

in Supl.

THE CORNELL BULLETIN

Vol. 1. No. 44.

Fri. 26., 1916.

THE LADIE'S CREW PAGEANT.

SPECIAL SPRING DAY COMPETITION.

The Bulletin offers a prize of a Spring Day ticket for the best short story to be put in the Bulletin on Spring Day. These stories must not exceed 3 paragraphs in length and must be in the Bulletin box by 5 o'clock Today. Everybody try for it!!

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

All the Juniors come out to row at 4 tomorrow. We want a good showing.

The baseball pictures taken by Underwood and Underwood are in M. Grime's room, 435 Risley, and those taken by Troy are in A. Woldarsky's room.

THE CLASSES.

Will everyone please pay their money for the 1917 dance held last week to P. Rudd, A. Russell, or R. Chappelle.

1917 Class Meeting! Today, in the Sage Gym, at 1:45. It will be of especial interest to the outside girls.

CORNELL WOMEN'S REVIEW.

The Cornell Women's Review board meeting has been postponed from this afternoon to next Monday at 5:15.

Y.W.C.A.

There will be a short important cabinet meeting right after lunch today.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVALS.

Tuesday and Thursday nights after Senior Singing, from now on, Strawberry Festivals will be held on Sage lawn, with dancing in the Gym. Everybody keep them in mind and come bringing a crowd.

All the girls who have been signed up for the Pageant have been cast. More girls are needed. Everybody come out. Sign up on the bulletin boards in the dormitories and in Goldwin Smith. This is your Pageant-support it!

PAGEANT PUBLICITY COMMITTEE.

The Pageant Posters and postal cards will be ready for sale in Spring Day. Write to all your friends on the Pageant postals. They are very, very attractive!

A.M.A.

WetohASTRA picnic was a great success. About fifty girls went to Estes Point in two motor trucks.

Mrs Warner Brown '97, and Miss E. V. Simmons Ph.d. '98, are here for Spring Day.

Selma Snyder '15 and Bunty Mc Donald are also here on a visit. Selma will stay till Sunday.

On Spring Day, breakfast will be from 7:30 - 7:45, lunch from 12:30 - 45. There will be no regular dinner served. Picnic lunch will be given to all those who want them.

Campus pictures for albums-or stunt books. 25¢ at the Co-op.