Dear Sir:-

Your letter rec<sup>d</sup>.

And I had a talk with Mr. Carver about the Alexander claims and he said to have it settled and wanted I should write you that he had ?given such instructions. I called to see the attorneys this morning and told them to settle the matter the best way they could and get the parties to take a note 60 or 90 days for the amount. If they could not do so to ?draw upon the company at Sight for the Amt & they <?> see that it is paid. The Paint is here in Store and you had better have it disposed of in some way or other and stop the storage.

You have seen Mr. Carver on this.

Yours Truly
Jno. Boswell
