 P. M. Clinic for small animals,
H. J. MILKS
Clinic. "Diagnosis of tuberculosis"
D. H. UDALL
- 4:00 P. M. Discussion of ventilation,
C. D. MORRIS, R. C. REED,
W. L. BAKER, R. N. G. DARBY
D. H. UDALL presiding

