

The Cornell Bulletin

V. C. ARAM

ED. IN-CHIEF

R. WOLCOTT, BUSINESS MANAGER

A. HISS

M. ALBERTSON

ASSOCIATE EDITORS.

F. REIGAN

T. STUBBINS

A. QUINLAN

E. RIEDER

VOL II NO VIII

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

OCTOBER 20

LOST--250 subscriptions to the Bulletin.
Can't you help us find at least one?

1918 -- Watch for the notice of the class picnic.

1919 -- Class meeting in Sage Gym at 7:30 Monday. This is the first meeting of the year, so let us make a good start. Everybody save that date and come with enthusiasm.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

1917 & 1918 GET BUSY AND SIGN UP FOR SPORTS!

Under the new regulations of the Sports and Pastimes association, white shoes are to be worn at practices of all sports except Field Hockey where dark low-heeled walking shoes must be worn.

The regulation gymnasium uniform for all freshmen is red bloomers, white middie with red collar, black stockings and white gymnasium shoes.

Lecture by C. V. P. Young on foot-ball Saturday, immediately after the game in Sage Gym.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Sage mass meeting has been postponed until Monday.

1918 CLASS PICNIC Sat. Oct. 21. 5:30
North Shore Beebe L. Lassiter picnic chairman.

REVIEW.

The competition for assistant circulation manager has started, but anyone else desiring to enter, may hand her name to J. M. Donlon at once.

CORNELL WOMEN'S DRAMATIC CLUB.

Try outs will be held on Friday evening at 7:30 in Risley Recreation Room for the first play of the year. Selections will be provided or bring your own if you prefer. ALL OUT!

SOCIAL SCIENCE.

The Social Science Club will hold an open meeting next Monday night at 7:30 in Goldwin Smith 124. Marion Crane will speak on "Cornell Women".

Y.W.C.A.

The reception for new students which had been announced for Saturday, has been indefinitely postponed.

BIBLE STUDY CLASSES.

At the Dormitories.

(Time and place announced later by leader)

Sage - Mary Albertson

Risley - Helen Clark

Oak Avenue - Helen Kirkendall

Buffalo Street - May Morris

Cayuga Lodge - Sara Abbott

Deerborn Place - Marion Lewis

Catherine Lodge -

Classes meet once a week for one hour
JOIN ONE!