

The Cornell Bulletin

V GRAHAM

ED-IN-CHIEF

R WOLCOTT, BUSINESS MANAGER.

ASSOCIATE EDITORS.

M. HESS.

E. REIGART.

A. QUINLAN.

M. BILBY

E. STUFFLEBEAM.

E. HIEBER.

DL II NO XLIV

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR Dec. 7, 1916

George Charles Boldt, chairman of the Committee on Buildings and Grounds of the board of Trustees died in New York City, Dec. 5. He is best known to Cornell Students as the man who has done so much to further carrying to completion the plans of the new University Residential Halls.

DRAMATIC CLUB.

The play "The Glow of Yeddo" is to be run next Monday night as planned. Members may invite a man. Tickets for the men can be obtained from R. Conklin in Risley and A. Smith in Sage. Others pay at the door.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT.

The Mass Meeting and the dinner of the executive committee are postponed indefinitely, because of the death of Mr. George C. Boldt.

The Faculty Reception has also been postponed.

REVIEW.

Editorial Competition: All members of the 1919 and 1920 classes interested in the literary department of the Review please leave names in the Risley Reading Room on the Review desk. The competition is open to late entries until Friday at 6 p.m.

Meeting of the circulation committee in the Risley Reading Room at 2:15 p.m., today.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

Basket ball practice,

Thursday 3-4 p.m.

Fresh and Sophs 3-3:30 p.m.

Juniors and Seniors 3:30-4 p.m.

Play hour will be held at the Armory Tuesday evening, Dec. 12, at 7:30 p.m.

All freshmen and sophomores are required to attend for gym credit unless specifically excused before that evening.

By the end of next week, all girls out for basketball are required to have at least twelve practices to her credit. See your manager and find out whether or not you have any practices to make up.

Coaches for Basket Ball.

Seniors - Mr. Maynard.

Juniors - Mr. White

Sophomores - Mr. Sundell

Freshmen - Mr. Young.

These same coaches will take charge of baseball in the Spring and of course, they are all betting on their own team. So everybody out and work hard.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

The Social Science Club meeting for this week is cancelled because of President Schurman's address.

DIXIE CLUB.

Important meeting at 5:15 Friday. Notice later of where to meet. Save the date and be sure to come.

KEPURAI

Business meeting in the E. A. Building Thursday, Dec. 7, at 4:30 p.m.

There are twenty four girls who have incomplete registration because they have not handed in the registration coupon which was to be taken to the office of the Advisor of Women. Please hand in these cards at once.

Study cards also must be filled out and filed "within two weeks after registration." How prompt are you?

CORNELL ANNUALS.

All women of the class of 1918 interested in work on the Cornell Annuals meet in Risley Reading Room at 2 p.m., today. A competition will be run, the winner to act as the women's editor of the Annuals, for the year 1917-18. The position is entitled to ten points under the Student Government system.

ADVERTISEMENT.

When you need writing paper, go to the Co-op. Papereries of paper make nice presents.