

The Cornell Bulletin

Cu Ruple

ED-IN-CHIEF E. HICKER '18

BUSINESS MANAGER

Ass't M. BATER '19

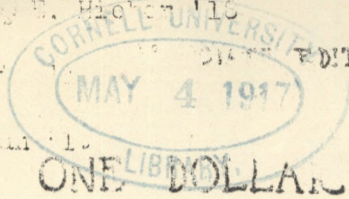

S. H. ...

EDITORS

entley '18

... '19

E. ... '20

VOL. II NO

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

May 4, 1917.

EDITORIAL.

Y. W. C. A.

Even the spring fever and the war have upset the peaceful run of events, and the pageant is requiring a great deal of time and energy, regular outdoor activities should not be forgotten. The baseball games are scheduled to be played in four weeks. What where are the teams? Seniors and Sophomores will lose by default as the case stands now. It seems to run in the family. Cheer up! It is never too late to play ball. We won't have baseball laid on the shelf the way field day was, if some more candidates will only appear. Show your spirit by reporting at the Baseball field any afternoon at 4:30.

The girls who bring their lunches up on the hill may eat in the Y. W. C. A. room. Drop in for a little rest before class at any time.

Miss Inez Waite will be in the Y.W.C.A. room nearly every morning to see any girls who are interested in getting a job for the summer. She is rooming at Mrs. Kerr's on Oak Street during her stay in Ithaca.

The Eightweeks Club are going to have a houseparty over Sunday at Prof. Moler's cottage on the lake near Glenwood. Twelve girls are going. We predict a good time for them if the sun does not economize its strength too much. If it does -- Br - r - r!

PAGEANT.

All costumes must be called for, paid for and taken away from the Organization Room by Saturday, May 12.

The Woodford Stage will take place in Farnes Hall tonight at 8 p. m. Marion Hess as one of the speakers offers "A Challenge to the Girl of Today." The public is invited.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES .

E. Reigart was elected manager of the Sophomore baseball team and E. Faulhaber manager of the Freshman team.

There will be a make-up in Crew Friday at 12:00 in Sage Gym.

CHURCH NOTICE.

There will be a corporate communion of all Episcopal girls at St. John's Church on Sunday, May 6, at 8 A. M.

DRAMATIC CLUB.

Joanna Donlon has withdrawn from the nominations, so Dagmar Schmidt is elected President of the Dramatic Club.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

The Pageant Issue of the Cornell Review is expected from the publishers today. It tells the history of the Pageant and what it will mean to us. There are a number of special pictures of the cast taken in costume. A copy of the Review sent to your friends will help convince them they want to come.

When your friends are leaving, you will want to keep their addresses. A suitable book can be bought at the Co-op.

Reserve your seats for your friends now from the Co-op or Corner Book Store. The Pageant is only two weeks from today.

White Sport Shoes and Oxfords made of nu-buck, a leather that wears well and is simply and easily cleaned.

The soles are the flexible fabric or Neolin. The last is the popular round toe. Dressy, cool and comfortable.

Prices $4.00, $5.00 and $6.00.

Canvas shoes $4.00 and $5.00.

Rothschild Brothers.

P A G E A N T R E H E A R S A L S .

Golden Fairies - 5:15 in Risley Recreation Room - Friday - today.
Fireflies - 5:30 in Risley Recreation Room - Friday - today.
Italian Scene - 7:15 p. m. Sage - Friday - today.

SATURDAY A. M.

Semiramus - 8:30 a. m. at Risley Court tomorrow.
Prologue - 9:00 a. m. in Risley Recreation Room - tomorrow.
Knights - 9:00 a. m. in Risley Recreation Room - tomorrow.
Italian Scene - 9:30 a. m. at Risley Court - tomorrow.
Abbess Hildegard - 10:30 a. m. at Risley Court tomorrow.
The Virtuous Woman - 11:30 at Risley Court - tomorrow.
Nymphs - 12:00 noon in Risley Recreation Room tomorrow.