R. S. Stevens, Esq.

Gen'l Mangr. H. & St. J. R. R.

Hannibal, Mo.

My Dear Sir:-

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your favor of 20th inst. and say that for some unexplained reason I have never had a response from my friend to the letter I wrote advising him of your wants. You do not say whether you heard from him or not; if you did not I conclude that my letter failed to reach him.

Regretting the delay caused you and hoping that my efforts to serve you in the future may be attended with more success, I remain,

Respectfully,

Robt. Spurgin
