ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

Student Government.

1920. F.23

At the Student Government meeting of the Junior and Senior classes last night the following recommendations were made:-
Recommended, that a judiciary committee be formed.

Committee to consist of two seniors, President of Student Government and two juniors.

The president of the house, or outside house in which the girl resides who is brought before the committee shall be present at the discussion but shall not vote. The Advisor of women shall be an ex-officio member but shall not vote.

The members shall be nominated by student body and elected by ballot by the Executive Committee. The two juniors shall be elected at the beginning of their junior year and shall remain on during their senior year.

This committee shall be purely judicial and not executive in its powers. It will conflict in no way with house committees and will simply handle cases of serious infringement of rules which are now brought before Executive Committee.

Further details of the meeting will be given in Saturday's Bulletin.

Girls of 1920, come, we want you all Saturday night at seven, in Conservatory Hall.

YOU know - the Freshman Banquet -
You've heard of it, of course,
And if you fail to come to it,
You'll die of deep remorse.
It's the only Freshman Banquet
To which you'll ever go,
And when you think this over,
You'll decide to come, I know.
Be loyal to your class, girls,
For 'twill be worth your while,
It's a regular affair, girls,
With eats and fun and style.
Be at the Freshman Banquet,
Girls of 1920, all,
Saturday night at seven
In Conservatory Hall.

Girls, we want you all to come. Some of you have promised to "decide later" about coming, and possibly some of you haven't been interviewed, but do resolve that the Freshman class shall not be poorly represented at its banquet because of your absence. 110 tickets have been sold but there should be more. Be patriotic and you will be happy. See or telephone one of the following girls before Saturday morning about your ticket:-

Carol Strong- Risley.
Alice Callahan- Sage.
Alice Helen Case- Sage.

Review.

Girls will be given a splendid opportunity to see the play-side of their instructors at 5 o'clock on Thursday, Mar. 8, when a number of members of the faculty will present an entertainment for the Review. The 25 cents paid for admission will bear rich rewards - you will be the wiser, the Review the richer, and the world in general the happier.

Effey Riley '18, has been chosen Managing Editor of the Review to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Florence Boochever.

Will members of the Board of Directors and Board of Editors and Managers reserve Tuesday, March 6 at 5 o'clock for a joint meeting?
