Friend Stevens:-

I see by the papers that you have changed your base of operations and also have been hurt by an accident. I hope the latter is not serious.

I write now for the purpose of asking a favor if convenient for you to grant it. Mr. Tenny, (Rev. Mr. C.) of whom perhaps you know has met with serious financial reverses and being an exceptionally first rate man I feel a deep interest to help his son to a place where he can do something for his family as well as his employer. The son is perfectly honest and true with the best of habits. He <? - line unreadable> think about 18 years old. His education is good high school education, with some knowledge of the languages, - a good penman, though not a bookkeeper by practice.

He will take any position with thanks that promises employment with profit either present or prospective.

Now, if you know of any place for him let me know and you will place me under renewed obligation. Best wishes to your family and self.

Very Truly,

C. Robinson
