VOL. II NO XL

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

Dec. 4, 1916

Wouldn't the Cornell-Penn football game have been exciting if 250 of the 6000 students in the University had been present at the game to sing and cheer for Cornell, and show their loyalty to the Big Red Team! It could justly be said that Cornell spirit was lacking. Yet exactly that proportion of the girls turned out to witness the Hockey Finals, Saturday. The girls who did go down did their best to inspire their teams to play a good game but the yells and songs of a few can never equal those of a crowd.

Hockey is over and Basket Ball is next on the program. We hope that all the classes will be represented with teams in that sport. Also that they will receive the support and backing of their respective classes.

HOCKEY.

The hockey game Saturday resulted in a victory for the Sophomores. Score, Sophomores 2, Juniors 0.

This brings the credits for Athletic Championship up to date.

Sophomores	5
Juniors	3
Seniors	0
Freshmen	0
