

The Cornell Bulletin

VOLUME

NO. 10

NEW YORK, NOVEMBER 1, 1916

ASSOCIATE EDITOR

W. H. HARRIS

W. H. HARRIS

A. J. HARRIS

W. H. HARRIS

W. H. HARRIS

W. H. HARRIS

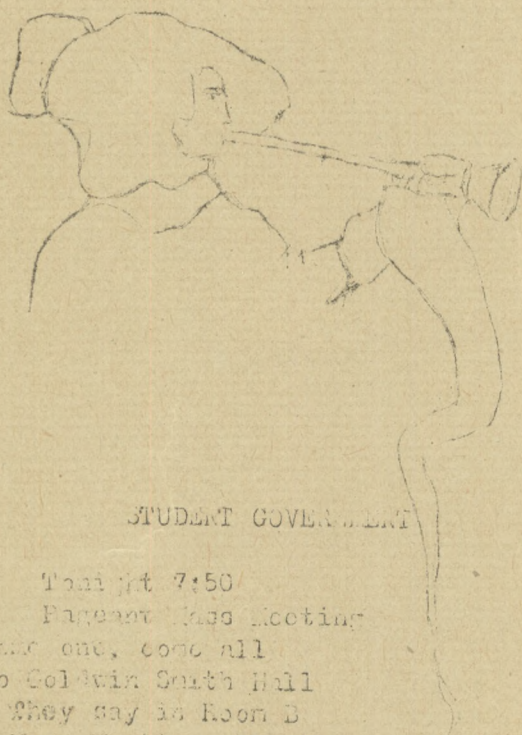

VOLUME NO

XVII

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

Oct.

Nov. 1, 1916

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Tonight 7:50

Pageant Class Meeting

Everyone, come all

to Colwin Smith Hall

They say in Room B

Class Meeting will be

What do you know about the Pageant?

If you miss meeting, you'll wish you hadn't.

Don't go to the Star or out for a walk

For Miss Lager, our coach, is going to talk.

There will be a meeting of the Executive Committee in Risley Recreation Room, Thursday at 4:30.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

1917 - Basketball practices every afternoon at 4:30 on the Risley Field. Seniors get busy and get at least two practices in each week.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

The first round must be played off by Monday night, Nov. 6th. All who fail to do this lose by default.

Tennis instruction at Sage today 2:30 - 4. Come and learn how to play.

Sophie Hazvith has been elected Junior Class Mgr. of Tennis.

You must have at least two practices a week in Hockey and Basketball. Come out for your class.

Y. W. C. A.

Prof. C. W. Young '99 will speak at Prayer Meeting in Barnes Hall tonight at 7:10. Out in time for class meeting.

There will be no meeting of Bible Class leaders tonight. Follow same course as for last week.

Girls save your papers and magazines. E. Lewis will collect them to sell for Eaglesmere Fund.

CLASSES.

1920 - At Freshman Class Meeting, Monday night, the following officers were elected.

President - Marion Irish.

Vice-Pres. - Bertha Fisher

Treasurer - Ruth Nye

Secretary - Marjory McKinley.

1919 - Make up Class Songs and Yells for Pay Day. Leave with B. Reigart at Sage.

The Risley Orchestra will meet tonight at 5:30, sharp in the Recreation Room. All out.

PAY-DAY

Will the Treasurers of all organizations make arrangements for booths as soon as possible.