need is from the start, adopting the site of the old bridge first, and from that point on to the end.

As you probably know, the original bridge built by Theodore Burr in 1817 is still standing, that is, the West end of it.

Yours Truly,

Henry M. Comstock Jr.