

OBSERVING CHRISTMAS

The arrival of Christmas will find many Station people visiting friends and relatives away from Geneva. John Tomkins and family are planning to spend Christmas with Mrs. Tomkins' parents in Pennsylvania.....Charlotte Pratt is going to spend Christmas in Winsted, Conn. ....Pat Rayno is spending Christmas at home in Glens Falls, N. Y. ....Dr. Hamilton will spend Christmas with his sister in Gananoque, Canada (Thousand Islands to those who can't pronounce Gananoque).....Sig Lienk and family will spend Christmas in Canada with Mrs. Lienk's parents..... The Nathan Pecks will spend the holidays at Mrs. Peck's parents home in Elmhurst, N. Y. ....The Dolans will visit Mrs. Dolan's mother and two brothers in Dansville during the Christmas holidays.....Mary Lou Dumbleton and her husband will spend the Christmas holidays at her parents' home in Warsaw, N. Y. ....La Verne Herink is spending two weeks back home in Iowa.....Mr. and Mrs. David Young will spend Christmas with her folks in New York City.....Karl Li will also be in New York City for Christmas visiting friends.....Jane Hubbard will spend Christmas with friends in Moravia, N. Y.....Margaret Lavin will spend the holidays at her home in Syracuse.....the Gibbs will spend Christmas at their home in Machias, N. Y.....the Gleggs will spend Christmas at Mrs. Glegg's home in Montreal, Canada.

*****

AROUND THE STATION

Dr. Shaulis reports that Mrs. Shaulis' parents will spend the Christmas holidays with them at his home in Geneva.....John Cain, Jr., is home for a two-week vacation from his sophomore year at the University of Florida.....John Tomkins says they have finally started his house in Phelps and they expect to move in a month.. ....Frank Boyle is having as Christmas guests his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Knapp of Waverly, N. Y., and her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Knapp of Toledo, Ohio.....Mrs. Gilmore, of Waterloo, who has just returned from a trip to California, says she saw the Munns and they wish to be remembered to all their Station friends.

*****

FOR SALE

Nine beagle pups for sale. Just the thing for Christmas. Make an offer. See Keith Kimball.

*****

ACCIDENTS

Paul Gavel of Vegetable Crops was involved in a four car accident in Oaks Corners last Friday. The car ahead of him hit a truck parked on the highway. Unable to swerve because of cars in the other lane and unable to stop because of the icy road, Paul hit the back of the car that hit the truck and the car behind Paul hit him. An involved accident but fortunately no one was hurt.....Mildred McGuigan had an unfortunate accident Tuesday morning. She slammed her car door on her thumb and severely injured it. She was taken to the hospital and later sent home. The doctor says that she has a compound fracture plus lacerations.

*****

ITEM FROM POUGHKEEPSIE

Here's a small item that comes to us from the Poughkeepsie Lab. Dr. Forshey, eyeing a desk piled high with delayed correspondence, was heard to mutter that he was either inefficient or grossly overworked.

*****

CATASTROPHIC INSURANCE

The applications for catastrophic insurance will be sent to Ithaca January 3rd. Those desiring to make application should return the form to Miss Holtby before that date. To date the response has been slow.

*****

LOST & FOUND

Found in Jordan Hall: One Baby bib, pink and blue, circus motif. One brown wool mitten can be picked up in Visual Aids Office. Dr. Steinkraus says that anyone who has wrong size or mismatched rubbers picked up at the party, please contact him and he will operate an exchange.

*****

TO ALL READERS OF THE STATION NEWS, FROM THE PUBLICATIONS DEPARTMENT, MERRY XMAS.