

The Cornell Bulletin

V GRAHAM

ED-IN-CHIEF

R WOLCOTT, BUSINESS MANAGER.

ASSOCIATE EDITORS.

A. HESS.

H. REINHOLD

S. H. RYTH

H. FIFE

T. STUFFELMAN

E. HIESER

OL. II NO

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

Jan. 16, 1917.

PAGEANT.

Y. W. C. A.

The Women's Dramatic Club has forfeited its annual production at the Lyceum Theatre in the interests of the Pageant.

We, of the Committee extend a vote of thanks to the Dramatic Club Council. We are sure the Pageant will be a tremendous success with their expert assistance and co-operation.

If this organization has done this much, what are you going to give up to insure the Pageant's success?

!!!

On Friday night
'Twill be a sight
To watch the Fresh
In all their fright.

OUR HEALTH.

Today there are no women students in the Infirmary. That is encouraging and speaks well for their hardiness this cold weather. Maintain the standard and row with the aid of the health lectures of Dr. Matzke each week, we shall have no excuse to patronize the Infirmary.

BASKETBALL.

Mon. 5:30 - Juniors
Tues. 5:30 - Seniors
Thurs. 5:30 - Sophomores
Fri. 5:30 - Freshmen.

Attendance at these practices is compulsory. Games will be held: -
Jan 29, Jan. 31, and Feb. 3.

CLASSES.

1917 - Class meeting Tuesday night, immediately after dinner. Everybody eat at Sage. Wear your caps and gowns. Important meeting though short.

1918 - Every Sophomore is to take part in the Hades hazing so please get your costume, made. If you are too busy, to make one, you can borrow one from an upper class girl. Get a costume!

1919 - Hade Stunt Rehearsal Tuesday evening 7:00, Risley Recreation Room.

Student prayer meeting at 5:15 in Barnes Hall, Tuesday. Everyone is invited to spend this quiet half-hour with us.

Muriel Edith Dalzell, speaker.

DIXIE CLUB.

There will be a party today at 4:30 in Risley Recreation Room. All members are cordially invited. This meeting is for the reception of new members. Good time, be there.

LITERARY CLUB.

Literary Club will hold its meeting this week January 20 at 5 o'clock in the Risley Organization Room. Stories and poems by Edgar Allan Poe will be read.

Frigga Fylgæ entertainment tonight in the Home Economic Auditorium at 8:00. The Misses Henry and Blackstone will speak. Refreshments served. All come.

BULLETIN.

Board meeting tomorrow, Wednesday, office of Dean of Women.

ADVERTISEMENT.

At last we have secured some good twenty-five cent swimming caps made of rubber. See what the Co-op sells.