R. S. Stevens, Esq.
Genl Manager, &c.
Hannibal, Mo.

Dear Sir:-

Gen^l Baxter our new Director has a nephew, and is desirous of placing him in some good position on our road.

I think it will be for the interest of the company to oblige the General, as he can at times, be of great service to us, if he feels kindly disposed.

I presume he has written you upon the subject, as he told me that he was going to do so.

Yours truly,
J. P. Acker
V. Prt.
