Dr Sir:-

I am in receipt of your favor of the 2<sup>d</sup>. I saw Mr. Carver in New York on Saturday. He said he would immediately telegraph and direct you to give the Quincy Bridge Company a note for the balance due it and also a note for the balance due the C. B. & Q. <?> Oct 1st as was agreed. The notes are to be on demand with interest. I have no doubt you have received such orders from him, and hope you will execute and forward to me, the notes without further delay. My people are impatient about it.

Yours truly,

J. M. Walker
