SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

The semi-finals and finals of the individual tennis tournament which was interrupted by snow last fall, are to be played off before the end of next week if possible. The winner is to receive a cup. The individual matches will be scheduled as soon as the individual tournament is completed. The class teams are chosen from those members of each class who stay longest in the individual tournaments.

Those out for crew should be sure to look up their crew schedules and be sure to get substitutes.

There will be a meeting of the Athletic Council, 2:30, Sat. P.M.

THE CLASSES.

1917- Short class meeting immediately after dinner in the gymnasium.

1918- The invitations for the dance to be given May 10, are ready now and may be obtained from A. Quinlan, or G. Kolb.

Y.W.C.A.

Any girls interested in Settlement work are invited to go down to the West Side House at the Inlet on Wednesday or Friday afternoons and Saturday mornings. University girls are wanted to do kindergarten work, take charge of the library and teach sewing. Saturday morning, May 6, an exhibition of sewing is to be held at the club house. Everyone is invited to attend.

EIGHT WEEKS CLUB.

The club will meet at Barnes Saturday morning at 6:00 to take a bird trip down to Renwick. Prof. Allen will lead the trip and explain about the different birds. The trip will be over in time to make eight o'clocks.

Lost- A pair of glasses somewhere in Sage. Will the finder please return them to K. Mac Murray.

As many of the girls who can possibly do so, are urged to attend the two remaining lectures given by Ex-President Taft, at Bailey Hall. Friday's lecture is at 12 o'clock and Saturday's is at 11 o'clock. Those who have already attended realize how much of constitutional knowledge is to be gained by attendance. Every girl who is interested in Woman Suffrage should be eager to learn the practical side of politics.
