TO: Robert Harris
FROM: R. S. Stevens

Dec. 14", 1875

Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of your favor of the 13" and note contents.

In case you have been out of tickets over our Line I regret you have not called for a new supply before, for you can rest assured that it is my desire to furnish them to you to the fullest extent. Besides, the many courtesies extended me by you are continually placing me under renewed obligations therefor.

Enclosed please find a book of one hundred tickets. When these are exhausted do not hesitate to call for more.

Yours respectfully,
R. S. Stevens
