PAGEANT.

Have you seen the Nymph Dance in the Pageant? If you have you know how beautiful it is. Imagine it beneath electric and flood lights at night! You will really see the dances in that way, for the pageant is to be given Saturday evening, May 19, as well as Friday afternoon, May 18. The University electrician has given a very moderate estimate for the lighting. The apparatus will be brought from Syracuse and the University is to supply the current. The orchestra, the pageant scene, the exits and the entrances, etc., will be lighted. The effect in the dances and such scenes as the Italian Market Place and the Indian Camping Grounds can be readily imagined and the whole dramatic effect of the pageant will be considerably heightened. To add to this, active work is beginning on the costumes and special effort is being made to make them look well in the flood lights. In a few days the machines will be in the Organization Room which is being devoted to this work and will be fixed as permanent head-quarters for the Costume Committee.

Last night there was a meeting of the Freshman class at which the campaign for the selling of pageant post cards, posters and "stickers" was laid out. The entire Freshman class has been organized into a large committee whose work shall be to sell 5000 post cards. To do this they must have the co-operation of the other classes. It is up to the girls to buy these posters and cards. Send the postals to all your friends. Use them to write notes home. Be sure to put a sticker on every envelope and package. You can buy them from any Freshman who is showing pageant spirit.

Freshmen in Sage, get your supplies from Eleanor George or Marion Irish; in Wisley from Dorothy Dodd or Elizabeth

May we suggest that if every girl could buy 25 postals, half the number could be sold?

Monday night Dr. Matzke entertained at dinner at the University Club. The guests included Pres. and Mrs. Schurman, Prof. and Mrs. Kimball, Dr. Starke and the members of Ex Com. It was to make Pres. Schurman acquainted with some of the women.
