

THE STATION NEWS

Vol. IX, No. 13.

March 30, 1927.

Geneva, N.Y.

THE APRIL Staff meeting will be held next Monday at 4:00 P.M. in Jordan Hall.

Mr. Sayre will discuss "The Present Outlook of the Canning Industry and Its Problems".

MR. BRUCE DAYTON has resigned his position at the Station to accept an appointment in the circulation department of the Curtis Publishing Company. Mr. Dayton begins with a territory comprising most of southern New York and part of Pennsylvania, and for the present will make his headquarters in Geneva. The NEWS joins his many friends in wishing him every success in his new undertaking.

MOST of the March number of THE BULLETIN of the New York State Vegetable Growers' Association is devoted to an excellent account of the annual meeting of the Association held in Buffalo in January prepared by Mr. Hawthorn.

A NEW cream cheese made after the formula developed by Mr. Dahlberg during the past few months has just recently appeared on the local markets.

MR. PRICKETT is again spending a few days in Buffalo in connection with some studies in pasteurizing plants in that city.

HAROLD TUKEY spent Friday and Saturday of last week at the Station discussing plans for the new nursery investigations which are to be inaugurated here if the bill providing for the work which is now before the Governor received his signature.

MR. DONALD COLLINS, a resident of Geneva and a student at Hobart College has been selected to work on the electric light project to be undertaken at the Station this summer. Mr. Collins was employed on a fellowship at the Station two summers ago and last summer was associated with Dr. Lathrop in Maine.

MR. MOORE drove to Syracuse today to meet his mother who will spend the next few weeks in Geneva.

FOSTER GAMBRELL is recuperating from an operation for the removal of his tonsils performed at Clifton Springs last week.

WORD also comes to the NEWS that Miss Ruth Hall was operated upon for appendicitis last week and is making good progress toward recovery. Miss Hall is in a hospital in Ann Arbor where she is attending the University of Michigan.

WE ARE pleased to note, too, that Mrs. Carpenter hopes to leave the Geneva General Hospital early next week.

MR. A. B. Buchholz, County Agent for Columbia County, called at the Station last Saturday.

MISS MARGARET PARROTT is home for "Spring Vacation."

MISS LIDA THATCHER is planning to spend Friday at the University of Rochester in the preparation of material for an exhibit of biological stains to be shown at the meeting of the American Medical Association in Washington in May.

DR. BREED is in receipt of a card from the Huckers mailed in Berlin. They tell of an interesting visit to Kiel and are now looking forward to Rome.

THE 1927 mouse crop suffered a further curtailment the other day when Miss Hester Brennan annihilated an unwary representative of Mus musculus which ventured to show itself in the Horticultural Department and immediately became the center of a concerted attack involving practically all the members of the Department.

NEW BOOKS received by the Station library since the last list in the NEWS are as follows:

Bailey	Chemistry of wheat flour
Clevisch	Die versorgung der stadte mit milch.
Cutler	Evolution, heredity, and variation.
Singer	Essays on the history of medicine
Henneberg	Handbuch der garungsbakteriologie
Hering	Die okologie der blattminierenden
Jamieson	Volumetric iodate methods
Lloyd	Chemistry of the proteins
Palmer	Laboratory experiments in dairy chemistry
Rehder	Manual of cultivated trees and shrubs
Reilly	Physico-chemical methods
Russell	Soil conditions and plant growth, 5th ed.
Thom.	The Aspergilli
Waksman	Enzymes

TO MRS. PEDERSON goes the "prize" for the first correct solution of the problem appearing in last week's NEWS. She is now endeavoring to determine what the prize is and finds it much more difficult than the problem.

MR. CHURCHILL FOUND THIS ONE AND OFFERS IT FOR SAKE OF ARGUMENT.

A man owed a bill of $3, but had only a new $2 bill. He pawned the bill for $1.50, then sold the pawn ticket to a friend for $1.50 and paid his account of $3. Who lost on the deal ?

ALSO, an aunt from the city was visiting Henry's mother. Said she, "My, but you are a bright-looking little boy. How old are you ?" Henry replied, "I'm just a quarter as old as the combined ages of you and mother, if you were each half as old as you are now, and in 30 years I'll be half as old as your combined ages today." How old was Henry ?
