

The Cornell Bulletin

A VOLUNT. BUSINESS CONCERN.

ASSOCIATE EDITORS.

A. HESS.

A. ALBERTSON.

E. BRIGANT

E. STURGIS.

A. GUYER

E. HESSER.

VOL II NO ~~XIV~~

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR. Nov. 13, 1916

CORNELL 23, MICHIGAN 20.

signed up for the Bulletin please refrain from taking someone else's.

Cornell! I yell, yell, yell Cornell!
Yea Bo! Some exciting game wasn't it?
It was worth a $10 Major Sport ticket
just to see Fritz Shiverick kick a goal.
Michigan certainly has a pile of pep
and spirit when it comes to cheering, and supporting the team. That's something we girls might be more enthusiastic about -- supporting our teams.
How many folks noticed the Cornell C which was formed by the men in the an who wore capes. Michigan's M was such more conspicuous.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT.

Everything is going so nicely, that we feel quite proud this year. Processors! Keep those Frosh quiet and see what they answer the Phone.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES

Second round of tennis must be played off by 6:00 p.m. tonight. Put name of winner and score on the bulletin board at Sage gym.

THE CLASSES.

317 - Watch Bulletin for date of "Senior Stunt for Freshmen."
320 - Everybody who can, go to the
W. C. A. picnic tomorrow night.
You'll have a dandy time.

BULLETIN

Meeting of Bulletin Staff Monday
at Sage Blue Drawing Room at 5:15 sharp.
This meeting calls for the day editors
and the business manager.

Any one who who has not been receiving her bulletin, please inform Miss McCott. Will the girls who have not

Y. W. C. A.

This is the World's Week of Prayer.
Short prayer services will be held every evening this week at 7:30 in Risley Organization room, Sage Reading room and at the outside houses.
Important. Cabinet meeting is postponed until Thursday at 5. Large Cabinet be sure and come as Mr. Whitehair will speak.

SOCIETY NEWS.

The Mewsikol Clubs Concert and Army Skip was a great success. Over $10 was realized for dormitory fund.

WAYSIDE AFTERMATH.

An open meeting will be held Saturday night at eight o'clock in Risley Organization room. Prof. Sturgis will talk on "Spanish America".

The Senior Agg Dance will be held Friday night at Sage Gymnasium. Admission $.25.

CHURCH NOTES.

Annual reception for Students at Presbyterian Church Friday evening, Nov. 17th.