STUDENT GOVERNMENT.

There will be an Executive Committee Meeting Tuesday at five o'clock in Risley Organization Room. Important meeting, so be prompt.

There will be a meeting of the Presidents of Organized Houses Tuesday at 5 o'clock in Barnes Hall. Very important.

BULLETIN COMPETITION FOR BUSINESS MANAGER.

Heretofore, the president of Sports and Pastimes Council has been business manager of the Bulletin. It has been decided to make the business manager a separate officer who should also be a representative to the Athletic Council.

A two weeks competition for this position will start Tuesday. It is open to all Juniors who have passed the physical examination. Directions for the competition will be given out at 5 p.m. today in the Risley Reading Room (2nd floor) Hand your name to R. Wolcott 322 Risley if you cannot attend.

If you have fifty cents buy a season ticket to the Basketball games. If you only have twenty-five cents, buy a single ticket. We want every girl out to the games. Remember the class which sells the largest number of tickets gets two points toward the Athletic Championship. The class, selling the next largest number gets one point.

We always win at basket-ball
Basket-ball, basket-ball
We always win at basket-ball
Except the times we lose -
And if by chance we lose a game
Lose a game, lose a game,
And if by chance we lose a game
We never get the blues. Seniors.
