

C. R. D. P. L.

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
MAY 20 1916
LIBRARY

THE CORNELL BULLETIN

Vol. 1, No. 38.

Friday, May 19, 1916.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT.

Mass meeting Monday evening 7:30, in Goldwin Smith A. D. Winner will tell about the business of the Conference in Nebraska, Amy Luce about the social affairs. Attendance is compulsory.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES. BASEBALL GAMES.

Today-- Seniors vs. Sophomores.

Juniors vs. Freshmen.

Saturday-- Seniors vs. Freshmen.

Juniors vs. Sophomores.

Come out for these games, to play if you can, if not, to cheer. The attendance of the upper-class girls especially should be much better than it has been.

All the crew girls out for baseball are not required to row today. All on crew otherwise, and scheduled to row at 4 to-day report at 2 or 3.

BIG ATHLETIC RALLY

Saturday June 3, immediately after the crew races the first annual athletic rally will be held on the girls athletic field. All girl students are to come. All the numerals won in each sport thruout the year will be given out then.

The Classes

The Senior Stunt and Party will be given to-night in Risley Recreation Room YANKEE CLUB Recreation Rpp, at 8 P. M. All the girls of the University are invited.

An important full stunt rehearsal is at 7 sharp in R. R. R.

The Junior Dance given Wednesday night in Sage brought in $1,37 of which about $75. will be clear profit.

DER HEXENKRIEIS

The new members were notified of their election early yesterday morning and given a breakfast.

They are: Anne Bristol, Alice Blinn, Mary Albertson, Helen Carter, Buntie Le Donald, Rosamond Wolcott, Amy Luce.

G. Boser was elected President of the 1916 class of girls and E. Tuttle, Historian.

The dance to have been given to-morrow night in Sage for War Relief benefit has been cancelled because of too many other affairs.

THE PAGEANT

The Pageant Posters submitted for the contest were judged Wednesday afternoon by the committee, Professors Martin, Brauner and Lidjo, and the award given to Edith Long, L. A. Sp. The prize is $5.00 and the winning poster a design of black and red on gray of a trumpeters head and trumpets. Some of the other posters submitted were very good also.

The Competition for Asst. Woman Editor of the CORNELL COUNTRYMAN has been won by Elizabeth Alward.

The Social Science Club will meet Wed. May 24. Miss Hazard will speak on "Child Labor".

YANKEE CLUB

All members intending to go on the club picnic Sunday afternoon please notify Helen Flint, 118 Cook St. 491-x Ithaca Phone, by 5 o'clock Saturday.

The Organ Recital today will be given in Bailey Hall at 5.

Many of the subscriptions to the Bulletin for this quarter have not come in yet. They should be paid to Helen Carter in Sage or Gertude Bates in Risley. Its only "a quarter a quarter".

The new Arts College announcements for this next year are out and may be obtained at the deans office.