August 24th, 1875

Mr. M. Oliver
Saint Joseph, Mo.

Dear Sir:-

Your letter of the 23d inst. in reference to passes for certain gentlemen in your vicinity addressed to Mr. Lee has been referred to us for action as he is still confined to his house in Quincy on account of injuries received in recent collision.

Enclosed please find passes referred to, with my compliments. I shall be happy to honor any future requests of similar character which you may find it advisable to make.

Yours respectfully,

R. S. Stevens
