

2

THE
CORNELL BULLETIN

Wednesday, March 29 1916

25¢ Quarterly

THE CORNELL BULLETIN is a new undertaking and its continuance and success depends upon how it is received and supported. In order to make it a success, to make it grow and improve both in form and in content it is necessary to have the support of each and every girl. By support we mean financial support. If you have not already signed up for the BULLETIN do it now. Only 25¢ quarterly and it contains news you cannot afford to miss. Girls not living in dormitories or in organized houses may obtain their copies of the BULLETIN daily at Barnes for Arts girls and in Dom. Econ. office for Dom Econ. girls.

The BULLETIN wishes to congratulate the new members of the Phi Beta Kappa Society.

Elections of Delegate to Student Government Conference today 12-2, Sage and Risley.

Junior-Freshman Wedding Sat. evening 8 P.M. Sage Gym. Full rehearsal Thurs. 7 P. M. Everybody taking part is expected to be present at rehearsal.

THE PAGEANT.

The Freshman class has presented $100 to the Pageant Fund. This money is the proceeds from the Tea Dance which they gave in Sage, March 11. -The Cornell Women's Club of New York will give $100.00 to this fund.

The County Fair held in R.R.R Saturday night for the benefit of the Eaglesmere fund cleared $9.61.

DRAMATICS.

Meeting of the Council of the Cornell Women's Dramatic Club Fri. 4P.M. in Room 347 Risley.

Practice for the "Adventurer" Cornell Dramatic Club 7.15. Y.W.C.A.

Girls who have not paid pledges, please pay to girls who will be collecting this week or leave at Barnes.

Prayer Meeting at Barnes tomorrow at 7.15. J.T. Newman will speak on "Ideals".

Bible Study Class in room 89 Sage to-night at 9.30.

PRACTICES FOR TO-DAY.

Crew at the Armory at 7.30
Festival in Stimson at 7.25
Junior Choir in Sage Gym. at 7
Swimming Test at 3 - 4 P.M.

SMART SPRING HATS.

For sale to-night in Room 74
CORNELL WOMEN'S REVIEW.

The Cornell Women's Review announces a short story contest in the March Issue. All stories must be submitted by April 15th.