Vol. XXXI, No. 17.

October 26, 1938

Geneva, N.Y.

ALL SET

President Horsfall held a meeting of his Board of Directors last week and selected his Executive Committee for the coming year, as follows: Social Committee, Dr. Reinking; Meetings Committee, Dr. Tressler; Finance Committee, Miss Holtby; Welfare Committee, Mr. Lockett. Preceding the selection of these committee chairmen, the Board accepted Miss Sharpe's resignation as Secretary and elected Mrs. Baker to that office. In addition to the above, the following are also members of the Executive Committee, Mr. Marquardt, Vice-President; Dr. Willits, Treasurer; the Director; and the two past Presidents, Dr. Chapman and Dr. Breed.

HONORARY MEMBERS

Acting under authority granted them by the new constitution, the Executive Committee by unanimous consent named the following persons as Honorary members of the Station Club: Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Newton, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Wheeler, Mr. F. C. Stewart, and Dr. and Mrs. U. P. Hedrick.

THE NEW ASSOCIATES

An invitation was also extended to the following persons to affiliate with the Club as Associate Members: Mr. Lawrence Ansley and his mother, Miss Mary Frances Reeves, Mr. Jay Bryant, all of the U. S. Department of Agriculture Soil Conservation Service; Dr. and Mrs. Robert Patton of the Pomology Division; Ralph Celmer, Ross Bigelow, Dominic De Felice, Mary Mann Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. DuBois, Miss Jennie McIntosh, Mr. Moyer, Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman, all of the Chemistry Division; Mrs. Matilda Ford, William Walker, Harry Rhodes, Leo Dick, Miss Marion Clise, and Miss Marion Gillotte, all of the Bacteriology Division; Dr. and Mrs. Eric Sharvelle and Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Heuberger, of the Plant Pathology Division; Mr. Leslie Dorn of the Dairy Division, and Dr. and Mrs. Don Griswold of the State Department of Health.

THAT LITTLE MATTER OF DUES

Miss Holtby has lost no time in assuming the duties of her new office and has named representatives in each of the buildings to collect dues for the 1938-39 season. These representatives are the Misses Corcoran, Nelson, and Heist and Mrs. Christensen, and the lone man among this bevy of charming ladies, Joe Moore. The fee is only $1.00 which covers the Christmas party, the picnic, and the annual dinner. No where else in Geneva do you get so much for your money--except at the Y.

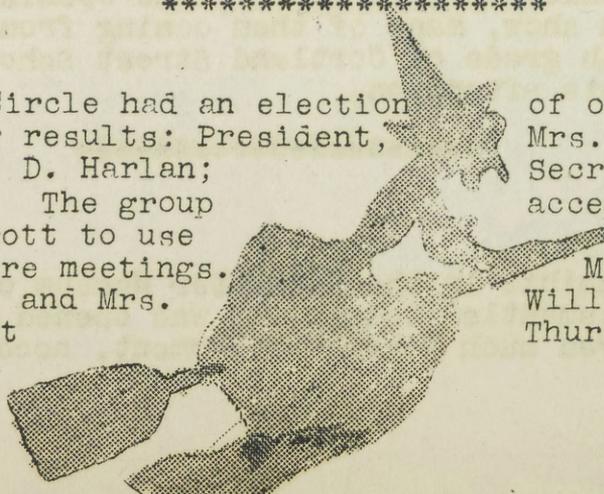

SPEAKING OF THE Y

Having plugged for the Y in the note above, it is now in order to say that Dr. Pederson has again consented to head up the Station group for the Y.M.C.A. campaign which gets under way next Monday. Carl has chosen the following to assist him: Mr. Bowen, Dr. Tukey, Mr. Tapley, Mr. Beattie, and Dr. Chapman.

MORE OFFICERS

The Ceres Circle had an election with the following results: President, Mrs. J. D. Harlan; Vice-President, Mrs. G. W. Pearce. The group from Director Parrott to use residence for future meetings. retiring President and Mrs. of the program last of officers last week Mrs. J. R. Sanborn; Vice-Secretary-Treasurer, accepted an invitation the Director's Mrs. Beavens was Willits was in charge Thursday.

MISS BARNES

Miss Barnes, who underwent a serious operation in the Geneva General Hospital last Saturday, is making satisfactory progress. Her mother, a sister, and a nephew have come to Geneva for a brief stay.

LOOKING FOR PICTURES

Mr. G. S. Butts of the Office of Publications of the College of Agriculture and E. S. Phillips, announcer for WESG, called at the Station last week in a search for suitable spraying scenes to use in a World's Fair exhibit. Mr. Butts is recovering from a recent appendectomy and expected to be back in his office this week.

HOSPITAL CARE

Changes in the plans of the Community Hospital Association with special reference to dependent and family memberships in the Association, were discussed by a representative of the Association before a group at the Station on Monday afternoon. Detailed information about the plan and application blanks may be obtained from Miss Jessie Sperry.

"NEW YORK NURSERY NOTES"

No. 1 of a mimeographed publication of this name made its appearance this past week under the editorship of Dr. Tukey. The publication is the official organ of the New York State Nurserymen's Association. Mr. van Alstyne and Dr. Gambrell are among the contributors to this first number.

IN THE WICKED CITY

Miss Sharpe and Miss Reeves set out by auto early yesterday morning for a week's vacation in the Big City. Among other things on their list of adventures is the meeting of the Henings when the latter arrive on the SS. Manhattan on Thursday and attendance on the Army-Notre Dame football game on Saturday.

FIRST OF A SERIES

"Russia and the Far East" is the topic of an address by Dr. Ethan Colton in the Geneva High School next Monday evening at 8:15. This is the first of a series of four lectures to be given under the auspices of the Institute of International Understanding and with the sponsorship of Geneva Rotary. Tickets may be obtained thru Dr. Hofer.

GOING TO CITY LIBRARY

Miss Jennings, who has been substituting so efficiently for Mrs. Hening in the Station Library, will take up her duties as an assistant in the Geneva Free Library on November 1. Our best wishes to Miss Jennings in her new job.

ABOUT A THOUSAND

Mr. Jahn estimates that approximately a thousand visitors passed thru the greenhouses last Sunday, the opening day of the annual chrysanthemum show, many of them coming from considerable distances. The fifth grade of Cortland Street School is planning to visit the show this afternoon.

CLOSING UP

The Station exhibit in the Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences is being dismantled today. It was opened to the public on October 3 and received much favorable comment, according to the Museum officials.
