STUDENT GOVERNMENT.

In a mass meeting Saturday night a letter was read which set a question and an opportunity before us. It is summed up in this extract: "Would you not like to form among the students of your college a chapter of the National Special Aid Society, which has for its aim the enrollment of women in some specific branch of industry in which they could be of immediate use should the day of trouble come to us swiftly." A list of fifty occupations is submitted with the letter, varied enough to reach any girl who has a patriotic interest in this national women's movement.

There will be a meeting in room 247 Risley Sat. at 5 P.M., for discussion of organizing a chapter of the N.S.A.S. among the Cornell women.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

Subscribe for the Cornell Women's Review for next year now! Any member of the board will be very glad to take your name and money! If you haven't the dollar now you can pay next year. We absolutely must have you back of us. It's YOUR PAPER, will you support it? Then sign up now.

PAGEANT.

We wish to definitely state a new policy of the Pageant Committee which has been made possible by the coming of the BULLETIN: This Pageant is yours, Cornell-girls, and therefore we intend to keep you posted on every move in the Pageant work and plans. Regular Pageant meetings are held Tuesdays at 5:15. On Thursdays any new business will be published since the Tuesday meetings end too late to get complete accounts into the Wednesday BULLETINS.

The proceedings of the sub-committees will also be published.

PAGEANT DRAMATIC COMMITTEE.

All are urged to come out Wednesday night R.R.R. 7:15 for Pageant tryouts. There are relatively few speaking parts as compared to the large number of important non-speaking parts. But come and tryout, for those who cannot be placed in speaking parts can be given other parts, and trying out will give the Dramatic Committee a better chance to appoint the right girl for the right part.

Ag. girls glee club rehearsal tonight at 7:15, Dom. Econ.

SOCIAL SCIENCE CLUB.

Miss Ella Freeman of Courtland N.Y. will tell of her experience in the GEORGE JUNIOR REPUBLIC and similar reformatories, at a regular meeting, April 26th, in BARNES TROPHY ROOM 7:30 sharp. ALL are urged and invited to come.
