

The Cornell Bulletin

V. GRAHAM

ED-IN-CHIEF

R. WOLCOTT, BUSINESS MANAGER

A. HESS.

M. ZINE

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

E. REIGANT

L. STUFFLEBEAM

A. QUINLAN

E. KIEBER

VOL II NO 17

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

Dec. 21, 1916

This is Thursday's last chance to say

MERRY CHRISTMAS

to you, so we say it now with a right good will.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

The Sports and Pastimes Association voted $10.00 to the War Relief Fund at their meeting yesterday.

Sophie Harvith, '18 has been elected to the Bulletin Staff in place of Alice Quinlan. Her assistants are Elizabeth Glover '20 and Helen Wichelns '20.

The list has gone up to fourteen "stay-overs" for the Christmas vacation. Today is your last chance to let Santa Claus know you'll be here.

REVIEW

Emily Schultze will be in the Review office today from 4-5 p.m. to have personal interviews with all of the 1919-1920 Editorials compets.

A meeting of the Board will be held this afternoon at 5 p.m. in the Review office.

INFIRMARY LIST.

Joanna Donlon Aarts 1918
Louise Grandin Arts 1918
Joanna Dieckman Arts 1920.

The Alumnae have put out a "Sandwich book", containing ninety-nine sandwich recipes, that every one really should have. They are twenty-five cents each, the proceeds to go toward the new dormitory fund.

Dorothy Hieber, 336 Risley, has charge of selling them.

SOCIAL SCIENCE CLUB.

The Social Science Club has gone out of existence but a new literary club has been formed by those who were interested in it. Professor Sampson addressed the club at their first meeting last Saturday. It was decided to have a defined membership, and to discuss authors, plays, and stories. Professor Sampson closed the meeting by reading the "Land of Heart's Desire" by Yeates. Meetings are to be held every Saturday at 5 p.m. with an open meeting once a month.

A. T. A.

Christmas is coming, prelims too. If the rush has tired you, you need a restful evening in front of the open fire. Thursday evening between 7:30 and 10 p.m., A. T. A. will hold its Christmas meeting in Risley Organization Room. It will be very informal, so bring your knitting and tatting. Spread the news to all the outside girls.

Will all of the girls who have any clothes for the George Junior Christmas box please have them in by tonight?

ADVERTISEMENT.

Are any of your friends collecting Souvenir spoons? Those sold at the Co-op are solid silver. Look at the cups and saucers too.

It's getting late and the Co-op is conveniently located. Books, writing paper and Cornell things.