

En Dupl.

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
MAY 20 1916
LIBRARY

THE CORNELL BULLETIN

Vol. 1. No. 39.

Saturday, May 20, 1916.

The Bulletin wishes to announce that the notice of the Hexenkreis elections was not complete: Helen Adams and Ruth Davis were the names omitted.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT.

There will be a compulsory Mass meeting in Goldwin Smith A., at 7:30 P. M. this evening. Miss Winner and Miss Luce will report what occurred at the Convention in Lincoln, Neb.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

The last of the series of the Baseball Finals will be played this afternoon at 2:30 on the Athletic Field: Seniors vs. Frosh, and Juniors vs. Sophs.

The results of the games already played are as follows: The Seniors beat the Juniors, 19-5.

Sophmores beat the Froshmen, 16-15.
Sophmores beat the Seniors, 12-7.
Froshmen beat the Juniors 24-8.

The classes will form parades and march down to the baseball games. Each class will be lead by a marshall. It's up to each one of you to see that your class has the largest crowd.. There will be ice-cream cones for sale, so bring your money. Everybody treat your friends!!!

THE CLASSES.

1917 challenges 1916 to a croquet match! The place of the match will be the Sage Croquet Grounds and the time will be decided upon later. The team must be composed of two girls. A deposit must be made by the team before playing to allow for any breakage of the outfit.

The Senior Stunt held last evening was greatly appreciated by all of the audience. 1916 pictured Cornell one hundred years from now, showing the various improvements that 1916 has undoubtedly started. After the stunt there was dancing and refreshments, consisting of punch.

Y.W.C.A.

A song service will be held at the Old Ladies' Home tomorrow, Sun., May 21. Anna Whirw'19 will lead. Everybody is invited.

There will be a very important meeting of the last year's Cabinet and the small Cabinet in the gorge back of Risley at a quarter of five. At a quarter of six, there will be a picnic for both the large Cabinet and the last year's Cabinet.

Julia Aronson has been sent to New York by the Ethics Club as a delegate to the Ethics convention.

The Oatmelia cast has decided not to go to Geneva.

The Social Science Club will meet Wed., May 24. Miss Hazard will speak on "Child Labor!"

The Rt. Rev. Ethelbert Talbot Bishop of Bethlehem, Pa., will preside at Sage Chapel tomorrow. Morning service at 11. Vesper Service at 3:30.

Selections from the "Rheingold", and the "Walkure" will be given at the Wagner recital which is to be held in Barnes Hall at 12 M. tomorrow. Miss G.H. Nye will play the "Storm Scene", and "Entrance of the Gods in Walhalla" from the "Rheingold".

YANKEE CLUB.

All members intending to go on the club picnic Sunday afternoon, please notify Helen Flint, 118 Cook St., 491X, Ithaca phone, by 5 o'clock today.

THE PAGEANT.

Will all girls interested in the music for the Pageant sign up on the Bulletin Boards in Sage and Risley.

Girls! Girls! Girls! Don't forget to look at the plans for the new dormitories at White Hall.

The following note was left in the Sage Bulletin Box: Suggestion: To have Frosh, who do not answer phones, penalized. The suggestion is good, and may the Frosh remember that some day they will be Juniors.

Colgates Talc Powder and soap are sold at the Co-op.

Adv.