Dear Sir:-

We have a large number of old rails on hand, many of which I think could be profitably cut off, mended, welded &c. If you have liezure (sic) and are so inclined, if you would take a run up here possibly some arrangement could be made with you, for repairing the same by the ton or what say you. Will you come, and if so, when may I expect you?

Yours respectfully,
R. S. Stevens
