Kotlikoff honored by City University of Hong Kong

Sept. 27, 2016

Cornell Provost Michael Kotlikoff was named an honorary fellow of City University of Hong Kong (CityU) Sept. 21 in recognition of his contributions to the development of and service to the university.

“CityU has advanced so rapidly in recent years, growing not only in size and offerings but in distinction, stature and public esteem,” Kotlikoff said. “I look forward to continuing to work with CityU and its School of Veterinary Medicine in the years ahead, as both expand their impact in Hong Kong and far beyond, educating young people to be thoughtful, productive citizens and leaders in their professions.”

Kotlikoff is hooded by CityU president Way Kuo.
