EDITORIAL

The Cercle Francais has announced a Reunion for Wednesday, Feb. 28 abt 8:15 in the West Dome of Barnes Hall. Besides the talk on, "Impressions of Paris" by Prof. Lawrence Pumpelly, the program will include a violin solo by W.K. Hofeller '20. The most important part to the undergraduate, of the evening's entertainment, is the informal conversation to take place at the conclusion of the program, arranged. Every effort is being made to make this a real "reunion". All interested in French have an opportunity to show their enthusiasm in support of this new club and to help make it a success.

VOCATIONAL CONFERENCES

The committee of the Vocational Conference for Women has the pleasure to announce an appropriation of 150 dollars by the University for the purpose of carrying on the project of the committee. Plans are now under way for the conferences. The arranged program will be announced as soon as it is completed.

HEALTH LECTURES

After a brief review of the main points considered in her last lecture, January 29, Dr. Matzke yesterday continued the subject of Social Hygiene.

PAGEANT

The Pageant committee meeting announced for Thursday afternoon, has been cancelled.

CLASSES.

All Sophomores on Hockey Team will meet at the White studio 2:15 p. m., Saturday March 3, to have their pictures taken. Take gym suits and hockey sticks with you.

INFIRMARY.

Again there are no women students in the Infirmary. It would seem that the prophecy in the issue January 16, has been fulfilled.

DRAMATIC CLUB.

Tryouts for the two new plays are to be held in the Risley Recreation Room Wednesday evening, Feb. 28. Special opportunitites for new material; girls needed for all kinds of characters. Everybody out!

The Cornell Women's Dramatic Club is to give in the Vaudeville a la mode a one-act comedy, "The Kleptomaniac." Gertrude Huth '17 is coaching the play. The cast will be announced later.

Y. W. C. A.

Miss Robinson, secretary of the Student Volunteer movement, will give an illustrated lecture on India, Tuesday at 7:15 in Barnes. She has been a teacher in Lucknow College India, and is only temporarily in America. Her lecture promises to be very interesting. All women students may attend. After the lecture, the members of the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet and the Extension Committee will give a party in Barnes for the Loyalty Club and for the girls of the Inlet. The girls of the Hill are cordially invited.

After prayer meeting Wednesday a party will be held for the Methodist girls to meet Miss Robinson.

Any girl desiring a conference with Miss Robinson may obtain one by stopping at Barnes during the day, Wednesday.
